LEVI CLEVELAND. June 21, 1811.

Estray Mare.

TAKEN up as a stray, sometime in May last, by the subscriber, living near the Rock's Ferry, on the Shenandoah river, A Sorred Mare, supposed to be 9 or 10 years old, about 15 hands high, and blind of the left eye-no perceivable mark or brand except a small white spot on her rump. Appraised to 35 JOHN MOORE.

June 21, 1811.

A Tan-Yard for Sale.

THE subscriber has for sale a valuable TAN YARD with all necessary buildings for dwelling and carrying on the business of Tanning in the town of Charlestown, Jefferson County, Virginia. For terms apply to the subscriber, living in said Town.

JOHN DIXON.

June 21, 1811.

20 Dollars Reward.

named Charles, who probably may call hending and securing said apprentice himself Charles Sims. He is a dark in any jail in the United States, and mulatto, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and well made, about 35 years above reward and all reasonable chargof age, small eyes and thin face; his es paid, if brought home. It is very clothing is such as field negroes gene- probable that he is lurking about Harrally wear at this season of the year. The above reward will be given for securing him in any jail so that I get him again, and all reasonable expenses if delivered to me in the lower end of Fauquier county, state of Virginia, on WILLIAM FOOTE.

June 21, 1811.

JOHN WOLTZ,

CLOCK & WATCH-MAKER, INFORMS the public that he has commenced the above business in Shepherd's Town, next door to Mr. James Brown's store, and opposite to Mr. Robert Russel's saddler's shop, where he hopes from his long experi-conduct, may rely on getting good acfull satisfaction to all those who may favour him with their custom .- All kinds of watches committed to his care, will be faithfully and punctually repaired. He intends keeping a general assortment of GOLD and SILVER WORK, and a handsome assortment of JEWELRY of every description, which will be disposed of on very low June 7, 1811.

CHEAP GOODS.

NOW opening at the corner Store by the Market-House, in Shepherd's Town-

| The state of the s |   | , ,, , ,, ,, ,, ,, ,,  |
|--|---|--|
|  | Beautiful rich Silks  | Cambric Muslins Lace and Leno dit Calicoes and Gin hams  |
|  | Lace CapsSleeves & Handker-   | Super Extra upefine Cloths and CasimeresCords - VelvetsFirst Chop India Na   |
|  | Damask Table LinensDitto Table ClothsCambric LinensShirting Cambric | keensFresh Teas of a siperior quality, &   |
|  | All milital   | The same of the sa |

New York and Philadelphia Markets pre vious to the late high advance in the price of Goods. In consequence that no more Goods can be admitted into the United States from England, under the late law of Congress, it is expected that Goods will be extremely SCARCE and HIGH in a short time; many articles have already advanced beyond all expectation.

The present is a favourable opportunity for any person to supply themselves with cheap Goods by the piece or smaller quan-

JAMES S. LANE, BROTHER, & Co. Shepherds Town, June 21, 1811.

N. B. As heretofore a liberal allowance will be made to those who buy to sell again, We have HUGH LONG's warranted SICKLES, and WALDRON's prime Cradling and Grass SCYPHES, and almost every other article the F .rmer may want.

BLANK DEEDS FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE. Wool Carding Mill.

to do better work than usual on fingle | very black. been considerable, the public may le-pend on having the wool which navbe sent to this mill completely carded— taloons filled with blue yarn. The price will be for wool that is sent | Stephen, a tall fellow, 6 feet high, a No wool will be received without hav- fast and impudent. ing the sticks, straws and burgeut off,

EDWARD A. GBBS, JOHN HOGELIND.

Thirty Dollars Reward. RAN AWAY some time in April last, from the subscriber living in Ballimore, an apprentice by to the Blacksmith's business named GEORGE SPANGLER, about 17 years old, 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high, light sandy hair, his foreteeth very broad, and has a scar on the top of his head. As he has been absent a considerable time, it is thought unnecessary RAN AWAY from the subscriber to describe his clothing. Twenty ddon the 18th inst. a negro man lars reward will be given for appregiving me information thereof, and the per's Ferry, as his parents reside pear

> ISAAC SPANGLER. N. B. All persons are forewarded prentice at their peril. May 24, 1811.

A Miller Wanted.

WILL give immediate employment to a miller who understands his business, and comes well recommended for his sobriety, industry and attention to business-No other need apply. A man somewhat advanced in age, who can gain the confidence of his employer and his customers, by his uniformity of commodations, with very extraordinary wages, at Muse's Mill, on Long Marsh, Jefferson county, Virginia. TH. W. BARTON.

May 10, 1811.

Removal.

THE subscriber has removed his Store to the house lately occupied as a Store by Messrs. James & R. Fulton, and formerly by capt. Hammond, where he has just received a handsome assortment of SPRING GOODS, well suited to the present and approach ng season; amongst which are 6.4 & 4.4 Cambrick Muslin Ditto do Leno Irish Linens Vesting . Carraderrys Seersuckers

Habit ditto Fancy Shawls Dresses, Silks and Ribbons With a complete assortment of GROCERIES QUEENS & POTTERS WARE.

WHISKEY and HERRINGS, by He returns his sincere thanks to his friends and the public for past favors, and respectfully solicits a continuance. MOSES WILSON. Charlestown, May 24, 1811.

Four Cents per Pound VILL BE GIVEN AT THIS OFFICE FOR CLEAN LINEN AND COTTON RAGS.

WRITING PAPER For sale at this Office.

100 Dollars Reward.

THE subscribers will have in operation at Mr. Beeler's mill; (cm- lour Negro Men, one named which will be filled with cotton cards a light grey cloth coat, buckskin pantafor finishing, which will enable them loons, and half boots-said negro is

And as the experience of Mr. Hoge- vears of age, very black, 5 feet 6 inches land, who will have the direction, has high; took with him a number of well cleaned and greased eight cents little cross-eyed-had on when he went per pound—if sent without picking and away blue pantaloons, blue waistcoat, ant, John Stip, until the further order this greasing ten cents per pound, and the drab coloured coat-took with him a court usual quantity of grease sent with it. | number of clothes not recollected, talks

Sawny, about 48 or 50 years of age, as they spoil the work and hin the vellow complexion, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high; took with him a number of clothes not recollected, except a gray coat and buckskin pantaloons. One hundred dollars will be given for the four negroes, or 25 dollars for each, and all reasonable charges paid. It is not known the cause of their going away, as neither of them have received a stripe. It is believed they have obtained passes for some time, by some

> JAMES S. BATE. Jefferson county, Kentucky, April 14, 1811.

N. B. Tom, Lewis and Sawny were of my selections made last monthin formerly the property of Mr. Beverly Whiting, of Jefferson county, Va. and Stephen formerly the property of Mr. that are really very low, for cash, orn Thomas M'Cormick, of Frederick punctual customers. I have on hands

50 DollarsReward. RANAWAY on Saturday the instant, from the subscriber, living AN AWAY on Saturday the first in Jefferson county, Virginia, near the Opeckon, a Negro Man named

FOHN, well known by the name of Waggoner from employing or harboring said ap- John, about 36 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, dark complexion; one of his feet something thicker than the other, and the upper part of it much scarified; his clothing not recollected, except two new home made shirts.

Fifteen dollars will be paid for apprehending and securing said negro within twenty miles from home, and it fifty miles, the above reward, and reasonable charges if brought home.

ADAM S. DANDRIDGE. June 11, 1811.

May Court, 1811. Martin Entler, Plaintiff,

The executors, administrators, or other legal representatives of Cornelius Wyncoop, deceased, and Rawleigh Defendants. IN CHANCERY.

THE defendants, the executors, administrators, or other legal representatives of Cornelius Wyncoop, deceased, not having entered their appearance and given security according to the act of assembly and the rules of this court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that they are not inhabitants of this commonwealth: On pository for two months successively, the motion of the plaintiff by his coun- and posted at the court house door of sel, it is ordered that the said defendants do appear here on the fourth Monday in August next, and answer the bill of the plaintiff, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Farmer's Repository for two months Ladies' Extralong Silk & KidGloves | successively, and posted at the court house door of said county. And it is HE subscribers have removed their further ordered, that the defendant Rawleigh Morgan do not pay any cross street leading to the ferry, where debts by him due to the other defend- they are now receiving and opening ants, or convey away or secret any effects in his hands belonging to the said defendants until the further order of this court.

A copy. Teste, GEO. HITE, Clk. June 14.

Stone Masons and Labourers wanted.

THE subscriber will give employ-ment to eight or ten Masons and Labourers, from this time to the end of the season. One dollar per day will be given to Masons, and Ten dollars per month to Labourers,

JOHN WILKINS. Charles-Town, Jefferson county, Virginia, May 3, 1811.

Jefferson County, to wit.

June Court, 1811 David Harry, John Stip, and John Stip, june. D.Pts.

THE D. fendant John Stip not having en. tered his appearance and given secuthe rules of this court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that he is not an inhabitant of this Commonwealth: On the motion of the Plaintiff by his counsel, it is ordered that the said Defendant do appear nere on the fourth Monday in August no and answer the bill of the Plaintiff, and a copy of this order be forthwith inserted the Farmer's Repository for two month ther ordered that the Defendant I has so away, or secreting the debts by him oring to, or the effects in his hands of the defend

A copy. Teste, GEO. HITE, Ck

CANTON CRAPES.

4 4 plain silk lace, damask silk shawls. silk lace handkerchiefs and caps, sarsinets, black Florentines, ladies' extra silk and kid gloves, habit wash lather and kid gloves, super super chiarz and calicoes, cotton hosiery, leno and cambrick muslins completely assorted, a large assortment of superfine cloths and cassimeres, India and patent nankeens, stockincts, cotton cassimeres, Irish linens and shirting cottons, ladies' fashionable Morocco shoes, China cof. fee cups, tea cups and saucers, fresh teas, &c. The above comprise a pan Philadelphia, which was a cash purchase, and are now offered on term punctual customers. I have on hands usual, patent and other medicines. queen's, glass, and tin ware, whisker, spirits, wines, paints, bar iron and Crowley steel, cut and hammered nails. castings, loaf and brown sugars, molasses, coffee, rice, pearl barley, &c. and shall receive in a few days, a further supply of silks and other fancy goods from Philadelphia, all of which will be sold on the most pleasing terms, W. W. LANE.

Charlestown, June 14.

Jefferson County, ss. A pril Court, 1811. Henry Haines, Rebecca Ridgeway, Thomas Lasenby and Sally his wife, late Sally Ridgeway, Robert Lasenby and Margery his wife, late Margery Ridgeway, Edward Ridgeway & Joseph Ridgeway, heirs of John Ridgeway, dec'd, and William Tate, IN CHANCERY.

THE defendants Thomas Lasenby and Sally his wife, Robert Lasenby and Margery his wife, Edward Ridgeway and Joseph Ridgeway not having entered their appearance & given security according to the act of assembly and the rules of this court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that they are not inhabitants of this commonwealth: On the motion of the plaintiff by his counsel, it is ordered that the said defendants do appear here on the fourth Monday in August next, and answer the bill of the plaintiff, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Farmer's Rethe said county.

A copy. Teste, GEO. HITE, Clk. June 14.

REMOVAL.

store to the south corner of the A HANDSOME SUPPLY OF SPRING GOODS, Charles Town, July 5, 1811. which with their former stock makes their assortment quite complete, all of which they are determined to sell on as low terms as any other person.

They feel grateful for past favours, and return their sincere thanks to their friends and customers, and solicit a further continuance of a part of public pa-

PRESLEY MARMADUKE, & Co. Shepherd's Town, May 10, 1811.

A Fuller Wanted. CONSTANT employ and good wages will be given to a sober, industrious Fuller, who understands his business. Enquire of the Printer. June 14.

FARMER'S REPOSITORY.

CHARLES TOWN, (fefferson County, Virginia,) PRINTED BY RICHARD WILLIAMS.

Vol. IV.]

FRIDAY, JULY 12, 1811.

, [No. 172.

in any way; it would give immediate and of ctual relief to merchants and manufacur rs, while it would give comfort to the piness among those who are smarting under

Sinclair should tell me, that this is a fool sh

cheme, and that in taking mon y out of die cy of their means, I am acting contrary to Il the sound principles of political occono-ny, . beg leave to ask, whether this is not as casonable as it would be to take money out of the taxes to give to the rich to make up or the inadequacy of their means, especial-let him find out a better; and, till that be

New-York, July 1.

LIST OF LETTERS the Post-Office, Charles- Town, on the 30th of June, 1811.

ohn Berry, J. N. Blair, Z. Buckster, William Brown, John W. Bell, eph Bond, Edmond Beall, Thomas

Robert Carter, Alex. Caldwell, Mararet Cooke, Robert Christy, James llark, care of Richard M'Sherry, Frelerick Clipper.

Idmund Downey, James Duke, Marcen Duvall.

Abraham Eversole, Thos. Evans, 3. Robert Ford, 2; Ferdinando Fair-

James Griffith, Isaac Gwynn, Fanv Gibbs, Frances Gwynn, Gabriel P. Greenfield, John Grantt, William

William Heans, John Heiner, Heny Haines, 2; George Hageley, James leath, James Hite, George Hite, Jaob Hite, 2; Naucy Henderson, Mihael Howard, John Hess, Jeremiah Harris, Mark or John Harper.

Lancelot Lee, 2; Joseph E. Lane, Ester Lashells, 2; Thomas Lockhart, George Lafferty, French Lock, John

John M'Bride, Richard M'Sherry, 2, ames M'Kee, Michael Moler, Batsile Muse, Rachael Mappin, Hezeah Maddox.

Samuel Offutt, John D. Orr.

Nelson Powess, Joseph Patterson, thur Patterson.

Ben. Randolph, Robert Read, 2; ohn Read, 2; Samuel Rees, John andolph, John Roberts.

John Sinclair, Franklin Smith, Ma-B. Saunders, Smith Slaughter, Ma-Saunders, John Swayne, William shope, John L. Stubblefield, Jacob Remaining in the Post-Office at Harrider, John Strider, Nicholas Starry, latthias Sly.

John Toland, John Towling, Samuel et, Levi Taylor, Jeremiah Thomp-

Hugh Urquhart.

Thomas White, junr. William Wagoner, Rich Willis, 2; Joseph Wy-ong, Andrew Woods, F. Washington.

John Yates, John Young, Joshua J. HUMPHREYS, P. M. July 1, 1811.

Goffee House and Inn. THE subscriber acquaints his old istomers and the public that he has pened a house of Public Entertaint in the house lately occupied by Cramer, back of the Court House, ere he is provided with every thing cessary for the accommodation of se who may please to call on him. He assures his friends and the pub that nothing shall be wanting on his art to give general satisfaction.

JOHN ANDERSON.

Stray Cow. CTRAYED from the subscriber, in Charles Town, about the 24th of ay last, a fresh Milch Cow, of a red olour, with short crooked horns, four ears old-her marks not recollected. by person giving information where e may be had, will be handsomely warded, and all reasonable expenses aid if brought home.

July 5, 1811. BLANK DEEDS OR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

SAM. FARNSWORTH.

SAMUEL YOUNG,

Watch and Clock Maker, He will keep on hands a general assort- tled to loans (which in the end will be grits!) ment of JEWELLERY, &c.

July 5th, 1,811.

LIST OF LETTERS Remaining in the Post Office at Shepherd's- Town, which, if not taken up within three months from this date, will be sent to the General Post-Office | ed by the sword, in South America, have,

as dead letters. Henry Bedinger, Robert Boyd, Hezekiah Butt, John Bowers. Mary Chapline, Charles Cavender, Nathaniel Cavender.

Thophilus Downs. Philip Engle, Leonard Emerson.

Milly Goodwin.

Jonathan Hill, Margaret Hoffman, James Hogeland. Robert Kerney, William Kerney.

Thomas Lee. Mary MiCann, James Millwrath,

Vincent Moore. Rev. John Price.

Mathias Rouds, John Robertson, William Richstine.

Zadock Shanton, Daniel Sorter, 2; fore, was no one to find fault of it? Must Philip Schoppert, 2.

Mary Turner, Anthony Turner, for folly and vice of all sorts, and would Daniel Turney, Joseph Thompson. Garrot Wynkoop, Casper Walpert, 2. but, at any rate, I have now my remedy, per's Ferry, 1st. July. John Bramhall, Catharine Bryson, Thomas Bell, of Geo.

JAS. BROWN, P. M. July 1, 1811.

LETTERS

Maryann Chambers. -Levi Hall, John Haifer, James Har-

John Kraps. Nathan Litler.

Jesse Moore, Doctor Mills. Jacob Strider, George Sites, James

R. HUMPHREYS, P. M.

CAUTION.

3. Smith, Christopher Sryer.

HE subscriber having sustained Talk of national prosperity. They are L considerable injury from persons trespassing on his land, hereby cautions the public from passing through his farm, or entering his enclosures, particularly his orchard, upon any pretence whatsoever, as he is determined to prosecute every person detected in iolating this notice.

THOMAS HAMMOND.

CAUTION.

WHEREAS my wife Mary has left my bed and board without any just cause or provocation, this is to forewarn all persons from crediting her on my account, as I am determined to pay no debts of her contracting from | would go hand in hand. Here would be 12 this date. And all persons are cau- millions of meney laid our! But it would tioned against harbouring her at their | not he thrown away; it would not be sunk it

LEVI CLEVELAND. June 21, 1811.

Mr Cobbett, commenting in a late num TNFORMS the inhabitants of Charles | Perceval, to relieve the merchants by a I Town and its vicinity, that he in- Dan, UNTIL NEW MARKETS could be or tends commencing the above business pend, animadverts with uncomm n porgin Charles Town on the first of August. He argues, that, if the merchants are entinancy and force on the affirs of England. for losses, and embarrassments by overtrad ing-the 1760 bankrupts proclaime in the Gaz tie last year and the 3000 in this, are

The opinions and facts thrown out in the owing extracts from this essay must be and have, we not backs enough too for our cloth, and houses for the furniture !- The read r needs no more. His eyes are open ed in a moment. Light bursts in upon him from every quarter. He sees all my plan in a moment-ind worders how it came to scape him. He has been looking abroad, coking in foreign lands what was under is now, as I have very often looked about the room for my, pen while it was, in my month. Backs! Are we in want of them

-Look at Ingland; look at Stotland; look at Wales; may, look at many parts of Eng towns where the goods are piled up to the cracking of the war, houses, and see if yo can had no backs to cover! How many these towns does the traveller pass throug vithout being way laid at the entrance an the exit by a swarm of children more than half naked, running and tumbling and bow-ng the prating and crying in the hope, of en disappointed, of obtaining the means of buying an ounce of bread? Enter then weiling places-see misery in all her horrois, nunger, tilth, disease, the blood po oned, and the heart hardened to a flia signs of accumulated, but not of ciffusec property, which rightly understood, is only mother name for the general happiness of he people. ... But, I have been led, I perceive, in mother digression - i'o come back to my ubject, why should not all the goods, which cannot find a market abroad, be disposed of in ciothing the naked at home? A couple or three millions would shot and breech th people of the Hebrides and the Highlands, and twice the sum might clothe the Irish, and about the same as the former might ve in England and Wales. Sugar and coffee though not much known amongst any o persons in my view, would soon teach possessors the use of them. And as t e household furniture, clothing and th use of sugar and coffee, would naturally call for tables and chairs and drawers and hook and crockery ware, and spoons and kettles and locks and keys; and hence the whol the sea; it would not be sent abroad; i it would produce no misery any where; i would occasion nobody to bleed or to suffer would not be swallowed up in distant lands;

and; in k even at those manufacturing means of relieving both rich and poor? At OF A NEW MARKET. my rate, here is my scheme, and, if sir The new markets, which we have gain ohn, or any body else, does not approve it, alas ! as I said they would, proved little lone, let him not laugh." dess fatal than the S uth Sea bubble of im mortal memory; and besides, these mar kets cost so much in the obtaining, that the LATE FOREIGN NEWS. full amount of the goods sold in them, (or rather, carried to them) would not half de-fray the cost of getting the market. I think it must be pretty certain, that four times as LATEST FROM PORTUGAL. much money has been sent hence to th Brazils and to Spanish America as has Defeat of the French near and at Alcome back in payment for goods .- As to meida, which was taken by the Allied SUGAR colonies, we have been taking them. ili we know not what to do with the pro luce, and may exclaim with the coppe On Saturday evening arrived at this cipiain; "haste, haste, let us hence ! I an ort, the schooner Virginia-Planter, like the people in the sweet island; if ! Henderson, from Oporto, which port stay here I me!" New markets then we she left on the 19th of May, and on can have none, unless in return for sugar that day captain Henderson received and coffee which we cannot much longer tind room, we send out manufactures and the following news in a manuscript cocloth; the negroes. This brings me a py, from his consignees; and has poonce to my project of a new market; a market capacion, convenien, sure, and durable, setting Napoleon and all the world at definince. I have often been reproached litely furnished the Editors of the Mercantile Advertiser with it. with pointing out evils, and not, at the same time pointing out the remedy. This re

"That the French general Bessieres, with 4000 horse and 8000 foot, of the Imperial Guards, having left his infanpro ch is quite unfounded, though very try in the rear to follow, and pushed on catching, and it was always resorted to with his cavalry, and joined Massena during the administration of the first sucat Ciudad Rodrigo on the 2d of May, more," Mr. Addington. But, must we find and on the 3d he advanced to Funtas fault of nothing for which we cannot find a de Onora, and drove in our piquets, afremedy? Who was to find a remedy for ter some smart skirmishing. the Walcheren expedition? Who were to bring the men to life again? And, there-

Gen. Massena's other forces came up on the 4th, and on the 5th the whole no man find fault with the state of the paforce attacked our troops, which conper money, unless we can make g. ld come sisted of the first division, and the 85th back again? This would be a fine security and chasseurs Britanniques. The acsuit the case of a peculator or murderer, as tion lasted the whole day; at night weil as that of any political offinger. Well, both parties rested on their own ground -the 6th and 7th were occupied by and shall, with all becoming deference to the enemy in burying their dead, and removing their wounded. They burithe superior wisdom of the committee pro-"It has been shewn above, that all this ed 3000; and their loss exceeded onimercial distress arises from the want 10,000 men. They left upwards of of a market for our goods; that is to say, 500 dead horses on the field of battle. for sugar and coffee, and for divers articles of wearing appared and household turni-ture; for, as to food, or, as it was called in men. The Chasseurs Britanniques queen Enzabeth's days, vittal, we find behaved remarkably well, as did the none too much of that, having at home abundance of mouths for dispatching it,-Aye

79th regiment .- In fact all behaved ad-The following is a list of some of the officers in the allied army, who have been killed, wounded, &c. Lieut. Col. Cameron, 7th regiment, killed, and ten other officers killed and wounded; 220 men killed. Lt. Col. Harvey, of the 14th dragoons, wounded; capt. Knipe, 14th do. do.; Lt. Bluke, of the 16th do. taken; Capt. Hill, of the 3d Guards, do. Col. Stoddard, do. wounded and taken; Captain E. Harvey, do. do. Capt. Andrews, of the 24th taken; Lt. Ircland; of the 24th, killed; 56 horses of the Royals killed and wounded; 42 men do. do. On the 8th the enemy returned to Ciudad Rodrigo, leaving a small corps in front of Fuentes de Onora. At Badajoz the cannonading commenced on the 7th of May, and on the 9th we completely invested that place, and took Fort Christoval. Almeida was blockaded by the 6th division of the British army. The garrison consisted of from 800 to 1000 men, under Gen. Brenier, and has been

The French do not now occupy any territory in the kingdom of Portugal." fit is supposed the above allied British army was under the command of Marshal Beresford.

VERY LATE FROM ENGLAND Yesterday arrived at this port, the fast sailing ship Elizabeth, Morrison, and a gentleman passenger have obligingly favored the Editors of the Mercantile Advertiser with London papers to the 23d of May, and Liverpool of the 25th, being seven days later than hitherto received.

We learn verbally, that the king was daily growing worse-that the markets in Liverpool for cotton and tobacco, were low and dull sale, that the prospects of a war between Russia and between the armies of Lord Welling. | British infantry.

LONDON, MAY 18. favor of the defendant.

pointment of Mr. Monroe to be Secre- | liberties of Europe. vorable to the amicable adjustment of most brilliant and memorable day, as greatly influenced the Russian Emper- plate, 5000 pounds of gold in bullithe differences between America and soon as possible; and in order that you or: besides which, the determination and jewellery, 3000 silver church ve of Elchingen (Nev) is to be put under | information you may require, from his command in Spain.

MAY 22. but no doubt is entertained of the gene- | heroic deeds.

and Ciudad Rodrigo, a tremendous ac- good conduct of general Castanos, who but thinking that his acceptance might ed to meet the Freech, is stated to ba tion took place, the result of which was acted in concert and planned the action. be deemed a compromise of his rights, b en 25 000 men; of which number 650 that 4000 of the enemy, killed and Nothing indeed can be compared to he rejected it. 700 prisoners taken.

lost 169, including 12 officers: the Albuhera, May 18, 1811. Portuguese regiments were, Nos. 7, 9, 19 and 21, and cacadores 1, 2, 3 and 6; in short, all the troops that were in this glorious action have covered them-

his annual budget on Monday last, and | master. this important day, once the object of | France .- A speech attributed to Bo- | pect the severest punishment."

horse back on the 20th of May. King gasconades of the anti-commercial em- gislative body. He arrived at Valladolid on the 27th munication from the French coast an- lerics, appointing Champagny, the the British horses so much that the with his suite for France.

of May 28.

faction to announce to you that the al. ever expected; on the contrary, it was lied Spanish, British and Portuguese rumored at Paris that a decree would nia, of 18th April, 1811, forwarded by ter, which being justly refused, not a rum have completely and gloriously army have a gloriously army have completely and gloriously army have a gloriously army h beaten, in the camp of Albuhera were picker and gloriously soon appear, subjecting to capital pubeaten, in the camp of Albuhera, yes- nishment any one who should be found | vince of Catalonia. terday the 16th May, the army of the guilty of drawing or negociating a bill The instructions and private orders engaged, it has been a more bloody to the engaged, it has been a more bloody to the engaged, it has been a more bloody to the engaged, it has been a more bloody to the engaged. enemy, which was marching under the of exchange upon England. Yet we command of marshal Soult to the relief suppose Ma William Talayers. We have no which I had communicated to the com-

accounts had reached the British go- his projects, and be is rapidly retreat- Bonaparte against commerce." vernment, of a severe battle having ing, pursued by our cavalry, who are Summary of events.—We hear that from the army, which I have ton and Massena, in which the latter We have not gained an easy victory. Ithat Marshal Victor, alarmed by the Praise be to the God of Baules to and Massena, in which the Inter We have not gained an easy victory. were defested with great shughter, The battle has been very obstinate and misfortune which the French arms honor to the brave Carbalans leaving 4000 men on the field of battle, sangainary on both sides; but the loss, have sustained in various parts of the after one o'clock in the more of the enemy greatly exceeds ours .- Peninsula, and deeming his force un- garrison of San Fernando de 16 A letter from Liverpool, dated 24th Their loss is certainly 7000 men. Our equal to a successful prosecution of the was taken by the troops under roll May, mentions that a bill was before army fought for many hours without siege, had determined to abandon it. - vira, joined by some sections of parliament, for increasing the day on giving an inch of ground, which encotton 1d. per lb. and on ashes 4s. and hances the glory of our victory. Soult to 1-1,000 men. 8d. per cwt. and it was thought it would had united extraordinary forces with On Saturday the Anholt mail reach- circumstance, that Roving, to activity proportionate to the grand ob- ed town with papers and letters from the attack, and I had the honor The following are the only articles in ject he had in view. We were equal | Sweden to the 10th inst. A gentle- manding-as soon as I can Kin these papers possessing any interest: in force as to infantry, but his cavalry man who arrived in the packet states, will forward to your excellence and artillery far exceeded ours in num- that previous to his departure, from tailed account of this affair-The cause of sir Francis Burdett, ber; but such was the ardor with which | Stockholm, accounts had been receiv- glorious country this is for our vs. the Speaker of the House of Com- the allied army fought against the com- ed there of all differences between Ros-mons, for committing sir Francis to the mon enemy, their noble emulation to sia and France having been amicably The Marquis of Campo Verde, Tower, was decided on the 17th of distinguish themselves, and the mutual adjusted, & that the former power had Return of the prisoners, stone, May, in the court of King's Bench, in support which they afforded to each in consequence withdrawn a part of her articles taken in Figuerasother, that they defeated 30,000 of the troops which she had assembled on the diers including officers, 100 tyrant's satellites; and such was their | frontiers of Poland. The change which lately took place enthusiasm, that they would have con- The declarations of Austria and large cattle, 1000 knapsacks i in the American councils, by the ap- quered any number, in defence of the Prussia, that, in the case of hostilities muskets, 3500 great coats, 20,000 and the prussia, that, in the case of hostilities muskets, 3500 great coats, 20,000 and 180 great coats, 20,000 and 20 great coats, 20 great coats, 20 great coats, 20 great coats, 20 great c

tary of State, is still thought to be far. I will procure you the details of this French force, is supposed to have pounds of silver in bullion and tall In a Paris paper of the 6th inst. it is ant victory, I send this by my adjutant | peace which had not for its basis the and 3000 watches. stated, that the division of the army | Don Sebastian Llano, who was in the | restoration of Moldavia and Wallachia, lately under the command of the duke | action, and who will give every verbal | would oblige him to employ all his

the orders of the Duke of Ragusa | I want words to convey to you an termination in that quarter. (Marmont.) This appears to us to idea of the intrepidity, courage and The Duke of Ogdenburg, on being and 26 h of May; which state the confirm the long reported recal of Ney good conduct of all the Spanish gene- dispossessed of his territory by the inrals, officers and troops, who, animated justice of Bonaparte, not only protest- between the allied British, Porteguese by the glorious example of their illus- ed against the measure, but published Spanish armies, under the comment Government have as yet received no trious British and Portuguese allies, a farewell address to his subjects, in French army, under mershal Subjects. official confirmation of the defeat of with whom there subsisted the most which he deplores the necessity he was This battle was longht at ALBEVELLE Massena under the walls of Almeida, cordial union, strove to rival them in under of abandoning them for the pre-

JOAQUIN BLAKE.

LIVERPOOL, MAY 22. "We are anxiously expecting fur- opportunity of gratifying his revenge- city. ther particulars of this great event, and | ful disposition. Troops had been pourwhich you will probably get before we | ed into the city, the magistrates were |

Joseph has fled from Spain, for France. peror will not remove. Every com- A decree has issued from the Thuil- ing agitated with the wind, alarm nounces some important failure. In Duke of Cadore, Minister of State. - dragoons could not get within 209 addition to the banking house of Pier- It is not true, therefore, as stated in a of them. From the Cadiz Gazette Extraordinary, lot & Co. we now find the firm of Coos morning paper of this day, that he was "These fellows charged in ton D'Avillers & Co. one of the most res. disgraced by Bonaparte, in conse- threw the British in confusion. Copy of a dispatch from his Excellency pectable in Paris, and which is likely to quence of his having presumed to re- did much damage—they drove the Don Joaquin Blake, to the Council involve many others. The Imperial present to him the difficulties of conti- lances through the bodies of the would of Regency, with an account of the Banker at St. Petersburg, Baron Roll, nuing the war in the Peninsula. glorious and complete victory over and the house of Haselgreen and Co. the enemy commanded by Soult. at Amsterdam, have also failed. No re- OFFICIAL ACCOUNT OF THE this legion hemmed in, and get Most excellent sir - I have the satis- laxation in favor of commerce was how-

France had nearly vanished, and that | Estremadura. But we have defeated | wicked or tyrannical in the decree of | duced a most jet ful day, as the part vernment, of a severe battle having ing, pursued by our cavairy, who are the dispatches brought by the Gleaner, ceived by express, and with the ultimeter of the dispatches brought by the Gleaner, supported by our van guard and some from Cadiz, constenance the statement speed:

taking place, they would join the of clothes, 50,000 pair of shors, 15; may be early informed of this import- of the Porte to listen to no terms of sels, 5000 pounds of Spanish dollars troops to bring the war to a successful sent, and expresses hopes that the me- 16th, 17th and 18th of May. As our ral correctness of the account which I do not wish to particularize those diation of his kinsman, the Emperor of in the 26th corrects some particularize has reached us from Oporto. The fol- who have distinguished themselves, Russia, would be successful in restor- contents of both letters, instead of lowing is a copy of a letter transmitted | lest I should involuntarily give an un- ing him. On account of the strong lan- extracts from each. It appears that by the Clerk of a respectable house in just preference, as all have done their guage in which the address was couch- m rehed from Seville with a force of a the city to his principal in London: | duty-but I cannot pass over in silence | ed, its circulation was forbidden by Ke- 24,000 in order to threw succour into B "Official communication from Governor the extraordinary military merit of his verberg, the Prefect of the Ems, who The nattle is described as exceeding etc. Trant to the acting Governor of O- Excellency Marshal Beresford, gene- also required that those who had co- thing in modern history for desperate for forto, dated May 11.

Tal in chief of the united British and pres should give them op the and the sabre were chieffe used. The on the 5th inst. between Almeida Portuguese troops, and the superior was offered a pension by Bonaparte; force with which mershall Berestord mark ral in chief of the united British and | pies should give them up. The duke | ing and consequent staughter. It wounded, remained on the field, and | the intelligence, activity and valor of | The French general Rufin, who was | guese, and 4 500 Sparish; the remained marshal Beresford, whose example ani- made prisoner at Barrosa, expired on "The regiments that most distin- mated the troops and led them on to | board the Gorgon ship of war, on Wedguished themselves on this glorious victory. God preserve your Excellen- nesday, off St. Helens: he had spent | prisoners were made on other side) w day were the 71st British, though they | cy many years. From the camp at | the day in good spirits, expressing his | immense; the British I wis side have a satisfaction at arriving in England, and | m unted to 4000, the Peruguse the same his escape from the Spaniards.

LONDON, MAY 22. A letter has been received from Pa- | ry were all killed (in consequence it was Holland .- The late effervescence at | ris, dated the 15th instant, which an- | said, of some alledged cruely to warde Amsterdam has given the Corscian an I nounces the arrival of Joseph in that

DECREE .. BERLIN, APRIL 23. made responsible for any tumult which | "His majesty the king of Prussia, "This has been a day of great re- | might take place, and not more than | having, by his regulations of the 11th three persons were allowed to be seen June, 1808, and future ordinances, ex-French papers to the 13th, and let- | together in the streets. These mea- | pressly and in the strictest manner pro- | not killed or wounded. The result of the ters from the Dutch coast to the 8th | sures no less mark the feelings of the | hibited his subjects from all trade and | tion was, that marshal S all was one inst. have arrived. The former state | Hollanders than the jealousies and | connection with England, deems it nethe arrival of Ney at Paris, but assign | fears of the tyrant who has enslaved | cessary, as the season for navigation is no reason for his return. By an arti- | them. But the Dutch have not reach- | now approaching, to bring the said proele from Vienna it appears that the | ed the measure of their vexations. A | hibition into recollection of his faithful Grand Vizier has been deprived of the | decree is reported to have been issued, | subjects, and also to repeat the same command of the Ottoman armies, on | the object of which is to encrease the | in the most positive manner - by which account of his age and infirmities. His | number of persons liable to the con- | it is understood, that all persons have successor is said to be a man of ability | scription, by probability all men under | not only to refrain from all kind of the age of thirty from marrying! The mercantile concern and transactions The letters from Holland state, that same iron hand of despotism is exerting with England and its colonies; but althe French troops were expected to be itself at Hamburgh. The soldiers have so that all voyages, all communications withdrawn from that country, but whe- been marched away by force, and a by letters or otherwise, to and with ther they would be marched to Spain | French admiral has arrived to superin- | England and English colonies, are toor the north of Europe was uncertain. | tend the caption of all the remaining | tally prohibited; and that such persons | it is said about 14,000, amongst white The minister opened what is called young men for the sea service of his who shall be found to have acted in are some regiments of horse; those disobedience to this decree are to ex- have seen are as fine looking fellows!

so much dread to the British nation, naparte, and addressed to a deputati- Napoleon, after having revolution- all I can learn, the French have be pissed over without exciting any alarm on of French merchants, has been in- ized nearly the whole continent, has at most severely hardled under South or uneasiness. Nothing was said a- serted in the papers. Its authenticity length turned his thoughts to his native The report is now, that he was would bout new taxes, but, on the contrary, not being fully ascertained, we postpone country. The departments of Golo ed, others assert he is deal. an old tax was taken off, against all or- our comments upon it. If authentic it and Leamone in Corsica are to be unit. not believe either. A Polish in dinary precedent and general expecta- must be in answer to the complaints of ed under the name of the department of horse in the French army on the the merchants, for which there appears of Corsica, chief place Ajaccio; and it | charged by the British cavaly The King of England rode out on to be an encreasing cause which all the is to send three deputations to the Le- played long lances about 8 (1-command of marshal Soult to the relief suppose Mr. Whitbread will not, as he of Badajoz and the conquest of New lately expressed it, "see any thing tinez, and to col. Rovira, have pro- at present. We only learn, that the conquest of New lately expressed it, see any thing tinez, and to col. Rovira, have pro-will perceive by the following align armed peasantry, under the - JUAN ANTONIA MAN

CAPTURE OF FIGUERAS. Extraordinary Gazette of Tarago- until these savages cried for qual

1100 pieces artillery, 3000 she 211111111 FROM THE NORFOLK LEDGER. The editor of this paper has refrom a friend in Lisbon, letters marshal Beresfield and gen. Bloke ; act in that of the 22d, we shall condense of his army was left to keep the garrison Budajos from sallving out. The less of allied army, in killed and wounded, ffe loss of the French was also great suppose about equal; one regiment of Polisheasiprisoners) on the n 14. The Baush on fired greatly in officers; general Hall way and Houghton were killed; St war Cole, and Lumley, woun e -Col. D worth killed-m rshal Beresford was i exp cied to fall in a f w days; thus la I May Lord Wellingt n articed, wi part or his army, at The - ind as he ail to have gone on jurs it of marshall oult, another action w s daily expecter, Extract of a letter to a centleman Richmond, from his friend in List May 24.

"Troops are arriving here every day from England-there is landing now, you ever saw. I really believe ite long, with flags at the point, which ed and would give no quarter. Sen of the British regiments of infantry g up a howitzer, kept up a horrid fit soner at one time, and for the num versive-some tegiments having

FORT STODDART, June 6.

The movements, &c. of our militahaving lately occupied the attention of the public, in no inconsiderable deerce, we believe it will not be unintering to state our knowledge of those ch now occupy this important posimunder the command of Col. Co. gton of the light dragoons. We annce with pleasure their martial apearance, good health, and eager wiloness to take the field or encounter ngness to take the field of encounter we sat SEA, in an AIR BALDSON, on the the laws, or the customs of this coun-ed from the interior of Spain, out of regiment of infantry compose this dvanced' corps of the army, to which | what is will by " BOTH STOKES;" you will cause or object of such unusual and se- . in all that country, and transported by re attached the light troops at the pass | THEREFORE please to insert it in your pa- | vere measures on the part of this go- Richard S. Hackley, Esq. American Christiani; and the consolidated reiment of infantry at Baton Rouge, we re told, are, by the recent arrangepent of the commanding general, made stood one of them was an English sloop of with the information I have received, lent health and condition. The exutject to colonel Covington's requisi- | w r, commanded ty capt. Bugham, and and which is herein communicated. traordinary fineness of their wool, on in the event of a call to arms. On Friday last, Capt. E. P. Gaines, order of the commanding officer at __thought capt. B. fired first_was told af- seamen of your respective vessels as them, render them objects of the greathis place, col. Covington, proceeded to w ris that he disnot-liem, much as possible from the shore, and to importance to Farmers who wish that you will severally present your to improve their breed of Sheep, and ause of the stoppage of an American tradicts their evidence—heard that the selves to-morrow morning at my office produce wool that will readily comause of the stoppage of an American commodere loaded his guns with pieces of essel, loaded with public powder, commodere loaded his guns with pieces of commoder tores, &c. for the troops at this post. on bo rd the Little Belt, filled with live | site certificates. med him, that, according to an es- balls thrown in water-did great execution | most obedient servant, ablished rule, no powder could be per-

he captain of the vessel he might land | thought she was on fir " a - ut the main ort Stoddart, with the other military | LAST -fine breeze struck up-carri ti my tores-or, in case he would wait un- | battoon on shore. a messenger could go and return om Pensacola, he had no doubt but at Governor Folch would grant him ermission to proceed. However, the aptain of the vessel, on being stopped, nd having his flag (as he conceived) highly insulted, would listen to no vertures, unless he was permitted to elay -- his being refused, he returned Pass Christiani. It is in our power to state, from ap-

carances, that the affair will be settled shout much bloodshed and that our mmerce will meet with no obstructiat Mobile, if no attempt is made to | the United States. nd soldiers or powder past that

By a gentleman from Mobile we are formed, that twenty five additional pops had arrived there from Pensacoand that there were a number more their way. And that lieutenant lonel Collel, is appointed comman-Mobile Gent.

CHARLES-TOWN, July 12.

NEWS FOR DRUNKARDS. n Saturday last, Frederick Hurst, his county, in a fit of intoxication, ta period to his existence, by drownhimself in the Shenandoah river.

MUNGO PARKE. The following met nearly account of this ate triveller is under Lon on date ty 22. " The Marced, which arrived Cars ago at Plymouth, his brough ints from Africa, which completed and to all hop sof the exist me of Parks, the enterprizing traveller. ch that had been made after him rec ived of his clisclusion. It seem um mate cause of his ne th was a fe tou i ton by the hard him be endured rew hall st breath in the hovel of at erro wemen. Not a vestige of his p rs has been received."

The British frigate Guerrier has ared at Halifax, and released Diggio, American boy that was pressed red at Boston. New York pop.

French Decrees Repealed. p Dryade, Capt. Clark, and brig stph-Ricketson, Capt. Hildreth, of w-York have arrived at the Havanfrom Liverpool, with cargoes of ish Goods. They were both capred by French privateers, and both eased after a few hours detention, proving to be American vessels-Berlin and Milan Decrees being re-

BRITISH IMPRESSMENT. The ship Bellisarus, from Doblin, on lar who impressed FIFTY FIVE steerage nd two cabin pa sengers; the latter were Vm. and Patrick Phelan. Passengers in he cabin, Mr. Starhope and lady Mr.

arden, Rev. Dr. Ryan, Mr. Matthews ilp are mostly & m. p. old men and, boys, entry, with at either relation or triend to; selling their kil to pay their passing. Pus. Apv.

*COMMUNICATION.

"HEAR BOTH SIDES!" And why not hear all three sides?

Mr FDITOR, night in which the action with the Little Bolt took place, will serve to corr berate. stopped my lattoon to see the battl -under-the other a American frigate commanded - I have therefore to request that you their gentle and prolific nature, and the y commodore Roberts; query, how came will use your endeavors to keep the very little trouble required in raising n application, the commander in- | rith snakes-heard them his like red-bot | nitted to pass without the consent of time" observed the flash of one of the friovernor Folch; that he had informed | gite' guns-was so FRIGHTENED that I re powder and store it until this could | harchway"- re sure the Little Belt did not strike her colors-no occasion-were shot e done, and proceed up the river to away - believe the Little Belt oil not FIRE

Washington City, July 4.

rocced with his cargo entire, without rumor has not yet wafted to our ears. youd conception—the length is not ac- are on it a dwelling House, which, at a small attached to the Legation.

Boston, June 29. THE LITTLE BELT! - A gentleman from Halifax states, that while he was there, the official account of Commoint of Mobile, in the place of captain | dore Rodgers, relative to the affair be- says his name is Williams, from Curritween the United States frigate Presi- tuck county, North Carolina, was yedent and the British sloop of war Lit- sterday committed to the Borough inil. tle Belt, was received-that some of | charged with attempting to pass counmarked that it was such an account as | Richmond bank-the signatures tolerinforms, that the officers of the Little | paper very bad. Belt materially differed in their statements; that the asperity of the public was abated; and that capt. Bingham J. Milligan's Prize List, > rirrirrir i letter from an American captain who was on the spot, to his correspondent saction.

"Dear sir-I take the earliest opportunity of forwarding you the enclosed by which you have our consul's communications, and a copy of an or Millig n, Bo keell r, Goorg town, Columder of the Portuguese government for- bia-Present price of Tickets Eleven dol bidding Americans to land, except un- | lars-Tickets Examined, and all Lottery der certain restrictions. This order | information given gratis, has been issued in consequence of the British influence, to annihilate our drawn ticket 500 dollars. commerce in that quarter. Similar other impositious are imposed in a like | THE book of executors bonds m the bric Spitfire, a few weeks since | manner, more particularly on the arti- | which I advertised some time ago as Sandy-Hook. Mr. Diggio has ar- cle of fish; which, if English, is al- being mislaid or taken away from my most duty free-if American, is sub- office has been lately reclaimed with all jeet to a great duty."

"CONSULATE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

PORT OF ST. SALVADOR. April 29, 1811. ] 'To the masters and supercargoes of American vessels now in this port.

GENTLEMEN,

"His excellency the count Dirchcos, captain general and governor of this city and province informed me by an offi- the subscriber, who carries on the cial letter of the 26th current, that in observance of royal orders, no person business in said town, where those would be allowed to disembark in this | wanting good waggons can be sup-June, in lat 41, long. 65, 39, was port coming from the U. States with- plied on the shortest notice.

Out being furnished with a passport The A boy about 14 or 15 years from the charge d'affairs of his royal age is wanted as an apprentice to the highness the Prince Regent, at Phila- waggon-making business.

In explanation of these orders, his sench are retreating, and that the pandicaly, Mr. M Donnell, and spicit is the excellency, in a letter dated this day, | Genuine Mering Sheep. states, that from henceforth they will be put in rigorous execution. That in THE subscriber has just received at arcely an officer unhart above an en- Many of the Jem des have last their only, consideration of the masters and suand core metalore, husband or broth r. | per-cargoes of American vessels now and the at this mement landing in a strang | in this port, that these will be permit- '6 Rams and 18 Ewes, Social the rate of these poor entites, quit- pose of attending to their affairs of bu- of the Cabannas, called Paulars, Neting their native county, many of them | siness, provided they are furnished | grete and Montarin, as will more fully with certificates from me, identifying | appear by Royal Authenticated Certitheir persons and good conduct. ..

> The to bewing extract from the lopbook | their outward behaviour or moral char | Navy. of a gentleman of gent veracity who racter, either as offending the religion, These valuable animals were selecttry; and being wholly ignorant of the flocks the most celebrated and valuable FUDGE. vernment, which in effect go to pre- Consul in Cadiz. They are consider-"Saw two vessels of war nearest nother clude the commerce of the U. States ed the finest ever imported into the _concluded they were going to fight with it, I can only act in conformity . United States, and are in most excel-

HENRY HILL, U. States' Consul. | dit. For Captain James Gook, of the American sch'r. Packet.

> St. Francisville, May 29. A MONSTER.

A serpent of extraordinary size, has been recently discovered in the Mississippi swamp, a few miles above this village. I have conversed with three Mr. Pinkney arrived in this city on gentlemen of unquestionable veracity, Sunday from Annapolis. Mr. Foster | who have seen it. They agree in their reached the city the same day, together | description, which is in substance, that | T WILL sell 400 acres of LAND in the the monster is in body considerably By the Essex dispatches are receiv- larger than an ordinary man, beautiful- Laurence Washington, Esq. About 1,00 ed from France, the contents of which | ly striped with gold and green, rich be- the balance lies well for farming. There On Tuesday last, Augustus J. Fos- | curately known, but is supposed to be | expence might be made comfortable, a large ter, Esq. was presented by the Secre- from 15 to 25 feet. One of the gentle- frame Barn, two never failing wells of watary of State to the President of the U. men with whom I conversed, shot at it ter, a good peach and apple orchard, and a States, and exhibited his credentials as with a rifle, when it emitted a very of- purchaser will, if he chooses, have the pri-Envoy Extraordinary and Minister | fensive smell from which he supposed | vilege of seeding 150 acres of fallow, which Plenipotentiary from Great Britain to he had wounded it. However, as it | will be prepared in the best manner. was seen the succeeding day, it is pre- Likewis, 350 acres of land on Bullskin Run. This farm is well improved, has Mr. Morier was also presented, as sumable that if it was wounded, the Secretary of Legation, and Mr. Baker | wound was slight. This is the first dow, and is considered among the oest scrpent of such large size, I have heard | farms on Bullskin. There will be 70 acres of on the Mississippi. - Time Piece.

COUNTERFEITS. Norfolk, June 26. A decent looking young man who the officers of the Little Belt apparently | terfeit notes. The one we have seen acknowledged its correctness, and re- was a Virginia note of $ 100, of the they expected. The gentleman also, ably well executed, but the print and appeared much mortified at the tran- Of the Potomack and Shanandoah Naviga-Eighth Day's Drawing, July 2, 1811. No 9379, 1 prize of 500 collars .- Nos. 4263, 7366, 19488, 1444, 12538, 100 dollars eno .- 3 priz s of 30 dollars -4 prizes of 20 dollars .- 50 prizes of 12 dollars .- 106 plizes of 10 dellars. Gain of the wheel this day 2170 dollars, All prizes above ten dollars renewable TAKE NOTICE -- The next days' Draw. ng on I'u sday July 9 h and 10th. Fire the bonds in it complete. GEO. HITE.

July 12.

Waggon Timber Wanted. DERSONS having waggon timber for sale, within five or six miles of Charles Town, will receive a generous price for the same by applying to

Waggon-Making IF A boy about 14 or 15 years of

SAM. FARNSWORTH. Charles Town, July 12, 1811.

his Farm, near Shepherd's-Town, and offers for sale, ted to frequent the shore for the pur- genuine and full blooded MERINOS ficates, attested by the Hon. Don Having hitherto heard of no miscon- Juan Hookham Frere, Envoy Extraduct in this port, on the part of masters, ordinary of his Britannic Majesty to supercargoes, or even of the sailors of his Catholic Majesty, Ferdinand the American vessels who have visited it,; 7th, and shipped by Alexander Brearnor of any complaint whatever against ly, Esq. Captain of the Royal Spanish that I may furnish you with the requi- | mand from 3 to 4 dollars per lb. They may be viewed at any time at the Fall-I am gentlemen, with respect, your | ing Spring Place, and will be sold upon accommodating terms and liberal cre-

JACOB MORGAN.

The above Sheep if not disposed of at private sale, will be sold at public auction, at the court house in Charles Town, on Monday the 26th August, being Jefferson court day. July 12, 1811.

Land for Sale.

variety of cherry and pear trees. The plenty of wood, a handsome watered meaof rich clover land prepared to the nicest manner for seeding. Thirty bushels of wheat o the acre will not be an extravag at calculation from this land. Terms may be known on application to the subscribe HENRY GANTT. July 10, 1811.

The Martinsburg Inn.

Michael M'Kewan,

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public, that he has opened a House of Entertainment in South Queen-street, at the sign of the MARTINSBURG INN, which he has fitted up for the accommodation of travellers and others. Those who may please to patronize his establishment, may rest assured of being respectfully entertained with the best of liquors, relishes, &c. he has arge and commodious rooms.

A single man that would superintend the business and had a few hundred dollars, would meet with a good offer and situation, where something handsome would be made by the establishment and certain other branches that would be attached to it.

Martinsburg, Berkeley County, Virginia, July 4th, 1811.

And may be had at this Office, (pri e 25 cts.) THE FIFTH AMERICAN FOUTION F. THE "STARIN THE EAST"

JUST PRINTED,

ASERMON, Preached in the Parish Church of St. James, Bristol, on Sunday, February 26, 1809.

REV. CLAUDIUS BUCHANAN. L. L. D. FROM INDIA'S WITH AN APPENDIX,

Containing the Interesting Report of the Rev. Dr KERR to the Governor of Madras, on the state of the ancient Christians in Cochin and Travancore; and an Account of the Discoveries male by the Rev Dr. Buchanan of 200,000 Christians in the sequestere ! Region of Hindostan. [W think it a tribute of respect, due to the Anthor of this work, to say, it is highly Interesting and Evang-lical ]

WRITING INK FOR SALE AT THIS OFFIGE.

WHISKEY, Scythes and Sickles.

The subscribers have on hand the following 50 barrels of WHISKEY almost every other article in the Grocery

TIN, CHINA, GLASS, QUEEN'S, STONE, POTTER'S, and WOODEN

CASTINGS, consisting of POTS, KET-TLES, OVENS, and SKILLETS, WALDRON's prime Crading Scythes, Sickles made by HUGH LONG, English and German Whetstones, Herrings by the barrel, Men's strong Leather SHOES,

Together with a general assortment of DRY GOODS, and expect a further supply in a few days, all of which will be sold on the lowest terms R. WORTHINGTON, & Co.

Shepherd's-Town, June 28, 1811.

Jefferson County, to wit.

June Court, 1811. Plaintiff, Abigail Fry,

John Fry, acting executor of the last will and testament of Lodwick Fry, deceased, David Fry, Daniel Fry, George Fry, Martin Housman and Elizabeth his wife, David Pultz, and Sarah his wif , William Grantham and Susannah his wite, Robert Vance and Catharine his wife, and Adam Long, and Rachael his wife, Def'ts.
IN CHANCERY.

THE Defendants George Fry and Adam Long, and Rachael his wife, not having entered their appearance and given security according to the act of assembly and the rules of this court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that they are not inhabitants of this commonwealth: On the motion of the Plaintiff by his Counsel, it is ordered that the said Defendants do appear here on the fourth Monday in August next, and answer the bill of the plaintiff, and that a copy of this order be forth-with inserted in the Farmer's Repository for two months successively, and posted at the door of the court house of said county.

A copy. Teste, GEO. HITE, Clk.

Jefferson County, to wit.
June Court, 1811. Willoughby W. Lane, Plaintiff,

John Sheely, & George North, Def'ts.
IN CHANCERY.

THE defendant John Sheely not having untered his appearance and given secarity according to the act of assembly and the rules of this court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that he is not an inhabitant of this commonwealth: On the motion of the Plaintiff by his Counsel, it is ordered that the said Defendant do appear here on the fourth Monday in August next, and answer the bill of the Plaintiff, of the court house of said county : And it is be restrained from paying, conveying away, or secretify the debts by him owing to, or the effects in his hands of the Defendant Sheely, until the further order of this court. A copy. Teste, GEO. HITE, Clk.

NOTICE.

TN obedience to an order of the coun-A ty court of Jefferson, we the subscribers (commissioners therein named) will on the 27th day of July next, at Henry Haines's tavern, in Charles Town, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock? M. proceed to let to the lowest bidder the building of a bridge over the run, on the main screet in said Town. GEO. NORTH,

A. DAVENPORT, M. RANSON. June 28, 1811.

Public Entertainment. "HE subscriber informs his friends and the public that he has opened a TAVERN at his old stand in the town of Smithfield, where he is prepared with every thing necessary for the accommodation of travellers, and hopes by assiduity and attention, to give satisfaction to all those who may favor him with their custom.

June 28, 1811. JOHN SMITH.

Estray Mare.

TAKEN up as a stray, sometime in May last, by the subscriber, living near the Rock's Ferry, on the Shenandoah river, A Sorrel Mare, supposed to be 9 or 10 years old, about 15 hands high, and blind of the left eye-no perceivable mark or brand except a small white spot on her rump. Appraised to 35

JOHN MOORE.

A Tan-Yard for Sale. THE subscriber has for sale a valuable TAN YARD, with all necessary buildings for dwelling and carry-, ng on the business of Tanning in the town of Charlestown, Jefferson Coun-A few barrels of good Apple BRANDY
A large supply of brown SUGAR, COF.
FEE, TEAS, RICE, MOLASSES, and subscriber, living in said Town. ty, Virginia. For terms apply to the JOHN DIXON.

June 21, 1811.

20 Dollars Reward.

Cedar Run. WILLIAM FOOTE. June 21, 1811.

A Miller Wanted.

WILL give immediate employment I to a miller who understands his business, and comes well recommended for his sobriety, industry and attention to business-No other need apply. A can gain the confidence of his employer and his customers, by his uniformity of conduct, may rely on getting good accommodations, with very extraordinary wages, at Muse's Mill, on Long Marsh, Jefferson county, Virginia. TH. W. BARTON.

May 10, 1811.

Thirty Dollars Reward. | county, Virginia, May 3, 1811. R AN AWAY some time in April last, from the subscriber, living in Baltimore, an apprentice boy to the Blacksmith's business named GEORGE SPANGLER, hending and securing said apprentice | very black. further ordered that the Defendant North | per's Ferry, as his parents reside near | taloons filled with blue yarn.

ISAAC SPANGLER. N. B. All persons are forewarned from employing or harboring said apprentice at their peril. May 24, 1811.

Removal. THE subscriber has removed his Store to the house lately occupied as a Store by Messrs. James & R. Fulwhere he has just received a handsome

SPRING GOODS, well suited to the present and approach. ing season: amongst which are 6.4 & 4.4 Cambrick Muslin Ditto do Leno Irish Linens

Vesting Carraderrys Seersuckers Ladies' Extra long Silk & Kid Gloves Habit ditto

Fancy Shawls Dresses, Silks and Ribbons With a complete assortment of GROCERIES

QUEENS & POTTERS WARE. WHISKEY and HERRINGS, by the barrel.

He returns his sincere thanks to his friends and the public for past favors, and respectfully solicits a continuance. MOSES WILSON. Charlestown, May 24, 1811.

Four Cents per Pound WILL BE GIVEN AT THIS OFFICE FOR CLEAN LINEN AND COTTON RAGS.

WRITING PAPER For sale at this Office.

Tefferson County, ss. May Court, 1811. Martin Entler, Plaintiff,

The executors, administrators, or other | Canton Crapes legal representatives of Cornelius Beautiful rich Silks Lace and Legal representatives of Cornelius Wyncoop, deceased, and Rawleigh Satins Damask Morgan, IN CHANCERY.

THE defendants, the executors, ad- Sleeves & Handker- simeres ministrators, or other legal repre- chiefs sentatives of Cornelius Wyncoop, de-sentatives of Cornelius Wyncoop, de-ceased, not having entered their ap-ceased, not having entered their appearance and given security according | Cambrie Linens PAN AWAY from the subscriber to the act of assembly and the rules of Shirting Cambric R AWAY from the subscriber this court, and it appearing to the sa- All which was bought with a named Charles, who probably may call tisfaction of the court that they are not New York and Philadelphia himself Charles Sims. He is a dark inhabitants of this commonwealth: On | vious to the late high advance mulatto, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches the motion of the plaintiff by his counhigh, and well made, about 35 years | sel, it is ordered that the said defend- States from England, under the of age, small eyes and thin face; his ants do appear here on the fourth Mon- Congress, it is expected that face clothing is such as field negroes gene- day in August next, and answer the extremely scance and uton rally wear at this season of the year. bill of the plaintiff, and that a copy of The above reward will be given for se- this order be forthwith inserted in the cd beyond all expectation. curing him in any jail so that I get him | Farmer's Repository for two months | for any person to supply themselves again, and all reasonable expenses if successively, and posted at the court cheap Goods by the piece or starting delivered to me in the lower end of house door of said county. And it is tity Fauquier county, state of Virginia, on further ordered, that the defendant Rawleigh Morgan do not pay any debts by him due to the other defendants, or convey away or secret any effects in his hands belonging to the said SICKLES, and WALDRONS Prime C defendants until the further order of dling and Grass SCVIIIES, and alm

A copy. Teste, GEO. HITE, Clk.

man somewhat advanced in age, who Stone Masons and Labourers wanted. THE subscriber will give employment to eight or ten Masons and Labourers, from this time to the end of the season. One dollar per day will be given to Masons, and Ten dollars per and answer the bill of the Plaintiff, and month to Labourers.

JOHN WILKINS. Charles-Town, Jefferson

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber court, four Negro Men, one named about 17 years old, 5 feet 2 or 3 inches | Tom, 34 years of age, about 5 feet 8 or high, light sandy hair, his fore teeth ve- 10 inches high, a likely fellow with a ry broad, and has a sear on the top of good countenance, slow of speech, vehis head. As he has been absent a con- ry fond of liquor; took with him a siderable time, it is thought unnecessary great many clothes, amongst them are to describe his clothing. Twenty dol- | a light grey cloth coat, buckskin pantalars reward will be given for appre- loons, and half boots-said negro is in any jail in the United States, and | Lewis, a likely fellow, about 21 giving me information thereof, and the vears of age, very black, 5 feet 6 inches | Lee's Antibilious Pills, for the prevents and that a copy of this order be forthwith above reward and all reasonable charge | high; took with him a number of | inserted in the Farmer's Repository for two es paid, if brought home. It is very clothes, amongst which are a drab coprobable that he is lurking about Har- | loured coat, striped waistcoat, and pan

> Stephen, a tall fellow, 6 feet high, a little cross-eyed-had on when he went away blue pantaloons, blue waistcoat, Lee's Indian Vegetable Specific, fortee drab coloured coat-took with him a number of clothes not recollected, talks |- Lee's Persian Lotion, for tetters and e fast and impudent.

Sawny, about 48 or 50 years of age, vellow complexion, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high; took with him a number of clothes not recollected, except a gray coat and buckskin pantaloons. One hundred dollars will be given for the ton, and formerly by capt. Hammond, four negroes, or 25 dollars for each, and all reasonable charges paid. It is not known the cause of their going away, as neither of them have received a stripe. It is believed they have obtained passes for some time, by some

Jefferson county, Kentucky,

April 14, 1811. N. B. Tom, Lewis and Sawny were formerly the property of Mr. Beverly Whiting, of Jefferson county, Va. and Stephen formerly the property of Mr. Thomas M'Cormick, of Frederick County, Va.

CAUTION.

THE subscriber hereby cautions all persons from fishing, fowling, or by and Margery his wife, nunting on his farm, or passing Ridgeway and Joseph Kill through the enclosures thereof upon ! any pretext whatever, as he is determined to prosecute every person who ! may be detected in such practices in fu-

THO. BRECKENRIDGE. June 28, 1811.

A Fuller Wanted.

ONSTANT employ and good forthwith inserted in the Farmer's wages will be given to a sober, in- pository for two months successive dustrious Fuller, who understands his and posted at the court house door and posted at the court house door a business. Enquire of the Printer.

CHEAP GOODS, NOW opening at the corner Store of the Market-House, in Shepherd's Town

AMONGST WHICH ARE, Damask & Serge Silk hams Lace Caps

The present is a favourable opportu-

JAMES S. LANE, BROTHER, & C. Shepherds Town, June 21, 1811. N. B. As heretofore a lateral allowing We have HUGH LONG's warran every other article the Farmer may war

Jefferson County, to wit. David Harry,

IN CHANCERY. THE Defendant John Strp not having tered his appearance and give nd offers for sale, ording to the act of assembly the rules of this court, and it apper the satisfaction of the court that he is inhabitant of this Commonwealth; he notion of the Plaintiff by his counsel, ordered that the said Defendant do apr here on the fourth Monday in August e a copy of this order be forthwith asserts the Farmer's Repository for two men successively, and posted at the door of the court house of the said county: Antitsia ther ordered that the Defendant J ho jung, be restrained from paying, conve away, or secreting the debts by him par to, or the effects in his hands of the detail ant, John Stip, until the further order dais A copy. Teste, GEO. HITE, CY

To the Afflicted.

The Original Family Medicines. Continue to be faithfully prepared, and sol't by the Proprietors, No. 95, Patistreet, MICHAEL LEE, & CO.

ANN FRAME, Charlesons. of Bilious Fevers, ctc. Lee's Elixir, for violent c ide, conferent Lee's Inf. llible Ague and Fever Dice Lee's worm destroying L. zenge Lee's 1tch Ointment, warranted to care Lee's Grand Restorative, for bered orders, inward weakness, ric

Lee's Essence and Extr. ct of Mustard, the rheumanism, etc. Lite's Eve-Water. Lee's Tooth-ache Dr ps. Lee's D mark Lip laive. Lee's Corn Plaister. Lee's Anodyne Enxir, for the cure of her Lec's Tooth Powder. To country merchants and others si purchase to sell again, a liberal discount - 17 To detect counterfeits, observe reicle has on the ourside weaport nature of MICHAEL LEEK C Tefferson County, ss. April Court, 181

Rebecca Ridgeway, Thomas Last and Sally his wife, late Sally li way, Robert Lasenby and Mar his wife, late Margery Ric Edward Ridgeway & Jose way, heirs of John Ridgew. and William Tate,

IN CHANCERY. THE defendants Themas and Sally his wife, Robert having entered their appearant en security according to the act t sembly and the rules of this coul court that they are not inhabitan this commonwealth: On the motion the plaintiff-by his counsel, it is oft ed that the said defendants do appe here on the fourth Monday in Au next, and answer the bill of the tiff, and that a copy of this orde the said county.

A copy. Teste, Cla.

FARMER'S REPOSITORY.

CHARLES TOWN, (Jefferson County, Virginia, ) PRINTED BY RICHARD WILLIAMS.

Vol. IV.

FRIDAY, July 19, 1811.

[No. 173.

Land for Sale. May Court, 1811. VILL sell 400 acres of LAND in the Martin Entler, Plaintiff, mrence Washington, Esq. About 100 res of this Land are heavily timbered, and balance li s well for farming. There on it a dwelling House, which, at a small ence m ght be mide comfortable, al rge Morgan, me Birn, two never falling wells of wa , a good peach and apple orchard, and a ety of cherry and pear trees. The chaser will, if he chooses, have the pri ege of seeding 150 acres of fallow, which be prepared in the best manner. Lik-wise, 350 acres of land on Bull-kin This farm is well improved, has enty of wood, a handsome wetered meaw, and is considered among the nest rich clover land prepared to the nicest nner for seeding. Thirty bushels of wheat ion from this land. Terms may be known application to the subscriber. HENRY GANTT.

n'y 10, 1811.

Genuine Merino Sheep.

6 Rams and 18 Ewes, enuine and full blooded MERINOS f the Cabannas, called Paulars, Nerete and Montarin, as will more fully ppear by Royal Authenticated Certicates, attested by the Hon. Don uan Hookham Frere, Envoy Extrardinary of his Britannic Majesty to s Catholic Majesty, Ferdinand the h, and shipped by Alexander Brear-Esq. Captain of the Royal Spanish

These valuable animals were selectfrom the interior of Spain, out of | Henry Haines, ocks the most celebrated and valuable all that country, and transported by ichard S. Hackley, Esq. American onsul in Cadiz. They are considerthe finest ever imported into the nited States, and are in most excelht health and condition. The exfordinary fineness of their wool, eir gentle and prolific nature, and the ery little trouble required in raising em, render them objects of the greatimportance to Farmers who wish

JACOB MORGAN. The above Sheep if not disposed corivate sale, will be sold at public ion, at the court house in Charlesown, on Monday the 26th August, g Jefferson court day. uly 12, 1811.

aggon Timber Wanted. ERSONS having waggon timber for sale, within five or six miles Charles Town, will receive a geneus price for the same by applying to subscriber, who carries on the Waggon-Making ness in said town, where those ng good waggons can be supd on the shortest notice. F A boy about 14 or 15 years of is wanted as an apprentice to the gon-making business. SAM. FARNSWORTH. Charles Town, July 12, 1811.

The Martinsburg Inn.

Michael M'Kewan, ESPECTFULLY informs his MARTINSBURG INN, in he has fitted up for the accomadation of travellers and others. ose who may please to patronize establishment, may rest assured of ng respectfully entertained with the t of liquors, relishes, &c. he has ge and commodious rooms. I single man that would superinnd the business and had a few hund dollars, would meet with a good er and situation, where something ndsome would be made by the estaishment and certain other branches twould be attached to it. Hartinsburg, Berkeley County, Virginia, July 4th, 1811.

The executors, administrators, or other legal representatives of Cornelius Wyncoop, deceased, and Rawleigh Defendants.

Jefferson County, ss.

IN CHANCERY. THE defendants, the executors, ad- to question your sincerity; but, Sir, dertake to help the federal cause by desentatives of Cornelius Wyncoop, de- only one side of a story? Is it not more desirable among the British facceased, not having entered their ap- unfair? You lend your aid to circulate | tion, than to find one republican oppospearance and given security according the most violentabuse of the President, ed to another. The federalists are now to the act of assembly and the rules of | from an avowed personal enemy, with- | equally as inimical to Mr. Smith as this court, and it appearing to the sa- out the shadow of a reply. I will leave they were before. If he should turn tisfaction of the court that they are not it to yourself to determine, whether | federalist, and shake hands with Timoinhabitunts of this commonwealth: On this is generous. You must be aware thy Pickering, yet they would be carethe acre will not be an extravagant calcu- the motion of the plaintiff by his coun- that it is impossible for the President to ful not to trust him, but would consel, it is ordered that the said defend- stoop from his exalted station to repel sign him to eternal infamy as not being ants do appear here on the fourth Mon- | the insinuations of the late Secretary; | worthy the notice of either party. But day in August next, and answer the and it would be absurd to expect that he this vindictive spirit does not exist in bill of the-plaintiff, and that a copy of | should resign for that purpose. this order be forthwith inserted in the | But if you are really as candid as you | are willing to wait the issue of this Farmer's Repository for two months pretend, I would enquire, Sir, whether controversy, by such replies as may be THE subscriber has just received at successively, and posted at the court you or the Federal party generally be- made against Mr. Smith's statement. his Farm, near Shepherd's-Town, house door of said county. And it is lieve Robert Smith to be as great a pa- In the interim, we appeal to the friends further ordered, that the defendant, triot as he wishes to be thought? I of Mr. Smith, on the propriety or im-Rawleigh Morgan do not pay any know you may be pleased to find that propriety of his taking upon himself the debts by him due to the other defend- he is labouring to coroborate the very character which he did, and placing ants, or convey away or secret any ef- statements made in the Federal papers | himself in the same line of responsibilifects in his hands belonging to the said | months and years ago, when defendants until the lurther order of

> A copy. Teste, GEO. HITE, Clk.

Jefferson County, ss. -April Court, 1811. Flaintiff,

IN CHANCERY.

Spring Place, and will be sold upon | it appearing to the satisfaction of the | glow of patriotism: mmodating terms and liberal cre- | court that they are not inhabitants of this commonwealth: On the motion of the plaintiff by his counsel, it is ordered that the said defendants do appear here on the fourth Monday in August next, and answer the bill of the plaintiff, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Farmer's Repository for two months successively and posted at the court house door of > the said county. A copy. Teste; GEO. HITE, Clk.

Thirty Dollars Reward. Blacksmith's busis as ramed

GEORGE SPANGLER, about 17 years old; & wet 2 or 3 inches high, light sandy hair, his fore teeth ve- evident from Mr. Smith's own shew- sident, and abruptly tell him that he ry broad, and has a scar on the top of | ing; and that is, that if Mr. Smith's | intended to withdraw from his admihis head. As he has been absent a con- advice had been followed, this coun- nistration? Can any man wonder that siderable time, it is thought unnecessary | try would long ago have been involved | the PRESIDENT should dismiss a Secreto describe his clothing. Twenty dol- in war; for he accuses Mr. Madison of tary, after replying to him in language hending and securing said apprentice | England and France. The Federal- | a President who would keep a man in in any jail in the United States, and ists, as I understand, are anxious to office after receiving such a derogatory giving me information thereof, and the | avoid a war with any nation, if it can | answer. As we mean to be brief at friends and the public, that he has above reward and all reasonable charg- be avoided. Surely they must rejoice present we shall only bring to view the bened a House of Entertainment in es paid, if brought home. It is very buth Queen-street, at the sign of the probable that he is lurking about Har- cian were defeated and so terrible a ca- himself, with respect to the most imper's Ferry, as his parents reside near | lamity averted, by any means.

ISAAC SPANGLER. N. B. All persons are forewarned from employing or harboring said apprentice at their peril. May 24, 1811.

THE book of executors bonds which I advertised some time ago as can "a tale unfold" which will being mislaid or taken away from my " Make each particular hair to stand office has been lately reclaimed with all the bonds in it complete.

GEO. HITE.

FROM THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

MR. SNOWDEN, I observe that you have commenced the re-publication of a work lately issu- naturally be expected, has excited the ed from the press in Baltimore, said to attention of the federalists, in hopes be written by Mr. Robert Smith .- | that some mischief may arise from a You profess the most rigid impartiality | division on the subject among the reon the subject. It is not my business | publicans. At present we shall not unministrators, or other legal repre- does it not appear partial, to publish | nouncing Mr. Smith, for nothing is

"In ev'ry ear incessant rumors rung,

But if the accounts published by Mr. that occasion, "that his language was Smith are correct, why did he not disclose them before? If Mr. Madison friends of Mr. Smith to reflect with has in fact betrayed his trust, if he is | candor, whether his answers to the such an enemy to his country, such a President might not justly be offensive quibbler, such a dupe, as Mr. Smith to him. Mr. Madison politely informwishes to make out, why did not the ed Mr. Smith of his mission to Russia, latter proclaim it to the nation long | and complemented him with the im-Rebecca Ridgeway, Thomas Lasenby | ago? Why did he suffer those very ru- | portance of the appointment. These and Sally his wife, late Sally Ridge- mors to be contradicted, which he him- suggestions were made "in a language way, Robert Lasenby and Margery | self is now endeavoring to establish? | in no degree offensive"-and yet, says his wife, late Margery Ridgeway, What must be thought of the man who | Mr. Smith, "under the influence of Edward Ridgeway & Joseph Ridge- could look quietly on, and see the ho- suspicion [the fatal doctrine instilled by way, heirs of John Ridgeway, dec'd, nor of his country, as he says levelled a Jesuit of Massachusetts] rising and William Tate, I Defots. | in the dust? Did none of these warm | from my seat, I, with a decorum due feelings animate his bosom at that time? to a president of the U. States, dis-THE defendants Thomas Lasenby | Alas, no! his ardor was suppressed by | tinctly informed him, that owing to our and Sally his wife, Robert Lasen- the weight of $ 5000 per annum. But different view of many subjects, I had by and Margery his wife, Edward | no sooner did he hear that his compa- | some time since formed a determination improve their breed of Sheep, and Ridgeway and Joseph Ridgeway not ny could be dispensed with, that the to withdraw from his administration." oduce wool that will readily com- having entered their appearance & giv- darling salary was about to vanish, And to enforce the idea; he further deid from 3 to 4 dollars per lb. They en security according to the act of as- than his fervor burst into a flame-than clares, "that he had communicated to av be viewed at any time at the Fall. sembly and the rules of this court, and his breast is almost consumed with the some of his friends this determination?

- - "all at once 'tis fir'd, " Not touch'd, but rapt; not waken'd, but inspir'd." You will say, perhaps, it is better late than never that he has turned state's evidence: but I should like to know whether any confidence can be placed in the statements of a man whose patri otism is justly subject to such suspicions? Are we not rather to infer that he is actuated by disappointment, personal malice, or ambition? And how easy is it for Mr. Smith to make unfounded assertions, to publish garbled accounts of conversatious and dispatches, which no person can contradict except those AN AWAY some time in April | who will not descend to the task? This It last, from the subscriber, living in the ex-Secretary knows; behind this Baltimore, an apprentice boy to the shield he feels secure; and therefore, under the baneful operation of suspilike another Indian, he levels his arrows without fear of retaliation. There is one thing, Sir, which is lars reward will be given for appre- half way measures, both with regard to of this nature? No man is fit to be that the views of this hot-headed politi-

For Mr. Smith to endeavor to fix the | been made by the President himself to charge of French influence on the Pre- | the British minister. We have observsident, is truly as laughable as his high | ed before, that Mr. S. rather took the seasoned compliments to himself .-Has he forgotten French Douceurs of To prove which, we will candidly ask '98 and '99? or is he or Mr. Madison the nearest relation to Napoleon?-Should certain folks feel disposed to answer Mr. Smith's pamphlet, they

an end, "Like quills upon the fretful porcu-

A. WASHINGTONIAN.

FROM THE BOSTON CHRONICLE. Candid remarks on Mr. Smith's publi-Mr. Smith's publication, as it might the breast of the republicans. They ty with the President. Waving the statement which he has made of his "And gath'ring scandals grew on ev'ry | nomination to Russia, and the propriety of the behavior of the President on

-and to cap the climax, he declares, "that to accomplish this purpose, he had only been waiting for an occasion, wherein it could be effected." It is worthy of observation here, that tho' Mr. Madison spoke in a language " no way offensive" to Mr. Smith, yet he acknowledges he made a reply "with indignation, and with great difficulty suppressed an inclination to tell the President, that he had become the dupe of a shameful intrigue." FELLOW CITIZENS-We would enmire whether the statement of Mr. Smith is not rather against himself than the President? Whether Mr. Smith is not the aggressor, when the President thought lit to nominate him to a most important commercial mission, that he should grow passionate, and cion (which leads to murder, and every, base transaction) should reply with indignation to the proposal of the Preconduct of Mr. Smith as stated by portant communication that could have ground of President than of Secretary. his friends whether they can justify his writing a letter to Mr. Erskine, "that was not prepared in virtue of any direction or even intimation from the President"? It was written and sent by Mr. Smith when the President was at his seat in Virginia. After thus pledging the government of the United States through the medium of a subordinate agent, there is no wonder,