The affair at Malaga is truly ludicrous. A resolution was offered by Mr. Bacon to prohibit the payment of any compensation for the property of the U. States, and it was agreed to refer the subject to a committee of five, consisting of Mr. Bibb, Mr. Clay, Mr. Winfield, Mr. Calhoun, and Mr. Cass. The Senate resumed the consideration of the bill for renewing the charter of the Bank of the United States. A resolution was offered by Mr. Calhoun to provide for the extension of the United States into the lands west of the Mississippi River. A motion was made by Mr. Clay to limit the debate on this subject to two days. The Senate adjourned till to-morrow.

The amendment to the bill from the Committee of the Whole was passed by the House on Wednesday last. A motion was made to adjourn till to-morrow.

The Senate adjourned to dinner.

The Committee of the Whole adjourned to the House.

The resolution of Mr. Bibb to annex a few days since, calling the attention of the Senate to the subject of altering the constitution of the state of Mississippi, was postponed; the galleries were ordered to be cleared. The House adjourned to the next day, January 12.
