Bath Boarding house, BERKELEY SPRINGS, VIRGINIA.

O'FERRALL & CO.

THIS celebrated bathing and watering place was opened for the reception of company on the 25th inst. Their means of accommodating company has been greatly increased by which ad-dition they will be enabled to provide amply for 150 persons in the most comfortable style.

In addition to their well known Boarding House, they have leased the Pavilion Hotel, occupied for the last five years by Col. Strother. The location of these two buildings, and the easy access from them to the Ladies' as well as the gentlemens' baths, render them decidedly preferable to any other establishment in the town, and more especially for invalids, each house opening into the Bath Square, and within 50 to 100 feet of the main drinking spring and baths.

Thancock Depot, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, is the stopping point for this place, where coaches, &c., are at all times ready to convey company to Bath. Bedford water, fresh from the spring, for the accommodation of their boarders.

THE DIVINITY OF CHRIST.

In the 5th day of June, 1846, notice is hereby given, that all persons having claims against the estate of George Randall, deceased, do present them to the undersigned, properly authenticated, for settlement, on or before the 10th day of September next.

Upon the Divine nature of Christ rests the Christian's only hope of salvation. Hence any attempt to disrote the Saviour of that most essential attribute, must be peculiarly afflicting to the Christian, since it makes the agency of man the instrument by which his salvation shall be achieved. When men, who have never searched into the deep mysteries of God, or carefully and prayerfully, if at all, evanished. if at all, examined the proofs and evidences upon which are based the Divine nature of Christ, would place Him in the catalogue of sinful creatures, such as ourselves, it cannot but be encouraging to the humble believer to know the testimony of one possessed of genins, learning and erudition, and almost universal umpire. Such a witness we have in the great and extraordinary Napoleon, who, from long association and intimacy with men of every rank, class and condition in life, had the most ample opportunity of penetrating deeply into the secret workings of the human heart, and of knowing the essential qualities of man.

Napoleon testified that the many virtues, which shone forth with such resplendent and untarnished lustre in the life of Christ, the gentle and persuasive manner of secu-ring the love and adoration of his disciples, the working of miracles in attentation of his power, and the prin-ciples of love upon which he founded his empire, all incontestibly evince that he was a being possessing quali-ties essentially different from those of men, and that therefore he was not man. Whatever objectionable features may be pointed out in the character of Napoleon, his memory deserves to be cherished by every Christian, and especially by every lover of France, as the regenerator and deliverer of that proud and ancient kingdom from a state of anarchy and lates and others, who, rather than sacrifice their princi ples or cause, by remaining in France, and suffer their blood to flow in their defence, had taken refuge in foreign Napoleon's Views of our Lord Jesus Christ. Messrs. Editors—The following is a conversa-tion which passed between the Emperor Napoleon, after his banishment to St. Helena, and his faithful friend Count de Montholon, which was pub-lished not long since in a foreign journal, well au-thenticated, which has been so interesting to me, thenticated, which has been so interesting to me, that I cannot refrain from sending you a copy, with a request that you would give it a place in your paper for the edification of others.

"I know men," said Napoleon, "and I tell you that Jesus is not a man." The religion of Christ is a mystery, which subsists by its own force; and proceeds from a mind which is not a human mind. We find in it marked individuality; which originated a train of words and actions, unknown before! Jesus borrowed nothing from our knowledge; but exhibited himself a perfect example of the best that I ever had on my farm; in fact it is the most complete and substantial made Whoat 5, Machine that I have ever seen of the spike kind—in itruns light, does very speedy and clean threshing. A new Song for the 4th of July, 1846.

One mighty cheer for Resson!

For Taylor—"Rough and Ready."

True son of trues sires;—

For May, who, swift and steady,

Trod down La Vega's fires;

For all who in that day of strife,

Maintain'd in pride the stripes and stat

The dead, who won immortal life,

And they who live for other wars;

For these, who with their victory,

New wreaths to grace our laurel bring.

A health that drains the goblet dry,

A choor that makes the welkin ring!

A cheer that makes the welkin ring!

Nor, though even now we falter

With thoughts of those who died,
And at our festive altar

Grow silent in our pride,
Yet in the leant's most holy deep,
Fond memory shrines the happy brave,
Who in the arms of battle sleep,
By Palo's wood Bravo's wave;
Nor in our future deeds forgot,
Shall silent thought forbear to bring
Her tribute to that sacred spot
Where Kinggold's gallant soul took wing.

Fill to our country's glory,
Where'er her flag is borne;
Nor, in her failing story,
Let future ages mourn;
Nor, let the envious foreign foe,
Rejoice that factions checks her speed,
Arrests her in the indignant blow
And saddens o'er the avonging deed!
Fill high, though from the crystal wave,
Your cup, and from the grape be mine;
The marriage rights that link the brave
To fame, will turn each draught to wine.

LITTLE KINDNESSES .- Small acts of kindness ! LITTLE KINDNESSES.—Small acts of kindness! how pleasant and desirable do they make life.—Every dark object is made light by them, and every tear of sorrow is brushed away. When the heart is sad and despondency sits at the entrance of the soul, a trifling kindness drives despair away and makes the path of life cheerful and pleasant.—Who will refuse a kind act? It costs the giver pathing but is invaluable to the sed and sorrow. nothing, but is invaluable to the sad and sorrow-ing. It raises from misery and degredation, and throws around the soul those hallowed joys, that were lost in Paradise.

HUSEANDS.—A man's house should be his earthly paradise. It should be, of all other spots, that which he leaves with most regret, and to which he returns with the most delight. And in order that it may be so, it should be his daily task to provide every thing convenient and comfortable for his wife. With every provision he can possibly make, her life will be one of care and toil.—She is the sentinel who can seldom, if ever, be relieved. Others may sleep, but if there he any one lieved. Others may sleep, but if there be any one who must watch it is she. She ought, therefore, to be furnished with every comfort within the means of her husband. Generally, every shilling expended by the husband for the accommodation of his wife in her domestic operations, is returned when him fourful if no revision, is returned.

"Who stabs my name, would stab my person too, Did not the hangman's axe lie in the way." A distinguished person once listened to another who was severe in his remarks upon a neighbor. After he was through the hearer, remarked: there not a fair side also to the character of the person of whom you are speaking? Come tell me what good qualities you have remarked about him." There are few men so bad, even in the estimation of their bitterest enemies, who have not some good qualities to recommend them, which

CHARACTER OF THE TEXAS LEGISLATURE.—
The Texas Register contains a complete list of the members of the Legislature of that State.—Senate 21; House 65. Of the whole number 4 are classed as Whigs, 3 Locofocos, 2 Tyler men, 1 Polk-man, 1 Texan, 1 Nullifier, 4 Republicans, 1 Anti-Tariff man, 14 not specified, and the rest Democrats. The oldest member is 87, the youngest 22. Thirty seven are farmers, 1 and started off, playing Yankee Doodle like a regular.

MARYLAND WHEAT.—From all parts of the State, we hear complaints of injuries done to the wheat by heavy rains, but they are not of such a character as to discourage the hope of a tolerable average. The Mediterranean wheat does well.

Foreign Corn in Great Britain.—The quantity of foreign wheat in the warehouses of Great Britain, bonded, according to the return of May 5, was 1,339,955 quarters, or 10,719,640 bushels; and of flour, 1,119,427 cwt.

The Oregon Question. At the time the proposition to arbitrate the Oregon question was made to our government by the British Minister, the rejection of it by Mr. Polk was generally condemned by the whig press. It seemed to us all the while, remarks the N. Y. Evening Post, that their condemnation was founded rather upon party prejudice than a calm and elaborate view of all the bearings of the question. But the religious press, also, which is not supposed to be actuated by mere party motives was very severe in its abuse of the President for putting off, as they said, the day of peace. We find, now, however, that the latter class of newspapers are willing to confess their mistake, and avow that the course of the government was the wisest that could have been taken. One of them, the Observer, of Saturday last, says:

"The terms of the treaty are not quite so favorable to Great Britain as they were offered by Mr. Gallatin in 1827, and had our proposal made a few months ago been accepted, the controversy would have been adjusted on quite as favorable terms at that time.

"We ag "e with the National Intelligencer in Certainly it is a blessing of Provi-dence upon all mankind.' Nations will learn from this result that there is a more excellent way of running lines than with bayonets. It has been the motto of our govern-ment, from Washington's administration downwards, to ask nothing but what is right, and ad herence to that principle will save us from the ne-cessity of submitting to that which is wrong.— The reference of this vexed question to arbitra-tors was declined on the ground that negotiation had not been exhausted, and we now have the pleasure of seeing that the matter is adjusted much earlier, and with far greater prospect of permanent satisfaction than if it had been left to third party to split the difference in such a way Congress.

Yesterday (Thursday,) was the day fixed upon for closing the debate on the Tariff. This discussion has absorbed, to a great extent, in the House, all minor questions. The advocates of the reduction of the Tariff have nobly stood forth in defence of the great principle of the Constitution, and the rights of the people. We cannot but believe that justice to "all the great interests of the country" has preponderated, and the Tariff of 42, with all its iniquities, is now among the things that were. The Representative from this District, the Hon. HENRY BEDINGER, spoke on Saturday last in favor of its repeal. We have received no report of his speech yet, but shall lay it before our readers as soon as received. We find the following among the Congressional Reports of Saturday :-

Mr. Bedinger spoke for an hour in opposition to the Tariff of 1842. He said he could not venture to go home to his constituents without raising his feeble voice against the injustice, fraud, tyranny and oppression of a system under which they lite rally groaned, and which sat upon them like a foul incubus. He told the fable of the fish hawk and the pike fish, with great gusto, and applied it to will show the people of the South what they have to expect from the Whigs of the North. By way of contrast we give place to the following resolutions recently adopted unanimously, by the State Convention of the Democratic party of New Hampshire. Though defeated by means of Abolitionism, the gallant Democrats of the Granite State scorn now, as ever, to make the slightest concession to this infernal doctrine.

Resolved, That we reaffirm the sentiments and opinions of the democratic party and democratic statesmen of the north, entertained from 1776 to the present day, in relation to slavery-that we deplore its existence, and regard it as a great moral and social evil, but with this conviction, we do not deem ourselves more wise than Washington, Franklin, and their associates, and that patriotism, common honesty and religious principle alike bind us to a sacred observance of the compact made by those wise men.

Resolved, That the policy to be pursued in reference to slavery, rests with the States and Territories within which it exists—that whatever parties may profess, it is only as citizens of such States and Territories that the members of those parties can efficiently influence that policy-and that angry external agitation, by exciting the prejudices of the slave-holding communities, while it may endanger the Union, tends rather to fasten than to destroy the bonds of the enslaved.

Resolved, That our national compact constitutes the strength of the American people, and that whenever it shall be broken, we shall, like unhappy Poland, be the subjects of partition at the will of despots.

WONDERFUL !- A meeting was held at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, on the 18th instant, at which resolutions were adopted, declaring the continued confidence of the persons assembled, in the valor of Gen. Scott, and their approval of his late correspondence with the Secretary of War! It will take something more than an expression of confidence from the mongrel politicians of Gettysburg, to bolster up the declining reputation of General arrangements in their report say—

"That they deem the anniversary of the declaration of our national independence peculiarly appropriate for the dedication of a building named in honor of Andrew Jackson. Nurtured amid the trials of the revolution, and a participator in its conflicts and sacrifices, he was thoroughly imbued with the great principles of popular sovereignty which triumphed in its success. His career—from obscure and friendless orphanage to the leadership of millions of freemen in their onward march to greatness and glory—furnishes the most striking illustration of the admirable working of our free institutions. The man of the people, he was ever the zealous and devoted champion of the people's rights and interests, and the stern and inflexible opponent of every system which defrauds labor of its carnings and till's the rich man's field with the sweat of the poor man's brow. His life was devoted to the service of his country, and his most fervent aspirations were for its prosperity and glory. His deeds have shed imperishable fustre upon the American name; his virtues have exalted the human race. As Americans, as patriots, se friends of popular rights, its fitting that was devoted to the survey of the second of the poor man's have exalted the human race. Americans, as patriots, as friends of popular rights, it is fitting that we do homage to his memory on a day conseclated to the principles of which he was the illustrious type and champion.

The friends of General Jackson are therefore requested to assemble at the old rallying ground— the afte of the hickory pole on Pennsylvania ave-nue, between 13th and 14th sts., at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 4th of July, when the line will be formed under the direction of the chief mar-shal and his assistants, and the procession will move precisely at 9 o'clock.

The flag of the United States will be the only banner carried in the procession. Arrangements have been made for the attendance of the Washington brass band."

The following facts we have seen repub lished by several of the Whig papers; we, therefore, feel justified in copying them. They are found in the Washington correspondence of the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser:

"It appears, says the writer, "that Gen. Scott wrote a letter to one of the Senators from Virginia, in answer to an application to him to use his influence with the President in behalf of an officer who had been rejected some time ago by the Senate, mainly through the instrumentality of the Senator in question, (who has since become convinced that he did injustice,) and in that letter, after passing a high encomium upon the officer, he proceeds to say that he has no influence with the President, and that his (the President's) political prejudices against him are too strong to permit him to ex-pect justice at his hands. The letter also contains other severe reflections upon the Executive.

"This letter was given to the officer, and being a strong testimonial in his behalf, he, without reflection or without having read attentively any other part than that relating to himself, gave it to the President. Its contents left no doubt upon the mind of the latter, that the insinuations in Gen. Scott's letter of the 21st of May were intended for him."

Nominations.-We learn from Washington that the President has nominated Thomas L. Hamer, of Ohio, and Gen. Patterson, of Philadelphia, as Brigadier Generals of Volunteers, under the law recently passed by Congress.

MILITARY APPOINTMENTS .- The National Inelligencer of vesterday says :- "It is understood that the President of the United States, on Saturday last, nominated to the Senate Brevet Major General Zachary Taylor, to be a Major General in the Army, under a late act of Congress, and also William O. Butler, of Kentucky, to be a Major General of Volunteers under the last supplementary act of Congress making provision for such appointment."

FRANKLIN MEDICAL COLLEGE OF PHILADEL-PHIA.—We have received the Circular of this institution, announcing that its first annual course of lectures will be opened on Monday, the 12th day of October next, (the second Monday in October,) and will be continued until the end of the ensuing February. MONEY MARKET IN NEW YORK .- The New York Express of Friday evening says:

"A few failures of persons engaged in the flour trade have taken place; but it is believed that none others will follow. Confidence is becoming general, and merchants and others are anticipating a better state of things. The market is sensibly relieved, merchants and others having been drawing in and contracting their business for fear of political difficulties. These apprehensions are now dispelled, and merchants are making arrange-ments for an increasing business. The Exchanges on the South are turning more in our favor, and hose with Europe so much so, that banks discount with freedom. Indeed, there is a want of good paper."

ORDER REIGNS AT NAUVOO .- The St. Louis Reveille says :-

"The Mormon war, which for the few past days assumed such a serious aspect, has turned out to be a very comical affair, and certainly places the threatening forces who marched to Nauvoo in a very ridiculous light. Sharp, of the Warsaw Signal, announces in an extra of the 14th, that 'Hancock is the theatre of war!' and in his paper of the 17th, he throws down his 'brickbats,' and relates the inglorious retreat of the Anti-Mormon mob from Nauvoo. The war is now over and peace again restored. !"

GENERAL GAINES COURT MARTIALED .- The Washington correspondent of the New Ark (N. I.) Our National Anniversary. To-morrow, (Saturday,) is the 70th Anniversary of American Independence. It is well that the day should be properly remembered, and its hallowed associations kept in dew.

Throughout the country, generally, more than usual preparation has been made for its observance.

In this town no general parade will take place but our differs will have an opportunity of spend-ing the day most agreeably in the towns adjacent. At Harpers-Ferry, the "Odd Fellows" procession will be the great point of attraction. It is anticipated that it will be one of the most splendid ex-hibitions of the kind ever witnessed in the Valley of Virginia. Of course all who can will be present, as they may reasonably expect ample compensation. At Shepherdstown, a Celebration will take place under the management of the " Potomac Rifle," a handsome new Company recently organized in that town. Shannondale, too, will have its attractions, and those who are fond of sports that are there offered, and the cool, bracing air of the country, will be in attendance.

Our friends of Clarke County have made pre paration for a gala day. N. CARROLL MASON, Esq. has been selected as the Orator, and from the high reputation of this gentleman as a speaker, and the clearness and force of his productions, as a writer, a rich intellectual treat may be expected." The energetic Committee of Arrangement will have prepared a public dinner in a beautiful grove near Berryville, to which they cordially invite the citizens of their own county, and from those adjacent. The Ladies, too, are not forgotten, but a cordial invitation is extended to them to be present and participate in the pleasures of the day.

Mounted Riflemen. Capt. STEVENS T. MASON, has been in our town luring the last few days, procuring recruits for his new Regiment of Mounted Riflemen. This is to be a choice Company, composed of one hundred men, and ten companies. It will be their duty to protect emigrants to Oregon, and render such assistance to the emigrant and such service to the Government, as it may be in their power to perform. Capt. M. has very nearly enlisted his quota-he received some seven or eight recruits in this town. To young men of roving disposition, a rare opportunity is offered in this service. Capt. M's Recruiting Rendezvous is at Sappington's Hotel, where for a few days, additional recruits will be received.

The Weather.

Truly, the freaks of the weather have become most singular. Our farmers are just now in the midst of their harvest, and every change (and they come thick and fast,) is looked to with the most anxious solicitude. The last week, though unusually cool for the season, was favorable for harvesting. On Saturday night a violent storm of wind and rain commenced, which continued with but little abatement until Thursday morning.-We fear much additional injury has been done to the Wheat.

School Districts.

By reference to advertisement, the metes and bounds of the School Districts of the county, under the new Act, are fully set forth. This is mainly done, as we believe, for the purpose of eliciting any new suggestions that may be made by the citizens of the several Districts; and the Commissioners will cheerfully take into consideration any improvement in the boundaries that may be found more advantageous than those proposed.

The next meeting of the Commissioners will be in August, at which time, it is hoped, all preliminary arrangements will be settled. The people of efferson have given their vote as three to one in favor of the new law, and some are already becoming impatient as to postponing its necessary and beneficial effects.

THE Websterian Policy.—Strange as it may appear, it is nevertheless true, that Daniel Webster proposed in his place in the Senate, that a formal embassy should be at once sent to Mexico for the purpose of closing the war with that country. For the honor of the nation, we rejoice, that no notice, and especially that no action was taken by the Senate upon this most improper sugarding. Our last embassy was driven by insult gestion. We learn from one of the passengers, the authorities at Tampico were divided into ties. One of the parties with the milita Gen. BURGLARY EXTRAORDINARY .- On Friday night or Saturday morning, says the Philadelphia Ledg-ber, the dwelling of a man named William Binder, in a small street back of Federal and Seventh streets, Southwark, was entered by burglars, and a bureau in the second story was taken bodily from the window, carried about a square, broken open and rifled of its contents, and then left lying in the lot. During this bold operation the inmates of the house slept soundly and did not know that they had been robbed till they discovered it in the morning. AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS AT MATAMORAS .- A weekly paper has been commenced at Matamoras by H. McLison, entitled "Republic of the Rio Grande and Friend of the People." The leading articles are printed both in English and Spanish. particulars of this dreadful catastrophe I condense into as brief a space as possible.

The Sutledge, Captain Graham, of and from Picton, for Fall River, sailed on the 12th inst., with 56 passengers, men women and children, and on Saturday morning, about 3 o'clock, the weather being thick and loggy, she struck on the Sow and Pigs, a ledge of rocks in the Vineyard; soon after which the tide caused her to slew round, and she backed off the ledge, filled and went down how foremest in ten fathous water. lown bow foremost in ten fathoms water.

Previous to her going down, the boat was got out and the passengers rushed into it, when the captain gave orders to sliove her from the brig. He then jumped overboard and swam to the boat, and kept her as close to the brig as possible, picking up such as jumped into the water. The whole number thus picked up alive was thirty-one.

The schooner Dusky Sally being near, sent her boat to assist and succeeded in saving six more alive, who were in the water, and three more from the rigging of the sunken brig. Sixteen bodies, four women and twelve children, were also picked up by the two boats, which together with the survivors, were put on board the Dusky Sally and brought to Newport. Another vessel was at the same time picking up what was adrift from the vreck, &c.

The passengers were all foreigners-mostly Scotch, and were on their way to Pennsylvania, where they expected to find work in the mining The Odd Fellows and other humans business. The Odd Fellows and other humane citizens of Newport, made liberal contributions for the relief of the survivors, and collections were to be taken yesterday in all the churches for the same purpose. The bodies of the drowned were decently interred by the authorities at Newport.

PATRIOTIC GERMANS IN TEXAS .- Among the many pleasing incidents of patriotism exhibited in the "war excitement" the conduction war excitement," the conduct of a large number of German emigrants in Texas deserve particular notice. Upon the arrival at Galveston of the news that Gen. Taylor wished for reinforcements, one hundred and fifty German emigrants, who had been in the country but three weeks, organized themselves into two companies, and started for Gen. Taylor's head quarters.

DISGRACEFUL QUARREL AT JERUSALEM .- A disgraceful quarrel occurred at Jerusalem on Good Greeks. When the Latin procession, which was reached the hole in the rock said to have contained the cross, they proceeded to remove a cloth tacked the h covering placed on the spot; the Greeks attempted to prevent it, and the quarrel from words came and dissipation to blows, and on the very spot believed by them both to have been the scene of our Saviour's sufwheat of the present crop was received and sold in the Baltimore market on Saturday. A Female Soldier.—The Louisville Journal of the service of the United States, one of Capt. Walker's company from Evansville, lost a handkerchief. On setting down to mess, he observed it sticking out of the bosom of one of his comrades. He immediately took hold of it, when, to his surprise, he discovered that his messmate was a female. On inquiring into this strange proceeding, she stated, that being very poor, and wishing to go to her father, who resided in Texas, resolved to join one of the volunteer companies. She afterwards went to Louisville, and her fellow soldiers raised a subscription to carry her to her father.

Hoos and Strawberries.—Cincinnatti has long been assigned the palm as the great swine depot of the world. She is also entitled to the additional fame of being the great Strawberry-bed of the world. The daily fupply and consumption of the city being estimated by the city papers at twenty thousand quarts—telling at 5 to 10 cents per quart—which, at eight cents per quart, shows that sixteen hundred dellars are daily consumed to instrument the service of the united States, has computed that the loss to the United States, has computed that the loss to the United States, has computed that the loss to the United States from the use of intoxicating drinks, is one hundred and fifty millions of dellars appared.

The Radnor arrived yesterday from Fort Leavenworth, to which place she had carried a considerable quantity of military stores and supplies. Capt. Urrea appointed in his place; and that the most vigorous steps were taken to prepara for a war of defence and offence; that fortifications and military preparations of various kinds were going on; that a draft was actively progressing in Santa Fe and Chihuahua, and that every third man of the whole population was taken.—
The Indians were reported to be unfavorable to the Americans, and the Mexicans relied much on their aid. Gen. THE ARMY IN MEXICO.-The army of the United States in Mexico appears now to be about 11-, 000 strong, as the following estimates will show: U. S. regulars, 3,500; Louisiana volunteers, 4,-U. S. regulars, 3,500; Louisiana volunteers, 4,500; Texas, 750; Kentucky, 750; and Missouri, 750—total, 11,000. With this army General Taylor will be able to accomplish his purpose of taking Monterey and holding possession of all the northern part of Mexico. He has already made the first movement by despatching Col. Wilson with 500 troops to take the town of Reinoso. Alter taking possession of the small towns, and securing his rear, he will take up his march for the interior. The enemy it is expected will make anointerior. The enemy it is expected will make another stand at Monterey, if at all, though the last accounts represent that the government had sent orders for the remnant of the army to retreat to Tampico, with a view to the defence of Vera Cruz. The next news will probably be the advance of Gen. Taylor into the interior.

STORM AT QUEBEC.—A violent north-east gale set in at Quebec on the 20th ult., which appears to have caused a great deal of damage. The barque Cleopatra was capsized, and the walls of a house left standing since the fire, were blown down— falling on the adjoining house, crushing to death one female. It was reported that great loss of life had occurred on Lake St. Peter, by the breaking up of the rafts, the shores being covered with the fragments. During the height of the gale, an extensive chandlery, belonging to Mr. Gordon, was discovered to be on fire and was totally consumed, the adjoining property being saved only by the greatest exertions of the firemen and the sol-

THE CHOLERA.—By accounts from the European papers it seems that the dreadful scourge, the cholera, is again on its devastating march over the Eastern continent, and report says it has made its appearance in Canada. It first appeared recently in some of the provinces of Persia, carrying death into the principal towns. It has spread from Bokhara to Herat and Meshio, and has now taken the direction from the Caspian Sea to Teheran and Ispahan. Late accounts from Odessa state that it had crossed the Russian territory and appeared suddenly at Tiflis, taking a northerly direction between the Caspian and the Black sea. BAHES IN CHURCH.—The editor of the Pitts-burg Chronicle, for aught we know a bachelor, thus discourses of the impropriety of taking ba-bies to church:

bies to church:

"Babies are fine things in their places—Wo like them at home in their nursery, the only proper place for that class of juveniles coming under the denomination of babies. But in church, babies are nuisances—Now crowing, now crying, constantly keeping up some noise or other, they distract the attention of the audience, and disturb the nerves of the speaker. Gingerbread will sometimes keep them quiet; but not othen. Babies never sleep in church—not they. They are as wide awake as weatels, but by no means as still. Some fond mothers take their babies to church for the purpose of showing them. This is a bad policy. Nobody except the doating parents, ever sees any beauty in babies at church. We never saw a baby yet, however smart at home, that did credit to itself in a public assembly. It would be sure to do something to make every body hate it before meeting was half over. Mothers, therefore, who wish to preserve the characters of their babies, for being well behaved and quiet babies, should never take them to church or in a stage coach." take them to church or in a stage coach."

Things We like to see people twist their necks half off, in taying to discover what is going on in every house they pass. It shows they have laudable curiosity.

We like to see a platoon of young girls stretch themselves across the pavement, and run against every body they meet, or push them into the street. It shows that they consider themselves of more consequence than any body else.

We like to see young ladies or gentlemen disturbing every body in church by laughing, and ridiculing the sermon. It shows they are too good to improve, and too "respectable" to behave decently.

We like to see a mob of "nice young men" always assembled about church doors and street

Suck a glass through the quill of Malevolence, and you will be prepared to speak all manner of evil, hatred, malice, and all unchari tableness.

"SERVED RIGHT."-A fashionable lady o more show than substance, residing at Nassau street, New York, lately went into a thread store in the Bowery, after busying the clerk for nearly two hours, purchased a single spool of thread.— She thought it too vulgar, however, to carry it home, and requested to have it sent. No sooner had she left the store than a hand cart was procured, the spool deposited on it, taken to her residence, and dumped upon the sidewalk, after the fashion of a ton of coal; for which she was obliged to fork over twenty-five cents, cartage money.

LEGERDEMAIN—or, How to get a whole Suit of Clothes into a Junk Bottle.—Every time you feel like taking a "HORN," drop the price of a "nipper" into the bottle and drink a glass of pure cold wa-ter. Repeat this until the bottle is full, then break it and carry the contents to a good tailor, and within the space of a week, you will find yourself encased in a new suit of clothes, without any trouble or expense to yourself. The same can be done with hats, boots, &c. We have known a cart load of wool and a barrel of flour to be transmogrified in a similar manner.

unst., but we do not learn whether a legal quorum was obtained. The reader will recall that when Dr. Dimond, our late Consul at Vera Cruz, lefton the 30th ult., he was decidedly of opinion that a quorum could not legally be obtained, and such appears to have been the case down to the evening of the 30th all.

Gen. Paredes had at last determined to leave the capital and take the command of the army of the frontier. The result of the actions of the 8th and 9th of May is said to have made upon him a profound impression. He was to leave the capital on the 6th inst., at the head of 3000 troops, but or-ders had been issued that large bodies should join him at different points on the line of march, so that his entire force, including Arista's command should not fall short 16,000 men.

Although we have now received intelligence by way of Havana and of Tampico, and by the Fal-mouth, that Paredes would certainly take the command of the army in person, yet there was an impression prevalent among men of sagacity in Vera Cruz when the Falmouth left, that he would not and could not venture to leave the city of Mexico during the session of Congress. It is said nearly one half of the county is in open revolt. The news received here a brinight since of the revolt at Mazatlan is confirmed, and as we then anticipated, Sonora is now in a state of robellion against the Central Government.

So ripe for revolution is the Department of Vera Cruz, that upon the departure of the Falmouth, it was said there were 1500 men outside the city of Vera Cruz, ready to attack it at any time, upon the signal being fiven. Some of the guns had actually been removed from the Castle of San Juan de Ulua and placed around the city for its defence, and troops had been withdrawn from the castle

The intelligence received from Tampico on Sunday shows how that city was rent with internal dissentions, and in considering the deplorable state of the country in every quarter and under every aspect, it would by no means surprise users persons the country in every distributions. were Paredes compelled to forego his cherished purpose of placing himself at the head of the Mexican army. But suppose he carries his resolution into effect, what better fate awaits him at the hands of Gen. Taylor and our troops? Truly his chances from every point of view appear desperate.

In a piper from Havana, received since our last, we find a despatch of Gen. Arista to the Governor of Tanaulipas, dated from the rancho of La Venada, May 18th, which is the latest communication from him we have seen. In this he states that as the means of subsistence for his army are consumed, and its artillery weakened, while the artillery of the Americans had been increased by many heavy guns, so that Matamoras could quick ly be battered down, he had determined to with-draw his troops thence before he should be threat-ened, and while he could retire with honor. He had accordingly done so deliberately, his artillery being drawn by oxen and his munitions conveyed in wagons. His object henceforth he says, is to defend the soil of the Department entrusted to his command, and he was on his march to points suitable for this purpose, which, however, are not men-tioned in the despatch. He directs communica-

of his expressions, both oral and on paper. In 1838, when he was Governor of this State, the Legislature protracted its session beyond the bounds of reason or propriety, passing laws he thought uncalled for by the public interests, and doing acts of all kinds against the well-being of the community and assembly the commu the community, and especially injurious to the party. After the Governor's patience had had its perfect work, and refused to work any longer, the two houses appointed a joint committee to inform him that the Legislature was ready to adjourn .-The committee performed its duty, and inquired whether the Governor had any message to com-the Governor.

"Yes, your Excellency," replied the Chairman.
"Tell them I'm d—— glad of it."
The note with which the correspondence with General Gaines is closed by Mr. Secretary Marcy, is nearly as brief and explicit.

"I have to inform you that this Department has no further occasion for your services as collector of the port of Mobile."

Texas Salt.—The Poinston Telegraph says that the section of country lying west of the Nueces, bordering on the sea coast, is intersected by numerous shallow inlets and bays, into which the salt water of the Gulf flows during winter, but it is summer, owing to intense solar evaporation, they become dry, and are covered with a crustrof set three or four inches thick, equal in every depect to Turk's Island, which is the best for poserving meat and fish. The dry climate of wedern Texas—raim seldom falling in the summer months—makes the process of evaporation exceedingly rapid, and millions of bushels may be procured for the mere trouble of collecting it.

The U. S. steam frigate Princeton had arrived off Vera Cruz, and with the frigate Raritan was maintaining the blockade of the port. The health of the crews of both vessels was excellent, although the vomito was raging in the city of Vera Cruz.

You SHALL BELIEVE .- Belief is not an act of the will. Sufficient evidence compels our assent; so listen dear reader, and I will convince you that Dr. Wistar's dear reader, and I will convince you that Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is by far the best remedy for discusse of our climate to be found in this country. It is formed by chemical extracts from vegetables (the Wild Cherry, Pine, etc.) that nature seems to have placed here as powerful antidotes to all affections of the Lungs and Liver that our everchanging climate induces. After the skill of our greatest physicians was exhausted, it has cured Asthma in various cases. It cured a lady of an incipient Consumption, whose family had all died of the Poughkeepsie Eagle." Thomas Cozens, Haddonfield, N. J., testified, UNDER OATH, that it cured him of an internal Abscess, violent Cough, raising of Blood, etc., after he was deemed beyond hope. We could refer to plenty of such instances of its uncommon power. The doubting are invited to inquire of individuals and cases that we allude to, as we publish no statements that will not bear the most rigid scrutiny.
