E. M. AISQUITH, P. M. Map of Jefferson County.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—Having been called upon publicly in the Free Press, and privately by many individuals, to publish a Map of Jefferson County, and having been referred to the Map of our mother county, Berkeley, just published, by Mr. Kearfoot, Surveyor of said county, as a matter of great public utility, &c., I have determined if I meet with sufficent encouragement, press the matter to a completion at some ear

I have, as I stated to you in the Free Press, been preparing myself with materials for a number of years, but the press of business has caused delay. I have associated my son with me in the project, and will be able not only to attend more promptly to surveying than has been in my power for some time past, but will have it in my power to present you with a complete Map of the garden spot of Virginia, with all its ways, waters, &c., and pledge myself that neither labor nor care shall be spared to render it desirable to each one of you. We are advised to publish it by subscription, and having no experience in the matter, avail ourselves of that advice—therefore, we will place in many public places throughout the county, subscription I have, as I stated to you in the Free Press, beer of that advice—therefore, we will place in many public places throughout the county, subscription papers, so that those who may wish to encourage the matter can manifest the same by subscribing for as many copies as they may wish.

As our county is called the garden spot of Virginia, and having more towns and waters, smaller farms and less mountains, than Berkeley, we shall have more work to perform than our neighbor Kearfoot, yet, notwithstanding any difference there may be in that respect, we will publish at the price for which he sells his, viz: $1.50.

As we have been urged to hurry the business we would earnestly request all those who wish to subscribe, to do so by the first day of May.

NOTE.—Very frequently when I return home, my family informs me that gentlemen had called to see me on business. My business necessarily calls me much from home, yet I get there sometimes, where I shall be glad to see you. But to save often long rides and disappointments, let me suggest the following method:—communicate with me through the Charlestown Post Office—appoint your own time for surveying, giving me as many your own time for surveying, giving me as many days as you can conveniently to prepare for it, and be assured you will be attended to promptly.

Where the sun gilds the erng of the rooss-covered rock,

As it greets with delight the Potomac's bright flow;

Where the Eagle sits perched from his majestic flight,

By the-syrie he built there the lamb to purvey—

And he screams as he soars through the heavenly light

At the sound of the clarion that notes the mid-day. You have gone to your home, where the bright bubble

On the rippling stream as it glides swiftly by;
Where the dawn of the sun gilds the morning's white And the charms of the scene catch the traveller's mee

Where the bright water speaks with the whispering voice.

Where the towering peak are the Eagle's first choice,
And the mountains are topped by his hovering light. You have gone to your home, "where the bright water flow;"
Where unture displays her magnificence most;
Where the stream flowing by with a whisper so lcw,
Seems to speak with delight of the gem it can boast,
As it glides swilly by, it will waft her sweet praise,

To view with delight in her halegon days,

Washington Union publishes the following letter from General Taylor to a member of the late Democratic Convention in Kentucky, by which it appears the old hero will accept a nomination from either party, though not to be considered as pledged to the views of either:

In reply to which, I have to state, so far as I am concerned, I have not changed the position I first occupied, as regards my being a candidate for that high office. Louis Rapoleon, son of the late King of Holland, Louis Bonaparte, and of Hortene, daughter of Josephine, lately secaped from prison in France, and has now returned there from England, on hearing of the Revolution. He is, we believe, over 40 years of age. In 1837 he visited the United States, and spent some days in this city. The Runaways.—On Sunday night week, says the Centreville Times, a large boat containing 18 negroes, who proved to be runaways from the Western Shore, landed at Kent Island, where the latter were subsequently apprehended, brought to Centreville and lodged in the county jail. It appears that they are from Anne Arundel and Calvert counties, and supposed when they struck Kent Island that they had reached Delaware where, had their wishes been realized, the the under ground rail raod would readily have conveyed them to the North—as it is they will probably make the Southern tour.

"The distance from the head of navigation on the Arkansas and Red rivers to a navigable point of the waters of the Gulf of California, is not more than five or six hundred miles. Let that distance be overcome by a railroad, and what a vista is opened to the prosperity and power of our coun-try! I have no doubt that the time will come when New Orlcans will be the greatest city in the world. That period would be incalculably hav-tened by the measures which I have indicated, which would throw into herlap the vast commerce

THE LAW'S DELAY .- A case was decided las week, in Fairfax county, (Va.,) which had been in Chancery for twenty years. The parties were Lee vs. Chichester. The decision was for the plaintiff, and the defendant appeals! So the end is not yet.

JOHN JACOB ASTOR'S WILL.—From a state-ment that appears in one of the New York papers it would seem far from improbable that the will of Mr. Astor will be disputed by the heire-at-law. South Carolina has less than twenty persons the square mile, and her citizens are leaving her rich soil and genial climate in thousands, while Massachusetts, with a sterile soil and hard climate has a population of overone hundred to the square mile, and the value of land is yearly rising in all HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—The latest and best thing of the kind that we have heard, relates to Fred, the prince of all wags. He was jogging home rather late, and a little happy, when passing by a dark alley, a large two fisted fellow stepped out, seizing him by the collar, demanded his money.—"Money!" said Fred, "money—I have none—but if you will hold on a moment I will give you my note at thirty days!"

my note at thirty days!"

How STRANGE IT IS.—What a strange and mysterious thing is the human frame. A knock on the head, if it does not kill, often renders a man imbecile for life. Mr. Hotchkiss, of Brooklyn, who was so nearly murdered some months since has recovered his bodily health and is slowly regaining his mental faculties; but he seems to have forgotten everything he learned during his life, and has to be taught to speak and learn his letters as if he were a child. The sound of his own voice in lesrning to articulate a now word, amuses him exceedingly.

I gin her such a look, but she didn't mind it for she knowed I couldn't help myself. Oh, dear! I know it is no use for a help myself. Oh, dear! I know it is no use for a woman to say anything when a man gets his head sot; but it does make me feel so orful to think what you used to be—but as parson Smith says, there is nothing on the face of the earth but what will change. Why, Tompkins, when we was first married, you was so tender-hearted you couldn't see me bled, and now you're talking about voting for Taylor, the very man as recommended the Cuba blood hounds to be set on the Florida indians, near critters. dians, poor critters.

That period would be incalculably hastened by the measures which I have indicated, which would throw into her lap the was commerce of China and of India. Great Britain, with that wise and far-seeing policy for which she is more remarkable than any other government, has already the practical poscession of most of the ports of the Pacific ocean—New Zealand and the Sandwich Islands, and very soon the Society Islands also. We have a commerce in that ocean of more than fitty millions of dollars, and not a single place of refuge for our shins.

I will not say what is our policy in regard to California. Perhaps it is, that it remains in the hands of a weak power like Mexico, and that all the maritime powers may have the advantage of its ports. But one thing I will say—that II—right the world a war of Twenty years to the Mexicans.

"I'd better mind my own business?" Yes, I 'I'd better mind my own business?' Yes, I see you're completely sot agin me, Tompkins: but say what you will, I'm a Whig to the back bone, and when I think how orfully we shall be beat if we run Taylor, it does make me feel as trembly as a leaf. Oh, dear! I believe in my soul it will be the death of me yet. Here Mrs. Tompkins fell into a violent fit of hysterics, and the last we saw of Tompkins he was dashing water on her.

A HEAVY BLOW.—A Pennsylvania Col., a very particular friend of ours, is very fond of telling stories, of which he is invariably the hero. The only fault about some of them is, they are highly colored; in short, he always 'draws ye long bowe." I was once in Harrisburg, 'easy sthe Col., " on official business. During my stay a horse-race came off near the capitol, and as I am rather partial to horse-racing. I went to see it. Just as the horses were about starting, some fellow insulted me by jostling me rather roughly. Now, you know I don't often fight, but when I strike, why, then I do strike—so I up fiet, and hit him a blow that sent him against the fence, into the field, carrying with him nine sections of posts and rails.—The fellow laid a short time, then raising himself into a sitting posture, he looked wildly around him. "Gentlemen." said he, "hast this storm done much damage? Did the lightning strike any body but me?"

A SHAME.—Politicians and people who have nothing else to do, have so beset Gen. Taylor with letters, that it is not only a herculean labor to read them, but his postage account is actually eating into his substance.

ELECTION DAY.

Thursday, 27th of April. Col. ANDREW KEYSER will be supported as

Candidate for the House of Delegates, from the County of Page, in the next Legislature of Virginia. MANY VOTERS, We are authorized to announce Maj. THOMAS BUSWELL, as a candidate for re-election to the Legislature of Virginia, from the county of Page.

THE GREAT EMBODIMENT AND

THE AVAILABLE.

The part which Mr. Clay has been acting for the last six months has drawn upon him the eyes of both friends and foes. Not only his course, but the course of his peculiar admirers and advocates, as well as that of his opponents in his own party, has been carefully and unremittingly watched and scrutinized. His Lexington speech and resolulutions first gave the impetus to the discussion of his availability, which brought well nigh to the brink of rain, all his hopes of ever receiving again the nomination of his party for the office of President. But it seems that notwithstanding the mischief done by his aforesaid speech and resolutions was great, and in the estimation of the would be General Webb, irreparable, yet by a tour to the city of Washington and thence home again by the way of New York, he has neutralized their effect; and consequently the current begins again to turn in favor of his availability. At least such is the conclusion to which we are bound to come from the overwhelming testimony furnished by his letter of the 11th instant: this being the last out. We do not doubt the earnest and repeated solicitations which he has received to suffer his name to be offered again for the suffrages of the American people, nor do we doubt that the reasons which have been urged, have induced him to yield to these solicitations. But we do doubt the have brought him and themselves. We cannot believe it possible that, if a candidate, he can get it in the power of that Company to charge what even two out of the three States referred to: But its pleases-an exorbitant price above the Ferry that he is the only man resident in a Southern or and nothing below, if this step should be rendered Slaveholding State, who would stand any possible chance, at this time, of receiving the co operation of a certain class of voters in the Northern States, called abolitionists, in his nomination, Richmond in allaying her fears as to the rivalry of we think extremely probable. And this was Alexandria. No wonder, then, he is a favorite in doubtless the object aimed at in all that his Lex- Richmond. And for ourselves, we must admit emancipation of Slavery, and in his 7th resolution. And it would appear that, ever since that time, he has been anxiously awaiting the result to be produced on Northern minds by his great pronuncia mento. The desired effect, as he conceives, has been accomplished; and he is emboldened to be the first to publish to the country the tidings which have so gladdened his own heart, that those few, Mesers. Botts & Co., who adhered to his fortunes when the lustre of his heretofore unquestioned availability seemed rapidly growing dim, and about to be altogether eclipsed by the brilliancy of military influence, might participate in the rejoicing over the success of his adroitly laid schemes .-Hence we are inclined to question his sincerity when he tells us 'that he would greatly prefer the retiracy of private life ' If Mr Clay, however, has induced the impression upon the minds of Northern fanatics that he is with them on the great question of anti-Slavery, we think that we can say to them, from our knowledge of the man, that they will find it all a trick in the stupendous trade of President-seeking, which he has been playing with so much desperation for the last quarter of a century. It cannot be denied that the speech and resolutions aforesaid have done much to impair the confidence even of some of his partizans, in his political integrity. His duplicity is made too apparent, which of itself puts too much in jeopardy the rights and interests of the South, and which has placed in the hands of his opponents too powerful a weapon with which to attack his fidelity to the Constitution-to the Union itself. But while this is the state of things in the South, the North can have no ground upon which to base a single hope in his election to the Presidency. The reason that would influence one portion of the Union to withdra w its confidence in the man, might have the like effect upon another. Mr. Clay is ambitious. His affections are fixed upon the Presidential Chair. He thinks that he has been kept too long out of his seat. His schemes have all been frustrated. He has invent ed another; and again he has brought his mind to the point of lesting the efficacy of his new inhis last, his final struggle. And knowing this, he saw the greater necessity of deepening and widening his artifices; and thus far, he seems satisfled with their operations. And we have no doubt but that his soliloquies were in a train somewhat

But we could say to him-alas, vain man, thy ambitions hopes will again be crushed!

MR. GALLAHER: We confess that we were surprised at the contents of a letter from Walter Gwynn, Esq., of Richmond, published in the "Free Press" of last for the publication of evidence so conclusive as to the people of Richmond looking upon his re-election as so immediately identified with their interest and welfare! How is this to be accounted or? In the first place, Mr. G. is, as shown by his course in the Senate, what might be termed an ultra Internal Improvement man. He has even gone so far as to declare by his votes, that he would not withhold appropriations for Internal Improvements, although the revenues of the State might prove insufficient to pay even the accruing interest on such appropriations. Under such reckless legislation as this, Mr. Gwynn knows, as do the people of Richmond, that the James River and Kanawha Canal improvement, (Mr. Gwynn being at the head of this Company,) which has been heretofore, and is yet, a constant drain upon the Treasury-which has been the cause of far the greater portion of the indebtedness of the State, and consequently the chief cause of the increase of our taxation-would always get from the Legislature whatever it desired, however exorbitant its demands. Such a course of Legislation must have the effect of fastening upon the State an enormous debt, which the State will either have to be heavily taxed to pay, or bring upon itself the disgrace of repudiation. Mr G. has indeed boasted of the many appropriations that he has gotten for this section of Virginia, to prove his all-powerful influence in the Senate; and he no doubt thinks it strange that we had not been able to appreciate his merits until he took it upon himself to tell us of them. But the the people of Richmond are more discerning than we poor, stupid idiots are, and hence their solicitude about him. There is another point in the argument, however, nearer home. The jealousy of Richmond may have become excited towards Alexandria, which, receiving the fostering care of the Legislature, may become to some extent, the rival of Richmond. No one will doubt but that he most natural market for the Valley of Virginia, at least, is Alexandria. To increase the facilities of transportation to that city would have the effect of concentrating there an increased amount of capital, which would result to the ad-vantage of this portion of Virginia, and add wealth to the State. But by a course of Legislation in relation to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, these advantages to the State, to the Valley of Virginia and to Alexandria herself, can hardly ever be realized, if at all. These considerations imperatively d manded certain restrictions in the charter to the Company of the said Railroad-one of which should have been to require that company to charge the same rate per mile for every mile o travel and transportation over said road. By this provision in the charter a Railroad from Harpers-Ferry to Alexandria would have stood on the same footing with the Baltimore road, and could have competed most successfully with it, the distance to Alexandria being so much shorter. Without this restriction, the charter, we looking to the interest of Virginia, (out of Richmond.) to the interest of Alexandria and the Valley, and to Harpers-Ferry itself, (for the advantages to that point would have been incalculably enhanced,) should not have been granted. And although Mr. G. must have seen the importance of, and did vote, we believe, for the restriction, yet he, like a faith correctness of the conclusion to which his friends less sentinel, aided the passage of the aforesaid

PROSPERITY AND RUIN

It is certain that the Whig party is a curious one. It is, in one respect, like the orator who, "had two tones in his voice." One tone, the natural, is used when there is no party question; but the other, the falsetto, is put in requisition whenever party matters are in hand. Take ar illustration. The Phila. North American of Wednesday, in speaking of the European revolutionary novements, says:

* * "The day for doubting the stability of our nstitutions and the safety of our funds, is gone.— n the great storms in which the nations are tossed, as so many disabled ships, America rises out of the waters like a continent firm and vast, an of the waters like a continent firm and vast, an asylum, a refuge, a place of eternal sussiline And Prace. All circumstances * * are of a character any thing but insuspicious to the prospects, commercial and financial, of the United States." Now, this very journal, whenever the domestic question of party politics is raised, utters the raven note of "Ruin!" with every possible kind of variation. Cassandra like, it is constantly raving to the Whire: o the Whigs:

to the Whigs:

"Cry, Trojans, cry! lend me ten thousand oyes,
And I will fill them with prophetic tears."

Even the Taylor branch of the "Whigs," in their recent proceedings, have solemnly and publicly resolved and proclaimed, "that we believe that this country cannot survive another (Whig) defeat." Yet the very next day, the same journal publishing this resolution, informs its readers that this same country is "a place of ETERSAL sunshine and peace." Most noble Orator Puff!

THE OPPOSITION.

The Whig opposition for years have habitually indulged in charges of usurpation and oppression against the government of their country. They Richmond, published in the "Free Free of the week. We always felt pretty well satisfied in our own mind, that he (Mr. Gallaher) felt a strong of the oppression of the mother country. Not merely against Executive usurpation, either real, they utter these sentiments, but or supposed, do they utter these sentiments, but against laws of Congress, passed by large majorities of the people's representatives, and sanctioned for a course of years by the people themselves. These laws they proclaim, every hour, to be but a series of acts of oppression and misrule. They speak of them as if it were an admitted fact, that such is their true character. This is the language which they utter, these the sentiments which they constantly express to the rising generation around them. Are such sentiments and language likely to inspire our youth with the love of union, to enmake them feel, that their destiny has made them common citizens of one great and glorious republic? A stranger unaccustomed to the tricks and desperation of party, would, from the piteous lamentations of the Whigs, naturally suppose that they were the only patriots in the land, and that the President of the United States was the chief of some lawless banditti, who had usurped the reins of government, and was administering it with an iron sway, without regard to right, justice, or the constitution, but solely with a view of oppressing the many for the benefit of the few.

Our gove meent has now been sixty years in operation, and nearly the entire time under Demo-cratic supremacy: so far, it has worked well. We have had no President who was unfaithful, none impeached. All the officers who have been connected with the higher departments of the government have discharged the trusts confided to them with fidelity and as honest sentinels of the Constitution.

Why, then, all this clamor, and why this at-

Why, then, all this clamor, and why this attempt on the part of the designing, to separate the people from the government, to sow dissensions, create animosities, and to alienate the people from the officers whom they have chosen? The government under our constitution is from the people, of the people, and for the people, one and indivisible, forever inseperable. Cut the ligament which binds than together, and we well the people of which binds them together, and you overthrow and subvert the Constitution.

Is it not strange that they who are continually denouncing the Presidency, and the patronage with which it is invested, as corrupt and corrupting, and so well calculated to destroy the virtue, houesty, and patriotism of all who wields its influ-ence, should at the same time be desirous of attainence, should at the same time be desirous of attaining the dangerous eminence, and move heaven and earth for the purpose of accomplishing their disinterested aspirations? The Whigs are not more endowed with the attributes of angels than the Democrats; and, to an unsophisticated mind, it is passing strange that they should seek those high places, which they so strenuously teach are synonymous with oppression and corruption.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

In the Baltimore Sun of Thursday last, we find the following. We have no knowledge of any gentlemen having left this County at any recen date, having a family residing in Michigan. The account may be correct, however:

A most daring highway robbery was perpetrated in Orange county, N. Y., on the 30th ult. A gen-tleman named Joseph Stephenson, 65 years of age, of Jefferson county, Virginia, on his way to Michigan, where some of his children reside, in going from Florida to Chester, in a wagon, about an hour an a half before sunrise, was met by two armed scoundrels, who tied him to a tree by both hands, and robbed him of $2,100. He was found if in this situation soon after sunrise, by Mr. Daniel Durland. The money consisted of three $500 bills on the bank of Richmond, Va., the other 600 bills on the bank of Richmond, Va., the other 600 on the same bank, of smaller denominations, except $5 on the Bank of Harrisburg, Pa., and from 25 to 30 dollars in specie. Mr. Stephenson has offered a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the robbers, and the recovery of the money, or $250 for the robbers, without the money.

REVOLUTION.

The wave of revolution seems to be almost entirely overrunning Europe. Russia alone maintains an attitude of defiance. One of the most remarkable features in these revolutions, is the comparatively trifling loss of life at which they have been accomplished. One of the most danger ous symptoms to the peace of Europe is the revo lutionary movement in Poland. It will be exceed ingly difficult to keep France from taking part in that quarrel.

DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY .- At meeting of the Presbytery of Baltimore, held in Frederick, Md., on the 7th inst., Rev. T. W. SIMPSON and G. D. PURVIANCE, were elected to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which is to convene in Baltimore on the 18th o

So much vain-glory combined with such an afectation of modesty, can hardly be found in any paper, of a similar description, extant. > FINE SHAD. We acknowledge our indebtedness to Capt. Jo-SEPH DOWLING, of Georgetown, for a dozen of the inest Shad of the season. The Captain has some four or five boats constantly plying between Harpers-Ferry and the District, and is thus enabled to furnish at his Fish mart, near Carrell's Hotel the most choice article that the market can pro duce. Our country friends can thus be supplied with Fish at Harpers Ferry, in any quanties they may desire, on betters terms than if they should send specially to the District. The quality too, is warranted to be such as is represented, and for this, as well as other consideration, Harpers-Ferry is entitled to the entire trade of the Valley in this mportant article, which has heretofore been given to the Cities of Alexandria and Georgetown.

D JAMES E. STEWART, Esq , as will be seen by an article in another column, has yielded to the solicitation of his friends, and announced himself as an independent candidate for re-election from Berkeley county. Mr. S., though a Whig in politics, is a fair and liberal opponent, and on the great questions of the Mexican War, and the Reform of the State Constitution, is identified with the policy of the Democratic party -His course in the Legislature during the last winter, won for him a reputation surpassed by no other member from the West, in all the essentials that member from the West, in all the essentials that have been reminded of frequent declarations which go to constitute an able and faithful representative. Gov. Shunk's veto of all the bank bills passed at the late session of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, may be judged by the following:

"In addition to the individual liability provision, the Gov. is now in favor of imposing the following salutary restrictions: To limit the issues of the banks to a less proportion of their capital than three to one, as now allowed; to require the country banks to keep their notes at par in Philadelphia; to impose oaths on the directors as to their duties, and to hold them amenable to law for perjury; to require the whole proceedings of every bank to be at all times open to stockholders, and to visit every failure to pay specie on demand with a forfeiture of charter."

Fish AT Georgetown.—We learn from the Georgetown Advocate that the supply of fish at the wharf in that town is now large, the fisheries having proved very productive during the few days past. Shad are selling at $6 per hundred, and herring at $5 per thousand.

Clerical Call.—We learn that the Rev. John D Matthews, of Washington, D. C., has received a call to the Presbyterian church in Paducah, Ky.

The Yesterday being our Court day, Mr. Gallaher, the Whig candidate for the Senate, and Messers. Worthington and Herrington, for the House of Delegates, addressed the people. It will be seen from what I have related, that there was reason to anticipate that I would decline giving my consent to the use of my name again as a candidate for the Presidency of the United States.

Owing, perhaps, to this, as well as other causes, many of my friends and fellow-citizens have avowed a preference for, and directed their attention to the distinguished names of other citizens of the United States. I take pleasure in truly declaring that I have no regrets to express—no complaints—no reproaches to make on account of any such preference, which I am fully persuaded are generally founded on honest and patriotic convictions.

MR. STEWART IN THE FIELD.

JAMES E. STEWART, Esq., addressed the voters of the county on Monday the 10th inst., and again announced himself as a candidate for the House of Delegates. He has been detained at Richmond up to this time by an unusually long session of the Legislature, and of course he will not be able to canvass the county as he would like to do, and the people will not expect it from him — He authorizes us to say that he will see as many If authorizes us to say that he will see as many of the people as he possibly can in the short time now allowed to him, but hopes that no friends will refuse to vote for him unless he calls to see them. He will address the people at as many places as possible before the election. The Independent voters we hope and trust will rally to the standard of Mr. Stewart in solid column. To the Democrats we say to you do your duty right and of the people as he possibly can in the short time of horizon the course of the course

TRIAL OF A CLERGYMAN. - The trial of the Rev TRIAL OF A CLERGYMAN.—The trial of the Rev Dr. Skinner, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Lexington, [Va.,] was brought to a close on Monday week; the Doctor having been found guilty of all the charges preferred against him, (growing out of a controversy with a part of his congregation) by a vote of 20 to 6. These charges, were, 1st, Libel and defamation; 2d, Falsehood and palpable misrepresentation; 3d, Unchristian spirit. A rule of evidence having been adopted, to which the Doctor objected, he declined to defend himself before the presbytery, and will appeal to the General Assembly, which meets at Baltimore in May next. Saltimore in May next.

RAILROAD DIVIDEND.—The President and Di-rectors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Co., have declared a dividend of 1½ per cent. on the stock in the Washington Branch, payable on and after the 17th just

The various and conflicting reports which have been in circulation, in regard to my intentions with respect to the most Presidency, appear to me to furnish the proper occasion, for the full frank and explicit expection of my feelings, when which the course of the control of the course of the cou York, if he had not thought of being a candidate? the sole object of which was to arouse his friends by his own presence, to enthusiasm. Ah! Mr. Clay, if your conscience is satisfied under such declarations, so directly contradictory, rest "assured" that the people who know your relish for stratagem, spoils and power, will not be guiled, but will again assign your presence to the shades of Ashland, there to work out your moral and pofitical salvation. This card to the public is not only a memorial, a direct petition to the voters of the United States, but is worse, it is a dictation: more vindictive in its character too, than when he more vindictive in its character too, than when he attempted to exercise a similar spirit in the Senate in 1841, at the extra session, at which time Mr. Rives styled him a Dictator, and that he (Mr. Rives) "prided himself upon being pitted against the honorable Senator from Kentucky." (Query? Will Mr. Rives again take pride in pitting himself against the National Dictator?) for in the Senate more vindictive in its character too, than when he

against the National Dictator?) for in the Senate it was only to a few, assembled in a Legislative capacity, but now, to the National Convention, and the Federal party; to the one in council (or soon to be) and the other primarily, he substantially and emphatically says," I will be the candidate" and "you shall ratify it."

Gen, Taylor's friends here are taken all aback by this extraordinary forestallment. How the matter will be settled, to use Ritchie's favorite phrase, nous perms.

will there be, any jarrings in the Convention.—
True there are some perty jealousies but they are of minor consideration. Cass, Buchanan, Dallas or Woodbury, will be acceptable. Many have personal preferences, but these preferences will all be subserved for the advancement of the nominates. nee. Those spoken of for Vice President, are the Hon. John Y. Mason, the present distinguished Secretary of the Navy, Gen. William O. Butler, of Kentucky, now General-in-Chief in Mexico, Gen. Quitman, of Miss., Senator King of Alabama and Ex-Senator Colquitt of Georgia. The probabilities are all in favor of Mr. Mason or Gen. Butler. Mr. Ma.on, both from personal popularty, national locality, and mild, though sierling political integrity, can best combine the suffrage of this great Descentic femilie. this great Democratic family. A Northern nominee for President against Wilmot provisoism with a Southern Vice President against ecery ism except Republicanism, and victory in November is as sure, as that virtue, reason and common sense will triumph ever their opposites, in this our enlightened land.

Mr. Havemyre, Democrat, has been elected Mayor in New York city, over Mr. Brady, Whig, by a handsome majority.

A great mass Meeting was held last night, under the auspices of the Democratic Association, to manifest sympathy for Republican France, and to extend the hand of gratulation to the efforts of all people who are under the bondage of despotism, and are struggling for liberty. Senator Foote of Mississippi, Alessas, Morse of La., Thompson of Pa. and Stanton of Tenn., addressed the meeting. The arrangements of the Cadets of Temperance for a Procession, Addresses, &c., on Easter Monday, we learn are fully made. It is expected that a Revernd gentleman of this town will address marched to the Executive Mansion, giving him three hearty cheers as they passed, the President appearing with head uncovered; thence to Vice President Dallas' residence, where three more cheers were given; next to Mr. Ritchie's (near by) where the whole procession halted, and demanded a speech. The old gentlemen said he had but four words to say, and they were, "God bless the cause," which produced deafening shouts from the vast multitude: then moved down F. St. to 7th; thence down C. to 4½; thence up Pen. ers as they passed, the President to 7th; thence down C. to 4½; thence up Pennsylvania Avenue to the Union Office, and were dismissed about half past 10. The whole matter passed off with great enthusiasm, and the hearts of thousands rejoiced at the triumph of Republicanism over monarchy, now so happily enjoyed by the pe-ple of France, and which as freemen, they had met to celebrate.

HENRY.

BRUTALITY, DESPERATION AND SUICIDE .- The mail-carrier brings us the particulars of an in-stance of most horrible brutality and suicide which occurred in the early part of this week.—

One month ago, and Louis Philippe, M. Guizot and Prince Metternich, held in iron chains more than one hundred millions of people, and to-day they are dependent on courtesy and charity for support, suppliants for their lives, and hiding themselves from the just indignation of the people whom they had oppressed. What a moral this reverse contains!

MULTUM IN PARVO.—A person inquired of Rothschild how he contrived to accumulate so large a fortune. "By buying," said he, "when everybody was selling, and selling when everybody was buying,"

SEIGHE.—Mr. James Erwin, grandson of Henry Clay, shot himself at the St. Charles Hotel, New Orleans, on the morning of the 3d inst. No cause is assigned for the rash act. He was perfectly dead when discovered.

THE TREATY.—The New York Express has seen a letter, dated at the city of Mexico, on the 15th of March, which says that the Treaty, if ratified by the American Senate, would be confirmed by the Mexican Congress, and that all intelligent men considered it highly favorable to Mexico.

BIGAMIST SENTENCED.—JAMES DUKE, of Jefferson county, the bigamist, who married Miss Jake Davis, was arraigned before the Circuit Superior Court of this county, on Monday 10th inst., on an indictment for the offence, plead country, and was sentenced by Judge Douglass to five years imprisonment in the Penitentiary of the State.

Selling Off at Cost!

On Saturday the 8th day of April, 1848. I commenced selling my stock of handsome Goods consisting of one of the best assorted Stocks in the Valley, at cost, for cash, good paper, or country produce—or on the usual credit at small profits. Those wishing to purchase will do well to examine the stock, as it comprises almost every article in use in this neighborhood—all in prime order, and mostly bought within the last two years. I would very much like to sell the entire stock, with the Store-house, to some active, energetic man, who would attend strictly to business. The terms would be such as to afford as good an opportunity to realize a fortune, as has ever been offered in the country. Having determined to reliquish business, I commenced on the day above mentioned, to sell off the stock, or any part thereof, on the above mentioned terms. Selling Off at Cost!

Like a stately pageant, moving Slowly o'er the trembling earth, Pass the ages dim and heary, Bending all to sceptred Death. And the tread of valiant nations. Thundering on in mighty line. Leaves a faint and fainter coho. In the crumbling halfs of time.

Yea, these bright majestic heavens, In their mighty march, proclaim We are passing, we are passing Unto nothing, whence we came.

EARLY RISING.

Noone can form an idea of the great advantage of being out and about by sunrise except those who practice it; and few can practice it but those who retire early. If a man can escape to bed at ten, he may rise in the summer at four, five or six, when the best part of the day was at his command. A ride, drive or walk, till eight or hine is most delicious—the atmosphere is fresh and unincum-bered with smoke. The sky is usually cloudless. the sun shines forth fully and yet mildly upon us the great heat of mid-day being the result of accu-mulation as well as solar altitude and position the breeze is fragrant to inhale, passing playfull about us, loaded with the odor and harmony of the living universe

The chirrup of the sparrow, the trill of the lark, the blackbird's whistle and the twittering of the many little winged flutterers, possess a poesy, for words difficult to express; the silence also from the clamor or bustling man, or a wakeful city. draws forth feelings of homage, gratitude and en-joyment, which form ceremony, and set devo-tion often fail to command. These feelings are in store, more or less, whether we bid the day good morrow on a metropolitan bridge, a subar-ban field, or a country hill, but the purity and ecstacy of the delight increases with the distance from town. I could rapsodise myself into the be-lief that I was scribbling under the influence of what I advocate, and far from the world of business in a four walled room, with only a window pros-pect of dirty colored brick walls and red chimney tops; but the hours I have for years past stolen from the drowsy morning doze, and the continu-ance of such a practice as long as I hope to command the means, would reconcile me to live in a cellar the rest of the day for such a privilege * *

* * The morning ride or walk is preferable for bealthy purposes to any other part of the day.—
This exercise strengthens the body and no less the mind—it fortifies one against the mystifications and drudgery of the coming day, and it materially lengthens the life and gives energy and hope for the morrow. What a contrast on a six coloris summar's morning to contemplate from o'clock summer's morning to contemplate from the hill top animate and bustling nature, to the sweltering and sleeping in a close room, covered to the nose in sheets and quilts, night capped and ber, resembling more a sepulchre for the dead than an abode for one living and sensible. Coun-try people have no excuse for lying in bed. am not an advocate for a man to worry him-I am not an advocate for a man to worry himself to death, nor to live always in a hurry—a certain amount of rest and sleep is indispensable.—

It is ridiculous for a man who goes to bed at one or two in the morning to attempt to rise at four or five for the delight of an early stroll—it would spoil him for the remainder of the day. Early rising is only compatible with moderate and ear-ly people—great feeders want much sleep and rest: but although they gain one enjoyment of an hour in twenty-four by stoinach gluttony, they lose many in sloth and oblivion. When once the habits of early rising and temperate feeding be acquired, they will be found so de ight ul that it will be a great sacrifice to abandon them. CALIFORNIA BELLE.

An officer of the navy, in a letter to the Home ournal, thus sketches the daughfer of a rancheror. You have never seen a Californian belle. A the arrang ment and facility for getting them.

D. C. real, genuine, out-and-out, live, native belle, I mean; indigenous to the soil. I can assure you I have nearly lost my heart with one of them, the daughter of a ranchero, who lives about forty miles in the interior; and should my application for leave of absence prove unsuccessful, I don't know but what I shall really become a ranchero myself! The girl is beautiful; her complexion is of a dark, raddy hue, tinged with red, like the leaves in autumn; with raven tresses, eyes intensely sparkling, teeth as white as pearls, but not like them, for no string of nearls was ever so results. tensely sparkling, teeth as white as pearls, but not like them, for no string of pearls was ever so regular; a faultless form, embodying a soul as pure and guileless as an angel's. In addition to all these natural charms, she can 'pay her mess bill!' sings sweetly, touches the guitar with exquisite skill, dances divinely, and laughs right merrily.— She rides wild horses, throws the lasso adroitly, and never misses her aim with the rifle. She car-ries a hunting knife in her girdle, and understands the anatomy of either stag or buffalo. She has never sat upon a chair in all her life, knows nothing about corsels, capes, forbelows, or flounces, never wears bonnets and speaks no English!

Well, gentlemen, there she is—what do you think of her? A paragon, truly! Don't be alarmed if she should make a descent upon your quiet little circles, some of these fine mornings, for there is no discrete. is no danger to be apprehended when I am along-side. She is delighted with the idea of crossing the Andes, and is ready-to accompany me to-mor-row. So take your telescope, and keep a sharp look-out in the offing for this strange craft.

ESORMOUS PROFITS OF FARMING .- A correspon ESORMOUS PROFITS OF FARMING.—A correspondent of the Boston cultivator, states the success of a man who left a lucrative business in the city of Philadelphia, for farming, to make a profit.—After two years trial, he was asked if he did not find the profits small, compared with those of trade? He answered, "Quite the contrary; I have already realized far more than the most I had dared to anticipate, and I am. at the end of two years, richer than I ever could have become by twenty-five years of successful trade. It two years, richer than I ever could have become by twenty-five years of successful trade. It is true, I made more dollars and cents in trade than I do now, but that is dross compared to the blessings of health of body and peace of mind, which gold and silver could never purchase. I eat, drink, and sleep with an appetite; yawn at bed-time, and never in the morning; am up before the sun and yet the day is never too long; and more than all, I have no acceptances to take up. Money! why what use have I for it? I raise my own food in the richest profusion, and my own clothing—my estate is annually increasing in value—then what is the use of money? I can't eat or drink it, even if it were cut into mince meat."

How to Avon Quarrels.—The Rev. Clark, of Rome, was asked by a friend how he always kept from being involved in quarrels, 'By letting the angry person have all the quarrel to himself.' This afterwards became a proverb in the town.—When a quarrel was rising they would always say, 'Come, let us remember old Mr. Clark, and leave the angry man to quarrel with himself.' If the reader will always follow this role he will save himself a great deal of trouble, and perhaps many hard knocks. Remember it always takes two to quarrel.

PIANOS! PIANOS!!

MESSRS. KNABE & GÆHLE. MANUFACTURERS of Grand and Square Pianos, No 9, Eutaw street, Baltimore, beg leave to refer to the following letter from Mr. Knoop, the distinguished Professor, whose Concerts in Baltimore, and elsewhere, have given so much gratification to the musical public:

In calling the attention of the public to this manufactory, the undersigned is impressed with the belief that he is rendering a service to the lovers of music and conferring a favor upon the public, as hy so doing he brings to notice an establishment of unquestionable merit. During my stay in Baltimore, I have had an opportunity of examining its interior arrangements, and can, therefore, conscientiously give the assurance, that in all that imparts despatch, efficiency and power, combined with beauty in design and execution, the factory of these gentlemen is unexcution, the factory of these gentlemen is unex-celled by any other in the United States.

celled by any other in the United States.

The instruments made by Messrs. Knabe & Gable, are built with the most consummate care, taste and judgment; their finish is exquisite—their tone at once full, clear and brilliant. In a word, it is but justice to these gentlemen when I say—that, while by their genius and acquirements, they are competent—their industry, zeal and ambition, are such as to ensure to the elaborations of their skills a degree of meshasiant pieces.

In case of Jaundice Asthurs, Liver complaints. onorable to them as workmen, as it must be grati-honorable to them as workmen, as it must be gratifying to the ameteur and artist.

The GRAND PIANO, which Messrs. K. & G. had the politeness to furnish me for my recent Concert, was of their own manufacture. The execution of that splendid instrument elicited universal admiration—its superiority was acknowledged by every judge present, and won for its constructors that applause which discriminating minds never fail to award to distinguished merit.

MUNCASTER & DODGE.

Georgetown, D. C., March 7, 1848—1y.

Hitherto the system of crediting small amounts has involved an expense in their collection, and as H. & T. now sell only for CASH, or such negotiable notes as are sure to be paid in bank at their maturity, the saving to those who choose to deal in this manner will be a very considerable per centage on their purchase.

Few dealers in the country buy more than $200 worth of stationary in a season, many not over one-half, and a large portion not more than one-fourth of that amount. There is not a dealer, therefore, who visits Philadelphia who would be inconvenienced by paying these small sums in Cash, and as each can save money by doing so, H. & T. believe they are offering an inducement which will gladly be embraced by those who enter into such an arrangement will be enabled to sell at prices much below their former rates at home, and will consequently reap a larger aggregate profit from the increased amount of their sales.

Having a PRINTING OFFICE for copperplate an type work, and an extensive Binder, H. & T. are prepared to fill orders from Banks and Public Offices, when forwarded through merchants, at extremely low prices.

DR. SWEETZER'S PANACEA. THIS Medicine is warranted, on oath, not to contain a particle of Calomel, Corrosive Sub-limate, Araenic, Chloride of Gold, or any delete-limate, Arsenie, Chloride of Gold, or any deleterious minerals.

The principle upon which this medicine acts, is by assisting and harmonizing with nature; it drives out all foul acrimonious humors from the blood and body, and by assimilating with and strengthening the gastric juice of the stomach, it assists digestion; in short there is not a vein, artery, muscle or nerve in the human body, that is not strengthened by the PANACKA, and it also possesses the remarkable property of removing mercury from the bones and jointa.

FOR ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,
Scurvy, Scorbutic Affections, Tumors, Scrofula or King's Evil, White Swellings, Erysipelas, Ulcers, Cancers, Running Sores, Scabs and Biles, time and a determined perseverance in Dr. SweetZee's Panacea, will effect a cure.

FOR INDIOESTION,
Rejection of food, Nausca, Vomitings, Nervous affections, Bilious complaints, Head-ache, Paleness, or Fernals Irregularities, Dr. Sweetzer's PARACEA will scon effect a cure; but if obstinate, PARACEA will soon effect a cure; but if obstinate, or attended with griping, flying pains, the does should be increased, and the cure will soon be effected. Let not the patients frighten themselves with the idea that they are too weak to take much medicine; but bear in mind that this mildly operating medicine puts not weakness into the frame, but most certainly draws weakness out, leaves strength in its place, and by giving composed sleep at night, and an appetite for any kind of food, re-animates the whole frame with vigorous action, improving the mind and clearing the sight,

SCROFULA AND GLANDULAR AFFECTIONS. Scrolula is said to be hereditary, the infant re-ceiving from its parents the seeds of this disease, which increases with its years, if neglected and not subjected to frequent purification with DR. SWEETZER'S PARACEA. The glands are placed in the corners of the body, and out of the way of direct communication; their real use is a subject on which much difference of opinion prevails; it suf-fices us to know that when in a diseased state,

In case of Jaundice, Asthma, Liver complaints, Tic Doloreux, Rheumatism or Rheumatic Gout, Dr. Sweetzer's Panacea cannot be too highly extolled; it searches out the very root of the disease, and by removing it from the blood, makes a ease, and by removing it from the shoot, makes a cure certain and permanent.

For diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Strictures, Gravel, Stone, Piles, Fistola, Urmary Obstructions and Extreme Costiveness, Dr. Sweetzer's Panacea is the best remedy ever tried; it removes all those acrimonious humors from the blood which give rise to the above diseases, and by keeping the blood in a pure condition, insures ealth. For Dropsy, Falling of the Bowels, Impurities of Blood, Mercurial Taint, Weakness of the Spine, Flow of blood to the head, Giddiness, Singing or Buzzing noise in the head and ears, Dr. Sweet-ZER'S PANACEA will give certain relief; in all severe and chronic cases, the patients cannot be too often reminded that larger doses and persecerance will effect a cure.

In Chills and fevers, bilious fever, affections of the eyes and ears, spongy and bleeding gums, Bronchitis, and recent coughs and colds, Dr. Sweetzer's Panacea will be found perfectly Knives, Scissors, Needles, Razors, Saws, Axes, Files, Locks, Hinges, Bolts, Screws, Guns, Curtain Bands, Tea Trays, Fire Irons, Cast Pots, Ovens, Kettles, Spades, Shovels, Scythes, Rakes, Forks, Chains, Nails, Iron, Steel, Tin, Wire, Copper, Zinc, Lead, Lead Pipe, Pumps, Hydraulic Rams, &c.; Stoves, Grates, Anvils, Vices, Bellows, Harness and Saddlery Mountinge; Eliptic Springs and Axles, varranted; Patent Leather, Painted Cloth, Coach Lace, Lamps, Hubs, Bows, Hub-bands, Mallable Castings, and all Goods usually kept in Hardware Stores, which we offer wholesale and retail at our new Granic front Ware-houses, sign of the Gill Plane, at the Southeast Corner of Bridge and High streets. Entrance, States from the corner in either street.

not purify and strengthen the parts. By purifying the blood with Dr. Sweetzer's Paracea, you remove the cause of the disease, consequently it cannot exist any longer, after sufficient perseverance in its use has deprived the blood and body of all acrimonious humors and incrustations.

ness season of 1848 will be larger and better assorted than at any former period. It will embrace every article in the trade which is required for the sales of the country merchant.

In consequence of the change in their terms of selling, they are enabled to offer SCHOOL AND MISCELLIANEOUS BOOKS, PAPERS, and BLANK BOOKS, &c. at prices so greatly reduced from former rates, as to make it to the interest of all who deal in these articles to purchase from their stock.

sumption is so prevalent. Which you see on the exterior, come from, and have their source in, the interior, and might just as well have settled on your lungs, liver, or any other part; which we know they frequently do, and produce most violent inflamatory disorders. The humor which occasions these sores is of a highly acrimonious burning nature. We know it from the pain it gives in forming, and afterwards from its rapidly ulcerating and corroding the flesh and skin of the part where it breaks out. This shows the necessity of frequently purifying the blood with Dr. Sweetzer's Panacea, and keeping such malignant humors in subjection. Should you have a bile or ulcer, be thankful that nature has taken the trouble to warn you of the danger your life and body is in, for it is a warning that the blood is foul. Had this same acrimony selected the lungs instead of the surface of your body for its seat, consumption of the lungs would have been the consequence. Delay not then to purify and cleanse with Dr. Sweetzer's Panacea. BILES, SORES AND ULCERS,

Spinal affections, enlargement of the bones and joints, white swellings, hip joint complaint, ruptures, falling of the bowels and womb disease, will find a speedy cure in Dr. Sweetzers Paracea. Where the disease has been of long standing, the time required to make a cure will be longer, but the patient may rest assured that a determined perseverance will effect it.

BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA AND DISEASES OF THE

These diseases proceed from the seriosity or corrupt humors of the blood, having settled itself on the throat and lungs, and stopped them up, so that they cannot draw sufficient air in for respiration. Dr. Sweetzer's Panacea will give immediate relief, and to make the cure perfect and certain, it should be continued some time after, to free the system from all bad humors.

DR. SWEETSER'S PANACEA, being composed only of a vegetable matter, or medicinal herbs, and warrented, on oath, as containing not one particle of mercurial, mineral, or chemical substances, is found to be perfectly harmless to the most tender age, or the weakest frame, under any stage of human suffering.
