MANUFACTURERS of Grand and Square Planos, No. 9, Eutaw street, Baltimore, beg leave to refer to the following letter from Mr. Knoop, the distinguished Professor, whose Concerts in Baltimore, and elsewhere, have given so much gratification to the musical public:

In calling the attention of the public to this manufactory, the undersigned is impressed with the belief that he is rendering a service to the lovers of music and conferring a favor upon the public, as by so doing he brings to notice an establishment of unquestionable merit. During my stay in Baltimore, I have had an opportunity of examining its interior arrangements, and can, therefore, conscientiously give the assurance, that in all that imparts despatch, efficiency and power, combined with beauty in design and execution, the factory of these gentlemen is unexcelled by any other in the United States.

The instruments made by Messre. Knabe & Gmble, are built with the most consummate care, taste and judgment; their finish is exquisite—their tone at once full, clear and brilliant. In a word, it is but justice to these gentlemen when I Knabe & Gable's Plane Factory their tone at once full, clear and brilliant. In a word, it is but justice to these gentlemen when I say—that, while by their genius and acquirements, they are competent—their industry, zeal and ambition, are such as to ensure to the elaborations of their skill a degree of mechanical nicety, as honorable to them as workmen, as it must be gratifying to the ameteur and artist.

Wholesale Booksellers, Stationers, AND PUBLISHERS,

No. 30 North Fourth Street, Philadelphia. No. 30 North Fourth Street, Philadelphia,

A NNOUNCE to their friends, and to merchants generally, in the Valley of Virginia, that their stock of Books and Stationary for the coming business season of 1848 will be larger and better assorted than at any former period. It will ambrace every article in the trade which is required for the sales of the country merchant.

In consequence of the change in their terms of selling, they are enabled to offer SCHOOL AND MISCELLIANEOUS BOOKS, PAPERS, and BLANK BOOKS, &c. at prices so greatly reduced from former rates, as to make it to the interest of all who deal in these articles to purchase from their stock.

their stock. Hitherto the system of crediting small amount has involved an expense in their collection, and as H. & T. now sell only for CASH, or such negotiable notes as are sure to be paid in bank at their maturity, the saving to those who choose to deal in this manner will be a very considerable per entage on their purchase. Few dealers in the country buy more than $200 Few dealers in the country buy more than $200 worth of stationary in a season, many not over one-half, and a large portion not more than one-fourth of that amount. There is not a dealer, therefore, who visits Philadelphia who would be inconvenienced by paying these small sums in Cash, and as each can save money by doing so, H. & T. believe they are offering an inducement which will gladly be embraced by those who make their purchases in Philadelphia. Those who enter into such an arrangement will be enabled to sell at prices much below their former rates at home, and will consequently reap a larger aggregate profit from the increased amount of their sales.

STAND FAST IN THE FAITH.

BY REY. JOHN W. BROWN.

Stand fast in the faith!—'tis the mandate of God,
Once uttered in angaish, once written in blood;
From the cruss of the Lord; from his throne in the sky
It was breathed over earth, it is uttered on high. Stand fast in the faith!—'tis the warning aubline, Poured deeply and sternly through ages of time; Through the long lapse of ears and centuries old, Like the voice of a trumpet its burthens hath rolled.

Stand fast in the faith!—bold apostles have died, With the words on their lips, caroless who might deride Confessors and martyrs, 'mid torture and flame, liave drank in its accents and welcomed the stame. Stand fast in the faith!—for the Church of the Lou Has inscribed on her banner the glorious word; O'er all her bright cohorts its glory's displayed, And blazoned on harness, and buckler, and blaze.

Stand fast in the faith!—let the mandate roll on Through her girded barallons, till the warfare is don Till the trumpet of conquest sounds over the field. And the palm waveth proudly o'er helmet and shield. Stand fast in the faith!—there is sounds on the breez. Like the voice of the storm, when it howls through the Stand fast in the faith!—for the foe are abroad, With hearts full of lists 'gainst the armies of Golt; The wild hordes of Edom, the spearmen of Gath, And the troops of Philistis, with weapons of wrath.

Stand fast in the faith!—there are traitors that cree Through the slumb'ling camp, when the night-watch is asleep. Who smite the unwary, who wait to betray The altars of God to the idols of clay.—

Stand fast in the faith !--there are those at thy side, Who can vanquish the fee in his ranparts of oride; Be loyal--be valiant; thy heart to inspire, Lo! the charrious of God, and the horses of fire. Stand fast in the faith i—though the conflict be hot, The field hath no strife where thy Captain is not; His eye is upon thee—thou hear'st what he saith, "Ho! quit you like men, and stand fast in the faith." Stand fast in the faith!—though the faithless may flew will peril our all, O! RkDrrmr, for thee;
We will stand in the conflict, sesured that thine are General Intelligence.

RICHARD M. SYDNOR, ESQ., One of the Delegates elect to the Legislature of Virginia, from the county of Frederick, was impressed as a seamon by the British cruisers in 1806, and was compelled to serve on a Britishman-of-war, until the war of 1812 induced the English government to release him. Like Gen. Morgan, his back bears the marks of the lash for his stubborn resistance to British tyrany. While serving as an impressed scaman, he was wantonly insulted by an officer of Marines, whom he instantly knocked down with a hand-spike. For this act he was almost flayed alive with the catorine-tail—the scars of which remain as a proof of his own dauntless spirit, and the cruel treatment. this act he was almost flayed alive with the cation of his own dauntless spirit, and the cruel treatment which he endured at the hands of our then haughty foe. Like Morgan too, he sought the earliest chance of revenge. Discharged by order of the English Admiralty, at Plymouth, England, before the close of the war, he returned to his own country, and as soon as his foot touched the shore, he shouldered his musket as a Virginia Volunteer—
He is a native of Frederick county, and obtained the rudiments of his education on Buffalo Marsh,—while but a youth, he took a fancy for the sea, but he had not long enjoyed his "life upon the mountain wave," before the officers of the British gun-brig "The Encounter," among other outrages, seized and impressed him into their Naval service. He was then forced upon the Diadem, a 64 gun ship, and then upon the Narcissus, a frigate of the largest class, upon which he was compelled to serve through all the drudgery and danger of a common seaman for nearly seven years. The Narcissus was engaged in cruizing in the Atlantic, against the commerce and Navy of France.—He was in many severe engagements—compelled to fight for a foreign foe, against a foreign friend. It is needless to add that he has always been a Democrat,—"true to Free Trade and Sailor's Rights," and never sympathizing with the foes of our country, either at home, or abroad. He is one of the Magistrates of Frederick county, and has served for many years as commissioner of the Re-our country, either at home, or abroad. He is one of the Magistrates of Frederick county, and has served for many years as commissioner of the Revenue. He resides upon his farm, and has a store upon it, near the old Marlbro' works on Cedar creek. He is an honest man—"the noblest work of God."—Winchester Virginian.

FATAL RAILBOAD ACCIDENT-Explosion of a FATAL KALEGAD ACCIDENT—Explosion of a Locomotive.—An accident occurred on the Reading Railroad yesterday morning, some distance from Philadelphia, says a despatch in the Patriot, caused by the explosion of the boiler of the locomotive. The chief engineer, Mr. Nagle, and Mr. Christopher Goffney, firemen, were instantly killed, their bodies being tertilly mangled by the concussion. Four being terribly mangled by the concussion. Four others, near at the time, were very badly injured, some of whom, it is feared, mortally. The cause of the explosion is not explained, but it is supposed to have resulted from a sudden interruption which the locomotive encountered in passing over the

He was intoxicated, went out to an ashery, and on looking for him next morning, he was found to have fallen backwards into a large potash kettle two-thirds full of very strong ley, and completely eaten up from his head to his thighs, scarcely a particle of the bones being left! It is supposed he fell asleep while leaning against the arch upon which the kettle was elevated.

A FEARFUL CONFLICT AND LOSS OF LIFE.—
The Liverpool Albion of a late date, says:

"By the arrival of the Sydney mail we are informed of a most severe battle having taken place on the 4th of September, at the Feeje Islands, between the chiefs and the people of Albau and Rena, in which the latter were defeated, but escaped with a number of their adherents to Juva harbor, about seven miles west of Rean Roads, where they intended to settle,—all the habitations of Rena being burnt to the ground by the chiefs of Rena being burnt to the ground by the chiefs of Albau. The number of slain on both sides amounted to upwards of eight hundred, the bodies of whom still remain exposed there. Fortunately for the missionaries, the scene of warfare occurred at some distance from their location."

Novel Shipment — The Cincinnati Enquirer tells of a shipment of forty nests of coffins—five in a nest—just made, from that cify, on the steamer Belle of the West, bound for New Orleans. The owner goes with them, and thinks the demand will be so good that he will make a fine "spec."

LETTER FROM GENERAL TAYLOR. BATON ROUGE, April 22, 1848.

Baton Rouge, April 22, 1848.

Dear Sir—My opinions have recently been so often misconceived and misrepresented, that I deem it due to myself, if not to my friends, to make a brief exposition of them upon the topics to which you have called my attention.

I have copsented to the use of my name as a candidate for the Presidency. I have frankly avowed my own distrust of my fitness for that high station; but having, at the solicitation of many of my countrymen, taken my position as a candidate, I do not feel at liberty to surrender that position until my friends manifest a wish that I should retire from it. I will then most gladly do so. I have no private purposes to accomplish, no party project to build up, no enemies to punish—nothing to serve but my country.

I have been very often addressed by letter, and my opinions have been asked on almost overy question that might occur to the writers as affecting the interests of their country or their party. I have not always responded to these inquiries, for various reasons.

I couless, whilst I have great cardinal principles which will regulate my political life, I am not sufficiently familiar with all the minute details of political legislation to give solemn pledges to exert my influence, if I were President to carry out this or defeat that measure. I have no concealment. I hold no opinion which I would not readiment. I hold no opinion which I would not readily proclaim to my assembled countrymen; but crude impressions upon matters of policy, which may be right to day and wrong to-morrow, are, perhaps, not the best test of fitness for office.—One who cannot be trusted without pledges cannot be confided in merely on account of them.

I will proceed, however, now to respond to your inquiries.

First.-I reiterate what I have often said-I A would not be the more President of a party. I would not be the more President of a party. I would endeavor to act independent of a party of would endeavor to act independent of party domination. I should fell bound to administer the Government untrammelled by party schemes.

Second.—The veto power. The power given by the constitution to the Executive to interpose his sets, is a high conservative power; but in my by the constitution to the Executive to interpose his veto, is a high conservative power; but in my opinion should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the constitution, or manifest haste and want of consideration by Congress.— Indeed, I have thought that, for many years past the known opinions and wishes of the Executive have exercised undue and injurious influence upon the legislative department of the government; and for this cause I have thought our system was in danger of undergoing a great ment; and for this cause I have thought our sys-tem was in danger of undergoing a great change from its true theory. The personal opin-ions of the individual who may happen to occupy the Executive chair, ought not to control the action of Congress upon questions of domestic policy; nor ought his objections to be interposed where questions of constitutional power have been settled by the va-rious departments of Government and acquiesced in by the veomle.

Third.—Upon the subject of the tariff, the currency, the improvement of our great highways, rivers, lakes and harbors, the will of the people, as expressed through their representatives in Congress, ought to be respected and carried out by the Executive.

Fourth.—The Mexican war. I sincerely rejices at the present of people.

My life has been joice at the prospect of peace. My life has been devoted to arms, yet I look upon war at all times and under all circumstances as a national calamiand under all circumstances as a national calamity, to be avoided if compatible with national honor. The principles of our Government as well as its true policy are opposed to the subjugation of other nations and the dismemberment of other countries by conquest. In the language of the great Washington, "Why should we quit our own to stand on foreign ground." In the Mexican war our national honor has been vindicated, amply vindicated, and in dictating terms of peace we may well afford to be forbearing and even magnanimous to our fallen foe.

These are my opinions upon the subjects referred to by you; and any reports or publications, written or verbal, from any source, differing in any essential particular from what is here written, any essential particular from what is here written, are unauthorised and untrue.

I do not know that I shall again write upon the subject of national politics. I shall engage in no schemes, no combinations, no intrigues.—
If the American people have not confidence in me, they ought not to give me their suffrages. If they do not, you know me well enough to believe me when I declare I shall be content. I am too old a soldier to murmur against such high authority.

Z. TAYLOR.

To Capt. J. S. ALLISON.

Cassius M. Clay.—The Louisville Journal has a lengthy editorial in reply to Cassius M. Clay's letter denouncing the Hon. Henry Clay, from which we extract the following:

"A Kentucky officer, Lieut. Davidson, who was captured with Cassius M. Clay and others by the Mexicans at Encarnacion, stated that upon their being made prisoners, Capt. C. M. Clay protested earnestly in Spanish, to the Mexican commander, that he was the son of the Hen. H. Clay, who was at the head of the peace party in the U. States, and that, if he were to be killed, his illustrious father and the whole peace party would turn against Mexico and execute terrible vengeance upon her.

"Major Borland confirms the statement, but does not distinctly recollect whether the petitioner represented himself to the Mexicans as the son or merely the very near relative of the Hon. Henry merely the very near relative of the Hon. Henry Clay."

Mr. Clay writes again to the Courier and Enquirer. The Rochester American having called him to answer for having abandoned the True American (his paper in Kentucky) in order to make war upon Mexico, and that too, after having received subscriptions in advance, for which no paper has been received, he replies:

"On my return from my long imprisonment incurred in the service of my country, I found the True American discontinued, contrary to my expectation and previous arrangement with my brother. I gave the editor of the Examiner, of Louis ville, eight hundred dollars and my books to fulfil all my obligations to subscribers of the True American, and immediately issued a circular to that effect.

"If there is, however, a single subscriber to the that effect.

"If there is, however, a single subscriber to the True American in this Union who is not satisfied with this arrangement, and I believe there is not one, I am ready, on demand, to refund the money with interest. C. M. Clay never asks nor receives charity of any one."

The Courier, in publishing the letter, turns a very cold shoulder on the writer. The publication of his former letter, abusing Henry Clay, was in the absence of the responsible editor, and he now pronounces it all "wrong."

New Counterpeit.-A new $3 counterfeit New COUNTERVEIT.—A new 35 countereit note on the Western Bank of Baltimore, has been shown to us. The note is well got up, and is calculated to deceive, as the signatures are fac simifies, being engraved. It is only necessary, however, for the public to recollect the fact that the Bank has never issued a three dollar note. The bill in existing comes from Pittsburg, and it is bank has never issued a three dollar note. The bill in question comes from Pittsburg, and it is more than probable that they may be extensively, issued in the West.—Balt. Clipper.

Miscellaneous.

FEMALE INFLUENCES

What inestinable power can a wise and virtifious sister exert! Has she a brother prone to way wardness and passion? Her words may restrain his wanderings, her example subdue his anger.

The influence of woman is felt beyond the circle of her own freede in the well-being of her country. If this sex contribute so largely as we have affirmed, to the progress of civilization and refinement, then it can be no little aid they afford by their character and exertions, to the support of ourse political institutions.

reinement, then it can be no little aid they afford, by their character and exertions, to the support of pure political institutions.

True, the fair hand of woman deposites no vote in the ballot box. She takes no part in primary meetings, or on days of election, with the mask who place men in office. But is she therefore destitute of political power? No, she has the saccred right or petition. She may be heard, appealing to the Legislative body for redress of the wrongs done her; or of the grievances she suffers. Question, as some may, the expediency of her ever exercising this privilege, si b has still greater, influence, a far greater one than the exercise of this right can be given her, over the destines of her country. Think of the mother of Washington. Peruse the biography of the wife of that sainted patriot. Study the character of the elder Mrs. Adams, or the wife of Hancock; and the long list of females, who lived and toiled in the period of our Revolution. Could they do nothing—did they accomplish little, for this country? How many hearts were cheered in the Senate Chamber; what courage was infused on the battle-field by the mother, companion, sister and daughter; among the noble race that then lived!

In these latter days, what is to give integrity to the statesman, purity to the patriot, and true glory to the nation? It must be done in part by woman. Let her be educated, and above all let her educate herself in intelligence, grace, and, hor liness, and we have no fear of conflicts abroad, or of perils at home. The little watchman shut in the security of a glazed frame does not more surely save the ship amid darkness and storm, that does she who at the quiet fireside exerts the influence which she may for her country, or son, hust band and brother.—Amaranh.

YOUNG MEN.

YOUNG MEN.

The idea is prevalent in some communities, that young men are fit neither for generals or states; men, and that they must be kept in the back ground until their physical strength is impaired by age; and their intellectual faculties become blunted by the weight of years. Let us look to the history of the past, and from the long list of heroes and statesmen, select some who have distinguished themselves, and we shall find that they were young men when they performed those acts which have won for them an imperishable meed of fame, and placed their name high on the page of history.—Alexander, the conqueror of the whole civilized world, viz:—Greece, Egpyt and Asia, died at 33. Bonaparte was crowned Emperor of France when 33 years of age. Pitt, the younger brother, was about 20 years of age, when in Britain's Parliament, he boldly advocated the cause of the American colonies, and but 22 when made Chancellor of the Exchequer. Edmund Barke, at the age of 25, was first Lord of the Treasury. Our own Washington was 25 when he covered the retreat of the British troops at Baddock's defeat, and was approinted to the command-in-chief of all the Virginia forces. Alexander Hamilton, at 19, was a Lieutenant Colonel and Aid to Washington—at 25 a member of Congress—at 33 Secretary of the Treasury. Thomas Jefferson was but 32 when he drafted the ever memorable Declaration of Independence. At the age of 30 years, Sir Isaac Newton occupied the Mathematical chair at Cambridge College, England, having by scientific discoveries rendered his name immortal. We might continue the list to a greater length, but enough has been said already, to show that the idea that young men are not capable of performing great and ennobling actions, or of taking a high posi-The idea is prevalent in some communities, that has been said already, to show that the idea that young men are not capable of performing great and ennobling actions, or of taking a high position is chimerical and visionary. And what has been said, may well serve to encourage the young to set up a high standard and press towards it with ardor, suffering nothing to discourage them from soaring "onward and upward" in the paths of fame, or in the pursuit of literature and science.

AN AXIOM.

omonstrations contained in Euclid would not soffice to convince the world at large of the necessity of remunerating newspaper publishers for their labors. Habit, which is second nature, has led to the almost universal belief that printers can live the almost universal belief that printers can live without nourishment; that as they are in the daily practice of using quains, they have no occasion for specie: as they handle paper constantly, it is easily convertable into, or may be a substitute for, currency in the shape of bank notes of promises to pay: that as furniture is one of the implements of their trade, it must stant them for tables, chairs, and all other household utensils: that as they fill their cases with (not precious) metals, they might as easily fill their stomachs with food. It would be no difficult matter to multiply comparisons, if it would produce any sensible conviction upon the public mind. It is apprehended that this "self-cyident principle" is rather like natural religion, to convince mankind of the error of their ways, and of the necessity of reformation.

It requirers the strongest arguments to prove that printers must "eat, drink, and be merry," ifethey can.—" for to-morrow they die." Hence the appeals we see daily to the justice and honesty of newspaper "patrons." The only remaining argument that has not been generally adopted, and that is likely to prove effectual, is, to refuse to trust any and every body.

Many years ago, on the window shutter of one of the small beer shops in this city, was a sign to this effect:

"Since man to man is so unjust,
"Tis hard to tell what man to trust.
I've trusted many to my sorrow,
So pay to-day—I'll trust 76-NORROW."

Every printer may sigh, as he reflects that there is more truth than poetry in the quotation; his own experience will tell him that it is too lamentably true.—National Intelligencer. EMIGRATION EXTRAORDINARY .--- The Caddo Gazette, of the 8th inst., says: "The Monterey brought up, on Tuesday night, about 80 French emigrants on their way to Fannin county, Texas.' We understand that they are mostly males, having left their families in France until they make preparations for their reception. They will be followed in the course of time by twelve thousand, who will colonise themselves in Fannin.

Cannibalism in Ireland—At the late Galway, Assizes, a man named John Connelly plead guilty to a charge of sheep-stealing. The self-convicted criminal was sentenced to three months imprisonment and hard labor. Mr. Dopping the resident magistrate, stated in open court that he knew, of his own knowledge, that the prisoner and his family were streving when the offence was committed—that one of the children had died and that he had been credibly informed that the mother are part of its legs and feet after its death! He had the body exhumed and its spearance corroborated the information fully.

WAGES AND PRICES IN OREGON.—People in want of high wages and roast beef should mizzle for Oregon. Laborers get three dollars a day and carry hods made of rosewood. Pork is worth eighteen cents a pound. Cider eight cents for licking the spigot. Bakers charge twelve and a half cents for "looking in the windows."

CHARLESTOWN:

Tuesday Morning, May 9, 1848.

WIRGINIA BLECTIONS The returns are yet incomplete. Sufficient is known, however, to herald forth the glad tidings, that Virginia is now, as ever before, Democratic to the core. We do not deem it necessary this week (as we are unable to give a table of the vote in the whole State,) to do more than furnish a summary of the losses and gains as far as heard from which are as follows: We have gained the Frederick and Campbell Senatorial Districts, 2: and, in the House, Norfolk county, 1; Louisa, 1 Frederick, 1: Powhattan, 1: Princes Anne, 1 Rockbridge, 1; Morgan, 1; Marion, 1; Franklin. 2 : Wood and Ritchie, 1 ; Henry, 1 ; Monroe, 1; Marshall, 1; Dinwiddie, 1; Norfolk Borough,

The net Democratic gain thus far is 12-equa to 24 on joint ballot! Well done for the good old Commonwealth. YUCATAN.

Message sent to the Senate by the President, recommending Congress to adopt such measures as, in their judgment, may be expedient to prevent Yucatan from becoming a colony of any European power, which, in no event, says the President, could be permitted by the President of the United States; and, at the same time, to rescue th white race from extermination or expulsion from

The President refers to the cruel and inhuman war which the Indians are waging upon the white race as set forth in several communica tions received at the State Department from Mr. Justo Sierra, commissioner of Yucatan, and also from the Governor of that State, asking aid of the United States, and offering, in case this should be granted, to transfer the "dominion and sovereignly of the Peninsula" to the United States .-Similar appeals have been made to Spain and

The President says he does not propose to re commend the acquisition of the "dominion and sovereignty" over Yucatan; but neither, according to our established policy, can we permit it to be transferred to any European power.

Yucatan is still considered a Mexican State and, on that ground, the President says, we might take military possession of it, and defend the whites against the Indians. Of course this pos session would be terminated by the end of the war which might happen before our troops could ren der any permanent aid-perhaps before they could arrive at the scene of action.

and "Free Press" are evidently in a bad mood to discuss "soberly and seriously" the causes of the recent Senatorial defeat. When the heat of the battle is over, and the better judgment and the don't lie, that this paper has been guilty of neither a perversion of facts, or an "assurance" that " is unparalleled." It was very natural to infer that the ingenuity of the editors of those papers would be taxed, to assign some plausible pretext for the overthrow of Mr. Gallaher, yet, if we mistake not, it can very easily be made manifest, that in their eagerness to give vent to the "pent up wrath" which has so sorely afflicted them, they have shot wide of the mark. For the present, let the " galled jades wince," under the wrath and indignation of the people. If to spit their venom upon us, affords any relief, we are content.

GEN. TAYLOR.

Two letters, from this most remarkable letterwriter of the age, will be found in our paper today. The one to the Editors of the Richmond Republican puts the last nail in his political coffin .-We commend his honesty in this effusion, but only two days afterwards, he comes out in a second epistle, in which he is neither fish or flesh-for this or that, as exigencies may require, and his own political scheming demand. Our pride for the old soldier induces us to hope, that he will not, (as the signs most certainly augur,) write himself, what old Dogberry did before him. Gen. Taylor has done well, most nobly, as the leader of our Army on the battle-fields of Mexico, but he is fast looing the laurels there won, by his "high fantastic tricks" to reach the Presidential chair. Every day serves to demonstrate, that his friends New World, in which he was to embark this are growing "small by degrees and beautifully know, that there were more than a score of Clay Whigs in our District who would have no "tears to shed" upon the defeat of Mr. Gallaher, we had scarcely supposed the event would be proclaimed n the City of Richmond, as good news and glad tidings! In the Richmond Compiler, a leading Whig paper of the State, we find the following: While paper of the State, we shad the following:

CHEERING TO TUD-FRIENDS OF HERRY CLAY.—
The talented and efficient Virginia Senator, John
S. Gallaher, Esq., the first man in Virginia to especies the claims of the Whig, Democratic, Native American, no-party candidate, for the office of

This should be a caution to some of the would be great men amongst the Richmond Taylor wireworkers. Profit by it, ye no party office scekers!

The "Richmond Republican" does not at all re sh the cause here assigned for Mr. Gallaher's deeat, (by the way, the most plausible yet given by he opponents of Mr. Opie,) and thus vents its indigation upon the "peculiar friends" of Mr. Clay We had heard it rumored that the defeat of J. S. Gallaher, Esq., one of the oldest and staunchest Whigs of Virginia, by an out and out Democrats was considered "cheering" to some of the friends of Henry Clay here, but really, could scarcely of Henry Clay here, but really, could scarcely believe it possible till we saw the above announcement. We say it seemed almost incredible, because the "peculiar friends" of Mr. Clay claim to be so theroughly devoted to Whig principles, that it gives them honor to think of nominating a man for any office who is not above suspicion of being steaded in Whigney from the crown of his man for any oince who is not above suspicion of being steeped in Whiggery from the crown of his head to the sole of his feet, and yet here is a Whig defeat pronounced "cheering to the friends of Henry Clay."

If however, Clay Whigs find any thing very cheering" in the Virginia Whig defeat, (which, f at all connected with Taylorism has been caused by the misrepresentation of his principles industriously circulated before the election) they may moderate their joy by reminisences of the Clay overthrow in New York. There is a "caution" there for those who swear by "Casar."— Let those who would persuade Mr. Clay to go out and receive the diadem, read more carefully the signs of the times. It may be that instead of the crown of empire they are pressing upon him the crown of martyrdom.

As to Mr. Gallaher, however "cheering to the friends of Henry Clay" may be his defeat; we apprehend that, among the many good Whigs who have fallen in this battle, none will be more nissed in the legislation of the State. * * To suppose that such a man would be sacrificed for the opinion that Gen. Taylor was the most available candidate of the Whigs, is to impute to his constituents a thickness of skull and Egyptian larkness of intellect to which we are sure they are

ANOTHER VICTORY!

From GEO. W. FAIRFAX, Esq., of Jefferson County, now Chief Clerk in the Adjutant General's Office, Saltillo, Mexico, we have received a full and detailed account of the recent victory at Santa Cruz. The following letter, however, of Col. Hamtramck, is all that we can find room for in this week's issue :

HEADQUARTERS, Saltillo, Mexico.

April 2d, 1848. \\
My dear friend: I have but a moment to say My dear triend: I have but a homent to say that I have just received an express from Gen. Price's column, announcing the pleasing intelli-gence that Gen. Treas, with all his forces, has surrendered to our arms. Gen. Price entered Chihuahua on the 9th of March, and immediately gave pursuit to the enemy, whom he overtook a Santa Cruz de Rosalio, a strongly situated town some 60 miles south of Chihuahua, on the 16th. The place was invested, and after fighting all day. the plaza and church were nearly attained by bur-rowing through the houses, when the enemy sur-rendered. Our loss is one Lieutenant, two noncommissioned officers, and 12 privates—the enemy's loss is 300 and odd killed, and 72 wounded nis whole force, (800,) all hisartillery, (12 pieces.) 2,000 stand of arms, some $800,000 worth of pub-ic property, many field officers, and Gen. The death of our respected friend, GERARD B. WAGER, Esq., has made a vacancy in the County Electorship of Berkeley county. Our Democratic friends in that county, should at once take measures to have the vacancy filled, by the appointment of some one of their Democratic brethren, as good and true, as faithful and efficient, as the gentleman who has just deceased. In his death, the entire party of the District have lost a irm, zealous and consistent friend-the community in which he lived, a citizen of enterprise, and great business capacity-and his family, an affecionate and kind husband, a fond and devoted father. To his friends and his grief-stricken tamily, we offer our condolence upon the occurrence of this sad dispensation.

SMITHFIELD DEMOCRATIC ASSO-

Mr. Editor: -Your Democratic periodical eaches me regularly every week. And I do assure you that the perusal of its capacious, and well-filled columns, affords me, in these mountains, a great deal of pleasure. This is natural When residing far away from the homestead-far from the county and place of our nativity, we are always pleased to see in print, accounts of the marriages, &c., of our friends, and the names of those with whom we associated in the days of our invenility.

I have been led to these remarks, Mr. Editor, by the perusal of the proceedings of a Democrat-Meeting recently held in Smithfield, for the ourpose of forming a Democratic Association, of which WALTER J. BURWELL, Esq., was elected President, who is an old friend of mine, and who y the by, is a sterling Jeffersonian Democrat. In view of the approaching Presidential canhis Association, was peculiarly opportune; for here are residing in and around Smithfield, a umber of Whig voters who, in my humble opinion, need but light to cause them to renounce forever the blighting aristocratic Whig doctrine, to which they have long adhered, and to receive, with open arms, the ever vivilying ones of the Democrats. And if I am not mistaken, the object the great object of this Association—is to furnish them with this light; or in other words, to remove from their optics, with the Democratic wand of truth, the films of party prejudice, and thus enable them to see, in the present prosperous condition of our common country, the beauties and benign workings of Democratic principles, and the hitherto contrary effects of modern aristocratic Whiggery.

Yes, Mr. Editor, this is doubtless the patriotic Yes, Mr. Editor, this is doubtless the patriotic object of this Association; may its labors therefore be crowned with success. In other words—may its members at the ballot box, in November next, have the proud satisfaction of thus exclaiming, as a host of converts, from Whiggery, cast their ballots for our Democratic nominees—Behold gentlemen bystanders! this is some of the Democratic fruit of the Smithfield Demoratic Association. A SUBSCRIBER.
Mountains, April 18, 1848.

JOHN VAN BUREN.

This gentleman has obtained no little promience in the country, by his adherence that portion of the Democratic party in New York, known as "Barnburners." Whilst the mass of the Democratic party in that State and the Union, look upon him with scorn and contempt as a hot-brained fanatic, they universally award him talent of the highest order. We subjoin a short extract from a recent speech of his before the Columbia county Convention, which for true eloquence and a glowing eulogy upon the honest yeomanry of the land, is rarely excelled; It is our desire to defeat the Whigs; past experience shows this cannot be effected by fruitless efforts to unite with the conservatives. In 1846 one of the ablest and purest statesmen that ever one of the subset and puress sittesmen that ever lived, was defeated as a candidate for Governor of this State, by a majority of 10,000. I make no complaint of the Whig party, who were openly organized against Mr. Wright. I make no com-plaint of the anti-renters, who stood in the same position. It is on those who professed to support, but secretly stabled Mr. Wright, that the public vengeance will light, and I confess, that when I recall the loss we have sustained in that great and good man, a dark thick gloom gathers over my heart, which is never dispelled except, for in-stants, when I see the lightning of popular indig-nation scathing and blasting his assassins.— (Cheers.) He was defeated; the fall following, the canvass showed the Syracuse ticket in a mi-nority of 35,000. There is then no hope or pros-pect of of success held out by vain endeavors to patch up a hollow truce with the conservative for-ces. New York State must be carried as ces. New York State must be carried as New York City has been, by the regular nomination of an honest and capable candidate, a fearless assertion of Democratic principles, and an unhesitating reliance on the intelligence and integrity of the Democratic masses.—With these we need fear no adversaries; let Democracy stand now as she has always stood—for laboring man is the main pillar of the American edifice: his arm defends our liberties; his vote directs and controls our government; his labor is our wealth, and his perfect protection and true dignity constitutes our proudest distinction. Ho-nest labor is with us an order of nobility, and we

MR. MARCY.

The Richmond Enquirer, in speaking of the recent letter of Secretary Marcy, in answer to the Bill of "indictment" rendered by Gen. Scott,

'The defence of Mr. Marcy we shall publish as apidly as possible. It is one of the most powerul papers we have ever read, and, as a Whigriend observed yesterday, portions of tare worthy if "Junius." The answer is conclusive, overwhelming, and the accuser is utterly refuted by whelming, and the accuser is utterly refuted by his own evidence. This remarkable letter of Mr. Marcy will elevate him to a high eminence in public opinion. Even the most thorough Whige admit the power of the paper and the perfect vindication of the War Department from the unjust and sweeping assault. A highly intelligent member of that party has said that Mr. Marcy has not lefe Gen. Scott "one inch of ground to stand upon, nor a loop to hang doubt upon." But our readers will judge for themselves.

For Gen. Scott, as a skilful and accomplished officer and soldier, we have great respect. He has many noble qualities as a man—but upon the present occasion, to our deep regret, his evil ge-present occasion, to our deep regret, his evil ge-nius has led him to assume an attitude of attack, from which the Secretary of War could not fail from which the Secretary of War could not lail to drive him by the weapon of truth, without sur-rendering all self-respect as a man, all dignity and fidelity to duty as a public officer, clothed with high responsibility.

Great Fire at Troy.—Thirty Buildings destroyed. On Monday night, a fire occurred at Troy, N. Y., which destroyed about $150,000 worth of property, besides 20 horses. It swept away a valuable portion of the business houses of the city, including the City Hotel, Military Hall, and some thirty other buildings. Insurance about $70,000.

Tesponsibility.

"Discruntien."—Some short time ago, our friends of the Va. "Free Press" remarked that we were "disgruntled" at that result, we should like to know how our friends of the "Free Press" feel at the defeat they have just sustained. We should say they were rather more than "disgruntled." "Laughing is catching." They ought not to have amused themselves at what they considered our disappointment and mortification.—They now appreciate fully the feelings of those who are disappointed and beaten.

A SCATHING LETTER.

Secretary Marcy's Reply to Gen. Scott. etter from the Secretary of War, in reply to one rom Gen. Scott, in which that officer mentions all the indignities and the grievances be has reseived since his campaign in Mexico, alleging hat he was not properly supported and supplied, nd that the safety of his commmand was hazarded by neglect on the part of the Adminstration .-Gov. Marcy's reply explains and defends his own course, and produces the testimony of Gen. Scott imself and Quartermaster General Jessup, to how that Gen. Scott had full power given him or the necessary transportation and raising of orces and supplies, and that the Quartermaster Seperal faithfully executed the orders as far as hey were practicable. The principal "indigni-"complained of by Gen. Scott, is treated in the ollowing manner by the Secretary :

following manner by the Secretary:

The crowning outrage, as you regard it, is the simple fact that you, and "the three arrested officers," are all to be placed together before the same court—the innoceent and the guilty—the accuser and the accused; the judge and his prisoners are dealt with alike." "Most impartial justice!" you exclaim. And why is it not impartial justice? On what ground of right can you claim to have your case discriminated from theirs? It is true, you have assumed to be their judge, and have pronounced them guilty; and complain and repine that the laws of the country do not allow you, their accuser, to institute a court to register repine that the laws of the country do not allow you, their accuser, to institute a court to register your decree. But you are not their rightful judge, although they were your prisoners. Before that court you all stand on the same level, and all have equal rights. Though you may have the self-satisfying conviction that you are innocent and they are guilty, the government could act upon no such presumption. By becoming an accuser, you did not place yourself beyond the reach of being accused; and unless you are clothed with the immunity of despotic power, and can claim you did not place yourself beyond the reach of being accused; and unless you are clothed with the immunity of despotic power, and can claim the benefit of the maxim "that the King can do no wrong," I know not why your conduct, when made the subject of charges, may not be investigated by a court of inquiry; nor can I perceive what other or better right you have to complain of and arraign the government, than the other officers whom you have aacused, and whose cases, with yours, were referred to the same court. If yours is a hard case, theirs is not less so. If you can rightfully complain of persecution by the government, so can they, with equal justice, and an equal claim to the public sympathy.

The charges against you did not emanate from the government, nor did they relate to a matter in which it could feel any peculiar interest. Not believing it impossible for you to do wrong, or that you were exempt from all responsibility for whatever you might have done, the government deemed it proper, when charges were preferred against you, coming from a source entitled to respect, to cause them to be investigated. As the usual and mildest mode of proceeding, they were referred to a court of inquiry. Until you can show that you enjoy the transcendental privilege to have your official conduct exempt from all examination in any form whatever, you have no cause to complain of the course taken in reward to the charges any form whatever, you have no cause to complain course taken in regard to the charges against you.

If your extraordinary pretensions are to derive any support from your distinguished services in the field, you ought to be mindful that the three accused officers, put underarrest by you, have like claims for distinguished services. On the page of impartial history, their names and their gallant deeds must appear with yours; and no monopolizing claims, seeking," malignant exclusions" at the expense of the "truth of history," will be permit-ted to rob them of their fair share of the glory won by our gallant army while under your command.

I cannot, however, but regard your solicitude or the support of discipline to be more estenta-tious than profound. When a general at the head of an army of freemen, who do not lose their rights as citizens by becoming soldiers, sets up pretensions to dictatorial power—when he conemns the authority of his government, and is nuch more ready to censure that to execute its orders and instructions— when he denounces as an outrage and a punishment the attempt to sub-mit his acts charged to be an offence against a subordinate officer, to an investigation in the mild-est form—when he administers an indignant re-proof to his superior, for upholding the sacred right to appeal, upon which depend the security and protection of all under his command—such a general sets an example of insubordinate conduct, wide and withering influence upon sound mili-

whole continent of Europe is now alive to this great truth. Great Britain, France, Prussia, Italy, Manover, and even Russia, are feeling the mighty movement, which, proceeding from America, is now freeing the serf and the slave, from the shackles of bondage, and elevating him to the peerage of political and social equality with his fellow men. Shall the pattern republic, in view of her unrivalled prosperity at home and this encouraging imitation abroad, now abandon the noble policy which has made her a sun in this firmament of freedom; and shall the Democratic party, the breath of whose life is liberty, lead the way in this degrading apostacy? Whatever judgment may be rendered by the citizens of other sections, I feel that I can answer for the Democrats of my native county, that they will reject with scorn a suggestion so derogatory to the glory and honor of their past career. They will rally as one man in behalf of the glorious principles of free trade, free labor, free soil, free speech, and free men, which not only promise constutional liberty here, but emancipation to a continent across the water. services as a military commander in the field. It has been, and, under any change in our personal relations, it will continue to be, my purpose to be liberal in my appreciation of your distinguished military merits. In respect to your errors and your faults, though I could not be blind, I regret that you have not permitted me to be silent.

MORE SOUP.

Gen. Scott will surely never get tired of soiling his blood-bought laurels with ink. He has now written a letter to the Secretary of War which surpasses all its predecessors; it is a deliberately drawn up bill of indictment against his superior officers, charging upon them every crime of which they could well be guilty, and in a manner highly disrespectful, exceptionable and insulting. Mr. Marcy's reply is one of the most satisfactory, dignified and complete productions which has ever emanated from his pen, and completely vindicates the administration from all the unfortunate charges made by this brave and skillful but "hasty" and arrogant gentleman. We are sorry that the great length of these letters will prevent us from publishing the whole of them, but we characteristics.

It seems the Whig party made a blunder about their demand for the publication of these letters, precisely similar to that which they made about the old "Soup" correspondence. Thinking that Gen. Scott had sent a "sockdollager" to the War Department, they vociferously demanded the publication. But getting wind of its true nature, they tried their utmost to stop the matter. However, the ball was gone too far down hill to be stopped; it rolled on to the goal.

TO THE VOTERS OF BERKELEY

COUNTY.

Fellow-Citizens:—Jacob Van Doren, Jr., the Deputy Sheriff conducting the election at the Court House, has given the casting vote to my opponent Wm. L. Boak, Esq., and has caused him to be returned one of the Delegates from this county to the next House of Delegates of Virginia. You are all aware that there was a tie between Mr. Boak and myself in the late election, and of course it became the duty of the Sheriff conducting the election at the Court House, under the law, to cast the vote for the one or the other of us. The Sheriff has performed that duty and I, of course, have no right to ask his reasons, or to question the purity of his motives in casting the vote as he has done—doubtless he has done what he thought was right. I believe, however,
I am fairly and honestly entitled to the return, and that I have been elected by a majority of your votes to the next House of Delegates, and being fully impressed with this belief, I take this early occasion to announce to you my intention to contest before the next House of Delegates the right of Mr. Boak to his seat in said House.

I assure you that if I be not fairly and honorably entitled to my seat by the choice of the people,
I do not want it—I would scorn to hold it upon any other than the fair and honestly expressed will of the people. It is not necessary, (even if it were politic and proper here for me to do so.) that I should enter into details; it is sufficient for me here to say that I have in my judgment the most ample grounds of contest before the House of Delegates, the tribunal before which my cause must be tried, and where I have every confidence that I shall get a fair, impartial and unprejudiced consideration of my rights.

I assure the people that I shall leave no exertion untried to vindicate my rights and the rights of a majority of the legal voters of this County, who I believe have cast their suffrages for me. El is believe have cast their suffrages for me. It is my duty to the people who have so generously supported me, to scrutinize the whole Poll of this county in the late election, and if their expressed will has been violated in any way to ferret out and expose that violation.

I proposed to my opponent, Mr. Boak, as we were tied to run the race over with me, rather than encounter the trouble and expense of a contested election before the House of Delegates—but he declined to try me again before the neonle gates—where doubtless justice will be meted out to both of us. It is my intention immediately to enter upon a scrutiny of the whole Poll.

Respectfully, your ob't. serv't;

ANOTHER LETTER FROM GENERAL TAYLOR. His position Defined.

BATON ROUGE, (La.) April 20. Dear Sir :-- Your letter of the 20th inst., which been made in some of the papers of the North, and which submits several inquiries for my considera-which submits several inquiries for my consideration, has been received.

To your inquiries I have respectfully to reply:
First, That, if nominated by the Whig National Convention, I shall not refuse acceptance, provided I am left free of all pledges, and permitted to maintain the position of independence of all parties in which the people and my own sense of duy have placed me; otherwise, I shall refuse the nomination of any convention or party.

Secondly, I do not design to withdraw my name if Mr. Clay be the nominee of the Whig National if Mr. Clay be the nominee of the Whig National Convention; and, in this connexion, I beg per-mission to remark that the statements which have been so positively made in some of the Northern prints, to the effect "that should Mr. Clay be the nominee of the Whig National Convention" I had stated "that I would not suffer my name to be used," are not correct, and have no foundation in any oral or written remark of mine. It has not been my intention at any moment, to change my position, or to withdraw my name from the canvass, whoever may be the nominee of the Na-tional Convention, either of the Whig or Demo-tional Convention, either of the wing or Demo-cratic party.

Thirdly, I have never stated to any one that I was in favor of the tariff of 1846, of the sub-trea-sury, or that I originated the war with Mexico; nor, finally, that I should, if elected, select my cabinet from both parties. No such admissions or statements were made by me any time or to any person. Permit me, however, to add, that, should such distinction be conferred upon me as that of elevation to the Executive office, the constitution, in a strict and honest interpretation, and in the spirit and mode in which it was acted upon by our earlier Presidents, would be my chief guide. In this I conceive to be all that is necessary in the way of pledges.

The election of another candidate would occaas the will of the people, I should willingly and calmly submit. As I have had no ambition to serve but in the desire to serve the country, it would bring to me no disappointment.

With sentiments of high respect and regard I.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION AT CINCINNATI — Loss of Life.—The fire works manufactory of C. C. Williams, at Cincinnati, blew up on Friday last, with a terrible effect. The whole city felt the shock, and windows and houses shook as if from an earthquake. The roof of the house was blown off, and the eastern wall cast into the yard adjoing. Almost instantaneous with the explosion, the wreck of the building was enveloped in flames and despite the daring and almost superhuman and despite the daring and almost superhuman. and despite the daring and almost superhuman efforts of the firemen, was destroyed down to the second story. The Commercial says :-

The most terrible part of the tale is to be told There were several persons in the building at the time—two of whom lost their lives, while others were injured.

John McClum, an apprentice to Mr. Williams was engaged in making rockets, and immediately after the explosion, his clothes blazing, and his face blackened and burned, leaped from the third story window, in the rear of the building. He was carried to the Hospital, where he died in a few hours, in the greatest torment.

Henry Solomon, a young man from Lexington, Kentucky, who was in the house awaiting the return of Mr. Williams, was killed on the spot — His body—the head and arms burned off, and a blackened cinder—was found upon the stairway, in the second story, after the flames had been subduced.

VIRGINIA REGIMENT.

Correspondence of the Spirit of Jefferson. PARRAS, MEXICO, April 1st, 1848.

Correspondence of the Spirit of Jefferson.

PARRAS, MEXICO, April 1st, 1848.

MR. EDITOR—Dear Sir: I ask the favor of a place in the columns of your valuable paper for the purpose of making the melancholy announcement to the family and friends of Thomas McCrory, a Virginia Volunteer, that he is no more. My reason for resorting to this plan, is a want of information of his family's residence, which I have now no means of obtaining. He volunteered in Wincheater, Virginia, and told me he had a family, but did not say where they lived. You will therefore conier a favor by requesting the papers of Hagerstown, Md., to copy this notice, as it is my impression his family lives somewhere in Maryland. His death was somewhat mysterious, and no duty could be more painful than that which I am called upon to perform in the present instance—a duty which casts a gloom over my feelings, and produces a sensation in my heart which words are inadequate to express, in announcing to the friends of any member of my company their death, and more particularly on this occasion, from the manner in which he came by his death, which is as follows:—We arrived in Parras on the third of April, and on the morning of the fourth, after breakfast, he remarked that he believed he would walk out and put the town to rights, and has not been seen or heard of since. That he has been murdered there is no doubt, as there is no possible chance of deserting while this far in the interior, neither had he any desire to do so: and further, a few days after, two of Capt. Harper's men, of the same battalion, was shockingly murdered. We found their bodies about three miles from town, buried in the bottom of a ravine. One had seven stabs in the breast, the other five, any one of which was sufficient to produce instant death. We made diligent search for the body of McClory, but could not find it.—We hung two of the murderers a few days ago, and have one more of them in prison.

The lower class of the Mexicans are very hostile here. Two of them on horse-back tried tile here. Two of them on horse back tried to rope a sentinel last night but missed him. He rope a sentine; last night but missed him. He could not shoot them, as his gun missed fire.

Parras is a beautiful place, situated in a large valley well watered—has good buildings, and about four thousand inhabitants. There are about ten thousand acres of vineyards in the vicinity, which makes the country appear beautiful at this time.

This leaves me and my company well to a man. This leaves me and my company well to a man. There are four companies of the Virginia Regiment and one company of the Texas Rangers here. The armistice has just reached us—great talk of peace, but I don't put much confidence in it. This place is 120 miles above Saltillo—we were ordered here for the purpose of collecting revenue—our situation is much more agreeable than heretofore—we are quartered in good houses for the first time since we came to this country.

mother, and a sister, died with that fatal disease. For some years, I have been predisposed to it myself. About one year ago I was quite sick for a number of weeks, confined to my bed when the pain in my side would allow me to lay. My physician pronounced my disease liver complaint; my liver was very much enlarged—I raised blood several times; the pain in my side was so severe that the cars passing in the street by the door affected me. I was enpped, bled, and had various other remedies applied, but all to no purpose; I got no relief. At last my physician said he could not cure me. I expected to die soon, but providentially I heard of, and obtained a bottle of your Balsam, which relieved me at once, I was encouraged to persevere in using it, until I tock four of five bottles, which raved my life and cured me.
My health is now good. For Liver Complaints I believe it is a most certain cure.

Also Cortlan's improved and warranted non-con-luctors of heat for cold water, by which cold wa-ter can at all times be had with a small portion of Bate's Patent Premium Sliding Top chamber Baths, recommended by the first medical men of the country. Waterman's Patent Pneumstic Shower Baths and Bathing Pans, Yankee and other Shower Baths—also Bathing Tubs of every description furnished to order. I would invite the attention of the public to these articles, as I have recommendations and certificates in my possession which will satisfy all of their utility. LOOK NOT ON THE WINE WHEN RED.

A song—sy A. S. MEER, ESQ.

Oh look not on the wine when red;
When sparkling in the crystial cup,
For though bright thes are round it shed.
Twill burn thy priceless spirit up.
The dark browed Queen of Egypt gave.
Her richest jowels to its wave,
And, as they perished, in the bow!
Will sink the treasures of thy soul!
Oh look and as the

Oh look not on the crimon wine,
Let not its watera kiss thy lips,
For in their gay, delusive shrine
There's hidden death for him who sips;
The olden fount the prophet viewed,
Gleamed brightly in the solitude;
Hut soon for him who drank, a grave
Was found by Marah's bitter wave!

Was found by Maran Collet Wave.

When mantling in the jewelled bowl;

Though weaths of flowers around it twins.

They breathe a poison on the soul.

The orient Upas proudly waves lis foliage o'er a land of graves;
And thus the flower-weathed goblet's breath

Brings desolation, woe, and death!—

Ob look not on the tempting wine,
Pass not beneath its syren rod,
Nor bow, before its demon shrine,
The image of creation's God!—
It is the fabled Circe bow!
That dwarfed the stature, drawned the soul,
And by its sorcery, fell though mute,
Transformed the ungel to the brufe!

Oh look not on the wine when red;
It is the deadliest human foe;
It wreathes a cypress round the head,
And lays the loftlest trophics low.
It darkens virtue, poisons health,
Ulasts peace and hopa, and robs of wealth;
Crime, pain, and famine round it tread,—
Then look not on the wine when red!

THE PRINTER. Hon. Thos. J. Henley, Member of Congrefrom this State, made a speech at a recent Typo-graphical Celebration, held in Washington city, of which the following is said to be an extract— What particular individual the portraitwas intend-ed to represent, Mr. Henley does not say, but we can bear him witness that there are originals spouch.

"The Printer, sir, is not, to be sure, always' the handsomest man about the town,' but the editor of a village newspaper is admitted to surpass all others in diversified talent and the faculty of adaptto prove. In his office, sir, he oftentimes agts as clittor, compositor, pressman and devil. In his own house he can sweep the floor, make the bed, buil the teakettle, fry the becisteak, milk the cow, rock the cradle, and tend the babies. At a social party he can enteriain the company with some rock the crause, and tend the babies. At a social party he can entertain the company with a song, drink a glass of wine, play a game of euchie, dance a colillion, and play the agreeable to all the ladies. He sometimes officiates to read service at the clurch on Sabbath when the minister is at the church on Sabbath when the minister is absent, but this does not at all interfere with his taking a glass of tansy bitters at the tavern on Monday morning with country friends. At the celebration of the Fourth of July he is either orator of the day or one of the committee of arrangements. He acts frequently as foreman of the Grand Jury of his county, and is always an important personage about the court house in 'term time.' He is councilman in the ward in which he lives, and is sure of an invitation to every wedding in the ten miles' round,' and gets a big piece of pound cake for publishing the nuptials. He delivers temperance addresses at the church and drinks white faced whisky (when he can get nothing better) at the neighboring grocery. He is a magistrate; commands the peace in all 'free fights,' issues his fi fa's, and his ca sas or writs of advastis-faciendum, dispensing justice with as much facility as he would distribute a handfull of dead matter. EVIL COMPANIONS .- Lord Chief Justice Holt in his younger years was a wild one, and walked for some time in a path that apparently led to the gal-lows, rather than to the Bench. Fortunately for lows, rather than to the Bench. Fortunately for himself and the world, however, he turned a short corner—became a reformed man—a great and good one. But although on relinquishing his dissipated habits, he cut the acquaintance of his abandoned associates, he had in after life repeated opportunities of meeting them sgain. One of them arraigned before him for highway robbery, and being convicted, sentence of death was passed upon him. The Chief Justice, before his execution, took occasion to visit him, and enquire what had become of a certain set with which, in oarly life, they had both been connected. ARKANSAS WEDDING CAKE .- A letter from Mt. Pleasant, Arkansas, published in the Syracuse Star, gives the ingredients of a wedding cake, in that country of baars and buffaloes:

Mr. P. is now ordained, and of course has liberty to marry. He, with some others of the family, attended a wedding this week, and brought home some wedding cake. It was made of pounded corn for flour, the ashes of bean pods for salar-rains and beans for raising this was wear with ratus, and beans for raisins: this was wet with water and then tied up in corn-husks in the shape of an hour-glass and then boiled; sometimes it is from a buffalo's horn. I once had the pleasure of eating it so buffalo is horn. I once had the pleasure of eating it so at a neighbor's house. Corn bread, hog meat, (Iresh.), coilee, and the cake I have just described form a common wedding dinner. Some do go so high as to indulge in "chicken fixins and flour doins," but it is rare.

CLAY AND SCOTT TICKET .- The N. O. Delts announces the presence in that city of Gen. Les-lie Combs, and gives the following on dit: "That the General's visit here has some connection with Gen. Scott's expected arrival, and the movement of the Northern politicians, to bring out Mr. Clay and Gen. Scott on the same ticket, for President and Vice President."

DR. SWEETZER'S PANACEA. THIS Medicine is warranted, on oath, not to contain a particle of Calomel, Corrosive Sub-mate, Arsenie, Chloride of Gold, or any delete-limate, Arsenie, Chloride of Gold, or any deleterious minerals.

The principle upon which this medicine acts, is by assisting and harmonizing with nature; it drives out all foul scrimonious humors from the blood and body, and by assimilating with and strengthening the gastric juice of the stomach, it assists digestion; in short there is not a vein, artery, muscle or nerve in the human body, that is not strengthened by the Panacza, and it also possesses the remarkable property of removing mercury from the bones and joints.

FOR ERUFTIONS OF THE SKIN,
Scurvy, Scorbutic Affections, Tumors, Scrofula or King's Evil, White Swellings, Erysipelas, Ulcers, Cancers, Running Sores, Scabs and Biles, time and a determined perseverance in Dr. SweetZER'S PANACEA, will effect a cure.

Rejection of food, Nausea, Vontings, Nervous affections, Bilious complaints, Head-ache, Paleness, or Female Irregularities, Dr. Sweetzer's Paragea will soon effect a cure; but if obstinate, or attended with griping, flying pains, the does should be increased, and the cure will soon be effected. Let not the patients frighten themselves with the idea that they are too weak to take much medicine; but bear in mind that this mildly operating medicine puts not weakness into the irame, but most certainly draws weakness out, leaves strength in its place, and by giving composed sleep at night, and an appetite for any kind of food, re-animates the whole frame with vigorous action, improving the mind and clearing the sight.

SCROFULA AND GLANDULAR AFFECTIONS. Scrofula is said to be hereditary, the infant re-civing from its parents the seeds of this disease, which increases with its years, if neglected and not subjected to frequent purification with Dr. Swretzer's Paracea. The glands are placed in the corners of the body, and out of the way of direct communication; their real use is a subject on which much difference of opinion prevails; it suffices us to know that when in a diseased state, their are applied of their real to the state of their real to the state of the state of their real to the state of the nees us to know that when in a diseased state, they are capable of being purified and cleansed by a long course of Dr. Sweetzen's Panagea, which restores them to sound and proper action. Scrofulous persons can never pay too much attention to their blood, its purification should be their first thought, for after a long course of perseverance they will even cure hereditary disease:

In case of Jaundice, Ashma, Liver complaints, Tic Doloreux, Rheumatism or Rheumatic Gout, Dr. Sweetzen's Paracea cannot be too highly extolled; it searches out the very root of the dis-ease, and by removing it from the blood, makes a case, and by removing it from the blood, makes a cure certain and permanent.

For diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Strictures, Gravel, Stope, Piles, Fistula, Urinary Obstructions and Extreme Costiveness, Dr. Sweetzer's Panacka is the best remedy ever tried; it removes all those acrimonious humors from the blood which give rise to the above diseases, and by keeping the blood in a pure condition, insures health.

For Dropsy, Falling of the Rowels, Impurities of health.

For Dropsy, Falling of the Bowels, Impurities of Blood, Mercurial Taint, Weakness of the Spine, Flow of blood to the head, Giddiness, Singing or Buzzing noise in the head and ears, Dr. Sweetzer Spanacea will give certain relief; in all severe and should see the actions are the surface and because the surface and the surface

In Chills and fevers, bilious fever, affections of The claims and levers, pinous lever, anections of the eyes and ears, spongy and bleeding gums, Bronchillis, and recent coughs and colds, Dr. Sweetzer's Paracea will be found perfectly sure and certain in its effects.

GRAVEL AND URINARY COMPLAINTS. REMOVAL.

The undersigned has removed his Shop to the stand of Wells J. Hawks, at his Coach Factory, (formerly occupied by me,) where I will for the future keep constantly on hand, and manufacture to order at short notice, every variety of Saddles, Bridles and Harroce.

These complaints are generally attended with the most fatal consequences, and are seldom or never usually accompany the patient to the grave, after suffering the most excrutiating pain and torture. The cause of these complaints are the same as all others, the dross of the blood becomes incrusted on the finest narrow passages, whence arise morbid secretions and stoppages of princes. These complaints are generally attended with the arise morbid secretions and stoppages of urine.

You will find the most powerful diuretics of no use, as they only increase the quantity of urine and do not purify and strengthen the parts. By purifying the blood with Dr. Sweetzers's Paracea, you remove the cause of the disease, consequently it cannot exist any longer, after sufficient perseverance in its use has deprived the blood and body of all acrimonious humors and incrustations.

This is a very prevalent and fatal disease; it results mostly from neglected coughs, colds, and bronchitis, also from improper treatment in many other cases, such as measels, fevers, inflamations and small pox, and a host of other badly treated diseases; where the cause, instead of having been thoroughly removed from the blood and body, have only been palliated or removed from one part to break out in another. By divesting your bodies from all foul humors, through the medium of Dr. Sweetzer's Panacea, the cure is at once rendered certain and permanent. Recollect while there is acrimonious humors floating in the circulation, it is as apt to settle on the lungs as any other part of the body; this is the reason that consumption is so prevalent. This is a very prevalent and fatal disease; i

These diseases proceed from the seriosity or corrupt humors of the blood, having settled itself on the throat and lungs, and stopped them up, so that they cannot draw sufficient air in for respiration.
