chised Marylanders were once as you are, but now the dockers of our courts point out those now the dockets of our courts point out those who perpetrated these outrages, and in every county suits for damages have been instituted, and the guilty parties are being made to pay the penalty of the monstrous political tyranny they once exercised. Deep and contrite is their repentance, but it will not avail, for aside from all State laws, the Common Law establishes their liability, and juries who know the outrages they committed fix the penalty. This is one way to reach these proknow the outrages they committed fix the penalty. This is one way to reach these people, and it should not be neglected. Do you answer that you have no remedy. Perhaps not now in the present constitution of your judiciary and your juries. But these wrongs must end, and that speedily. Be prepared for the change. We were once bound like you, but freedom came to us as a surprise. A revolution swept over the State, and now, from governor to constable, there is not an office in all Maryland, executive, judicial or legislative, held by a Radical." Maryland has indeed been reconstructed, and so will be West Virginia. It may not be through the same instrument, for your Executive has not the sagacity of Gov. Swann, and is too blind to see or too stupid to read the handwriting on the wall. But it is written there nevertheless. Look beyond your borders, Mr. Beall, and note the changes. Are they not great and universal? Are not the Radical leaders in Washington and elsewhere chagrined and astounded, and is it any wonder? Is Brownlow becoming converted, this Legislature oivilized?—Surely there is yet hope for Boreman and his crowd. All this, sir, means but one thing—change, political revolution. I think the cloud is breaking. Let your people be ready. Let your registrars and judges of election be warned. If they do their duty honestly, and with a proper regard for the rights of their fellow-citizens, they will not regret it. If not: if they prefer the course they have been pursuing, when the day of retribution comes they can expect no pity nor examption at the hands of those they are now persecuting.

GRAND RALLY! Democratic Conservative Pariv.

OF JEFFERSON COUNTY. We are happy to announce definitely that the contemplated BARBECUE and GRAND RALLY of the Conservatives of this county, will take place at Flowing Spring one mile and a half from Charlestown, on SATURDAY NEXT, AUGUST 22D, 1868. Arrangements are in progress which justify the conclusion that the affair will be one wor thy of the liberal spirit of our people, and the gathering such as to call to remembrance the hallowed associations of the past, when, as a free people we battled for the supremacy of the Constitution and a real Union of the Hon. JOHNSON N. CAMDEN, the Democratic candidate for Governor of West Virginia, has bromised to be with us on that day, and may be confidently expected to address the crowd. Other able speakers have been invited, among them Senator THUR-MAN, of Ohio, and Hon. WILLIAM PINCKNEY WHYTE, of Maryland, and it is not improbable that both these distinguished gentlemen will be present.

It is expected that the arrangements for feeding the multitude will be ample, but in order to make this part of the programme a certainty, the ladies of this and adjoining counties are invited to come in their carriages and wagons; and to bring with them their well-filled baskets of provision. We hope the occasion may be graced by thousands of the fair daughters of Jefferson, Clarke, Frederick, Berkeley and Loudoun counties, who are so deeply interested in restoring the Government to its former glory, by rescuing it from the hands of the present radical faction.

Parties who design making contributions in PROVISIONS will please have them COOKED and sent to the ground at the earliest practicable hour on Saturday morning, where a committee will be present to take charge of

To defray the necessary expenses to be incurred-such as music, hauling, and erection of the stands and seats, some money will be required. To facilitate the collection of this fund, the following gentlemen will receive contributions in money in their respective neighborhoods, viz: At Kabletown, J. W. Walraven; at Rippon, Albert Jones; at Summit Point, John A. Thomson; at Middleway, John W. Grantham; at Leetown and Kearneysville, Meredith Helm; at Shepherdstown; B. F. Harrison and J. H. Simmons and Wm. F. Weirick. The contributions from any one individual need not be large, if there is a general disposition shown to push on the ball that is now in motion. The above named gentlemen are requested to report on Saturday morning, with whatever funds they may raise, to CHARLES H. McCURDY, Esq., who will act as Treasurer, and will receive and disburse the funds collected.

Those of our farmers who have ICE to spare, and who desire to make their contributions in this article, will send it to the ground on Saturday morning. It is hoped the contributions in this respect will be liberal, as nothing will contribute more to the comfort of the occasion.

On to-morrow (Wednesday) morning, there will be a meeting on the ground, of the Committee of Arrangements, and such citizens of leave him to the charge of the master whom different sections of the county as can spare he has served so well, only expressing the the time, are invited to join the Committee and aid them in making the necessary pre-

If they do right they will be sustained by the liberal-minded of all parties; but if they follow the preced ents set them by the intolerant Board that they succeed, they will receive, as they will merit, a speech, which I suppose you are well aware the condemnation of every right-thinking of. I am very glad to see you. ceed, they will receive, as they will merit, had a meeting on Saturday week, and made the following appointment of Township Registrars:

These township registrars are to sit in their espective townships on the first Monday in September, for the purpose of amending the 11th, and 12th of September, and at the Relists; and we presume for the purpose of re- corder's office in Shopherdstown on the 17th, cording the names of those who have not 18th, and 19th of the same month, for the been registered. We exhort those who can register under the provisions of the law to be on hand on the day above specified, and make the effort to become voters. There are in each township a large number of men justly entitled to have their names on the Registers book, and to all such we would earnestly suggest the importance of attending to the matter at the proper time. As the first Monday of September has been fixed by the Registrars themselves, let the people accommodate themselves to the day, and register without fail. Give that day to your country.

NOT THE MAN!

We owe Mr. GEORGE W. ANDERSON, the about the opening of a road, which had his familiar name attached to it, and at the time. were confident that it was written and posted by our esteemed radical fellow-citizen. We made a mistake-we mourn over that mistake. Our Geo. W. Anderson is not the individual who posted that notice. Another Richmond enters the field, as we have satisfactory reasons for believing. We have before us a letter from Berkeley county, from which we quote the following-4the Geo. W. Anderson whose name is appended to that 'nodice' is not your blacksmith Andersonthis Geo. W. Anderson lives in Berkeley county, about two miles west of Kearneys-

We stand corrected-but whoever thought that two adjoining counties could each have a George W. Anderson. We never dreamed of such a thing, and but for the positive testimony we have to the contrary, we should be willing to swear that our George W. Anderson was the man who wrote the "nodice." But here comes the rebutting evidence. The notice published last week, and the one appended, were written by the same individual .-He turns out to be a certain radical aspirant for the Sheriffalty of Berkeley county, named Vanmetre. His qualifications for the position may be judged of from the annexed :-

GONE AT LAST? We publish in another part of our paper the details of the death of a radical politician named Stevens, which occurred in Washington city last week. Humanity has reason to rejoice that this event has occurred and man's fallible judgment wonders that a just Providence did not decree its consummation long ago. In his death a political pestilence has been lifted from the presence of the American people, and the most unscupulous opponent of the constitution has been taken to his reward. We are privileged to believe that the arrival of his spirit on that other theatre where its accumulation of hate and persecution is to be emptied, created a confusion and an uproar in all the confines of hell, hithertounknown; and that the devil's dismay in granting his spirit an appropriate reception was greater than that produced by all the hosts of sinners that have reached his dominions from the fall of our first parents in Eden down to the present time. Feeling that he is now in safe hands, where his restless and envenomed spirit will find an ample field for the exercise of its chief delight, we hope that he will not be permitted to usurp authority there as he did here, as in that case we might look for legions of devils, fresh from the sulphurous regions of darkness, to be turned loose upon the people of the South, who for the past eight years have been the especial objects of Thaddeus Stevens' hate. No tears have we to shed, but a day of thanksgiving that the pestilence is removed, would not be inappropriate throughout the whole

We published a notice 6th Congressional District of Virginia. In declining the proposed honor, Mr. Baird, who is not a native of the State, says :-

" I feel myself greatly indebted to the people of Virginia for the kindness which Lehave experienced at their hands, and the confidence reposed in me during my brief residence in the State; and should feel most happy of any opportunity to serve them consistent wit higher obligations. But I am a minister of Christ, and my paramount obligations to the Son of God forbid me to enter the nolitical arena; and it is my firm conviction that the best service which I can do for the people of Virginia, is to confine myself strictly to the duties of my own calling and to leave the management of their political affairs to her own sons, who are so abundantly competent

Here is a lesson that ought to be profitable to all those who are using the livery of Christ in which to serve the devil, and if we thought it would have any effect, we would especially commend it to the Black Pilgrim of the Winchester District, and his pet lambs of the Baltimore Conference, whose zeal in behalf of their own interests, has led them to interfere with the just rights of others; and who. instead of being instructors in things per taining to eternity, are grovelling in the dust and filth of political degradation.

elected U. S. Senator from Ohio, was among the speakers at the recent Conservative Convention of West Virginia, held at Grafton He made an able and argumentative speech. in which he referred to all the issues now pending, State and National, and then referred to the iniquitous, radical; rascally and proscriptive Registration law of West Vir-

A few words my friends, and I have done. I was siting in the New York Convention, other day, and looking around the walls of Tammany, and seeing on them those beautiful escutcheons that bore the arms of the different States, I amused myself with reading their mottoes, and presently I came to that of West Virginia. I found it transla-" Mountaineers are always free," and Iked myself, "Good heavens! who was it that put that motto at the head of that coat of arms, with thousands upon thousands, all born upon the soil of this State, loving it as they do their lives, disfranchised." when I looked at it agained it seemed to be the work of some demon who was uttering t in irony and scorn, and I thought of your disfranchising constitution and your disfranchised registry laws, and as I thought of these things it seemed to me that if I were a Radical member of the Legislature the first thing I would do, for honesty's sake, would be to expunge that motto from the arms of the

State. [Great applause.]
But, my friends of West Virginia, do your duty. Do it earnestly and well this year .-Let the Democratic party go into power—as by the grace of God I hope and believe it will [shouts of "Amen! amen!"] - and when you get the power of this old State, or new State-of West Virginia, then you may hold up your coat of arms, and we may read, Montani semper liberi." [Great cheers.]

THE RADICALS GIVE UP NEW YORK The correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writes to that paper on the 14th instant as follows, regarding politics in New York :

The only noteworthy incident in politics to day is a remarkable editorial in the Sun, of this morning, coming to the conclusion, after a careful survey of the whole field, that "the cause of the Republicans, in this State, is simply hopeless," and that "the Democracy must carry New York in spite of everything." The significance of this declaration is in the fact that the Sun is a warm partisan of the Republican candidates.

osition was shifted, and it published the fol-owing review of the political situation: "Two points in the canvass are more im-portant than all others—the history of the adical party and the nigger vote: For eight radical party and the nigger vote: For eight years the republican party has been in power, and the final results, as seen by the people, are the derangement of all the machinery of government, an almost incredible corruption in office and a weight in taxes that bears commerce and labor to the earth. Will the people longer have patience with a party that has such a history? This is the question of the hour. Is there any fear in our future that should move the people to trust this party again even despite the fearful chance that it may continue the same destructive career that has already been so disastrous to the it may continue the same destructive career that has already been so disastrous to the national prosperity? Can any other party inflict upon us evils worse than those we now suffer as the consequence of radical misrule? Reconstruction by a system of legislation that deliberately forges calamity for a whole people and prepares the social ruin of ten States to secure power to a coterie of politicians—this is the political crime that stamps the radical faction as utterly dammable before the people. Men inquire what the faction would stop at that would purchase such an end by such means, and they know that it will not such means, and they know that it will not stop at anything sacred in the law and will re-pect the rights of the people in the North as little as it has done in the South. Does the name of Grant furnish any guarantee for the future of the radicals? The people are not ready to believe it. Grant is politically only a promise and a possibility. Respectable men are not willing to doubt his honesty or his upright purpose; but these do not always qualify for success in such a strife as he must control to save the people from his party. He may prove capable; he may not, and it is a time when the people cannot trust their future to such a chance. Therefore the doom of radicalism-seems to be burned into the popular brain, and on such reasoning as we have hinted the people appear to drift toward what they regard as the least of two evils, without faith in the republicans and little hope in the democrats. Men on either and pronounced him in a sinking condition. side count for little; it is the history of the has a bad history, too, but its sins are trivial by comparison. If this faction ever desired to reconstruct society it was in the interest of the white man. The word taxation hardly occurs in its history, and it never aimed a blow at the Supreme Court or sought to cripple the government in the person of the Executive. It sympathized with the South in the war, and that can be forgiven by a people who are at last coming to look upon the republicans as the South looked upon them when the war began: If, therefore, the history of the democracy were darker than it is, the history of radicalism would be infinitely beyond it in infamy. It is upon these broad views and judgments of parties that the prople move. The common mind averages great results by processes of its own. Isolated facts made up at the polls, and Kentucky indicates the tendency. If the reaction of the public mind, stimulated by the history of the radical party does not sweep the whole North, the negro vote will be of the first importance in the struggle It may save the South to the radicals, but it may give it to the democrats, and, regarding the possibility of a fairly divided North Samb may finally hold the balance of power. Some facts indicate that the negroes may go very largely with the Democrats: Dull as we may consider the whole race, they have seen enough to be disgusted with radical friend-PERTINENTLY SAID.

The Hon. Judge Thurman, the newly selling to be disgusted with radical irrends ship, and are certainly seeking political allies outside that party. Negroes from the beginning had determined upon their part of the alliance with the radicals, and thus formed expectations that the latter could not meet. Confiscation tells the story in a word.— Northern restraint on the dominant party, even its worst moments rendered it impossible for it to carry out the virtual compact; but the negroes will not understand that. They only cherish resentment at the men who promised, but did not perform. Confiscation, by giving the negroes a real as well as a political independence, might have made it possible that they could sustain a political opposition in the Southern States; but without a hold are forgotten, this or that virtue or vice seems on the land this was not possible. Without the power, therefore, to make their political independence effective, with social facts, more cogent than radical orators, forcing upon them that their interests were identical with the interests of the people among whom they must live; with a heart-breaking disappoint-ment in view of this and a bitter readiness to visit their resentment on those who had faised such high hopes only to betray them, the niggers inevitably go over to the other side. There is nothing strange in this. It would be strange if it were otherwise, for they achieve political revenge and act on the best view they can take of their own welfare. The case of the Presidency, therefore, judged by the main facts, seems to stand thus: The history of the radical party is such that the people will not trust it again on any terms, and this conviction threatens to give the North to the democrats. If, however, this fails. there is a possibility that Grant may be beaten by losing the whole South through the defection of the negroes, who will go over to the democrats, partly led by the natural influences of association and partly by resent-ment for the relinquishment by the radicals of that measure that was from the first regarded

About seven o'clock two colored ministers, Rev. Mr. Hall and Rev. Mr. Reed (both of the Israel Methodist Church.) arrived and requested permission-to see Mr. Stevens and ay with him: When asked if they should so he said, "Oh, ves." .These colored pinisters then entered his bed chamber and approached the bedside. He looked toward them, nodded his head, and smiled. Rev. Mr. Hall said, "Mr. Stevens, you have the prayers of all the colored people in the country." He again nodded his head. They then prayed at his bedside until eight o'clock, when they retired.

About nine o'clock Dr. Young again called and had a brief interview with his patient. The doctor announced him dying, and so told him. Mr. Stevens looked at him, nodded his head, but made no reply. Dr. Young in-formed the house-hold that his patient would n all probability die before morning.

Sisters Loretta and Genevieve, of Providence Hospital, came in and at once proceeded to read the prayers for the departing soul. In the meantime Mr. Stevens lay quietly on the bed, and when asked by his relatives would say "Yes" or "No" quite distinctly.-The sisters desired to perform the baptismal rite, and no objection being made, Sister Loretta performed the ceremonies in an impres-

Simon Stevens sat upon the bed fanning him, young Thaddeus stood by the bedside holding his hand, Smith knelt at the foot of the bed, while the Sisters also kneeling, continued to read the prayers for a departing soul. The servants were kneeling in various parts of the room. About ten minutes before 12 o'clock it was evident that the time of disso-lution was nigh. His breathing was hard; he took no more ice, and his eyes were closed By a time piece in the room it was just three minutes past 12 o'clock when Mr. Stevens exclaimed, "He is dead!"

The Sisters of Charity at once con to recite the prayers for the dead, while those in the room remained; Mrs. Smith and Simon and young Thaddeus being much affected with grief at the loss of their best friend. One of the most important features of the death-bed scene is what may be chronicled as the great commoner's last words. At 11 o'clock Mrs. Smith said to him: "What can

I do for you?" He replied, "Nothing in the Although it was at the dead hour of night it was but a short time before the news of the event was known at the newspaper and telegraph offices, and with the morning's dawn the news had doubtless reached every section of this country, and been flashed across the broad Atlantic to the Old World.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS IMPORTANT TO FARMERS. Ammoniated Super Phosphates. The Maryland Fertilizing & Manufacturing

COMPANY. INCORPORATED JANUARY, 1867. DIRECTORS. WILLIAM NUMBER, RICHARD J. BAKES

VILLIAM TREGO, LAWRENCE SANGSTON THIS Company, incorporated by the Legislature of Maryland for the Manufacture and Sale of Fertilizers, are now prepared to furnish the agricultoral community with their products.

Deriving their sunday of material from the richest of the recently deports of Bone Phosphates in South Carolina, they have it stablished, and will inflexibly maintain, a higher, tandard of Fertilizing value than any similar projections hitherto on the market. While the material they use contains 60 per cent. of Bone Phosphate of Line, it is guaranteed to contain a larger per sentiage, of SOLUBLE PHOSPHATE than any bectofore used.

Ammoniated Super Phosphate, Price S50 per Ton, in Bags.

Price $50 per Ton, in Bags. FINE GROUND BONE PHOSPHATES. Price $30 per Ton, in Bags. Containing, by the average of the Analysis of Pro-fessors Piggott, Leib'g and Popplein, 60,20 per cent. of Bone Phosphi e of Lime.

The unusual per dentage of Soluble Phosphate will make this form very desirable to Farmers who prefer to use it in its natural state, or to maniputhe for themselves.

It is now a well ascertained and acknowledged fact, that Wheat cannot be successfully or profitably grown without the liberal use of Phosphates; and in presenting an article of high standard at a low price, personally superintended by a Chemist of Thirty Years' experience, with a determination to maintain that standard, the Company confidently rely on the confidence and support of the Agricultural Community.

- Mr. Samuel Yount, of Augusta county, has recently thrushed 340 bushels of wheat, weighing 64 pounds to the bushel, which was all raised upon 10 acres of land.

- Commodore F. M. Maury, has arrived at Fredericksburg and is shortly expected at the V. M. I., Lexington, to assume his duties

- Mr. Geo. Simmerman, an old and respected citizen of Augusta county, died from the effects of a broken leg, on Sunday week, the 30th ult. His leg was accidentally broken, a few weeks since, by the kick of a horse.

- The editor of the Lexington Gazette, has been informed that the prospects for a large number of students at Washington college are very promising—better than they have ever been at any previous period of its history.

- The Rev. W. B. Wellons, of the Grand Council of the Friends of Temperance in Virginia, delivered an address on that subject in the Rev. Mr. Bowman's (Presbyterian) church in Harrisonburg, on Tuesday evening

- A Farmer residing near Middletown assures us that the corn crop in that section is splendid. Indeed he fears there will not be erib room for it. In Warren the prospect is better than for years, the season having been highly favorable.— Winchester Times.

FLOOD IN STAUNTON.—The Vindicator states that on the 4th instant Staunton was visited by a very heavy fallof rain, which lasted about one hour and resulted in a considerable freshet Lowis Creek, which runs through the city, was tuller than it has been for years, and went rushing along sweeping off outhouses, hog pens, and debris of all sorts. For some time its surface was but a mass of floating timber, barrels and hogs, some twenty or thirty of the latter being carried away with their pens, and carried along with the roaring torrent. Damage estimated at $5,000 or more

- Thurlow Weed, writing from London speaks of the vast number of Americans who are now summering on the continent. At Dresden alone he has ascertained there are at least eight hundred.

REAL ESTATE. 153 ACRES OF Jefferson Land.

FOR SALE.

THE undersigned, desiring to discontinue farming, will offer for sale privately, the farm on which he now resides, located on the Potomac river, two miles East of Shepherdstown, in the county of Jefferson. The tract contains One Hundred and Fifty-Three Acres good fencing. The Improvements consist of a GOOD FARM DWELLING HOUSE, A SWISHER BARN, and other OUT-BUILDINGS, in good repair. The farm is well watered, and on it there is a fine Spring of Mineral Water, believed, by good judges, to con tain superior med icinal properties.

THE FRUIT ON THIS FARM If it is unsurpassed by any in the county, and embraces every variety usual to this climate.—
The Orchard is a young and thrifty one, and now in full bearing. Besides, there are SEVENTY YOUNG TREES on the place, set out last Fall.—
The growing crops on the land, and the wheat now being harvested, will attest its productiveness.—
Detached from this. land, but sufficiently near to receive attention, it have a field of 12 ACRES, which can be purchased with the above tract if desired.

Having determined to sell, because I feel too old to continue its cultivation satisfactorily, I offer this land at the low figure of $50 PER ACRE. Taking into consideration its ACCESS TO MARKET, ITS PRODUCTIVENESS and its IMPROVEMENTS and FRUIT, this farm is the cheapest, and one of the most desirable in the county. Persons wishing to purchase can call and examine the land, or add tess me at Shenherdstown.

The "Care Farm FOR BATE. THIS very productive Farn , belonging to the beira of the late and w Kennedy, is affered at Private Sale. This farm clies two miles South of Charlestown, and contains a little least 400 Acres of as rich Limestone Land as can be found in the Shenandonh Valley; some 80 acres of which is HEAVILY TIMBERED. It is divided into aix fields, for cultivation of equal size, exclusive of the House Grounds and Orchard. THE IMPROVEMENTS DWELLING-HOUSE is built of Stone, and contains Eight Rooms. The TENANT HOUSE, SERVANTS QUARTERS, BARN ORN-HOUSE, RLACKS MITH SHOP, and other but-Buildings, are in good condition.

THE ORCHARD IS A LARGE ONE, filled chiefly with primed the althy APPLE and PEACH TREES, of approved varieties.

This tract of land is nearly square in form, and is susceptible of division into two equal parts, by a lane which runs from the farm buildings to the centre of the wood land; and bids will be received for the whole, or either half of it.

Persons desirous of purchasing are requested to call on John Seiden, on the premises, who will take pleasure in showing the property, and describing the proposed mode of division; and the terms can be ascertained either from him or the undersigned, acting for the other heirs. There were six persons in the house at the time, viz: Mrs. Peters and five children, one of whom was at infant, in the arms of its mother at the time, escaped unhart, but Mrs. Peters was seriously injured intervally, and it is feared she will not work. A complete week was made of everything within the house.—

A Colden Thought.—We know not the author of the following, but it is one of the most beautiful productions of the human mind we hive ever read: "Nature will be reported!

All things are engaged in writing their own history. The plant and the pebble go attending by their own shadows. The rock leaves its soratches on the mountain side, the river its bed in the soil; the animal leaves its bones in the stratum, the fora and the leaf their modest epitaph in the coal. PERSONAL INFLUENCE. Blessed influen of one true loving human soul on another!—

Ideas are often poor ghosts; our sun filled eyes cannot discern them; they pass athwart us in this vaper, and cannot make themselves felt. But sometimes they are made of flesh; they touch us with soft, responsive hands; they look at us with sad, sincere eyes, and speak to us in appealing tones; they are clothed in a living human soul, with all its conflicts, its faith, and its love. Then their presence is power, then they shake us like a passion, and we are drawn after them with a gentle compulsion, as flame is drawn to a flame.—Blackwood's Magazine.

CASES OF CHRONIC RHEDMATISM.

PORTSMOUTH, Va., February 25th, 1863.

Captain J H Baker:

Dear Sir—This is to certify that I have been afficted with Rheumatism for the last five or six years, many times unable to move. I tried all medicines recommended to me for the disease, without receiving any benefit. Having heard Rosadalis highly spoken of, I procured a bottle, and finding some relief, continued it until I am happy to say that I am completely well.

I not only consider the Rosadalis a sovercign remedy for Bheumatism, but I believe it also a preventive, and cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted. Yours very truly, JAMES WEBS.

Gents:—The wonderful cures which have been made by your "Poulterers' Friend" can not fail to interest all who raise Poultry. A gentleman of this village has been experimenting on chickens with the gapes. He tried your "Poulterers' Friend" according to the directions, and it had the desired effect in destroying the worm, effectually relieving the chicken at once. Since then I have had many calls for it, and it has been used extensively with the same result. It is of incalculable value to all who raise Poultry. Respectfully. A Spencer.
