CHARLESTOWN,

CHARLESTOWN, VA. Tuesday Morning, October 6, 1868.

Speech of Mr. Pendleton at Springfield, Illinois.

POLITICAL.

During the whole campaign we have read nothing to equal the great speech of Hon. GEORGE H. PENDLETON, at Springfield, Ill., on the 26th of September. We are sorry space prevents us from publishing it entire, but append that portion which refers to the financial question; and the eloquent conclusion, in which the speaker exhorts his hearers to adhere to the Constitution as it was handed down to us by the Fathers of the Republic. Let no one fail to read this extract: THE FINANCIAL QUESTION. I told you, gentlemen, that the debt of the country was $2,600,000,000 in round numbers. Of that amount $1,500,000,000 and morevery considerably more, but that will answer every purpose for illustration, was in 5 20 bonds. Now, you know what those bonds are. They are bonds issued at various times since 1862, redecmable by the government in five years, but absolutely payable in twenty which bear six per cent. interest, in gold, and which are exempt from all taxes except those imposed by tederal authority .-I say they pay no taxes, and yet yield 6 per cent. Now I would like to ask these farmers how much money you can make of gross paid in gold. [Loughter.] He is a pious from Ireland, who comes here because he income on your farms with all the tools you man. He don't make any professions of cannot make a livelihood after he has paid can put on them during the year. Take the faith, I believe; but he is a pious man, and the taxes; go to Germany, and ask those invalue of your land, your time and labor and a right good fellow, as the world goes; and can you make ten per cent ? ["No, sir"] I when he says his prayers at night he prays, till our preries and build up our states; go do not know. If you can make ten per cent., recollecting what he has done to his neight to those w o land, day after day, in the city, you have got to pay out of that meome all bor, that the Lord would enable him to do to ot New Y k, from the emigrant ships, and you have got to pay out of that income all taxes of every kind—taxes for the support of the state, county, township and schools; and they must all come out of the ten per cent. that you make. And yet the gentleman who owns these 5 20 bonds gets his six per cent. in gold, which, at prices to day, is very nearly nine per ceut.; and he does not pay a dollar for the support of all these institutions from He is one of those gentlemen that lent money which he derives, as you do, the advantages. You may have a bondholder here in this county. He may live in Springfield. The and ought to have gold according. [Repolice watch his house is entered and his bonds robbed, he calls upon the police to arrest the thief. The officer arrests him and takes him to jail, takes him before the grand jury bus him tried by your judge before your jury and he is sent at your expense to the pentienticry; and not one dollar does the boncholder pay of all the expenses necessary tor your police, your sheriff, your judge, your jury, your posse, or the out inflating the currency, how are you going men who keep the pententiary. (Cheers and laughter) Now, gentlemen, I say that these 5-20 bonds, which are exempted from taxation, which draw six per cent. interest-I say that these bonds are payable in greenbacks, the lawful money of the country.

A year ago, when this doctrine was first promulgated through the country, it was thought necessary to make a solemn argument upon it. Now it does not seem necessary at all, for I find that the great body of and in payment of every debt due to the government except duties on imports." When the man who bought bonds carried these notes up to the treasury of the United States, he saw that written on their face, and knew that he paid them for the bonds and for every other debt; and he must have known that he was liable to take them back from the government when they redeemed the bonds .-[Cheers] They tell you that this is repudiation. [Laughter.]. Why, you have not any six months. They get in addition 90 per more respect than I have for the hard name. cent of the whole amount in national bank [Renewed laughter] I would not like to repudiate any promise I had made, or any promise my government had made. I am no you farmers at 5, 15 or 25 per cent., just as repudiator, either in principle or practice; but I am tired and sick of hearing men talk from morning till night of the sacredness of legal tender. That legal tender is greenbacks. I have a sort of feeling that money that is good enough as the wages of labor is good enough for the wages of idleness -[Cheers] I have an opinion that that money which you receive for your land, and for the products of your land; the money you receive for the earnings of your daily toil; the money in which the widow has laid aside her little hoarding; the money which the girl and yet is clothed in fine linen. [Cheers.] of 1862. They were spread broadcast in all the community at that time Every man who had a debt payable to him in gold was obliged to take these notes. If you had a note for $1.000 in gold given you in 1858, you were obliged to take paper for it in 1862. If you made a contract for wages for one year, at the end of the year you were obliged to be doing great injustice to those who lent their money to the government for the purpose of prosecuting the war. I know, and you know a little about that. You and I know a little about how these bonds came into the hands of their present holders. I have an instance in my own knowledge which I can relate to you. I have an auquaintance in Cincinnati who gave his money to the government, and I will tell you how he did it. He bought a beautiful piece of land in 1858, and agreed to pay $20,000 in gold for it. He was a thrifty man, and liked to keep money at 6 per cent. But the man from whom he bought it was not so thrifty; so he agreed to loan his money at 6 per cent., and it was agreed that the purchaser should keep the money as long as he wanted, and should have the right to pay it at any time, provided he only paid interest regularly at 6 per cent. It suited his interest to keep the money until gold reached 250. Then he took his $20,000 in gold and bought $50,000 worth of legal tender notes. He then took $20,000 of legal tender notes and paid them to the man whom he had agreed to pay $20,-000 in gold; and with the $30,000 left he bought $30,000 worth of these 5-20 bonds. He has been drawing $1,800 a year ever since upon these bonds, and to-day he is the most loyal man in the city of Cincinnati. [Laughter.] He is louder than anybody else in saying that a good patriot like him, who, in the hour of distress bought bonds from the government and loaned it money, ought to be protect him from all his enemies, especially from that great public enemy that wants to

to the government in time of great distress, newed laughter.] They tell us we cannot pay these bonds in erecubacks without inflating the currency. Well; gentlemen, I want to put to the people who argue this way, this question: We have $300,000,000 more or less of gold—we have and want shall preside in the hovels of the $400,000,000 more or less of legal tender notes-if we cannot pay $150,000,000 bonds with $400,000,000 of legal tender notes withto pay them with $300,000,000 in gold? If the $400,000,000 of legal tender furnished money enough to buy these bonds from the government, why will it not furnish money enough to buy the bonds back from the bondholder when the government wants them? I am no friend of inflation. I see it stated in one of your papers to day, that one of the features of this scheme is to issue immediately $2,000,000,000 of legal tender treasury notes. I am not in the habit of characterizing anything that may be said by a pelitical oppothe republican party is so anxious to get upon : nent. I shall not deviate in the least degree our platform that they are auxious to jostle from that which I have laid down for myself us off. [Loud cheers and laughter.] Why, on this occasion, but this I will say, that the gentlemen, when these bonds were issues the editor who wrote that article never heard from legal tender currency was the currency of democratic lips, no matter to whom they bethe country. It was in circulation every- longed, any such statement. Never! It canwhere; every man had it, if he had anything, not be found. I have, on the contrary, again are you willing to give up forever the hope of in his pocket; the bondholder had it. When | and again declared that that was not a part this law of 1862 was passed, issuing these of the system for which we were arguing. __ | the tax gatherer shall take from you all except legal tender notes, there was put on the back | And I will venture to say to morrow morning. | that which is necessary for your food and your of every one of them this statement : "This or the morning after that, the same statement note is a legal tender in payment of every will be made, that Mr. Peudleton is in favor private debt; in payment of every debt due of issuing $2,000,000,000 of legal tender by the government except sinterest on bonds, notes. They ask us how we are to proceed?

I will tell you that. 'I do not propose to argue that at length, but there are $300,000,000 or $400,000,000 of these bonds in Washington as security for the national bank circulation. You know how these banks are made. Three or four men get $300,000; they buy that amount of bonds; they carry them to Washington, deposit them with the treasurer and get interest on them year after year, in gold, sent to them every paper, and they come here to Springfield and set up a national bank. They lend money to you are obliged by your necessities to pay.— In the meantime they are getting their 6 per cent. in gold. The people of the United The democratic party says these bonds are payable in greenbacks: ["That's right."]—
The republicans say they are payable in gold.

The republicans say they are payable in gold. States to-day pay $18,000,000 in gold, and the national bankers at Cincinnati could cut as deep as Shylock of old, ("They are far beyond ours.") If that is the case, you will approve of what I say: Cancel their charters, call in their circulation, issue greenbacks, pay the bonds, and save $18,000,000. (Cheers.) That is one step in the right dichine to support her family; I have an opin- cease; let robbery cease; let it be fashiona- altar, that when you bow your head in supion that the money which is good enough for ble to be economical and reduce the expense plicating prayer; it may be there next to the all these purposes in life, is good enough for of the government—I won't ask them to rethe man who toils not; neither does he spin, duce it too much. No; no one would be willing to give up a bond running twenty years, and bearing interest at 6 per cent., and take in its place one payable in forty years at 4 per cent interest. The next comment I have to the orphan, yet it is not good enough for the bondholder. [Loud cheers.] They say that if we pay these bonds in legal tender we shall make upo it is this, that to-day you can pay that debt collar for dollar, in greenbacks.— If that finding bill were to pass to morrow you would be obliged to pay in gold for every dollar of the paper; and every dollar will cost you, not a greenback dollar, but a gold dollar, and the difference is between par and 145 or perhaps 143. This alone adds $600.

OCTOBER 6, 1868.

000,000 to the debt of the country. You have got to pay in the 40 years $400,-000,000 in gold, and at the end of 40 years you have $2,600,000,000 in gold still to pay. If your debt is $2,500,000,000, if you fund it at 4 per cent., it is $100,000,000 a year in gold; if you extend it 40 years, then during all your lives, and all the lives of your children, this $100,000,000 a year must be paid. and it will be levied from those who labor; levied from those who are at the plow, at the anvil, in the mines, in the machine shop, even though it is ground out of their blood and bones, their toil and sweat; and, gentlemen, even though it is gained from their breaking hearts and their dying bodies. [Cheers.] Why, gentlemen, if this debt is not paid in 40 years, it will not be paid at all; it will be like the debt of Great Britain, like the debt of France, or like the debt of Germany. It will be a permanent institution in the country; and do you know what a permanent national debt means? Do not believe it because I say so. Do not ask me; go to the nations whose history attests the fact. Go to the governments of Europe to-day; go to the immigrant other men as he would wish them to do to see their el aciated forms and skeleton figures, him. [Laughter.] Then, when he comes | their bodies scarcely clad with decency, ask to remember the vicissitudes of life, and the them what public debt means. They will enemies in numerable that hover around us tell you we home voice it means that the rich all, he prays that God will, on the morrow, shall be richer and the poor shall be poorer. They will well you it means that capital shall be exempt from taxation, and that labor shall pay his bonds in greenbacks. [Laughter.] bear it all. They will tell you it means great estates and rich palaces for those who own the debt, and poverty and wretchedness for those who pay it. ["That is so," and cheers.] They will tell you it means luxury for the rich, and for the poor scant clothing; poor food, brown bread, and sometimes no meat. They will tell you it means that capital shall pamper > poor, and that the constant struggle for daily bread shall make his life a living death. Gentlemen, I see around me to-day many men, some young and just entering upon the theatre of life, and others reaching out to maturity. I can see in their hardy faces. their healthy bodies, and sparkling eyes, the thoughts that animate their inmost souls .-They are willing to labor industriously for many years in the hope that they can put aside that toil, and live with fair industry upon the capital which their frugality and energy shall have saved to them. They have their day dreams, as other men; they see in the future, that is not very far off, comfortable homes, lighted with the smile of love and made noisy with the prattle of infant tongues-homes that are sanctified by the love of wife and mother, and are lighted up within and without with those rays which contentment, plenty, and prosperity always shed. Young men, I put it to you to-day, happiness, and agree that for all future time clothing? ("Never.") It you are not, do not listen to this siren song that because posterity will derive the advantage it ought to bear the burden of the debt; do not listen to the siren song that invites you to extend the time of payment and put a mortgage on your property, your energy, and your toil and those of your children. Do not listen to the siren's voice. It will deceive you in the end. Our republican friends say "extend the debt and reduce the interest." No, gentlemen, pay the debt and save the interest. (Loud and continued applause) But, gentlemen, passing away from this subject of the material interests of the country, on which I have dwelt longer than I intended, let me again call your attention to this fact that the great pole star of the dem ocratic party is the constitution of the United States. [Applause.]

Do not, my fellow citizens, in the heat of this arduous datest, do not forget that great lesson. The emplican party believe they can amend it it y can change it and make it a better constitution than our fathers made it in the days of old. [" Never, never," and shouts of applaue 1 I charge it upon you, democrats that ar here to day, never to consent to its amendment or its degradation. Do not seek to amend it : do not seek to change it; do not seek to evade it. Obey it. It was good enough for your fathers, it is good enough for you. If you obey it, it will be good enough for your children for one hundred years to come. Study it, understand it. Carry it about with you, as a living presence nomical as they can; let them spend as much it up to that place and power to which the spend $150,000,000 a year to carry on the this, and you will be able to raise it up to government, and $150,000,000 to pay the that high place of honor to which the Ark of interest on the public debt; that is $300, the Covenant was raised, round which the un-000,000; take this from $500,000,000, and seen legions of the Almighty kept ward and you have $200,000,000 left. Add to this guard, that he we touched it with impious the $18,000,000 we propose to save on ac-count of the national banks, and we have that the constitution contains within itself all $218,000,000 left every year. -We will in- that was good in the experiences of the past, crease this by $50,000,000 interest saved and all that is hepeful in the prospects of the order to support her widowed mother. I know that the pathway of history is strewn with the wrecks of empires, and peoples, and constitutions, and liberty. It may be in the providence of God that this country of ours will follow in the wake of all nations that have gone before.— If it shall be so, let it not be owing to the faults or misfortunes of the democratic party. (Great cheering.) If it must be so, let it be known that it was the party of our love that stood to the last, with heroic virtue, to the principles of civil liberty. If it must be so, let us, my fellow citizens, take consolation in the thought that in the eternal oweles of God death is but the precursor of resurrection; and that the same principles which hasten nations to decay, contain within themselves the spark of living fire which secure undying

REGISTRATION!

Yesterday was the day fixed for the meeting of the Board of Registration of this county to commence a revision of the lists of the several townships. As notice had been given that the applicants of Charlestown township would have a hearing on the first day, quite a number of these of our people who aspire to citizenship, repaired to the county scat.

The Board, since its meeting on the 3d Monday of last month, have been very vigilant, and its clerk has had an active time in forwarding notices to parties in different parts of the county who are suspected with an intention to vote the Conservative ticket .-As heretofore, fealty to the Radical party is made a test of loyalty, and Boreman's pimps are determined that every obstacle shall be thrown in the way of an honest and fair expression of public sentiment.

In Osbourn township, thirty-nine persons have been notified to appear before this vigilant Board, to show cause why their names should not be erased from the list of voters. Of this number, thirty-three were recently placed on the books by the township registrar, and the other six have been voters, all the time, since the transfer of the county to West Virginia. Mr. Logan Osbourn, whose loyalty no one has dared to question heretofore, has fallen under the ban of the present Board, and be is required to ride twenty miles to prove his loyalty to them. Messrs. Crittenden and Brenneman, the former from New York, and the latter from Pennsylvaniaboth of whom have purchased farms and located in our county since the war-are notified to come forward and prove to the satisfaction of these Radical puritans, that they did not render voluntary assistance to the

In Harper's Ferry township they have sum moned nineteen to appear before them, and in Bolivar township, twenty-seven. From the other townships we have heard nothing .-In the latter township, among the victims is Mr. Louis Upwright, who served five years in the Federal army, and who fought in twenty-seven distinct engagements-some of them the hardest battles of the late war .-This man is summoned for no other cause than is adhesion to the Democratic party, and his determination to vote against the negro-worsa pping traitors who are trying to break up the government! Where was Fayman, and Cookus, and Grubb, when this man was fight ing to upheld the flag of his adopted counirv? - Let them answer.

P. S. Since writing the above, we learn that most of the parties who went from this township yesterday, were registered; and it is said, by those of strong faith, that some spirit of liberality was shown by the Board.

QUERY?

"LET US HAVE PEACE,"

Mr. Geo. Koonce, ex member of the Le-gislature, present Deputy Sheriff, and late and the same? Disfranchised voter, cheated member of the Board of Registration of the of your rights, what special charm has Mr. K's: peace for you? How sweet must be county of Jefferson, avails himself of the columns of the Free Press to publish a letter, umns of the Free Press to publish a letter, freemen! Denied a right conferred upon which he addresses to the editor of the Spirit negroes in an adjoining county, which is only of Jefferson. In the opening of this remarks able epistle, the writer avows that he is sincere in not wishing to continue the controversy, which he alleges was forced upon him by an editorial in this paper of the 15th of September. We have no doubt of Mr. K.'s moved, his official career will terminate and sincerity, and wonder that he permits himself to stand forth as a target for "weekly newspaper attacks and paragraphic slurs;" and as a friend, we would advise him to withdraw from the field, as we hope to make it apparent to his astute understanding that he has nothing to gain by prolonging the controversy. He most graciously, and in the spirit of a true knight, returns us thanks for the publication of his card a fortnight ago, vindicating his action as a member of the Board of Registration, and says that "it was written with the hope and intention that it was and should be in good temper and spirit." In our reply to that card, we differed somewhat from Mr. Koonce, for we were not material whether or not our remarks were in "good temper and spirit." We looked at the fact that our community had been outraged, and that the author-or at least he who claimed to be the author-of that card, was a party to the outrage, and that too, when he had been appealed to to avert it. Mr. Koonce's own conduct drew forth the article of the 15th of September, in which he was charged, in common with the other members of the Board with an attempt to cheat the people of this township of their right of franchise, by failing to provide a registrar, as the law requires. So far from retracting that charge, we reiterate it, and every man in this community has the same opinion of Mr. K.'s conduct that we have. We do not intend that he shall escape this judgment of his course, but will hold him up from time to time, as an enemy of civil liberty, so that posterity may pillory his memory as one of the men who dared in the nineteenth century to tamper with the rights of free born American citizens; so that when in after years his name is mentioned at all, it will be mentioned only in connection with the tyrants and usurpers who have risen to the surface in this era of oppression and misrule.

In his last card the " late member" plays the sycophant in the most artistic style, and attempts the role of "Grand Pacificator" before he has studied his part with sufficient minuteness to play it to perfection. Ben Maginley when he enters the ring has his jests at his tongue's end, and the acrobats of the circle are trained to their special feats. Not so with our new actor. Unused to the part he assumes, he fails, and with chagrin will

We wish to draw a picture, or two of them, if they cannot be blended harmoniously. In this county, in this year of 1868, when the triumph of the Democratic party is a foregone conclusion, we have a gentleman named Koonce-spelled with a K .- who is so auxious for the restoration of peace, and harmony, and good will, that he is even willing to take by the hand a rebel editor who has " repeatedly assaulted his private reputation."-He wants to forgive and forget, and let bygones be such. He is overflowing with the milk of human kinduess to such an extent that he is ready to sing, "While the lamp holds out to turn, The vilest singer may return."

No "pent up Utica" contracts his outgushing aspirations for peace, but he wants it here, everywhere in our common country. "Shout, shout, we are gaining ground !"

George Koonce wants peace, happy peace! He wants it from the Aristock to the Rio Grande-from the Atlantic to the Pacific slope-all over the wide expanse of our national domain, he would like to see the whitewinged messenger bearing her gentle and tender offerings. These holy aspirations inspire his patriotic bosom on the 26th day of September, 1868. Let us go back a little, over a period not at all remote. In October, 1866, the people of this county, by a fair vote, elected Mr. Yantis to the Legislature over a man named Koonce-also spelled with a K .- and obtained the certificate from the Board of Supervisors, who counted the vote. Availing himself of the existence of a radical legislature, Mr. K. contested the seat awarded to Mr. Y. and in January the case was decided as every case of contest is bound to be decided by radical body-Koonce went in and Yantis What did he do as a member?-He sustained every proscriptive measure introduced in the body of which he was a member, voting for the odious Constitutional Amendment that operates a perpetual disfranchisement of four fifths of the tax-payers of the county; for the vindictive registration laws which he has since violated; for the obnoxious test oaths which the Supreme Court of the United States has declared unconstitutional; and in every way used his influence to rivet the yoke of oppression upon the neck of an oppressed people. More than this—in every election held in this county since the spring of 1865, he has acted with that party whose motto is or ought to be, for the sake of consistency- "up with the negro and down with the white man ;" the reconstruction measures of Congress meet his approval; the supremacy in the South, he thinks right: the attempt to impeach a President who was laboring to save the constitution from total sentiment of his State to bear on the shaky Senators of West Virginia; the Chicago platform is the text of his political faith; in his eyes Joe Chapline is a saint, and King Boreman a high priest in the synagogue, and if either or both were candidates for office, they would receive his unqualified support; he his occupation as a tax-gatherer will cease i Mr. Koonce is wrong in one thing. He says in his card, "there is but slight difference, in my estimation, of the value of a good repu tation either as a private or public man. With his reputation as a public man, he ought to make a wide difference, and separate his private character as far as possible from his public acts. With the private acts we have nothing to do. They may be commendable or censurable-we have no desire to assail them. or intention to do so. Tanntingly, Mr. Koonce says in this letter to us-"you are a bold manbrave man-I give into that." We make o pretensions to an overstock of courage, but ope always to have a supply of that virtue no taxes for the support of the Government. ifficient to meet any demand that Mr. Koonce

s likely to make upon it.

The ill concealed threats in his card do not listurb our equanimity. We know that he n common with his radical brethren of this county, who have felt the scourge of our lash, would like to get us before the grand jury of the radical court at Shepherdstown, and that s what he means when he says we shall have notoriety obtained from a violation of law. We understand the gentleman, but these intimations have no terror. The day of the bastille is past, and we shall soon stand on equal grounds. When that period arrives, and it is now about to dawn, the "late member" may find it convenient to look to his own safety. Radical courts and radical sheriffs shall never stifle the voice of the press whilst we are spared to run this paper. But we must close, or Mr. Koonce might think we considered his card of some importance.

THE SMITHFIELD GRASSHOPPER

I hail from Smithfield, or Middleway, cs some are pleased to call it! They call me GRASSHOPPER, but to me it matters not, if I' may jump into position by stradding the Radical Saddle! At least I am at ease, since the substitute business was one of such profit! And then, too, I made a handsome sum selling "Pine Top," while a Justice of the Peace !-Of the proceeds of this traffic I have purchased a "Pine Hill Farm," in the neighboring county of Berkeley, where some of my nearest of kin now reside, and thence I shall retire, if the worst comes to the worst, from the taunts of unfeeling rebels! PUBLIC MEETING.

At a meeting of the citizens of Harper's Ferry and Bolivar township, was held on Saturday evening the 3d inst., to consider what action should be taken with reference to the security of the elective franchise in its proper status under the law, and to those who are legally entitled thereto, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously

Whereas, the superstructure of a repubican form of government is necessarily based upon the freedom of thought and action of the members of society, restrained only by such wholesome laws as are indubitably for he general wellfare; and

Whereas, the right of suffrage is the egitimate offspring of republican institutions, which alone, tenderly nurtured, will maintain the equanimity of a people, indicate the popular will, harmonize discordant views by he acquiescence of minorities to the decision of majorities, and insure domestic tranquility;

Whereas, we, the citizens of Harper's Ferry and Bolivar townships, appreciating the inestimable privilege of the right of exercising the elective franchise, look with surprise and alarm upon the action of our "Board of Registration," in summoning many of our best citizens before them to question their right of citizenships, compelling them to travel to the county seat, or relinquish their rights as

Resolved, that as citizens of West Va., we claim the benefit of her laws and the protection of our rights, and while we are willing to abide by those laws in every particular, we recognize their binding force upon every erson within the territory of the State, be hey private or official, and that any infraction of the rights of our citizens should meet with their stern, decisive and timely rebuke. Resolved, that every citizen, whether in official or private life, who will willingly deprive, or attempt to deprive, his fellow citizens of the right of franchise, is a traitor to the -interests of American freedom and the cause of republican government, and should be held in contempt and scorn by every honest and honorable man.

Resolved, that we will use every exertion our power to have all appear before the Board of Registration" who have been summoned so to do, and also, those who are entitled, but have, as yet, failed to register. Resolved, that what we ask we have a right to demand, justice.

BERKELEY MASS MEETING. A Large Concourse in Attendance, and Intense Enthusiasm Manifested !

It was our pleasure to be present at the comocratic Conservative Mass Meeting of Berkeley county, on Monday of last week.

A more enthusiastic and agreeable gathering it was never our pleasure to witness, and we had designed preparing a detailed account of its proceedings, but find in the Martinsburg New Eca a description so admirably adapted to our purpose, that we substitute it in place

The Democratic and Conservative Mass leading to the grove, were filled with wagons, carriages, buggies, &c., freighted with the people of the country, the honest, hard working farmers, mechanics, who are tired of giving the largest portion of their toil and I assert that Mr. Davis never used any labor for the support of the Government; such language to me, in letter or spirit, and the occasion. A large stand for the speakers, and possibly expressions of the kind-quoted had been erected, and was tastefully trimmed may have been used by some such, but most with flags. After several stirring airs by the assuredly they were not used by Mr. Davis, Band, the meeting was organized at 11 o'clock for he is a most chivalrous Christian gentle-George Rousch, Secretaries.

Mr. Brady, in a brief and pertinent speech. andsomely acknowledged the compliment conferred by calling him to preside over so large and intelligent an audience, and then introduced Gov. Thomas Swaun, of Maryland. The appearance of this distinguished gentleman on the stand was greeted with the wildest enthusiasm and prolonged cheers. We have neither time nor space for an extended notice of the Governor's very able speech. He held hours in his discussion of the fundamental principles of the government, and their application to the condition of the Southern States, showing by thorough and exhaustive reasoning that the bond of Union was not and cannot be severed, and that at the moment hostilities ceased, the Union was complete, and the people had returned to their allegiance, and were entitled to all the rights. privileges and immunities that they had ever enjoyed, without any interference by Congress or the general government. In short, his speech was a complete and exhaustiv digest of the theory of the Government, and a plain exposition of the objects and designs of the Radical party; in their policy of so-called reconstruction. He was listened to with marked attention by the assembled throng, and closed amid deafening rounds of applause. At the close of Goveanor Swann's speech, the meeting adjourned one hour for dinner .-

Provisions in abundance were on the ground. Every body was bountifully supplied. After dinner the meeting reassembled and were addressed in succession by General Nelson, General Latrobe and Major Uriel Wright. The speeches of these gentlemen were forcible, eloquent, and to the point: they consisted chiefly in an arraignment of the Radical party for its high crimes against the Constitution and the liberties of the

when the meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Seymour and Blair. This uprising of the Democratic and Conservative hosts in a section of the State long subjected to the bondage of unreasoning and virulent radicalism, may be, and will be regarded as the ushering in of a brighter and better day. A thousand thanks then, to the eloquent advocates of truth who were with us.

The speaking was kept up until a late hour, on that occasion. Their utterances will be an inspiration to the people, and their reward. we confidently trust, will be ample and satisfactory in a living consciousness of duties well performed and justly appreciated. MEETING AT THE COURT HOUSE. ALA continuation of Monday's meeting was held in the Court House Monday night. The audience was by all odds the largest that has been assembled in this place during this campaign. The opening speech was made by Major U. Wright, and was one of the finest pecimens of classic oratory we ever had the pleasure of listening to. He was followed in a very able manner by Mr. Slingluff, of Baltimore. His speech was plain and practical appealing to the judgment and common sense of his hearers. It was received throughout with the loudest demonstration of applause. Mr. Slingluff was followed by General Latrobe, who held the attention of the audience for near an hour in an able and exhaustive argument on the various questions at issue in the

On Wednesday last, Gen. FRANK P. BLAIR, the Democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency, paid a short visit to Washington. A correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette hus refers to his trip:

"The sudden and unexpected appearance of Gen. Frank P. Blair at the National Capital set the newsmongers all agog, but before they had an opportunity to question him, he had retired to "Silver Springs," the residence of his venerable father, with whom he remained in quiet consultation all day, and left again on the night train for the West. Several intimate friends of General Blair called on him during the day, and they found him in high spirits and perfectly confident of the Democratic ticket in the Presidential contest. He claims to have the best information from every State, and according to his calculations the Democrats will carry New York, Pennsylvania and Indiana, with a close vote in Ohio. Ie says that the Democratic vote in the West and Northwest will astonish all parties, and that Horatio Seymour will be elected by a two thirds vote of the electoral college.

A letter from Hon. Montgemery Blair dated in Philadelphia on the 29th, fixes the Democratic majority of that city at five thousand, and the majority in the State at from two to five thousand.

GEO. H. PENDLETON. -Since the Presidential campaign opened, and battle has been joined between Radicals and Patriots, Virginia has watched with peculiar interest the career of that gallant champion. Geo. H. Pendleton. the Bayard of the Northwest.

His very name reminds her of her own hand and foot by her enemies, and unable to take part in the struggle for her own deliver ance, she watches in tremulous hope and with throbbing heart, the plume of Pendleton as it waves amid the thickest of the fight.

Virginia loves this man; and whether victory or defeat awaits the standard bearer of the Constitution, she will follow him through life with gratitude—that memory of the heart; and when the spur of the brave knight shall be cold, she will honor him as one who added annals-a name which she has never forgotten , which she can never forget.

A Denial by Gen. Jeff. Thompson. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 21, 1868.

the Editor of the New Orleans Times : I see in your issue of this afternoon the extract from the speech of Mr. Myres, in Philadelphia, which has been going the rounds of the Northern papers for the past ten days, wherein he states that I said that Davis remarked to me, when I plead for the Andersonville prisoners, "We can kill them that way much quicker than in battle." The day after this speech was delivered in Philadelphia, a personal friend of mine in that city sent me the paper publishing the speech, and in a few days after-wards a gentleman in Boston wrote to me on the subject. I answered each of these Meeting in Rentch's woods on Monday, was letters the ment they were received, that a decided success. At an early hour in my denial of the charge should appear where the morning, the roads from every direction, it had been a blished. My letters to each of these gentler en were long, giving dates and while the proceeds of two thirds of that labor that I certainly never said he did. I further go into the prekets of corrupt Congressmen stated that I never heard any officer of the and thieving officials, and what little gets Confederate States speak on the subject into the Treasury is used to pay the interest except to deplore the horrible necessity, and in gold on the bonds held by men who pay that it was the universal desire to bring home the thousands of our men in the Northern Many of the wagons were ornamented with prisons, both from private and public conflags, and some carried bickery trees. The siderations. That we had some malicious and Martinsburg Brass Band turnished music for even brutal men in the South, I do not deny, by calling B. F. Brady, of Arden township, man, and has proved it more by his dignified to preside, and electing Thomas Kratz and | manlicess since the war, than even in the most prosperous or darkest days of the Confederacy. As this assertion, and possibly other extracts from my letters, will soon appear in Philadelphia and Boston, it is useless for me to state more on this subject ; but I must here acknowledge that during the twelve months that I was a prisoner of war I was treated with all the courtesy and kindness that was comparable with the condition of a prisoner, with aceptions too few and trivial to remember, ad that at my exchange I took the attention of the audience for over two a lively intered in the condition of Federal prisoners, and since I suppose my name has been used to give tone to this slander on Mr. Yours, most respectfully, M. JEFF. THOMPSON.

Pennsylvania.

The largest and most enthusiastic Demoratic meeting ever held in Philadelphia, was that of the 28th of September, which was addressed by Hon. John T. Hoffman, Hon. James Brooks, E. O. Perrin, and S. J. Meany, Esq., of New York, and R. T. Merrick, of Washington. The numbers present were almost beyond computation. Not anticipating so large an attendance, but two stands were provided. Had there been five there, would have been an immense audience for each. Impromptu meetings were organized at various points, which were addressed by popular speakers from door steps, furniture wagons, or indeed from almost any point where speakers could be seen and heard .-The various political clubs were out in great strength presenting a magnificent appearance. The meeting was got up at comparatively short notice, and with very little effort, the people turning out spontaneous by tens of ousands. Broad street, from Wallace to Parish, was a dense mass of human beings. The attendance has been variously estimated at from thirty to forty thousand. The most intense enthusiasm prevailed throughout .-The meeting was kept up till nearly midnight. the various clubs forming in grand processio at its close, and marched in splendid style through a number of the principal streats.

A GOOD ILLUSTRATION .- Hon. Thos. A. Hendricks, the democratic candidate for Governor of Indiana, in a speech of great sounds ness and force, in showing the importance of harmony and good feeling between the North and South, and the advantages of reciprocal trade between the South and Northwestern States, gave the following happy illustrations

"The sweetest lesson of our religion is to be found in the parable of the Prodigal Son. That son, you recollect, became tired of the best home in the world, and wandered off to seek his fortune among strangers. Seceding from the paternal roof, soon poverty and hunger came upon him, and he concluded to return. If that father, who 'saw him afar off' had been a radical, what would he have said? There-comes my rebellious son! He thinks I will let him come back upon the same terms as the rest of the boys and girls. No, no! That father as described to us in the parable was not a radical. He opened his arms and welcomed him as he saw the erring boy return, and as he stepped into the house, peace, love and happiness returned. There was a radical in that family, though. The other boy, as soon as he saw his brother coming, commenced growling, and did not want the returning prodigal admitted. I ask you, as Christian men and citizens, do you think we can build our institutions upon the bad passions of hatred, revenge and jealousy-passions which come up from the dark caverns

DEATH OF GEO. W. SUMMERS.—We learn that George W. Summers died at his residence in the county of Kanawha, W. Va. on the 19th instant. He was a native of Fairfax co., but removed at an early age to Kanawha where he has resided ever since.-He was a man of marked ability, and great weight and influence in public affairs, in his palmy days. An able lawyer, and an eloquent orator, he soon rose to a prominent position.-He served in the Legislature, and in the House of Representatives of the United States, for several terms. He represented his district also is two of the State Conventions for revising the Constitution, and was also a State judge. In all these capacities his talents were acknowledged, and placed him in the foremost ranks of our statesmen. He had been in declining health for some time, and his death was, therefore, not unexpected .-Thus has another of the great men of Virginia passed away.

THE DISTURBANCES IN THE SOUTH .- The frequent riots and disturbances in the South of late are not without significance. They form a part of the Radical programme by which it is hoped to carry the Presidential election. In every instance these riots have been inaugurated by armed negroes, led by white Radicals. In every instance the Southern people, knowing the object of these men, have borne insult and wrong, rather than afford them the opportunity they sought for, and it has only been when their lives and property have been threatened by Radical mobs that the people have risen in self-de-fence. Knowing these facts, knowing how blood is recklessly spilled and property de-stroyed by direction of the Radical leaders,

TO THE FARMERS

OF JEFFERSON AND CLARKE.

MITE wish to call your attention to the

WAGONER GUM SPRING Grain and Compost Drill.

This implement stands unsurpassed by any Drill in the marker, and has always sustained its high reputation when brought in contact with any in the field—where we now propose to place it, against all, guaranteeing perfect ratiofaction or no sale.

It is less liable to get out of order than any other thil. Its Perfect Compost Arrangement, the feetilizer falling directly in the tube, and the facility of cleaning all and one constitute of the contact of the cont of closing all seeding operations, are some of its advantages, and are all matters of the highest con-ideration to the farmer. We invite an examination of the Drill.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

BAPTIST CHURCH.-We are gratified to state that lumber is being collected preparatory to the immediate repair and reconstruction of this edifice, so ruthlessly and shamefully despoiled by the vandals of the war,-In its general appearance and arrangement this was intended to be one of the most attractive little churches of the Valley, but the hand of the Goth fell upon it before completion, and its present dilapidated condition is a reproach for our community longer to endure. We learn that a sum sufficient to justify a commencement of repairs has been collected, though greatly more will be needed to push it to completion. The membership in this immediate vicinity, is quite small, and the work is being begun in the confident, but reasonable expectation, that christians of all denominations will extend a helping hand .-This just hope and desire we believe will be tully realized, and soon another temple dedicated to the worship of the Most High will be opened in our town.

"SEED TIME."-The " seed time and harvest," through the permission of a kind Providence, is yet permitted to return, though our country be rent by internal commotion-profitgate and corrupt men ruling in its high places -labor disorganized and debased, and the husbandman no assurance of the ingathering of the fruits of his toil, tho' its yield may have been abundant. Nothwithstanding all this, our farmers are' now busily engaged in their fall sowing, and are most industriously, and perseveringly working to cover the largest area that is possible. The weather has been by no means favorable, though by the use of the drill-more of which are now being used in the county than were ever-before in motion-and a reasonably good season, they hopegenerally to finish by the 15th or 20th .-Fertilizers of all kinds and descriptions, are being introduced, and our agricultural warebouses have chi-ved a rich harvest from the odoriferous cargoes with which they have kept our streets freighted and perfumed. We hope a return commensurate with the deserts. Ferry, on horseback, and when nearing the Girsies .- A tribe of these strange and wandering Ishmaelites, numbering in men and women about twenty-five, were in our town and its environs during last week, to the no mall consternation of the children, and the curiosity and amusement of those of larger growth. Their camp ou fit was very complete, having a number of substantial, covered wagons, and most excellent horses. The men, as usual, were on the alert for a trade in any thing that might offer, whilst the women were jeddling baskets, or perhaps filching, whatever chance or opportunity permitted. (Claiming their descent from the Egyptian astrologers, a handsome bonus was paid them by the credulous, to have the veil of the future unlifted by these interreters of the stars, and pretended wizards. The vulgar maxim still holds good, that "fool and his money is soon pared to Supply all future demands. Now is

OUR PLPOT still cominges to present a Jusy and bustling aspect, from the numerous arrival and departure of trains, the large recepts of merchandise, agrigultural implepoints, fertilizers, &c., destined for this point. Whilst this is true as to our receipts, we are somewhat surprised to learn that our shipments of produce, from harvest to this period, as compared with last year, is searcely more than half. This is attibutable, we hope, rather to the in bility of our farmers to prepare their grain for market, than a diminution of the amount raised. At this time, wheat in our market is dull, with a tendency downward, $2.30 being offered for only a prime article. Marketable corn $1.05.

POST MASTER'S SALARIES .- The Wheeling Register has prepared, with considerable care, the salaries of the Post Masters in this State, where the sum amounts to $50 and upwards, as recently re adjusted by the Post Office Department, but by some unaccountable oversight, it fails to note the Charlestown office. The following is the amount paid at the other offices of the county :- Harper's Ferry $720; Shepherdstown $650; Middleway $110; Leetown $59; Kerneysville $130; Huffield's $150; Halltown $100; Kabletown $87; Rippon $150; Summit Point, $170 .-The salary at Martinsburg is $1,500, and at . Wheeling $3,600.

Religious .- The pulpit of the M. E. Church was occupied on Sabbath by Rev. Mr. BAIRD, presiding elder of this district, whilst Sacrament was administered in the Episcopal Church to a large number of communicants. The Rev. Mr. HOPKINS, of the Presbytegian Church was necessarily absent. but service was held at night under the direction of the Rev. Mr. PENICK, of the Baptist Church.

GAME, such as is common to this section of country, is just now, we are gratified to learn, quite abundant, and wild pigeous preas plenty as "blackberries in harvest"sometimes. It is a rare time for our freedmen, and nearly every one regards an old musket, shot gun, or revolver, with a dog or two to match, as necessary adjuncts to the " new situation." Many are deserting their row in the corn field, to enjoy the liberty of roaming the lorest in the exciting sport of the hunt, none daring to molest or make them work. A couple of lads, white, after a few hours hunt on Saturday, near Rippon, bagged twenty five pigeons and seven squirrels.

THE COUNTRY presents a beautiful appearance at this time, the copious rains of the last month having again covered the grass fields. with a most luxuriant herbage. If the frosts come not too early, the fall pastures promise to be very fine. On many accounts no season is more desirable than the present for a jount to the country, and a calm contemplation of the beauties of nature, in all its varied hues.

LIME BURNING:-The first coal-burning lime kiln introduced in our midst, is now in successful operation through the enterprise of Mr. JACOB TUTWILER. The description of coal used is the Anthracite pea, and Mr. T. regards it as decidedly preferable to wood. even in our locality, both on account of economy and saving of labor. His kiln is burned in about six days, yielding from 800 to 1,000 bushels, for which he meets ready sale. He has already burned several, and has one now in blast.

CIRCUIT COURT .- The October Term of our Circuit Conrt, Judge E. B. Hall, presiding, will convene in Shepherdstown, on Monday the 12th instent. The following is a list of the Petit Jurors:

Barney McCabe, John Scarlett, Geo. W. Johnson, John Avis of William, Rolly Moler, B. F. Leiseuring, Benira Eakle, Robert W. Moler, William B. Chambers, J. M. Stephenson, Adam Young, James W. Snyder, M. Walsh, Samuel Lindsey, Logan Osbourn, W. W. Burton, Sol. Miller, James B. Clipp, B. M. Hamilton, Sol. Miller, James B. Clipp, B. M. M. Stephen, Sol. Miller, James B. Clipp, B. M. Stephen, Sol. Miller, Mi E. B. Hamilton, John T. Clipp, Charles B. Line, Adam Kidwiler, D. W. Nisewarner, Thomas Licklider, Henry Gannon, Rodolphus Row, Joseph C. Holmes, Ehud Turner, James Haines, Charles King, David Billmyer, Isaac W. Chapline, John Vines, John B. Gruber, Martin H. Miller, Wm. McCarty.

KILLED .- Mr. THOMAS HAND, an Irish laborer, who worked several months in this town during the spring and summer, was instantly killed by a premature explosion whilst blasting rock near the residence of Mr. Jas. V. Moore, in this county, one day last week. He was an old man, exceedingly voluble, and from the tenor of his conversation, had experienced many of the changes and vicissitudes

More Kindness .- We were at Martins burg last week, and came home with a higher appreciation than ever of the liberality of our friends in Berkeley. Mr Ed. B Hooper, and Chas. O. Lambert, each presented us with a roast of delicious beef, whilst our ever kind friend, Mr. John A. Miller, of Gerar Istown, cheered us with an elegant ham. We shall go to Martinsburg again, if our Jefferson friends do not follow the example so nobly set. Of course our warmest affections cluster around these generous men of Berkeley, and when we partake of our frugal meals, we cannot but feel grateful that Providence put it into their hearts thus to remember the poorwe will not say needy.

NIGH DROWNING -On Wednesday afternoon last, Mr. Charles Lawson, of this town. came very near being drowned. Mr. L. was crossing the Shenandoah river at Keyes' shore on this side. his horse stumbled and fell throwing him head foremost into the civer .-When he recovered himself he found his foot fast in the stirrup and the horse dragging him toward the shore. After the horse had dragged him a few yards his hand touched the bottom of the river, and he recovered strength enough to call to the horse and stop him, when he caught him by the tail and managed to climb upon his back, thus parrowly escaping a watery grave. We have often told friend Lawson hat be would never die a natural death, and in this instance our prediction came near being COAL .- In consequence of the moderation of the season, the demand for this description of fuel has not been very pressing as yet, though Messrs. STARRY & LOCK are in daily receipt of cargoes, expecting to be amply pre the time to prepare for winter. For kind on hand, quality and price, call on this firm.

- At a meeting of the Southern Soldiers Memorial Association of Shepherdstown, held on Friday night of last week, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term :

President-Col. W. A. MORGAN. Vice President-John P. Hill. Secretary-WM. J. SMITH.

Treasurer-John Ray. Report of Wm. N. Craighill, Treasurer of the Jefferson County Building Association, JOKES"-To certone the break cents, for sale by C. E. B. Harper's Ferry, September 1, 1869 IMPORTANT TO FARMLES. Ammo lated Super Phosphates. The Maryland Fertilizing & Manufacturing COMPANY.

INCORPORATED JANUARY, 1867. DIRECTORS. WM. G. HARRISON, WILLIAM NUMBEN. RICHARD BARRE, WILLIAM TREGO ROBERT TURNER. WILLIAM TREGO. EAWRENCE SINGSION Manufactuing Chemist.

THIS Company, incorporated by the Legislature of Maryland for the Manufacture and Sa col Fertilizers, are now prepared to furnish the uget cultural community with their products. Deriving their supply of material from the richest of the recently deposits of Bone Phosphates in South Carolina, they have established, and will inflexibly maintain, a higher standard of Fertilizing value than any similar productions hitherto on the ma k-t While the material they use contains 60 per cere of Bone Phosphate of Lime, it is guarantee to can a larger per centage of SOLUBLE. PHOPHATE than any heretofore used. Ammoniated Super Phosphate, Price $50 per Ton. in Bags.

FINE GROUND BONE PHOSPHATIS

Price $30 per Ton, in Bags Containing, by the average of the Abstivisis of Persons Piggott. Leibig and Populein, 60.20 cent. of Bone Phosphate of Line. The unusual per centage of Soluble Phospharwill make this form very desirable to Farmers where to use it in its natural state, or to manufal at for themselves.

It is now a well ascertained and acknowledged fact, that Wheat cannot be successfully or profita-bly grown without the liberal use of Phosphates: and in presenting an article of high standard at a low price personally supern tended by a Chemist of Thirty Years' experience, with a determination to maintain that standard, the Company confident ly rely on the confidence and support of the Agri rience during the day and night I undertook to run a hotel. I rose early in the morning, put on my Sunday-go to meeting clothes, a bran new biled shirt with frills, my diamond pin which I bought of "the original Jacobs," a new scarf with all the colors of the rainbow, and boots that reflected my face. In this garb I went behind the counter. Up stepped a man te register, and I let him put his name down. I asked him if he had any baggage, and he said. "I should think so, you milksop!" He pointed to a trunk which it took two porters to carry up stairs. I ascertained afterwards that he staid two weeks in the hotel on that trunk, and then left. The trunk was sold at auction, and was found full of bricks and "light wood." But I obeyed the Bible ininnction : "Here was a stranger and I took him in," That ain't all. He took me in ! The next that came to get a room was a colored member of the legislature. I told him we kept a white man's hotel and couldn't accommedate him. He got indignant, and asked me "if I went back on the Constitution which guaranteed equal rights to all." I told him I had never read it. He opened his carpet-bag, took out a bound copy of the same, and told me to refuse him a room if I dared. I dared, and he went to the United States Commissioner right off, Rather than shed the blood of a man with whom I had fought bled and died for my country, and have my liceuse revoked, I was obliged to give the colored gentleman a room, "all of which is respectably submitted." The result was a row, in which half of my boarders refused longer to eat hash in my house, no matter how fine I had it chawed up.

Then came another who was dissatisfied with his room. So I rung the bell several times, when up came porter, cook, watchman, baggage master, and two or three bell boys. I told them to remove John Smith's baggage from sixty-five to eighty seven.

They did it. Mark the result, as I proceed. By and by came a man who registered Samuel Jones and lady. I put "Sam" in one hundred and four and "lady" in eighty. Evening came, and I was congratulating myself up being able to keep a hotel. All of a sudden there was a jerk of the bell of the rivate parlor, and I sent the "call boy" to find out what was the matter. Pretty soon he came back looking very red in the face, and said as how "there was two ladies as wanted to see me in there."

I went in the "P. P.," and found two women en dishabille, walking the floor and crying like mad. As quick as I went in they both went for me and began': "You're a smart man, aint you, to go and put a strange man in my room! What do you mean; sir?" I began to be frightened, and stammered, "d did I put a man in your room?"

"Yes you did, sir." "What is the number of your room, madam?"

"Eighty-seven, you wretch." It was true. I had done been and gone and done it. I had ordered John Smith's baggage from sixty-five to eighty-seven, and he had come and gone into this room when it was occupied by a young lady to whom he had never been introduced ! . O Heavings ! Then up came the other one with her pocket handkerchief wet through, and began on

"Yes, and here I am put in a room all alone by myself, and exposed to all the dangers of a large city, while my husband is separated from me, and put-I don't know where! Boo hoo-hoo! O, you good fornothing, heartle-s creature !"

Here was a nice box for a young man .-There stood one young woman crying like thunder, because there was a man in her room. and right beside her another crying because there wasn't! What was a fellow to do? I rushed for the office and sung out through the speaking tube for the chamber maid to put in order No. 144, for the young miss who had the strange man in her room.

I thought I was all right now, sure; but pretty soon there was another jerk at the P. P. bell. I had sung out through the wrong speaking tube. Instead of calling the chambermaid on the ladies' side I called the chambeimaid on the gents' side! The result was that the young lady left the hotel in disgust, or in a cab. I forget which! The other lady who had been married and lost her husband in another room, complained to him, as soon as she found him, and he came to pay a visit

"Why didn't you put me in a room with my wife, sir? Do you keep a Quaker house?" I began to quake. "Why didn't you put her down as your wife?" said I. "I did, sir," he said.

I referred in triumph to the register .-"There it is, you see, Samuel Jones and lady! It don't say anything about her being your wife. I keep a respectable house."

He looked at me one moment with scorn depicted on his countenance, calling for his bill, and left in the first omnibus without paying it. I knew he was a friend of mine by a femark he made, as he was about leaving. No matter what he said.

I got in a huff. I rung for the porter, and ring so many times it brought the cook. I wanted the watchman but called the chambermaid. I sent baggage up Red River that ought to have gone to Mobile, and sent the owner of it off on the Jackson Railroad 1. I got the baggage out of a lady's room and sent it off with a Texan to Galveston, and when he got there, he had nothing but an extra bonnet, a hoop skirt, and two sets of corsets., for a change! The Texan threatens to lasso me the next time he catches me.

At 12 o'clock at night, I gave up the keys of the hotel, and quit. Although I am "some', with a knife and fork, I can't keep a hotel.'s I am now in the bone boiling business, and find that my genius tends more in that direction than hotel keeping. But if. any of my old customers that stopped with me while I kept a hotel, come to New Or leans, I am afraid they wont leave a bone in my body to boil

- A very little boy, after giving everybody a good night kiss, kneeled at his mother's side to say his evening prayer. His mother . had that day been teaching him the piece commencing, "You'd scarce expect one of my age," etc., and it appears that these verses were running through his mind. He commenced the prayer as follows: " Now I lay be down to sleep. I pray the Lord my soul to

rp. If I should chance to fall below Demosnes or Cicero, don't view me with a crickeye-" "Stop, stop," said his mother, that isn't part of the prayer." "Yes it is," ire limbe fellow replied; " yes, it is. mamma; don't view me with a cricket's eye!"

NOTICE TO FARMERS.

WE now have on hand and for sale the GUM.
SPRING DRILL Willoughby's Patent, mannfactured by Crowel & Davison, Greencastle, Pa. nfactured by Crowel & Davison, Greencastle, Pa. We would state that after six years experience by using and two years in selling, (in which time wa have sold seventy-five, giving perfect satisfaction throughout.) we lielieve them to be the strongest, most durable and most perfect Grain and Compost Drill in use. We could give hundreds of certificates in favor of this unequalled Brill, but think it unnecessary, as the great number of these Drills which are in use in this county, is an evidence that they are the Drill. Persons wishing to examine them can call on us or Messrs, Hilleary, Wilson & Lohseon Soundit on Messrs Starry & Loke Johnson, Summit Point; or Mesara Starry & Lock, Charlestown Depot, where they are on exhibition. These Drills are warranted to give satisfaction or no sale. SNYDER, LINK & OSBOURN, September 1, 1868. Duffield's Depot.
