On Tuesday evening about 9 o'clock, a train consisting of six oil cars and two passenger cars reached the summit on its way to the Junction. Here, by some cause as yet un-explained, one of the oil tanks took fire.--

The passenger cars were at once detached and the brakes stopped them. Next the oil cars were cut off, and the locomotive, tender, and ox car containing two valuable horses and two men passed down the road, the engineer supposing that the brakesmen on the oil cars would arrest the course of those ; but what was his horror on looking back, to see the six cars in pursuit of him down the grade enveloped in flames. They .not only pursued but overtook him, striking the box car with inconceivable force, knocking the horses and men flat upon the floor, and yet almost miraculously not throwing the engine from the track.

It was now with the engineer a race for life, Wilson's Ammoniated and he gave the engine every ounce of steam. Looking south from the place of my residence at that terrible juncture, one of the most mag-The Cheapest and Best Fertilizer in the nificent spectacles was witnessed that a man sees in a lifetime. Hunter, A. A. Co., Md.; James Wilson, E.q., A. A. Co., Md.; Wm. H. wkins, Esq. whole heavens were illuminated, and the landscape was lit up as by the noonday light .-Onward and downward flew the engine, and behind flew and thundered the huge fiery demon. Twice its prodigious, weight was driven against the fugitive, as if instinct with a purpose to drive it from the track. It seemed as if to the heroic engineer and fireman there was a perfect environment of peril. The speed of the engine was such that it ceased to pump; then again, the Cincinnatti express was due at the junction at this time. The en gineer of the oil train whistled "open switch." and shaking hands with the fireman, they hade each other farewell, knowing that their lives depended on the opening of the Lake Shore switch by their friends below, and this was to imperil the express train coming down from the West with its living human freight. The engineer on this train saw the fire when it first broke out at the summit, and supposing he could clear the junction before the flaming terror reached it, he, too, put his engine to the utmost speed on a level grade. A mile short of the junction he saw that the effort was a vain one, for the flying conflagration had rushed out upon the Lake Shore track. and was roaring onward in the direction of Dunkirk. He checked the onward course of his own train and brought it to a standstill. It did not proceed until 3 o'clock in the morn-The case took in another danger, and it was imminent. A heavy freight train was coming up the Lake Shore road. All I will say of the escape of this is that it did escape to the side track, and only escaped by the last minute of possibility. Running on to a safe distance from the depot, the engineer of the oil train detached his engine and left the cars to consume. He says his situation was fully realized by him. He expected to lose his life. At every moment he was going at a perilous rate of speed. but there was no help for it. The demon was behind, and he declares that it looked like a demon. With that fondness or real affection for his engine which these men display, he said, "I thought everything of my engine, and was determined to stay by it to the last." The fireman made one attempt to escape by jumping from the tender, but the engineer restrained him. Altogether the occurrence was remarkable for this, that no lives were lost. The brakesmen on the oil cars had gone back to the passenger cars, when the oil cars started. It was well they did. Unless those rear cars had been detached and stopped, their inmates would have been burned to death ...

Sad Accident-A Young Married Lady POETICAL. Killed. OUR GUIDES. A correspondent writing from Fairfield, Denton county, Mo., August 20, furnishes

In a pillar of cloud by day, O God, And a pillar of fire by night, Thy presence did guide on the way they trod; Thy people of old in flight; And the wilderness way that we walk to day More dreary and dark would seem. If through the deep night or the twilight gray Thy presence should never gleam. the following particulars of a sad accident, by which a young married lady, just from West Virginia, was almost instantly killed :

Virginia, was almost instantly killed: "A sad accident occurred near here last evening. The southern bound stage, contain-ing four passengers. — a young married couple named Moore, a lady with two small children, and a gentleman—had passed the post-office about three quarters of a mile, when the stage ran over a stump, throwing the driver from his seat, and frightening the horses so that I am glad they waited in days of old; With a promise of better things; For my heart is stirred when the tale is told, By the hope and cheer it brings. I am glad that they journeyed those forty years, In trouble, and doubt, and pain; For the gloom of my wilderness disappears At thought of their final gain.

We may never quite perfectly understand Why the wilderness waits for each; Yet we know that the beautifut Promised Land Is beyond it—without our reach. But whatever the purdens we have to bear, Or however we shrink and faint, We shall carry ourselves and our burden there, If a prayer is our sole complaint!

Had they only looked down, in the olden time, As they journeyed with fait'ring tread, They would never have known of the guides sublim That forever their footateps led. And I pray, though we walk in a faithless way; Though we seldom look up for light, We may never lose sight of the cloud by day, Or the pillar of fire by night.

SALE OF GOVERNMENT PROPEL TY AT HARPER'S FERRY.

We are glad to learn that the Secretary of War has ordered the sale of the above valuable property. This order is in obedience to Act of Congress passed at its last session which directs that officer, upon the conditions and with the reservations named in the Act, to sell at public auction, all the property owned by the United States in Harper's Ferry and vicinity. The time of sale, is left at the discretion of the Secretary. When this Act was passed and until quite recently, a Suit was pending in the U.S. Court, in which the Plaintiff claimed title against the Government. to land which controls the entire water power of the Potomac, heretofore used for the U.S. Armory. During the pendency of this Suit, it was doubtless wise to suspend the sale of the property-but the title of the Government having now been established, there seems no reason why the law of Congress should not be executed without delay. Directly and indirectly, the Government, has expended millions of dollars upon its property at Harper's Ferry-and before the destruction of the magnificent works it had erected there. the War Department might well regard it as constituting one of the most efficient means of the National defence. But although this property presents now a scene of ruin, and its value to the Government is insignificant compared to that which it possessed before the war, still for manufacturing purposes, too high an estimate can hardly be placed upon it .--The power almost unlimited, both of the Potomac and Shenandoah rivers, is fully and splendidly developed, and ready at once to set in motion the mightiest machinery that human ingenuity and skill can construct. The facilities for intercourse and transportation both by Rail and Canal, from this point, to all, sections of the country, are unsurpassed. #### AN EXPLOSION. The Cumberland V. R. R. Extension

In discussing the relative merits of the Walker arrived there to-day, from Washing-ton. Some account of his interview with the President here yesterday was published in different routes for the extension of the Cum berland Valley Railroad, south of the Potomac river, it is not our purpose to seek controversy, or our intention to shrink from it. The article which we published on the 17th of August arraying figures in favor of the route through Jefferson and Clarke counties, has stirred up the advocates of the Winchester route, and they are now putting forth their best efforts to counteract the influences that are at work here. This is all very well and we most cheerfully commend the spirit of any people who seek to advance the material interests of their own community. But let them do it fairly, and not to the prejudice of others. The editor of the Winchester, Times, his issue of last week, in alluding to our article, says "we will undertake, as soon as we return from the grand gathering of the Press at the White Sulphur, next week, to explode utterly and entirely its erroneous deductions." If he had stopped here, we might have been content to wait until after the mighty explosion, which we hope to survive : but which we warn him may have the same effect of another explosive engine of great notoriety, all seem satisfied. The happiest results are Great Cæsar, is this thine edict ! And are we, the people of Jefferson, men who have been educated to think for themselves. henceforth to go to Winchester to learn what railroad facilities they need, and what their agricultural products justify? Since the editor of the Times has made his "local habitation and his home" in the old town, she seems to have become to the Valley what Athens was to Greece, or Boston is to Massachusetts. All light, all knowledge, all inspiration, must emanate from that quarter. We know what this assumed superiority foreshadows. It is

But aside from the interests of the Govern ment that are involved, justice to the citizens of Harper's Ferry demands a speedy sale of this property of the Government. Most o these citizens were formerly connected with the Armory. Encouraged by the Government to do so, they built or purchased the homes they occupy, and in many instances invested in them, all the savings of many vears. The destruction of the Armory deprived them of the source of income on which they relied, and rendered their property comparatively valueless, until the Armory should be rebuilt, or the Government property disposed of to private enterprise. For more than eight years, they have been waiting the action of the Government and no one will deny their demand to be just, that no unnecessary delay shall now take place in carrying out the law of Congress and the Order of the Secretary of War.

But we are all interested in this matter .-The vast water power at Harper's Ferry, em. ployed as it might be, in keeping in motion the machinery of a score of Factories and Mills, would give additional life and energy to this entire county, and contribute to the pros perity and wealth of all the surrounding region A large and flourishing manufacturing interest directly united with, and stimulating to higher efforts, our noble agricultural interest, would produce results that would enkindle gladness in the hearts of thousands. Gentlemen of Ordnance Office at Washington, we wait your action with no ordinary interest.

THE POST OFFICE.

The citizens who have business intercourse with the Charlestown Post office, were last week surprised at the announcement that Miss Maggie W. Johnson had been removed, and Mr. John W. Taylor appointed in her stead. The regret which this announcement created, was almost universal. We are of the number who share in the regret at the removal of Miss Johnson from office for many reasons -chief among which was the uniform courtesy she has always shown us, added to the fact that we knew her to be a large contributor to the support of a widowed mother and de pendent sisters. But political intolerance knows no charity, and radicalism has little if any sympathy with the widow and the orphan.

Of the appointee we know very little, except that he came to this county from Pennsylvania two or three years ago, and bought a far my He came as an avowed radical, and has since kept his colors flying, the State are elected by a decided majority. The next Legislature will be emphatic against

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

WELL SAID .- The Grand Jury at the recent term of the Berkeley Court, made one hundred and sixty indictments! The people of the county must be entirely outlawed, or else most of these charges have been the result of personal malice or petty spleen. On the latter presumption, the New Era remarks as follows :-

indictments. This is too much of a good thing, as it is not likely that one-third of these indictments will ever amount to anything, but be the means of entailing useless expense on the county. Many of the indictments found were evidently the result of a puritanical prejudice, which in justice should have no infuence in the deliberations of a grand jury. Their duties should be circumscribed to the honest and impartial investigition of all matters looking to the preservation of the publie morals and to the protection of the general interest of the community, but in doing this they should not allow any of their preconceived individual notions of morality to govern their deliberations. All violators of the law should be brought to punishment, but for a grand jury to seriously entertain and deliberate upon every trivial complaint made to them through ill-will, spite or prejudice, is beneath the dignity of such a body, and cer- size. tainly not intended to be embraced within the sphere of their sworn duties. A grand jury should have, at least common sense enough to discriminate in such matters, and not burden the docket with a whole batch of petty indictments, which, when sifted, will amount to nothing. We are not personally, aggrieved at any indictments found by the last Grand Jury ; but if our information be correct, and we have no reason to doubt it, we do think they meddled with some things which should have been beneath their consideration, and took cognizance of others which they could not help but know, were prompted by prejudice and ill feeling on the part of the complainants. This was all wrong, and can have no other result than to stir up animosities and entail useles expense upon the country. In our humble opinion no man should sit as a Grand or petit Juror who is not able to sink his prejudices and take an enlarged and liberal view of matters which may come before him pertaining to the general good. The best, most judicious and clear-headed men should always be selected for such positions. Recently, we are sorry to instruction of pupils, male and female, and Wednesday last. ing to such a standard. We have seen man on our petit juries, time and again, who have to true conceptions of right and justice, and not common sense enough to comprehend it when pointed out to them. We long for the time when men shall be selected for such positions solely because of their fitness, and not through political or other preferences.

A HANDSOME PARADE .- The Independent Hook and Ladder Company, recently organized in this town, with J. C. HOLMES, as Captain, and THOMAS YOUNG, Assistant, made their first public appearance on the street, Saturday evening last. The display was in a high degree creditable to all concerned, and elicited the highest commendation from our citizens, for the ardor and zeal with which the officers and men of this organization seem to have entered upon their work. Though but a few weeks in organizing, the company have already procured, almost entirely at its own expense, a handsome uniform, ladders, hooks, axes and buckets, with an attractive and appropriate banner, under which to marshal against the devouring element. The organization now numbers forty. of just the kind of material for prompt and efficient work in the right place at the right time, if unfortunately but most probably, their services should be needed. To complete the equipment, a "Truck" will be sented. needed for the speedy transit from point to point of the books, ladders, etc., and our citizens will be called upon for a contribution to secure one. We hope a liberal response may be given, as it would be ungenerous to tax the members with any further outlay in providing for the public safety, when they proffer their services and are willing to risk Ilife or limb, as a gratuity.

TALL OATS .- The . Union, published at London, Madison county, Ohio, notices a crop of Oats grown the recent season by Mr. Isaac C. Kemp, measuring 51 ft., in height, and averaging 70 hushels to the acre. Mr. K. is a native of our town, emigrated West as the artificer of his own fortune some years since, and is now one among the most enterprising and successful farmers, as we are gratified to learn, of even the great State of Ohio. He designs sending to this office a sheaf of these Oats for the inspection of our farmers, as it is a new variety, and one that he regards well adapted to our soil, and of the prolific yield in the county of his nativity, he entertains no doubt.

TEMPERANCE ADDRESS. - We are requested to announce that the Rev. W. S. PENICK will deliver an address before Jefferson Council, No. 3, Friends of Temperance, in their Council Chamber, on Tuesday evening, September 14th. A full attendance of the membership is desired, and brethren of sister Conneils are cordially invited to be present.

ATTENTION, INDEPENDENTS !- There will be a meeting of the Independent Hook and Ladder Company, of this town, on Thursday evening, at S o'clock. As there is business people. -The Hillsborough camp meeting of the Methodist Church, South, recently held, was numerously attended, and several of the most emminent divines attached to that branch of the church officiated. The sermons of John S. Martin, Dr. Duncan, of Richmond, Roszel. and others of that ilk, are said never to have been excelled in that section of country.

-Tuesday next, it will be remembered by those interested, commences the regular fall term of the Circuit Court of Jefferson. We learn that both the civil and criminal docket is considerably burdened.

GRAND CELEBRATION .- Thursday (says the Shepherdstown Register-of Satur-. day) was a gala day for the colored folks in our town, who had gathered here from all the neighboring towns, for the purpose of celebrating the emancipation of slavery, and the presentation of a Banner to the Oder of Industry of this place.

At 11 o'clock the procession formed under the direction of the Chief Marshal, Peter Hodge, aided by Robert Travis, Dorsey Kline and Daniel Harding, all mounted. The procession, headed by Moxley's brass band, composed of the Order of Industry, Masons, Odd Fellows, Red Men, Sabbath School, vehicles and horsemen, passed through main street to Houst & Langdon the Court House where the Banner was pre-

The procession then proceeded to Lemon's Grove, where numerous booths had been erected, from which were dispensed quantities of the substantials as well as the delicacies of life. There was present about 2,000. Their enjoyment seemed unbounded. We noticed very little intoxication and upon the whole the participants were very orderly and quiet, nothing occurring to mar the ocasion whatever. At night John Hodge and Prof. Butler spoke at the Schoolhouse, where a festival was also held.

OUR DEPOT presents a busy and bustling appearance at this time, with the numerous wagons delivering wheat, and the unusually large amount of merchandize received, for this period of the year, as well as travel to and The two setts of railroad employees, fro. under "bosses" Fitzpatrick and Young, have and three miles West of Summit Point; the followbeen for some weeks engaged at this point, in renewing the ties, ballasting the road and putting down additional switches to accommodate the increasing trade of the depot. The "stock pen" recently erected, has proved of great convenience to drovers, and a large number of cattle, hogs and sheep, are sent weekly from this point, instead of being subject to the risk and inconvenience of shipping at Sandy Hook.

ON SHORT GRUB .- KELLY, of the Fredericksburg Herald, is in deep grief that the ong continued dry weather has destroyed all hope for an abundant supply of sweet potatoes. The lower counties of the Rappahannock, Norfolk, and the Eastern Shore, will be the only hope. Surely, with the corn crop. of the county less than on-half barrel to the acre, the sweet potatoes a failure, and the oyster beds uncertain, the citizens of the ancient of importance to be transacted it is desired burg may soon expect to be put on "short ing house soon. P. S.-After the above was in type the prisoner arrived in charge of Sheriffs Potterfield and Koonce, and is now in jail.

[Shepherdstown Register. ROSADALIS ! ROSADALIS ! ROSADALIS !-What is it? A perfume ? a flavoring extract? an external application ? something for the breath? No, none of these. What then is Rosadalis? It is a valuable compound of Alterative ingredients, prepared upon truly scientific principles, the chemical affinity of each ingredient being maintained in the process of manufacture, the whole making the most valuable Blood Purifier known to the world. The articles from which it is made are published with the directions, so that all may know precisely what they are taking. Procure a bottle, take it to your family physician, and he will-if he be an honest man-tell you that if it contains what the Proprietor claims it does it is a good Blood medicine ; then take it to an analytical chemist, let him test the preparation to see if the ingredients are there or not. This will prove to you the genuineness of Rosadalis. Take it then according to directions, and be cured of any chronic affection of the Blood, Liver or Kidneys with which you may have been suffering. BALTIMORE MARKETS.

WELL SAID .- The Grand Jury at the recent term of the Berkeley Court, made one hundred and sixty indictments! The people of the county must be entirely outlawed, or y else most of these charges have been the result of personal malice or petty spleen. On the latter presumption, the New Era remarks as follows :--

The Grand Jury for the present term court brought in about one hundred and sixty indictments. This is too much of a good thing, as it is not likely that one-third of these indictments will ever amount to anything, but be the means of entailing useless expense on the county. Many of the indictments found were evidently the result of a puritanical prejudice, which in justice should have no influence in the deliberations of a grand jury. Their duties should be circumscribed to the honest and impartial investigition of all matters looking to the preservation of the publie morals and to the protection of the general interest of the community, but in doing this they should not allow any of their preconceived individual notions of morality to govern their deliberations. All violators of the law should be brought to punishment, but for a grand jury to seriously entertain and deliberate upon every trivial complaint made to them through ill-will, spite or prejudice, is beneath the dignity of such a body, and certainly not intended to be embraced within the sphere of their sworn duties. A grand jury should have, at least common sense enough to discriminate in such matters, and not burden the docket with a whole batch of petty indictments, which, when sifted, will amount to nothing. We are not personally, aggrieved at any indictments found by the last Grand Jury ; but if our information be correct, and we have no reason to doubt it. we do think they meddled with some things which should have been beneath their consideration, and took cognizance of others which they could not help but know, were prompted by prejudice and ill feeling on the part of the complainants. This was all wrong, and can have no other result than to stir up animosities and entail useles expense upon the country. In our humble opinion no man should sit as a Grand or petit Juror who is not able to sink his prejudices and take an enlarged and liberal view of matters which may come before him pertaining to the general good. The best, most judicious and clear-headed men should always be selected for such positions. Recently, we are sorry to say, our juries have not been selected accord-

- Cannot something be done, and that speedily, in repairing our pumps? The Depot, Mason's, Kemp's and the Court-house, are now unfit for use, to the serious inconvenience of the citizens around. Who will be the first to move in the matter ?

- The dilapidated stone wall on the East end of the old Presbyterian grave-yard, ha been replaced by a high and substantial plank fence. The unseemly shrubbery and undergrowth of the enclosure has also been removed, and the general appearance of this ancient sepulture of the dead much improved. To the exertions of Mr. Joseph M. Brown are we indebted for this labor of love.

- The attendance at the Woods Meeting at Rippon, on Sabbath last, of the Protestant Methodist Church, was unusually large, a number from Harper's Ferry and other distant points being present. The services were able and interesting, and the good order and attention most commendable.

-The apple and peach crop is more abundant throughout the county than for many years preceding. The former is being converted into cider, and the latter finds ready sale in our market, at a liberal price. As usual, Mr. Allen, of Clarke, has furnished the most choice varieties and of the finest size.

- The capacious flouring mill at Harper's Ferry is turning out daily 400 bbls. of flour; employing a large number of coopers, millers and other assistants, thus affording considerable life and animation to business on the Island. The flour ranks with the very best in the Eastern market.

- Since the war, many of our farmers have gone into the grape culture to a very considerable extent. The crop this season is a moderate one, and now about ripening. We have learned of several who, expect to manufacture wine, and in some instances employed skilled and experienced connoisseurs in the art. We hope the experiment may prove in a high degree profitable.

-Our schools are about terminating the ummer vacation, and have or will soon re- trict of Columbia, for the delivery and arrest sume their accustomed labors. Ample ar- of said John Thomas, colored, and was sent rangement has been made for the thorough to Sheriff Potterfield, of this county, on instruction of pupils, male and female, and arrived at time of going to press, but is exwe hope may be liberally sustained by our pected to take a room at Billy Osborne's board

The Great Wheat Drill of the Age. The Hagerstown Agricultural Implement Manufacturing Company are challenging the manufacturers of any other Grain, Seed and Fertilizing Drill now made. They claim five special Points and offer to compete on any other Points claimed by any other Drill .-Every Drill has the Keller Patent Check Link Gum Spring Hoe. This improvement keeps the Hoe, or Shovel immovable until it strikes stationary obstacle, the jar of which throws the pressure from the Hoe on the Gum Spring, allowing it to pass over the obstacle and immediately resume its work. Hence the Hoe or Shovel is always in the right place, never jumping or tilting and the Gum Spring never needs screwing down. It is not liable to wear and will out-last three sets of Gum Springs constructed on the old principle. The Keller

Patent One Gum and One Smooth Iron Roller Feed is the most certain and reliable Grain sewer ever made. The Acre-Surveyor and the 16-Acre Register on this Drill will convince any farmer that his grain and seed sewing is done as accurately as a good clock keeps

The Improved Fertilizing Attachment for 1869 will drill Pacific and Peruvian Guano, nd all Fertilizers from 60 lbs. up per Acre, nd distribute evenly over the entire Acre, no bunching, but an even regular stream. The Material, Workmanship and Finish need only to be seen to satisfy the farmer that it is "The Best." Every Farmer should go see it at McCurdy & Duke's, Charlestown, Link & Co, Duffields ; also at Kearneysville, Berryville, Summit Point, Middleway and Shepherdstown.

CAUGHT .- We are informed that the horse tolen from Mr. Hendley Milstead, in Charlestown, on the night of August 21st, was found n the possession of the supposed thief, John Thomas, colored, in Washington, on the 26th, by Messrs. Comes and Miller, detectives, o hat city. Mr. Milstead was immediately telgraphed to, and with his son went on to ashington, and there identified and recovered their horse, and after a hearing before a Justice, had said Thomas committed to await a requisition from the Governor of this State. Upon application of G. M. Beltzhoover, Esq. Acting Prosecuting Attorney during the absence and illness of Mr. Stubbs, a warrant and requisition was granted by the Governor of this State upon the Chief Justice of the Dising to such a standard. We have seen man on our petit juries, time and again, who have to true conceptions of right and justice, and not common sense enough to comprehend it when pointed out to them. We long for the time when men shall be selected for such positions solely because of their fitness, and not through political or other preferences.

A HANDSOME PARADE .- The Independent Hook and Ladder Company, recently organized in this town, with J. C. HOLMES, as Captain, and THOMAS YOUNG, Assistant, made their first public appearance on the street, Saturday evening last. The display was in a high degree creditable to all concerned, and elicited the highest commendation from our citizens, for the ardor and zeal with which the officers and men of this organization seem to have entered upon their work. Though but a few weeks in organizing, the company have already procured, almost entirely at its own expense, a handsome uniform, ladders, hooks, axes and buckets, with an attractive and appropriate banner under which to marshal against the devouring element. The organization now numbers forty, of just the kind of material for prompt and efficient work in the right place at the right time, if unfortunately but most probably, their services should be needed. To complete the equipment, a "Truck" will be sented needed for the speedy transit from point to point of the hooks, ladders, etc., and our citizens will be called upon for a contribution to secure one. We hope a liberal response may be given, as it would be ungenerous to tax the members with any further outlay in very little intoxication and upon the whole the providing for the public safety, when they | participants were very orderly and quiet, nothproffer their services and are willing to risk life or limb, as a gratuity.

TALL OATS .- The Union, published at London, Madison county, Ohio, notices a crop of Oats grown the recent season by Mr. Isaac C. Kemp, measuring 51 ft. in height, and averaging 70 bushels to the acre. Mr. K. is a native of our town, emigrated West as the artificer of his own fortune some years since, fro. The two setts of railroad employees, and is now one among the most enterprising and successful farmers, as we are gratified to learn, of even the great State of Ohio. He designs sending to this office a sheaf of these Oats for the inspection of our farmers, as it is a new variety, and one that he regards well adapted to our soil, and of the prolific yield in the county of his nativity, he entertains no doubt:

hose interested, commences the regular fall term of the Circuit Court of Jefferson. We learn that both the civil and criminal docket s considerably burdened.

GRAND CELEBRATION .- Thursday last says the Shepherdstown Register-of Saturday) was a gala day for the colored folks in our town, who had gathered here from all the neighboring towns, for the purpose of celebrating the emancipation of slavery, and the presentation of a Banner to the Oder of Industry of this place.

At 11 o'clock the procession formed under the direction of the Chief Marshal, Peter Hodge, aided by Robert Travis, Dorsey Kline and Daniel Harding, all mounted. The procession, headed by Moxley's brass band, composed of the Order of Industry, Masons, Odd Fellows, Red Men, Sabbath School, vehicles and horsemen, passed through main street to Hough & Langdon

The procession then proceeded to Lemon's Grove, where numerous booths had been erected, from which were dispensed quantities of the substantials as well as the delicacies of life. There was present about 2,000. Their enjoyment seemed unbounded. We noticed ing occurring to mar the ocasion whatever. At night John Hodge and Prof. Butler spoke at the Schoolhouse, where a festival was

OUR DEPOT presents a busy and bustling appearance at this time, with the numerous wagons delivering wheat, and the unusually large amount of merchandize received, for this period of the year, as well as travel to and under "bosses" Fitzpatrick and Young, have been for some weeks engaged at this point, in renewing the ties, ballasting the road and putting down additional switches to accommodate the increasing trade of the depot. ROSADALIS! ROSADALIS! ROSADALIS !-What is it? A perfume ? a flavoring extract? an external application ? something for the breath? No, none of these. What then is Rosadalis? It is a valuable compound of Alterative ingredients, prepared upon truly scientific principles, the chemical affinity of each ingredient being maintained in the process of manufacture, the whole making the most valuable Blood Purifier known to the world. The articles from which it is made are published with the directions, so that all may know precisely what they are taking. Procure. a bottle, take it to your family physician, and he will-if he be an honest man-tell you that if it contains what the Proprietor claims it does it is a good Blood medicine ; then take it to an analytical chemist, let him test the preparation to see if the ingredients are there r not. This will prove to you the genuine. ness of Rosadalis. Take it then according to directions, and be cured of any chronic affection of the Blood, Liver or Kidneys with

GOD BLESS THE FARM.

God bless the farm-the dear old farm! God bless it every rood-Where willing heart and sturdy arm Can earn an bonest livelihood! Can from the coarse and fertile soil Win back a recompense for toil.

God bless each meadow, field and nook, Begemmed with fairest flowers ! And every leaf that's gently shok By evening breeze or morning showers ; God bless them all! each leaf's a gem In Nature's gorgeous diadem.

The orchards that in early spring Blush rich with iragrant flowers, And with each autumn surel, bring Their wealth of traits in golden showers, Like pomegrants on Aaron's rod, A miracle from Nature's God.

And may He bless the farmer's home, Where peace and plenty reign ! No happier spot 'neath Heaven's high dome Doth this broad, beauteous carth contain, Than shere, secure from cire and strife, The farmer leads his peaceful life.

Unvexed by toil and tricks for gain, He turns the fertile mold, Then scatters on the golden grain, Aud reaps reward a hundred fold. fle dvells where grace and beauty charm, For-God hath blest his hope and farm.

The Four Gates of Hell-A Genuine Hard-Shell Baptist Sermon.

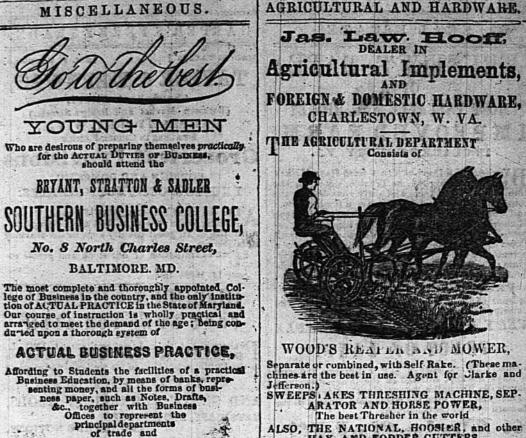

William Reynolds, o Peoria, is well-known as an enthusiastic worker in the Sabbathschool cause. He is perhaps better known than any other man in the State, and we give the following story as he tells it, as near as we remember. The main facts are all absolutely true. He was in the southern part of the State last week organizing Sunday schools, when he encountered a Hard Shell Baptist neighborhood. The minister settled over the little flock looked with jealousy upon the movements of the new lights, and finally announced his intention of preaching a sermon against them. On the Sabbath designated the Sunday-school men gathered in force, when the preacher announced that well known text-

"Thou art Peter ! and on this rock will ] build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Atter giving Peter a good setting out, the minister closed as follows, in that peculiar singing tone that is indescribable except to those who have heard it :

"Yes, my bretbering ah-an' the gates of hell shel not preval agin' it, ah ! Now, you'd like to know about these ere gates o' hell, ah ! Well, my brethering, that air four gates to hell, ah !

"Thar is, fustly, the Sunday school, system, ah ! That that is one gate to hell, ah, what they bring young men and wimmin together ah, and onder the igee of teachin' on 'em the Bible, they set 'em hankerin' arfter one another

We can give the preacher's name and address if necessary. The party were too much annoyed to take accurate notes. But Mr. Reynolds himself will vouch for the truth of what we have written. Truth is stranger than fiction .- El Paso (Ill.) Journal.

- A preacher who used notes had the misfortune to deliver a discourse-or rather, as the sequel will show, a portion of a discourse -in a breezy spot, of which rash act the consequence was that "thirdly" was missing .--The embarrassed pastor repeated several times: "Thirdly, my brethren-thirdly."

This lasted several minutes, till at last an excited old lady rose from her seat and exclaimed, "Thirdly went out the window."

- A certain little damsel, having been aggravated beyond endurance by her big brother, plumped down on her knees and cried, "O Lord! bless my brother Tom. He lies, he steals, he swears; all boys do-us girls don't. Amen !"

- The industrious old lady who walked all over a town down East with a can in her hand to procure a quart of the milk of human kindness, has been more successful in getting a little jam out of the door. She got the jam on her fingers

- "You get drunk every morning," said one drunkard to another. You are wrong; I drink, too, but only when my business is done." "O," answered the latter, "if 1 get drunk in the morning, my business is done for the day."

- A lady told her servant to wake her next. morning at six, as she had something important to do at that early hour. "Certainly, madam; I won't fail. You have only to ring the bell, and I'll be down in a minute."

- It is a singular fact that ladies who know how to preserve everything else, can't preserve their tempers. Yet it may easily be done on the self-sealing principle. It is only to keep
