A Colored Man's Speech.

Part of a Speech delivered at Carrollton Miss., in May, 1868, by Henry Boyd coloned, on the subject of the adoption or rejection of the Scalawag Constitution, disfranchising twenty thousand of the most intelligent citizens of the State, which Con-

have not the capacity to instruct white people as to their duries, even if I had the will.— I was a slave from my birth-I always endeavored to serve my master faithfully according to that letter of the Bible which reads : "Servants, be obedient unto your masters; for this is right;" and I can lay my hand upon my heart to day and say, before God, that I entertain no ill will toward any white man on earth, and least of all toward my old master and his sons, whom I loved as my own brothers, and with whom I played in boyhood. In all our neighborhood romps and frolics and fights (for boys will fight,) they stood at my back, as I did theirs, whenever, it came to the pinch; has been snubbed in his aspirations for office [laughter.] and, thank God I will do so yet, by his party friends, and "L." professes to bear no "malice" towards Judge Chapline, [laughter,] and, thank God I will do so yet, me, whether the oppression comes from the Yankees, or from wherever else it may .-Whenever it comes to my making choice between white men, I shall prefer those of mine. own section to all the carpet-baggers in the world, [Laughter and applause.] There ain't very much difference between white light before the public so far as any reference men and Yankees-[laughter,] and whenever has been made to the official conduct of Judge man's favor. White folks are all cut pretty much out of the same cloth, and both sections have made their love for the niggers subserve their own interests, as all men are selfish by nature and can't help it, and I can't blame

how felt that my freedom was going to come out of it some way or other, and, as I am, perhaps, as selfish as a white man, I tell you I didn't-well, I didn't cry much at the prospeet. Well, when the first company left my county for "old Virginia," to fight the Yankees. I enlisted with the balance of them, and went along as first cook and head waiter for one of my young masters. I had a pretty good time, too, for while the white folks were out fighting and watching and suffering and dying, I was laying back with the meat and bread wagons. [Laughter | I felt for once in my life, it was a pretty good thing to be a nigger after all, for the white man wouldn't JOHN G. RIDENOUR has this day withdrawn from the firm of Hough, Ridenour & Langdon, let me fight alongside of him, and, after I heard the first shell go off, God knows I wasn't The business will hereafter be conducted under very anxious to do it either. [Renewed laughter. | I know if I had been along on the Yankee side I wouldn't have had such an easy time, for as selfish as the Yankee is, he We, the undersigned, would return our thanks to never objected to getting somebody to do his our old friends for the very liberal patronage ex-tended to us in the past, and would assure them fighting for him whenever he could. Not he. [Loud laughter:] Some folks say he was that in the future, every effort that fidelity and promptness can dictate, shall be made to promote willing enough to let the South do it all during Our My. Langdon's long experience as a practical the Mexican war. [Applause.] HOUGH & LANGDON, Nath'i R. Langdon. 124 South Eutaw Street.

When the late war broke out, I am free to

I used to be right smartly amused hearing the white folks talk. My young master came in one flight after a battle, and says he, "Henry, we've just had a big six hours' fight. We whipped the d-d Yankees like suroke and drove them thirty-six miles." Thinks I to myself, "Humph! pretty good driving—all in six hours, too!" But a heap of people think the nigger is a fool.

Well, I sorter thought maybe, the Yankees were really fighting to free the niggers. But they did not keep the wool over my eyes long. I watched 'em mighty close. One day the news came into camp that Mr. Lincoln had done issued his proclamation, saying that if Mr. Davis would lay down his arms and come back into the Union and go to paying tariff again the Southern people might have their niggers! Thinks I, humph! Mighty poor chance to get any freedom from you, Mr. Lincoln. [Laughter.] I tell what I had the blues so bad I was almost black. [Laughter.] I think in two weeks I must have fell off twenty pounds. I was so 'fraid Mr. Davis was going to do it I couldn't sleep. But byand-by the good word came that Mr. Davis said "he'd be d-d if he'd do any such thing. I ain't fighting for the niggers. Let the niggers go. I'm after my own freedom first before anything else in the world." I tell you my heart jumped right up in my mouth, Thinks I, bully for Jeff. Davis !-He's my man! Ah, my friends, if the Yankees had been in Mr. Davis' place, you'd a been in the cotton patch to day, with the whip after you, instead of sitting up here in this court house hearing me speak. [Laughter.] But don't you see the difference between the Southern man and the Northern man. The Northern man never missed the chance of taking care of the dimes first. And the carnet-baggers come here and tell us they are our friends, and the Southern people our enemies. They tell us they set us free. Oh, yes, they've done it all no doubt. They set us free about like they set the mules free; about like Ben Butler set the spoons free. [Immense laughter and applause.]-They done it all to help the Yankee, and to injure the Southeran man. They can't fool this nigger. I know who brought the nigger to this country, in the first place the Northern man brought us here, and when they began to lose money on the nigger they put the nigger in their pocket : sold him down South. and then, to keep the South in the Union to make her pay taxes, they turn around and set the nigger and the mule and the spoons free; and they wouldn't have set anything free (excepting spoons) if they could have got the South back into the Union without it.

They promise him the "forty acres and the I know five niggers that starved plum to deth waiting for that mule and that forty acres. [Laughter.] I'd like to know where the carpet-bagger got his forty acres? You all remember the devil took the Lord up in high mountain, and promised if he'd fall down and serve him, he'd give him the whole world, and the old scoundrel knew all the tim

he didn't own a foot of land on the continent. ask me to cast my vote

The carpet-baggers ask me to cast my vote to keep the white folks down. Now all I ever wanted was to get on a level with the white man. I never wanted to get above him.—

They say a nigger is better than white man in Cincinnatti. Well, that may be the truth in Concinnatti. Well, that may be the fruth in Concinnatti. But it ain't true down here.— It is my interest to stand by the Southern man, and it's my wish, too. Whatever law is made to effect the white man's plantation, also effects my little cotton patch in the same way. The three cent tax on cotton hurts me worse than it dose the white man. But it puts money in the Yankee's pooket.

They want to disfranchise the white man and make the nigger put them into office, stitution was voted down by the colored vote in June, 1868.

that they may have taxes and things their own way. They never would have passed a law allowing niggers to vote if they hadn't thought the niggers would vote the Republito-day in your interest alone. The white man is able to take care of himself; and as you lieves otherwise? Not this nigger, certain can all see, I have not one drop of white blood in my veins [laughter.] I am a regular, Africa for selfish purposes, and now they want old-fashioned, plain, corn field nigger, and to vote him for selfish purposes.

[For the Spirit of Jefferson. Judge Chapline.

Editors of the Spirit :- When extremes are associated for a common purpose, startling events may reasonably be expected. That your correspondent, "L.," should have become in anything the condjutor of Edmund Chambers, will daturally cause surprise, and the enquiry will as naturally arise, for what purpose such an association has been formed and eulogizes Edmund Chambers and his patriotic efforts to serve his country, by preferring charges against an upright, able and impartial judge. Now, mark how plain a tale shall put them down," and place the impeachers and the impeached in the proper Chapline. With the action of the Board of Registration we have nothing to do, and nothing to say; the people bave rendered their verdict in that case. But we know that much injustice has been done to Judge Chapline by Edmund Chambers and his coadjutor, "L.,"-we hope and believe without any such design, because we know them to be just and acknowledge I was mighty glad of it. I some- honorable men, who would inflict no injury on any one, or do any act of injustice know-

We reiterate the assertion made in a former communication, that Judge Chapline received no information from any member of the Grand Jury that it was engaged in an investigation of the acts of the Board of Registration, nor an intimation of that fact from any quarter. If this proposition be estabished, the entire superstructure of charges thus preferred against him falls to the ground, and honorable men, like Edmund Chambers and your correspondent "I.," will award to him even-handed justice, by a retraction as publicly made as have been the charges .-Their entire reliance, that Judge Chapline was informed of the fact, is based on the article marked A., which, it is said, cmanated from Mr. Joseph Welshans, foreman of the Grand Jury. What does Mr. Welshans sav in explanation of exhibit A. He affirms that he did not mean to impute any wrong, nor even impropriety to Judge Chapline by any thing contained therein, and that he does not know that Judge Chapline heard him make the statement contained in the concluding paragraph. The published statement of Messrs. Holmes, Spangler and Sponseller is restricted to the evidence taken before the Grand Jury. Mr. B. F. Harrison, a member of the Grand Jury, states that Judge Chapline asked the Grand Jury if they had any response in the negative he discharged them, as he was bound to do. .. The acting Deputy Sheriff states that twice before the Grand Jury was discharged, he was requested by them to report to the Court that they had finished their business, and desired to be discharged. These are incoutrovertable facts, which a suit recently instituted will develop on its trial. With the actings, and doings of the Board of Registration Judge Chapline has nothing to do. He studiously kept aloof from the place where their session was held, and was at no time present during the whole period, and he distinctly charged that Grand Jury, as he has done all others in his circuit, to investigate the acts of the Board of Registration, and to indict them if they violated or overstepped the law in any particular. We have scrutinized the official conduct of Judge Chapline closely since he was elected to the Bench, and we but reiterate the universal testimony of the bar, suitors in Court, and of every spectator, that in all things he has been sternly impartial, and that his official career has been free from every taint or suspicion of partizanship. The public verdict will be, and now is, that his escutcheon as a Judge is without spot or blemish, and that he is free of the charge which has been preferred against him, further business before them, and on their

and that the evidence, when rendered in Court, will acquit him beyond all controversy. "ONE WHO KNOWS." P. S. Since the foregoing was written, Mr. Flud Turner, a member, states that the Grand Jury, twice before their discharge, sent the Deputy Sheriff to Judge Chapline to inform him that their business was finishedand before their discharge, Judge Chapline distinctly asked the Grand Jury whether any business was before it, and a large number of the Grand Jurors, himself among the number, announced to the Judge "they had no further business before them "

ENFORCEMENT OF THE 15TH AMENDMENT.

The crowning deed of tyranny and infamy of the Congress of the United States, in the series of legislative acts tending to the elevation of the negro above the white race, has in the past week been achieved. Under pretext of a necessity for further legislation to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment, a bill has been passed which strikes down every vestige of the little power remaining to the States over the subject of the elective franchise, and opens and establishes the way to direct Congressional interference with the management of their local government.

This bill of abominations we cannot now analyse. We hope to do so in a future issue. Suffice it to say that it goes a bow-shot beyond any of the usurpations heretofore attempted by Congress. If this measure, when it comes to be fully understood by the people, does not arouse them to a sense of the necessity of hurling from power a party that could deliberately plan, and that evidently intends, if permitted, to execute its most obnoxious provisions, then is all hope of a preservation of even a semblance of our former institutions, gone.

POLITICS IN MARYLAND.

Postmaster General Cresswell, says the Philadelphia Age, has been selected to lead the coming campaign in Maryland, and marshal and make effective the negro votes. As a perliminary step to their undertaking, money is to be raised, and all office holders under the Federal government, hailing from Maryland, are assessed one and one-half per cent. per month, on salaries from $500 to $2,-000, and two per cent. per month, on salaries exceeding the latter sum. Those who object are allowed to resign, and more loyal persons placed in their pasitions. By money and negroes, the only remaining allies of the Radical party, it is expected that Maryland can be carried for that faction. This is a mistake. Maryland can be reached by no such agencies. The white men of that State, have the reins of power and authority in their | and Exchange Bank vs. Knox and others, on hands, and mean to retain hold thereof. At the last election in that State not a Radical was chosen to any position in the gift of the people. All were repudiated, cast out as unclean. And that, too, on a noll when sixty thousand white men did not think it necessary to take part in a contest so manifestly and confessedly one-sided. Now, however, when the negro is marched into the field under the lead of the Radical party to interfere with the rights of white men, not a man will be absent from the polls, and the State will be swept by a more decided majority than on the former occasion. Mr. Creswell may pocket the money of his clerks, but he cannot place Maryland under the control of negroes.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION.

The general result of the Virginia municipal elections, so far as we have returns, is in favor of the Conservatives, except in Portsmouth, where the employees of the Gosport Navy Yard gave a heavy Radical majority, and in Petersburg, Manchester and Richmond, where an unusual number of blacks are congregated. The Richmond election is still somewhat in doubt, as frauds have been discovered which, when corrected, may give Ellyson a legitimate majority.

For the Spirit of Jefferson.1 A LIEPTURE FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, May 26, 1870. Dear Spirit :- The election is progressing quietly in this city with every prospect of a Conservative triumph. The candidates on the Conservative ticket are old, well-known, and popular citizens, whose competency and honesty have been tested in positions of re-sponsibility often heretofore. The Radical candidates are none of them natives of the State but two-Mills and Chahoon. The latter is a native of Montgomery county, as is said, but has resided in the North, and was an officervin the Federal army. Strange to say, not a single colored man has been placed upon the Radical ticket, although their vote is relied upon almost exclusively to carry the elecion. This omission was commented on very significantly by a colored speaker at the mass meeting in the Capitol square last evening.— The same is the case in Petersburg, and throughout the State generally. The colored voter is expected to elect interlopers over native Virginians, but is by no means thought worthy of participating in the speils of office. The street-corners here are thronged with voters, mostly of the colored persuasion; ele tion days are supposed to have added con-siderably to the already large number of regular and recognized holidays. In regard to the progress of the two races in Virginia. I may call your attention to the remarkable report of the health-officers of this city, for the week ending on Saturday last, by which t appears that out of twenty-two deaths among adults, only four occurred among the white, and the remaining eighteen among the black residents of the city. This mortality, and the emigration Southward on the part of the blacks would seem to point to the wisdom of the policy persued by the late Senator Bland, and endorsed by delegate Hunter, last night—that of affiliating with the Conservative, rather than with the Radical party,

If the Conservatives should be defeated his city-which is not at all likely-the result will be attributable to the impolitic step which the party adopted in having a primary election on last Thursday to decide between the candidates for nominations to the various offices. This was a serious blunder, in asmuch as it caused disaffection on the part of the defeated candidates for nomination. Another strong objection to such primary elections is that the people are withdrawn from their business avocations twice, instead of once only, at each election. I hope this may be the last experiment of the sort in Virginia. The Court of Appeals is still in session .-Hon. Richard Merrick, of Washington, made a brilliant forensic effort on Thursday last, in an important railroad suit now pending. heard Judge Christian compliment his speech in very high terms. The same Judge, on Yesterday, delivered the opinion of the Court in the cases of Farmers' Bank vs. Anderson, appeal from the Circuit Court of Richmond notes of the Bank acquired by the debtor after notice of the assignment of the assets of the Bank to trustees for the benefit of its creditors, can not be paid at their par value in discharge of debts due the Bank by such debtor. Mr. Bocock is lying at the Exchange Hotel, and, under the attention of Dr. Maguire, is improving with every prospect of recovery, without the loss of his fractured leg. All of these gentlemen were injured in the great catastrophe. I visited the Capitol and looked in upon the desolated and abandoned chamber of the House of Delegates. The rubbish has been removed, but no other steps taken to repair the ruin. The main building is as secure and firm as ever, and nothing caused the disaster but a very unskilful supplement to the original design of the building. A consequence of the catastrophe is that the congregation of St. Paul's church insist uponpillars under the galleries in that beautiful edifice, and the vestry have wisely yielded the point. St. Paul's is the largest, and most fashionable church in the city, and its galleries are now supported by iron chains, somewhat on the principle of the wire suspension bridge, and have hitherto been regarded as perfectly safe. A Richmond congregation may now be regarded as having galleries on the brain; which is far better, however, than having them on the head. The crops between this and Culpeper, and Lynchburg, are looking moderately well for this section, but do not compare with those of the Valley. The tobacco-tax, amounting to over $3,000, 000 in ten months, arrests and prevents that presperity which the monopoly of production of that staple would otherwise insure to Southside Virginia. At the very moment when the Yankees are asking for increased protection in the tariff, and subsidies for New Eng-

DESTRUCTIVE RAIN AND HAIL STORM. From a private letter to a gentleman of Staunton, we learn that the Northwestern portion of the county, between Moscow and Mt. Sheetz's paper mill seriously damaged; a planing machine weighing 900 pounds carried a quarter of a mile; Robt. Arrest of Gen. O'Neill, &c. For the past few days the city papers have een filled with accounts of Fenians mov towards the Canadian frontier, until on Wednesday last, when a little fighting took place. On Tuesday President Grant issued a proclamation, stating that sundry illegal military enterprises and expeditions are being set on foot in this country against the Government and people of the Dominion of Canada. He warns all good citizens of the United States against aiding, abetting, or countenancing the same, and notifies those who take part in such movements, that by so doing they forfeit all right to the protection of the Government of the United States, or to its interference in their behalf. United States to exert themselves to prevent and defeat these unlawful proceedings, and to arrest and bring the offenders to justice. From our exchanges we make up the following dispatches:-

It is reportted that one of the Fenians was killed and Captain Cronan wounded in the thigh. The skirmish was witnessed by a number of citizens. United States Marshal Foster and Deputy Marshal Falley took a commanding position part of the way up the hill, and ve a under fire all the time. The Canadian troops in the engagement yesterday were under command of Captain Asa Westover. They were an independent company of militia, and did not, according to the most reliable report, number more than 60 or 70 men. They were shortly after reinforced, but now there are few, if any, at the scene of the engagement. A report has been received that Beneral Donnelly is more badly wounded that was at first supposed, and fears are entertained that he cannot live, as a high fever has sel in .-

Money is paid into the treasury more freely nowthan at the opening of the campaign. Daily hulletins are issued appealing to Irishmen to sustain their friends and denying the press reports. The headquarters have been crowded all day.

ST. ALBANS, May 27 .- General Spear and Fenian Generals Gleason and Prim, who arrived this morning, have, with other lesser lights in the Fenian Brotherhood, been in close consultation over the situation, and the consultation culminated in the issuing of an order by General Spear, ordering the men to go into encampment two or three miles from here.

One or two hundred have obeyed the order or at least have left the village. So near as can be ascertained. General Spear awaits men to return to the Franklin line, as their presence there would necessarily draw a portion of the Canada troops from Huntingdon back to that point. Many of the men express an earnest desire to go to Malone, and would have done so last evening, or this morning, if they had had money enough to pay for their transportation.

TORONTO, May 27 .- The movement at Huntingdon began at five this morning. The Fenians constructed breastworks of rails across the field on the north bank of Trout river. At half-past eight the Canadian troops came up and opened fire. The Fenians fired a few shots and took to their beels. They were pursued to the boundary line, where their officers, displaying revolvers, attempted to force them into line, but it was fruitless. There was not a single casualty on the Canadian side. The Fenians left some wounded and one killed on the field. The United States troops are advancing from Malone.

TORONTO, May 27 .- Matters in the neighborhood of Huntingden this morning are assuming a good deal of interest General Gleason is in command of the Fenians, who are well armed. The Canadian forces are assembling, and active preparations are going on for a fight. Troops have also been ordered back to Pigeon Hill in anticipation of further trouble there. A small force of Fenians has also appeared at Island Pond. All is quiet on the Niagra and Detroit frontiers.

OGDENSBURGH, May 27 .- The Fenians here are active and confident. The regular troops are mostly Irishmen and Fenian symnathysers, and if brought to confront the Fenians it is doubtful if they can be handled by their officers.

TORONTO, May 27. Detailed accounts from Trout river all agree that the rout of the Fenians this morning was complete. The firing had hardly commenced, when all took to their heels in wild confusion, and got across the border as fast as possible.

Large numbers of them have arrived at Malone, and such as have means to get back to their homes are getting away. Not a man of the Canadian forces was wounded. The Fen an loss is not, as yet, correctly ascertained. Few prisoners were eaptured, and few are known to have been

ST. ALBANS, May 27 .- It turns out that the Fenians who lett here this forenoon only proceeded north about two and a-half miles, where it was expected a council was to be held. The council was merely a discussion of the situation by the men themselves. General Spear was near the main body, and read to various little squads that gathered about his carriage the favorable telegrams he had received from the fight near Malone .-His object was to convince the Fenians that they ought to go to the aid of their comrades at that point; but they were not easily convinced. They condemned the management of General O'Neill in emphatic terms, and said they had but little faith in the other leaders. A large enthusiastic crowd gathered at the depot this evening to witness the arrival of Generals Meade, McDowell, Hunt, Van Vliet and Ingalls. These officers were immediately driven to the Welden House, where they have head quarters. - Quite a number of telegrams from Washington, Malone and other points were handed to General Meade as he stepped from the cars. NEW YORK May 27 .- The Fenians in this city appeared not at all depressed by the contradictory accounts of the retreat of the forces under General Gleason. The reports are regarded as fabrications, and many say that Brittish gold has been extensively employed to secure this result. The rumored resignation of General Gleason has caused general satisfaction, as no confidence was placed in his ability as a commander. Enlistments have been going on steadily all day, and the only thing wanting is money to transport the volunteers to the front.

Six hundred men left by the Hudson River Railroad to-night, nearly all of whom paid their own way.

NEW YORK, May 27 .- The World's special from Toronto, to-day, says:

This morning at five o'clock the Sixty-ninth Regulars, the volunteer garrison of Montreal and the Huntington battalion, all under command of Colonel Bagot, advanced on the Trout river lines, where the Fenians had made breast works of rails leading across a field on the north bank of the river. At 8:30 Bagot ordered the Huntington volunteers to deploy

The Sixty-ninth was ordered to advance along the road, the artillery to cross the river and go up the south bank. These movements were performed at once, and the whole line opened fire. The Fenians fled at once, not fireing over twenty shots. The Canadians followed, firing as they went, until they reached the boundary line, when they stopped. The Fenian officers tried to reform their men on recrossing the line, using swords and revolvers, but in vain.

No Canadians were hurt, and the Fenians had only a few wounded. One man is said to have been killed, and one taken prisoner .-The Fenians numbered from 1.500 to 2,000, their country to hurry to the front.

The Fenian headquarters are almost entirely deserted, all the prominent min having Arthur, who created enthusiasm by marching sale by

He claims that he has had a large quantity. He came into town this forenoon, but, on learning that all the leaders were being arrested, beat a hasty retreat to parts unknown.

Deputy Marshal Failey has been at Franklin for two or three days gathering arms and ammunition. He collected a large quantity.

General Foster has determined that all who helped themselves to arms shall turn them over to the United States authorities.

Nearly all the Fenians have left for their homes. As the time for the departure of the Southern train to night drew near, they gathered in force at the depot, and in spite of all the milroad managers could do they all contrived to get aboard the cars without tickets. After a consultation it was decided to take them along, and the citizens feel greatly relieved at their departure.

Sr. ALBANS, May 28 .- Gen. O'Neil. who feels strongly the imputation of treachery against him, will probably be released on bail, Monday. A wealthy Fenian named Flynn, has consented to become surety.

MALONE, May 28 .- The Fenian' invasion is abandoned as hopeless. The men are almost famished, and but for the charity of Malone would be starving. The prominent officers of the Fenian Brotherhood have agreed to discountenance further hostile movements on the American Continent, and nearly all the men here say they will never have anything more to do with Fenianism and will use their influence against it. General Mende having refused the transportation, the Selectmen of Malone will bend the citizens for $4,000 to pay the fare of Fenians back to Rome. / CONCORD, May 29 .- Seven car loads of Fenians passed here this morning on their

Shaking and Burning. It is not necessary to journey from the tropics to Alaska in order to experience the extremes of heat and cold. EDITORIAL SHOOTING AFFRAY. - For some time past the Martinsburg papers have been engaged in pretty sharp controversies, which has at length culminated in a shooting affray, in which D. Smith Eichelberger, editor of the Star, was shot in the arm by Logan, of the New Era. The following account we take from the Free Press :-

We are informed that Mr. Eichelberger was standing near the Court-House steps at a moment when Mr. Logan came from the Court-toem-the Litter tematking, "Stop! You cannot speck by we in that way ; -you. mus fight." Whereupen pistols were drawn and fired. It is not definitely determined who fired the first shot. Eichelberger's pistol was discharged once and snapped twice - mis sing the Editor of the Era, but wounding a horse. Mr. Legau fired three times, the last shot taking effect in the right arm of the Editor of the Nor, at the wrist, passing around the bone and going out hear the elbow. We understand that Mr. Eichelberger, with perfect self-posse-sion, held up the wounded arm and said, "I am wounded, but bung away !" Decided pluck was evinced by both parties

AN OLD CITIZEN REVISITS CHARLES-TOWN .- During the past week our town has been visited by Mr. Henry Crow, who left this place and moved to Ohio thirty eight years ago. Mr. C. is now seven'y-three years of age, and this is his first visit to the place of his nativity since his emigration to the West .-Thirty-eight years! How many sad changes have taken place in that time. Many old and cherished landmarks have faded away, and been numbered with the things of the past. Familiar faces and forms have disappeared, and friends and kindred have been laid in the cold damp grave, never to be met again on earth. But such is life; this is a world of changes, and as it changes we must go with it.

OUR TURNPIKE .- The Board of Directors of the Kabletown and Bloomery Turppike Company, at their meeting on Saturday last, awarded the contract for the making of the entire length of their road to Messrs. "-Believe from the evidence before us that the child is the child of Fanny Jones. [colored,] and came to its death by violence.'

SOLDIERS' MONUMENT. - As will be seen from the proceedings of the meeting held on Tuesday last, the Ladies propose giving a Collation on Memorial day, the proceeds to be applied to the fund already in hand for the Art Journals recently. From a private letter which we have received from New York, we take the following closing extract:

The tournament passed off most success although the weather and great distance of the grounds, with difficulty of reaching the scene, operated very seriously against us.— The riding could not have been better, particularly on the first day, when the track had not been made alippery as on Tuesday—by the heavy rain. You are aware, of course, that your town had the honor of furnishin rictor at the first tournament. Eddie Gallaher was the fortunate "Knight of Shanondale," and carried off the first prize, on Saturday. The contest was close and exciting, as well as brilliant. Dr. O. A. Fox, of Fairfax, was the successful Knight on Tuesday and became the owner of a very valuable horse, as did the "Knight of Shannondale," on Saturday.

The following we take from the press dis-

NEW YORK, May 24 .- At the second day of the Grand Tournament at Prospect Park Fair Grounds there was a large attendance, including many ladies. At three o'clock the Knights Horace Bailey, of Virginia; A Brock-enborough, of District of Columbia; Dr. C. A. Fox, of Virginia; Edward Gallaher, of Virginia; W. A. Jarboe, of Maryland; C. R. McBlair, of District of Columbia; W. G. triet of Columbia; R. H. Marshall, of Maryland; S. P. Maury, of New York: J. W. Walsh, of District of Columbia; W. P. Cally, of District of Columbia, made a grand parade, after which Mayor Kalbfleisch, of Brooklyn, introduced Col. A. H. Dawson, of Georgia, who delivered a charge to the knights and congratulated them on the skill displayed at the previous tournament. The tilting then ommenced. Dr. C. A. Fox, as a Knight of the Old Dominion, won the first prize ; Horace Bailey, as Knight of Virginia, the second; James W. Walsh, of the District of Columbia, as Knight of the Black Pulme, the third; R. H. Marshall, as Knight of Maryland, the fourth. The first prize was a beautiful black horse, the second a diamond set, lady's watch and chain, the third a lady's watch, the fourth moss agate sleeve buttons.

'The best horsemanship ever witnessed in this section was displayed by J. N. Gallaher, of Virginia, who, notwithstanding the bad and unmanageable horse he rode, succeeded in one of the runs in taking the ring from the left side of the horse instead of the right. In consequence of the bad shying of his horse city, S. Price Maury was sick, and refused to ride. Shortly after the sport commenced the rain poured down, putting an end to the pleasure. The track became muddy and heavy; and prevented the knights making as good time as they did on Saturday.

After the tilting the knights, members of the Association and invited guests, assembled in the Club House, where the following ladies were selected as Queens: Edward Gallaher selected Miss Belle Robinson as first Queen; Dr. C. A. Fox Miss F. Barker as second. -The following were selected as maids of honor: Miss Philbeck by Horace Bailey, Miss Kalbeisch by R. H. Hereford, first maids; Miss an Brunt by W. Walsh, Miss Spinner aughter of the United States Treasurer, by . J. Harrison; Miss M. Snidecker by R. H. Marshall, Miss Cushan by Horace Bailey .-Horace Bailey having won an honor each day, ransferred one to his brother Henry.

Mr. Stone, of the Journal of Commerce, then addressed the knights, queens and maids. During the speech he congramlated the knights on the success they had achieved, and implored those who had power to use it meritully on their faithful subjects. He said the same hearts beat North and South, and he and all present woud gladly take all their Southern brethren to their hearts, for they all loved them; after which there was a grand ball at the Club House, at which the knights and others were present.

Koskoo.-This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonials of its virtues, given by practitioners of medicine, leaves no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for IM-PURITY OF THE BLOOD, LIVER DISEASE, &C. The last Medical Journal contains an article from Prof. R. S. Newton, M. D., President of the E. Medical College, city of New York, that speaks in high terms of its curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Roskoo to the practitioners of medicine .-This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicines have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges and reflects great credit upon the skill of Dr. Lawrence, its compounder, and also puts "Koskoo" in the VAN of all other medicines of the present day.

- John W. Garrett, President of the Balimore and Ohio Railroad, addressed the members of the Chicago Board of Trade on Thurs day in regard to the construction of an air-line railroad between that city and Pittsburg, passing through Akron and Tiffin, Ohio, At Pittsburg it will connect with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Mr. Garrett claims that the opening of this new route will bring Chicago over one hundred miles nearer to a seaport than at present and with the aid of steamship lines from Baltimore to West Indian and European ports will give quicker and cheaper facilities for export than now.

A Hard Story.

A Philadelphia paper says: There is a doctor in the northwestern part of this consolidated city who is especially remarkable for being, as the women term it, "short and

A week or two since he was called to visit a patient who was laboring under a severe attack of cheap whiskey. "Well, doctor, I'm down you see -comoletely floored. I have got the tremendelirium, you know!" "Tremens, you fool! Where'd you get your rum ?"

"All over in spots; broke out promiscuously, dector !" "Served you right."

"Father died of the same disease; it took him under the short ribs and carried him off

"Well you have got to take something immediately." "You are a trump, Doc! Here; wife, I'll take a nip of old rye" "Lie still, you blockhead! Mrs. B. if your husband should get worse before I return, which will be in an hour, give him a dose of that trunk strap; may be that will fetch him to a sense of his fally."

The doctor sallied out grandly, and within an hour sallied in again, and found his friend of the "tremendous delirium" in a terrible condition, writhing and struggling with pain. His wife, a female of the kind, but ignorant school, came up, and laying her hand on the doctor's arm, said : "Dector I gave him the strap, as you di-

"Did you thrash him well?" "Thrash him?" exclaimed the astonished woman, "no but I put the strap into hash and made him swallow it !" "Oh, Lord, doctor !" roared the victim, "I swallowed the leather, but-but-"

"But-what?"
"I swallowed the whole strap, but I'm darned if I could go the buckle!" The doctor administered two bread pills and evaporated.

Census.

The census taker may soon be looked for. In order to facilitate his work, it is suggested that the following questions be published in advance:

How old are you? Where were you born, and when, and were you present on the occasion of your birth? Were you ever elected Inspector of Elections? What was your majority, and what did it cost you? Are you a married person, and how do you like the institution? Have you any children, how many, and what is a certain remedy for snuffles? Do you grow any corn, if so, how much do you waste in making bread? What's your opinion of Lager Beer ?-

How many glasses can you drink, and with what effect? What is your opinion of oats-a very popular provender for men and beasts? What is the cash value of a one dollar

Were your father and mother both white Can you stand on your head, and how long? If a good while, how much longer if necessary? If an acre of ground will yield one hundred bushels of ruta bagas; how many glasses of lager will it take to require a man to draw a bee line? If your family eats a ham in three days, how long will it take them to cat a couple of hammers?

Can you lend me five dollars? A FISH STORY .- We met a boy on the streets yesterday, and without the ceremony of asking our name, he exclaimed : "You just orter been down to the river a while ago !"

"Why ?" we enquired. "Because, a nigger was in there swimming and a big cat fish came up behind him and swallowed both his feet and went swimming along on top of the water with him, and they came up behind another big fish, and the nigger swallowed his tail, and the nigger and the two fish went swimming about."

"Well, then what?" we asked. "Why, after a while the nigger swallowed his fish, and the other fish swallowed the nigger, and that's the last I saw of either of

"Sonny," said we, with feelings of alarm for the boy "you are in a fair way to become the editor of a Radical paper," and left him. [Knoxville Press and Herald.

A MINISTER AND A LAWYER .- As a minister and a lawyer were riding together, said the minister :

"Sir, do you ever make mistakes when you are pleading?" 'I do," said the lawyer.

"And what do you do with your mistakes?" inquired the minister. "Why, sir, if large ones I mend them; if small ones, I let them go," said the lawyer. "And pray, sir," continued he, "do you ever make mistakes in preaching?"

"Yes, sir, I have." "And what do you do with the mistakes?" "Why, sir, I dispose of them in the same manner as you do-I rectify the large and pass the small ones." Not long since, continued he, "as I was preaching, I meant to observe that the devil was the father of all liars, and made a mistake and said the father of lawyers. The mistake was so unimportant. "I let it go."

PREPARATION OF COMPOUND

EXTRACT BUCHU.

The component parts are BUCHU, LONG LEAF, CUBERS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

MODE OF PREPARATION.

portion of spirit. It is more palatable than any now in use.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopma, nor is it a Surup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exist. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation. Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that with a feeling of confidence,
