Young Ladies' Seminary.
MISS NICHOLSON and Miss HENRY will conduct a select Seminary for young ladies. The course of literature pursued, is the one adopted in some of the best institutions in the United States. The plan of instruction is the result of much experience and study, and is suited to the taste of the present enlightened and inquiring age. Miss Nicholson has long been engaged in the important business of teaching, and has testimonials from gentlemen of high standing. Parents are invited to call and examine the course of tuition comprehending the elementary and higher branches of education; embracing geography, use of globes, construction of maps, grammar, composition, rhetoric, ancient and modern history, moral and natural philosophy, penmanship, botany in connection with drawing and painting; Latin, French, and music. Miss Nicholson designs giving lessons in music to ladies, who are not connected with the seminary, and solicits patronage.
The school is now open for the reception of pupils. There will be two sessions in the year, of five months and a half each.
Terms from $5 to $14, per session; Music, $12 for 30 lessons.

A CARD.
Dr. Francis J. McNeill.
HAVING retired from the drug and medicine business, has the pleasure of most respectfully tendering his services to the citizens of Shepherdstown and its vicinity, in the practice of Medicine in all its various branches. He may be found at all times, except when professionally engaged, in his office in the basement story of his property opposite Daniel Edler's tavern.
Shepherdstown, March 20, 1834.—8t.

NOTICE.
Dr. William R. Raum.
TAKES the liberty of informing his friends and the public, that he has removed to his property, lately occupied by Thomas A. Moore, Esq. on Main-Street, two doors west of the corner, and is now open for the reception of patients.
George Esler's saddlers-shop, where he may at all times be consulted, unless when engaged in professional duties.
Charlestown, March 27, 1834.

Doctor James Garry.
RESPECTFULLY offers his professional services to the citizens of Harpers Ferry and its vicinity.
DR. GARRY, after having received a thorough scientific, classical, and literary education in Europe, studied Medicine and Surgery under the direction of NATHAN R. SMITH, the distinguished Professor of Surgery in the University of Maryland, with whom he had the best opportunities of seeing disease in its various forms, in private practice, and at the Baltimore Infirmary, Almshouse, &c., and its skillful treatment. Dr. G. now, after several years successful practice of his profession, feels confident that he will give every satisfaction to those who may favour him with their patronage. He may be found, when not professionally engaged, at Mr. Fitzsimons' Globe Inn, or at his office nearly opposite.
April 3, 1834.

REMOVAL.
THE undersigned, having moved to the house lately occupied by Mrs. John Reed, opposite Mr. Woods', respectfully informs the Ladies of Charlestown and the neighborhood, that she will continue to serve them as a Milliner and Mantua-Maker. She solicits their custom, and will endeavor to please all who may think proper to patronize her.
L. M. KERCHVAL.
Charlestown, April 19, 1834.

REMOVAL.
THE undersigned, having moved to the house lately occupied by Mrs. Craig-hill, where he hopes, by strict attention to those committed to his charge, to merit a continuance of the patronage, which has been so kindly bestowed upon him.
A few Boarding Pupils could be accommodated in addition, and subject to his supervision at all times.

April 10, 1834.

FARMERS, MILLERS, MERCHANTS, AND TRADERS GENERALLY.
THE undersigned, having made arrangements for running a regular line of FREIGHT BOATS
Upon the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, respectfully invite public attention to the subject. They have a Ware-House near the Old Furnace, (at the head of the dam,) one mile above Harpers-Ferry—on the Point of rocks, and another near the latter of a few doors West of Francis Dodge's. The design of this arrangement is to transport to order, or receive for sale, on commission, all sorts of PRODUCE which the trade of the surrounding country may require, and this shall be done on such terms and conditions as to prove advantageous to the people of the upper country. PRODUCE will be received at any point of the Canal, where it can be taken into the boats.
One of the concerns will be constantly in Georgetown—the other at the Old Furnace, or Point of Rocks. Those who may entrust their affairs in this line to the management of this firm, may rely upon a prompt attention and upon every possible exertion to promote their interest.
The Boats are now ready; and one of them, the Major Jack Dawson, is of the largest class which can move upon the Canal, and will have a good cabin, and berths for those who may wish to accompany their produce to market.
The undersigned feel some confidence that this arrangement will be productive of public benefit—and they shall feel grateful to such of their friends as will make an experiment with them.

THE YOUNG POET.
BY OTWAY BOST.
No titled birth had he to boast,
Son of the desert, fortune's ebbs
Yet not by browsing fortune fees—
The muses on his cradle smiled.
(Dedicated.)
The tone of his wild harp had beguiled
The sorrow that brooded in his eye,
And the spirit that brooded in his song was wild
Yet the peace, warm sunshine of feeling, drew
Its halo upon him, when life was new;
And, fairer than Eden's first morning bloom,
It illumined his pathway through years of gloom.
The bright spell of beauty that light hearts wear,
In the dream of childhood's hours,
Went fading when youth came on,
Yet the pure, warm sunshine of feeling, drew
Its halo upon him, when life was new;
And, fairer than Eden's first morning bloom,
It illumined his pathway through years of gloom.
To the garden of life above,
In the strange, bright realm of poetry,
Through the depths of fancy's untried way,
Where the children of fancy are wont to stray,
Where the stars of genius forever shine,
Wrote the stars of genius forever shine.

MISCELLANEOUS.
FABLES BY J. K. PAULDING.
The drop of water, the brook, the river, and the ocean.
A drop of water that sparkled like a jewel in the sun, once fell from the clouds into a little mountain stream, and ere it lost its identity, exclaimed in all the anguish of disolution, "Alas what a catastrophe—I am swallowed up in immensity!" The little stream laughed, as it leaped down the mountain side, at the lamentation of such an insignificant thing as a drop of water, and, vain of its consequence, continued braving its crystal way in all the pride of conscious superiority, until at length, with a sudden plunge, it fell headlong into a mighty river, and, like the drop of water, was lost in a moment, crying out, in its last agonies, "O, Fate! who would have thought a brook of my size could be swallowed so easily!" The river murmured its contempt for the little foolish stream, and continued its course, gathering strength and pride, breaking through mountains, tearing the rocks from their seats, and coursing in a thousand graceful meanders, through flowery meadows, until it found its way to the vast and melancholy ocean, in whose boundless waste it lost its being like the drop of water, and the little mountain stream. "Is it possible," exclaimed the mighty river, "that I have thus been collecting tribute from half a world, only to become nothing at last?"
'Tis thus with thee, O man!—Thou beginnest in insignificance, like the drop of water; thou becomest a laugh at the laughing brook, like the brook; thou waxest proud and great like the mighty river; and ere thou canst say, in the vanity of thy heart, "What an illustrious mortal am I!" thou art lost in eternity.

THE DUCKER CASE.—The most singular combat by which arms were engaged, was one which happened in the family of Hotel. The family of Dudley, in Northamptonshire, bears for a crest, a voman's head and a helmet, her hair dishevelled, and her throat-leash loose. The occasion of this crest was singular. In the year 1640, being a dispute with one Ringdale, about the title of a piece of land, they agreed to meet on the disputed ground, and decide it by combat. On the day appointed, Hotel was laid up with the gout. Rather than he should suffer the loss of his honor, his land, his daughter Agnes armed herself, and mounted her father's steed, and went to meet Ringdale at the time appointed. After a stubborn fight she dismounted him; and when he was on the ground, she loosened her throat-leash, laid up her hair, and, covering down her hair upon her shoulder, recovered her seat. Agnes afterwards married into the Dudley family; and in honor of this heroic action, her descendants have always used the above crest, with the motto, "Gules pectus saluta."
Curious Agency.—A letter, published in the Journal of Commerce, from an emigrant from the U. States, now residing in Texas, describes the country as a Paradise, and urges his friends to come and enjoy the fat of the land. He writes, "Be sure to bring out all the books you have, or can get hold of. Bring out all the vegetables, garden and fruit seeds, you can. Also one wife for me, handsome, &c.—Mother knows what will suit me."
Charles Fox one day, receiving a severe reprehension from his father, who asked him how it was possible for him to sleep or enjoy any of the comforts of life, when he reflected on the immense sums for which he stood indebted? "Your Lordship need not be in the least surprised," answered Charles, "your astonishment ought to be, how my creditors can sleep!"
WOMEN.—The celebrated Fontenelle said that women have a fibre more in the heart, and a cell less in the brain, than men.
If you wish the faculties of children to remain unimproved and useless, deprive them of the knowledge gained from newspapers.

RAIL RACING.
THE Jefferson County Jockey Club have determined to give a COLT'S STAKE, free for all colts of three years old, of one hundred dollars entrance each, half forfeit, with one-third added to the winner, to be run on the Jefferson county course, immediately after the first day's regular fall races. Any person who may be desirous of entering in this Stake, can do so by naming to the undersigned, Clifton, Jefferson county, Va., on or before the 5th day of May next, the color, his sex, dam, color, and general description. Four or more entries to close the race. G. P. M. CROW, Jr., Treasurer.
April 10, 1834.
National Intelligencer, and Richmond Whig, a true, useful, and forward bill.

Strayed.
FROM the subscriber living two miles east of Charlestown, about the 2d instant, two HORSES, four years old each—one a bay brindle, with horns, and is probably branded on the horse. The other, a black and white spotted, with horns—the flesh marks not recollectible. Any person that can give the subscriber information of them, so that he gets them again, will be liberally rewarded.

LAWYERS.
Sketch of the most important Acts of the Virginia Legislature, 1833—34.
An act to amend an act, entitled, "an act incorporating a company for improving the navigation of the Rappahannock river," authorizes the company to agree with the owner of any land for the purchase of an additional amount of land, in case of disagreement to have the value ascertained by a jury, and such value to be paid to the owner therefor.
An act to explain and amend the several acts relative to commissioners of the public revenue; requires the register to mail to the several commissioners on or before the first of January, annually, abstracts of all grants issuing from his office for lands lying in their county, town or borough; directs the commissioners to enter such newly granted lands in their books, and allows a fee of twenty-five cents for each such abstract; and provides that any person who shall refuse to be allowed by the register and credit to be allowed him therefor in his annual settlement, shall be liable to a penalty of twenty dollars upon the commissioners for failing for the space of one month to enter such abstracts as aforesaid; and provides the mode for the collection of the fees aforesaid.
An act to amend the act concerning public roads, and for establishing public landings; requires when a jury shall be impaneled to estimate the damage to the proprietors of land by constructing roads or establishing landings, that they shall be charged to combine with the said estimate, a just regard to the advantages which the proprietor and tenants will derive from the passing the same through their lands.
An act to incorporate the Virginia Union manufacturing company; for the purpose of manufacturing cotton, wool and iron at the Union Mills in the county of Fluvanna, with a capital of not less than $200,000, not more than $100,000, in shares of $200 each, with the usual powers and privileges, and the charter to continue twenty years.
An act to amend the act making affidavits of notaries evidence in certain cases, and for other purposes; prescribes that when a bill, draft, note or check shall be protested for non-acceptance or non-payment, the protest of the notary stating the time, place and manner of presenting the same, and of giving notice of the protest, verified by affidavit of the notary before the expiration of the period, at any time after the protest, may be read as evidence in any suit upon the bill, draft, &c. unless the court shall be satisfied by affidavit of the defendant, that the personal attendance of the notary, or his deposition legally taken, is necessary to a fair trial, or just decision of the cause; and authorizes the depositions of witnesses to be taken and certified by any commissioner in chancery for the taking of depositions appointed by a circuit superior court, to be of equal validity as if certified by two justices of the peace.
An act to change the mode of appointing the Secretary of the Commonwealth; vests the appointment in the legislature by joint vote of both houses.
An act to amend the act, entitled, "an act to amend a subscription on behalf of the Commonwealth to the stock of the Winchester and Potomac rail-road company and for other purposes;" authorizes the board of public works to borrow, if necessary, not exceeding five per centum, a sum not less than thirty thousand nor more than sixty thousand dollars, to meet the subscription mentioned to be made by prior years; and authorizes the same to be irredeemable for twenty years; authorizes the company to change the location of their road to prevent the frequent crossing of other roads; and to vary the grade of the Smithfield and Harpers-Ferry road, and to erect, or cause to be erected, the same iron-work as is now in use, and gives them power to establish depots and warehouses, and to charge fees for storage of any of the company's constructions, or placing any obstructions on the line of the rail-road.
An act for the relief of sundry citizens of the county of Hardy; makes entries by citizens of said county, where the surveyor of the county neglected to make out plats and certificates of survey, as valid as if such plats had been returned to the land office according to law, and gives the same time to perfect such plats as heretofore allowed.
An act further to provide for the construction of the North-western road; authorizes the company to borrow on the credit of the State, not exceeding five per cent.

An act to amend the act concerning public roads, and for establishing public landings; requires when a jury shall be impaneled to estimate the damage to the proprietors of land by constructing roads or establishing landings, that they shall be charged to combine with the said estimate, a just regard to the advantages which the proprietor and tenants will derive from the passing the same through their lands.
An act to incorporate the Virginia Union manufacturing company; for the purpose of manufacturing cotton, wool and iron at the Union Mills in the county of Fluvanna, with a capital of not less than $200,000, not more than $100,000, in shares of $200 each, with the usual powers and privileges, and the charter to continue twenty years.
An act to amend the act making affidavits of notaries evidence in certain cases, and for other purposes; prescribes that when a bill, draft, note or check shall be protested for non-acceptance or non-payment, the protest of the notary stating the time, place and manner of presenting the same, and of giving notice of the protest, verified by affidavit of the notary before the expiration of the period, at any time after the protest, may be read as evidence in any suit upon the bill, draft, &c. unless the court shall be satisfied by affidavit of the defendant, that the personal attendance of the notary, or his deposition legally taken, is necessary to a fair trial, or just decision of the cause; and authorizes the depositions of witnesses to be taken and certified by any commissioner in chancery for the taking of depositions appointed by a circuit superior court, to be of equal validity as if certified by two justices of the peace.
An act to change the mode of appointing the Secretary of the Commonwealth; vests the appointment in the legislature by joint vote of both houses.
An act to amend the act, entitled, "an act to amend a subscription on behalf of the Commonwealth to the stock of the Winchester and Potomac rail-road company and for other purposes;" authorizes the board of public works to borrow, if necessary, not exceeding five per centum, a sum not less than thirty thousand nor more than sixty thousand dollars, to meet the subscription mentioned to be made by prior years; and authorizes the same to be irredeemable for twenty years; authorizes the company to change the location of their road to prevent the frequent crossing of other roads; and to vary the grade of the Smithfield and Harpers-Ferry road, and to erect, or cause to be erected, the same iron-work as is now in use, and gives them power to establish depots and warehouses, and to charge fees for storage of any of the company's constructions, or placing any obstructions on the line of the rail-road.
An act for the relief of sundry citizens of the county of Hardy; makes entries by citizens of said county, where the surveyor of the county neglected to make out plats and certificates of survey, as valid as if such plats had been returned to the land office according to law, and gives the same time to perfect such plats as heretofore allowed.
An act further to provide for the construction of the North-western road; authorizes the company to borrow on the credit of the State, not exceeding five per cent.

THE DUCKER CASE.—The most singular combat by which arms were engaged, was one which happened in the family of Hotel. The family of Dudley, in Northamptonshire, bears for a crest, a voman's head and a helmet, her hair dishevelled, and her throat-leash loose. The occasion of this crest was singular. In the year 1640, being a dispute with one Ringdale, about the title of a piece of land, they agreed to meet on the disputed ground, and decide it by combat. On the day appointed, Hotel was laid up with the gout. Rather than he should suffer the loss of his honor, his land, his daughter Agnes armed herself, and mounted her father's steed, and went to meet Ringdale at the time appointed. After a stubborn fight she dismounted him; and when he was on the ground, she loosened her throat-leash, laid up her hair, and, covering down her hair upon her shoulder, recovered her seat. Agnes afterwards married into the Dudley family; and in honor of this heroic action, her descendants have always used the above crest, with the motto, "Gules pectus saluta."
Curious Agency.—A letter, published in the Journal of Commerce, from an emigrant from the U. States, now residing in Texas, describes the country as a Paradise, and urges his friends to come and enjoy the fat of the land. He writes, "Be sure to bring out all the books you have, or can get hold of. Bring out all the vegetables, garden and fruit seeds, you can. Also one wife for me, handsome, &c.—Mother knows what will suit me."
Charles Fox one day, receiving a severe reprehension from his father, who asked him how it was possible for him to sleep or enjoy any of the comforts of life, when he reflected on the immense sums for which he stood indebted? "Your Lordship need not be in the least surprised," answered Charles, "your astonishment ought to be, how my creditors can sleep!"
WOMEN.—The celebrated Fontenelle said that women have a fibre more in the heart, and a cell less in the brain, than men.

THE FREE PRESS.

CHARLESTOWN. THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 1834.

ENLARGEMENT.

We have long entertained the design of enlarging the Free Press, by the addition of one column to each page. This would have been done with the commencement of the present volume, but for the disastrous change which has come over the times, and which delays the transfer of "deposits," from those who own us, into the depository to which they properly belong.

To accomplish the desired improvement, much expense will be incurred; and it will therefore be necessary to have settlements with every body who has an account with this office. The bills must be cleared by note at least; and for that purpose every one indebted to this establishment will be waited on during the spring and summer.

The first of September next, is the day on which we contemplate making the Free Press one of the most imposing sheets in Virginia. But dissentients must come forward. Without money this enterprise cannot be carried out. It is not to be undertaken for more than two years, must be paid for from the off. As Day Crockett says, "We can't stand it—and we won't."

Monday next is the day of election. Although some consider the deposit question settled, yet the question between Liberty and Despotism is yet open. Jefferson ought to speak out in condemnation of Executive usurpation, because even now it is not too late to remedy the evil. The mischievous consequences of the Experiment are fast developing. The people themselves must speak, and not leave their representatives without a clear sense of their wishes.

Our readers will notice, in the succeeding columns, several specimens of the effect which the Executive "Experiment" is producing. Those who have notes upon the broken Banks, must be content with a share of the "Glory" which is so abundant and so heart-cheering!

The election returns from New York, show an astonishing change of sentiment. In the City, the Jackson majority at the last election was upwards of 6,000. It is now reduced to less than two hundred. In the interior towns, the opposition tickets have generally prevailed.

By the most extraordinary exertions, the election in Albemarle has resulted in the defeat of Messrs. Gilmer and Southall, by about 50 votes. This is the County of Ex-Senator Rives and his connections; and it is said that Mr. R. elected—served as Justice as though he were himself a candidate. Very dignified employment for a Senatorial expectant! But he was sent out to revolutionize Virginia, and he must be true to his trust. His promotion to the high honor of being placed on the Van Buren ticket as Vice President, depends upon his success in reconquering the rebellious province.

The New York election seems to have been a bloody affair. The papers are filled with details, but we have room for only a small portion of them.

More than half a Million of Dollars have been given to favorite Mail Contractors, as extra allowances. In some cases the extra were five times as much as the regular contract. Will it be the true candidate of the Republican party, Wm. H. Crawford—athorough and original Bank man? Where was then the early horror of the "Monsters" of the Hydra?—the beast in the Association?—the powerful forces now making its course?

It is our painful duty to announce the decease of the Honorable LITTLETON P. DENNIS, highly respected and popularly beloved. He died in this city, after an illness of six or seven days. [Md. Int. April 15.]

COMMUNICATION.

TO THE VOTERS OF JEFFERSON.

Your annual election of Delegates to the General Assembly is close at hand. While a majority of the counties of our Commonwealth have been, and many of them still are, the theatre of much political heat and strife between the two great parties, it is to be regretted that the people of the General Government, our county alone (or with few exceptions) enjoys the enviable distinction of being in complete repose.

The Administration party here, with a conscious weakness, have preferred a retreat, to the pursuit of a total overthrow of the Administration. Two candidates on the side of the opposition have been for several weeks before the people, ready and willing to meet their adversaries, in fair and honorable contest; but so far no opponent has entered the lists. There was, indeed, early in the campaign, some small show of fight; but even the demonstration has subsided; and now, to all appearance, "grim-visaged war has smoothed his wrinkled front." But, fellow-citizens, these appearances may be deceitful. Notwithstanding this apparent inaction on the part of the adversary, it is strongly suspected that a surprise is intended. Rumour states that the Administration party have it in view, on the morning of the election, to put up two gentlemen, who have been named, (but whose names I will not do them the injustice here to repeat,) in opposition to the regularly announced candidates; and, concentrating their whole force, thus, by a ruse de guerre, gain a victory. I at once acquit the two gentlemen whose names have been used in this matter, of participating in, or in any manner countenancing, this ingenious and manly project.

Fellow-Citizens, be not therefore lulled into a deceitful security. The times require of you unceasing vigilance and activity. Repair to the polls on Monday, and be ready for any emergency. Record your votes on the side of the Constitution and the Laws, even though there be no contest. Show your opposition to the present Administration of your General Government and its mischievous measures; and, above all, proclaim your uncompromising hostility determined resistance to those recent acts of Executive encroachment and usurpation, which have suddenly arrested the unexampled prosperity of this land, and visited it with suffering, distress, and pain. To the polls, then, fellow-citizens—to the polls! In these perilous times, Virginia asks of you, and you must do it.

A VOTER.

THE GLOBE STATES THAT SIX OF THE absent members, viz. Messrs. Buren, Bland, and McKim, were known to be friendly to the Administration, and that Mr. Blair's decease caused the loss of another vote.

ANALYSIS Of the Vote upon the Previous Question.

Table with columns: STATES, YEAR, NAYS, DEFICIENT. Lists states like New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Vermont, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio, Louisiana, Illinois, Mississippi, Alabama, Missouri.

ANOTHER FIRE.

We are under the painful necessity of recording another disaster by fire. On Saturday the 15th inst. the dwelling house of Mr. Henry T. M. Breese, near Shepherdstown, took fire from a spark from the chimney, and was consumed before assistance could be rendered. Most of Mr. B.'s furniture was saved; but to the loss of the inconvenience of being houseless at a season when time and money are both precious.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

Since the late disastrous fire in the neighborhood of Smithfield, a plan of mutual insurance has been suggested, which was thought worthy of attention by the farmers and others. It is this: That an association be formed, and that all who join it, have their property valued by competent and disinterested persons. In case of destruction by fire of the property of any one of the association, a small percentage is to be paid on to the insured; the amount by which the sufferer will be reinstated, by a very trifling contribution from the other members of the society. The plan deserves consideration. Let those who "feel for others' woes" think of it.

We have a poor question humbly to ask of the great Mr. Ritchie—but indubitable adversary of Banks and Bank notes. Tell us—we entreat thee, oh magnanimous man, that criest, night and day, against National Banks, and lendest opposition to them, as an enemy of the true candidate of the Republican party, Wm. H. Crawford—athorough and original Bank man? Where was then thy early horror of the "Monsters" of the Hydra?—the beast in the Association?—the powerful forces now making its course?

VIRGINIA ELECTIONS.

BERKELEY ELECTION.

The following is the result of the election: Col. Edward Colston 383, Edmund P. Hunter, Esq. 337, Capt. Peter Gardner 259, Capt. John M. Stevens 114.

LOUDOUN.

No opposition to William M. McCarty, Esq. for the Senate. We learn that Messrs. Janney, McCarty, and Beard, are elected to the House of Delegates.

KING GEORGE.

John Hoop re-elected. Mr. Hoop was re-elected without opposition. His patriotic course during the past winter secured the entire vote of the whole county. At the polls, though declaring he still entertained personal partiality for Gen. Jackson, yet he unequivocally, and in the most unqualified terms, condemned the removal of the Deposits, and supported the Resolutions of the Legislature.

ROCKBRIDGE.

Charles P. Dorman and James McDowell, Jr., re-elected. Mr. Dorman is a decided opponent of the Administration. Mr. McDowell leans to the Administration, but decidedly condemns its course on the Deposits.

SPOTSYLDEN.

John M. Boits (Anti-Administration) 475, Wm. B. Riddick (Jackson) 265. The Jackson forces were confident of success, or affected to be so. This has been a Jackson county of the strongest description.

NOTTOWAY.

Unofficial accounts state that Travia H. Eppes, Esq. the late republican and independent delegate, is elected over Mr. T. W. Knight, the Jackson candidate, by a majority of three.

PENDLETON.

One member—Thos. Jones, anti-Administration, re-elected. Mr. Jones 202, Col. Hunter 257.

ALBEMARLE.

Messrs. Rives and Randolph are elected. The votes stand—Rives 599, Randolph 581, Gilmer 534, Southall 543.

SPOTSYLDEN.

O. M. Crutchfield 250, R. B. Semple 203, R. D. Powell 66, J. Christy 54, G. W. Bassett 19, A. H. Bernard 19.

CRUELDELL IS THE ADMINISTRATION ENEMY.

Henry Madison, Esq. elected for this county, by a vote about equal to that obtained by both his competitors—Madison for Administration—Messrs. Morton and Carrington opposed to it. Another instance of bad management.

GREENSBORO.

The Greensboro election took place on the first Monday, and resulted as follows: First of Delegates—Tamlin Aven 178, John H. Edwards 14.

FOR THE SENATE—Col. George C. Dromgoole 137, Gen. Wm. H. Brodnax 77.

The principal candidates addressed the people. Col. Dromgoole came out in favor of a National Convention, and Martin Van Buren for President, in preference to any other candidate as yet before the people. General Brodnax was opposed to a National Convention, and to Van Buren, and in favor of some Southern man, as either Barbour, or some other from the Virginia ranks.

PRINCE GEORGE.

Mr. Shands, the late delegate, opposed to the Administration, has been elected by Mr. Leigh, by a majority of 37, over John P. Hunicutt, Esq. a decided opponentist.

POWHATAN.

John W. Nash 166, Porter withdrew early in the day. Nash is a man of fine talents, and of unblemished reputation. He is a friend of the present Administration.

ISLE OF WIGHT—I Del.

Joel Holleman, re-elected without opposition—a friend of the Administration, and against the Bank.

GLOUCESTER—I Del.

Thomas Smith, anti-Administration, the old member, said to have received about 9-30s of the votes given, over Jones, the Administration candidate. And for the Senate; Dabney opposition, received the like proportion, over Harwood, Administration.

FROM THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER.

NEW-YORK CITY ELECTION.

From the accounts which have reached us, it appears that Messrs. W. Lawrence, the Administration candidate, has been elected Mayor of the City of New York; but by an lean majority over Gulian C. Verplanck, the Whig candidate, as to make the result a defeat, instead of a victory, to the party which has obtained the majority.

The whole number of votes taken for Mayor, was 35,117, being a greater number, by 221, than were ever before polled in the city.

The majority of Mr. Lawrence for Mayor of the City of New York, is about 180 votes, if the counting of the votes has been legal, and if the votes for Mr. Verplanck, set aside because of trivial errors of orthography, are deducted from the number he actually received.

It appears, however, that the Whigs have obtained a majority in both branches of the City Council; a triumph of much greater consequence than success in the Mayoralty would have been.

MAINE ELECTION.

We are surprised by the extraordinary reverse of public opinion indicated by the votes at the recent Election held for Mayor of the City of Portland. That city and county was the first in Maine to give in its adhesion to the Jackson Administration. It is the first to abandon it, in consequence of "the experiment." Mr. Ayres, late Representative in Congress, a decided friend of the Administration, was chosen Mayor of Portland last year by a majority of nearly 6 hundred votes, has been beaten by Levi Cutten, the anti-Administration candidate, by a majority of 416 votes!

Mr. Cutten, the anti-Jackson candidate for Mayor, received 1223 votes. Mr. Anderson, the Jackson candidate, received 817. Last year, Mr. Dow, the National Republican candidate for Mayor, had 709 votes, and Mr. Anderson, who was elected, 783. [ib.]

CONVENTION.—The election for Governor and members of the Legislature for this State, took place on Monday last. Some apprehensions were entertained that the oversight or apathy of last year, which allowed a majority of Anti-Republican members to be chosen to the Legislature, (by whom Mr. Ed. Morris was elected Governor,) would not be repeated at this election, and that the apprehensions on this head have happily not been realized. Connecticut stands re-elected, regenerated, and disenthralled. The veteran Republican, Samuel A. Foot, has been chosen Governor by a large majority over the present incumbent, and from the samples we have seen, there is no doubt of the newly elected Legislature being decidedly of the same politics as the new Governor. We shall lose Mr. Foot for a time out of Congress, which we shall regret, because he is a valuable member; but his place will be filled by a good man and true; and, if it had not been thought he would be useful at home, his fellow-citizens would not have taken him out of Congress.—[ib.]

NEW YORK ELECTION.

The New York papers of Thursday afternoon, furnish the following particulars of the election up to two o'clock, P. M. of that day: From the Commercial Advertiser.

RENEWAL OF THE RIOTS!

There has been another atrocious mob-breaking of the Jackson friends of the Sixth Ward, the members of which were severely injured.

RENEWAL OF THE RIOTS!

At about 12 o'clock, it was reported at the 6th Ward, that a mob of about 500 persons, were passing Masonic Hall—the Head Quarters of the Whig Committee.

Instantly a large band of ruffians started up the street towards the Whig Committee, and with black bats, and breaking down, rushed on to attack those not already branding bludgeoned. They rushed onwards, howling and screaming in a savage manner.

The Whig Committee had proceeded on their cruise before the mob arrived in front of the hall. In passing it, they let fly a volley of stones and missiles, at the large portrait of Washington, which was considerably tattered, and several of the windows broken.

The report was, that their intention was to take possession of the Hall, and the crowd soon turned about for that purpose. Meanwhile the Mayor and Sheriff, with a posse of Constables, had repaired to the scene of action. As they approached, the Mayor held up his staff of office, and commanded the peace; but was answered with a shower of missiles.

The rabble pressed on—the Sheriff and Mayor, and Marshals, were assailed; several of them were knocked down and severely injured. Numbers of the ruffians rushed into the hall, and the Whig Committee were obliged to fly for their lives through the back doors and windows.

We have seen several persons who were in the mob. There have been many persons grievously injured, and in whatever other manner informed us that he saw a man (filled to the pavement by a fragment of a barrel) another rioter instantly dashed a barrel upon the fallen man; and another man, upon his life, and he was carried forth to our office with the news. He thinks the man was killed.

It is reported that a man was instantly killed by a blow from a shillelagh. The mob say, a portion of them, following the frigate, tearing up paving stones, &c.

The Mayor, we are compelled to state, has been badly injured. There was an attack on the Whig Committee to gain the Arsenal, but they were anticipated in this movement by the citizens, and at a quarter past one o'clock the officers were passing on their way to the Arsenal.

At the moment of the rush of the rioters from the polls to attack the frigate and the Hall, there was a very strong mob of "CLUBS!"

As they were ordered and taken, and stood as follows: Yes 103, Nays 67.

There not being two-thirds in favor of suspending the rule, as moved, the motion of Mr. Vance to refer the amendment was overruled.

The role of the Virginia Delegation who voted on Mr. Vance's motion for printing, are: Messrs. John Aiken, Arthur Boutwell, George F. Johnson, George Moore, William Taylor, John W. Taylor, and NAYS—Messrs. Beale, China, and Loyal—3.

On Thursday, Mr. Vance renewed his propositions; and every one of them were voted down, and every one of them were voted down, and every one of them were voted down.

IN SENATE—WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9.

Repeal of the Force Act.

Mr. Clay then, after a few remarks, moved to refer the bill to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Poindexter intimated that, when the bill should come up for final action, he should make known his opinions on the general principles which it involved. At present, he should be in favor of the reference.

The motion to refer the bill was then adopted.

POSTSCRIPT.

The ruffians who made the disturbance yesterday in the Sixth Ward, commenced another riot last night on Masonic Hall, tore down the "Freedmen's Friend" and "Lafayette" broke the doors and windows—and a general fight commenced, in which many of our citizens have been most dreadfully and dangerously injured. We have no time for particulars.

The authorities have sent for the U. S. troops at Governor's Island, for assistance from the U. S. troops.

POSTSCRIPT.

The ruffians who made the disturbance yesterday in the Sixth Ward, commenced another riot last night on Masonic Hall, tore down the "Freedmen's Friend" and "Lafayette" broke the doors and windows—and a general fight commenced, in which many of our citizens have been most dreadfully and dangerously injured. We have no time for particulars.

The authorities have sent for the U. S. troops at Governor's Island, for assistance from the U. S. troops.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Vance of Ohio, asked leave to have an amendment printed which he proposed, at the present time, to offer, in Committee of the Whole, in connection with the Appropriation Bill, which had been under consideration to-day.

Objection being made, the reading of the Amendment was called for, whereupon it was read as follows: "That from and after the passage of this Act, instead of the compensation now allowed by law, there shall be paid to the within named officers the following sums, per annum: To each of the Secretaries of State, Treasury, War and Navy, four thousand dollars. To the Postmaster General, three thousand five hundred dollars. To each Assistant Postmaster General, two thousand dollars. To each of the Clerks of the Treasury, two thousand dollars. To the Solicitor of the Treasury, two thousand dollars. To the Register of the Treasury, two thousand dollars. To the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, two thousand dollars. To the Commissioner of the General Land Office, two thousand dollars. To each of the Clerks in the Departments of State, Treasury, War and Navy, including those in the General Land Office, at the rate of thirty-three and one-third cent per annum. To each of all officers of the customs, by whatever name designated, or in whatever manner appointed, there shall be deducted from the rate of thirty-three and one-third cent per annum, the rate of public lands, either as Surveyors General, Registers, Receivers, or Clerks, there shall be deducted from the compensation now allowed them by law, at the rate of thirty-three and one-third cent per annum. To each of all Clerks in the General Post Office, Deputy Postmasters, their assistants and Clerks, there shall be deducted from the compensation now allowed to them by law, at the rate of thirty-three and one-third cent per annum. To all persons connected with the Indian Department as Superintendents, Agents, Sub-Agents, Inspectors, Agents for removals, Commissioners, or in whatever other manner employed, there shall be deducted from the compensation now allowed them by law or regulation, at the rate of thirty-three and one-third cent per annum. To the members of the Senate and House of Representatives, instead of the compensation now allowed by law, they shall receive six dollars per day and six dollars for every twenty miles that they travel, and from the date of their appointment to that office until the expiration of the present Presidential term, the salary of the President of the United States shall be fifteen thousand dollars per annum. Mr. VANCE now moved for the suspension of the rule, so as to allow him to make a motion to have his amendment printed. On which question, Mr. Crane demanded the yeas and nays. They were ordered and taken, and stood as follows: Yeas 103, Nays 67.

There not being two-thirds in favor of suspending the rule, as moved, the motion of Mr. Vance to refer the amendment was overruled.

The role of the Virginia Delegation who voted on Mr. Vance's motion for printing, are: Messrs. John Aiken, Arthur Boutwell, George F. Johnson, George Moore, William Taylor, John W. Taylor, and NAYS—Messrs. Beale, China, and Loyal—3.

On Thursday, Mr. Vance renewed his propositions; and every one of them were voted down, and every one of them were voted down, and every one of them were voted down.
