

Virginia Free Press.

CHARLESTOWN, JEFFERSON COUNTY, PRINTED AND PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY GALLAHER, NORTH & GALLAHER.

VOL. 28.

NO. 17.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 18, 1835.

Allen's Improved PatentThreshing Machine.

The subscribers having purchased the full and exclusive right of threshing, using and vending, in the Counties of Frederick, Jefferson, and Berkeley,

Samuel S. Allen's Threshing Machine, are now ready to furnish them to those who may apply.

This Machine has gained the entire approbation of all who have used it or witnessed its operation. It can be propelled either by two or three horses; and the horses power so completely portion of the work required for use, may easily be taken from place to place, in a common light wagon with one horse to pull, made some time since at the farm of John F. Dulane, Esq., of this county, the above Machine, with a single horse, threshed out 125 bushels wheat in 30 minutes, and on another occasion, at the farm of Mr. Joseph Gibson, a few miles above Middleburg, the same Machine, with two horses, threshed out 128 bushels of wheat in 5 hours.

This was done with little or no fatigue to the horses. These trials were made in the presence of hundreds of persons (many of them experienced farmers) who do not hesitate to testify to the greater superiority of this, over all other Machines whose operations have ever been exhibited in this country.

These Machines are simple in their construction, durable and cheap. We will furnish them for $140, and less if the cost will at all justify it.

We shall have constantly on hand a large supply of SALT and PLASTER.

Country Produce

consigned to them for either place, and will, when desired, make sale of the same.

The GOODS of Merchants and others coming from either market will receive the greatest attention.

We shall have constantly on hand a large supply of SALT and PLASTER.

Jan. 15, 1835.—if.

Balms of Columbia, &c.

LBRIDGES Balm of Columbia, Hygeian Syrup,

Elixir of Life,

Rowland's Tonic Mixture,

Remedy for Sick Headache,

Hay's Liniment for Feet,

Dugald's Liniment,

Cochrane's Night Salve,

Acoustic Oil,

Mineral Hair Powders,

Butler's Everlasting Magnesia Aperient,

Barkley's Compound,

Jewett's Water Proof Paste,

Aubrey's Tooth Powder,

Received and for sale at YOUNG'S

DRUG STORE.

Harpers-Ferry, April 23, 1835.

Winter Cabbage Seed.

THE subscriber has just received at the

Charlestown Apothecary and Book-

Store, a second supply of fresh Winter Cabbage Seed, very large dimensions, Flat Dutch, and green country Cabbage Seed.

His assortment of Garden and Flower

Seed, is still very good Persons wishing to purchase seed of any kind, in his way, can be as satisfactorily supplied as at any time heretofore.

JAMES BROWN.

April 23, 1835.

JOHN BOGGS & CO.

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

Spear's Wharf, Baltimore, Md.

A FIRST-rate new PIANO is offered for sale. Apply to

JOHN P. MYLIUS.

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

PIANO for Sale.

A FIRST-rate new PIANO is offered

for sale. Apply to

JOHN P. MYLIUS.

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN, 500 bushels of RYE, and a

few tons of Timothy HAY.

WAGER & O'BRYNE,

Harpers-Ferry, June 4, 1835.

WANTED.

WE will give cash for 100 barrels of

CORN,

FREE PRESS.

TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS PER ANNUAL.

"DEMOCRATIC FESTIVAL."

We give last week a short account of the dinner at Shepherdstown; the particulars, as far as they went, were correct.

Major-General Garrison of Kentucky.—The President, assisted by Mr. John Grace, &c. The Vice Presidents were Col. Braxton Davisport, George B. Bell, Captain Grantham, J. B. Wagner, and R. W. Hayne.

The adjourned meeting was held from the Charleston Argus. It will be perceived, by those who saw that paper of last week, that we have omitted three of the toasts. For doing so, we had good and sufficient reasons.

It will be recollect'd that the Friends of the United States were invited. We understand that His Excellency was not at the dinner, and that letter, containing the news, was read at the table.

The Hon. Henry St. George Tucker was present.

REGULAR TOASTS.

1. The Illustrous Washington.—His name is an emblem on his country, the emblem of Liberty. History shall record it, and Fame proclaim it to the ends of the earth, whilst Freedom shall rejoice and triumph over all the world.

2. Thomas Jefferson.—The illustrious apostle of Liberty; the advocate of equal rights, and the patriarch of American democracy.

3. The Heroes of the Revolution.—How few, how aged, now! still, when gathered, like autumn leaves, to the quiet tomb, may they leave to their sons, in their dearer legacy, their love of Liberty.

4. The Constitution of the United States.—A political chart—if followed according to its letter and spirit, it will conduct a nation of Freemen into the haven of Union and Liberty.

5. The America Flag—

Whilst a star shall tremble in heaven—

Whilst the ocean shall boast a wave—

Whilst freedom to earth shall be given

May it float o'er the "land of the brave."

6. The Old Dominion.—Though recently shorn of her strength like the strong man of old, yet her locks have grown again; and with one effort of her returning power she hath shaken the proud pillars of Federalism to their foundation.

7. The President of the United States.—Not less distinguished in the cabinet than in the field, he has augmented the worth of his country's glory, cemented the bonds of the Republican party, added to the predictions of an eminent man, and placed his own name upon an important position, which, though it may not save his justice, and they deserve the same, can exonerate him of his vindictive proceedings.

8. Martin Van Buren.—He lifts his head like a tower upon the hill, and the shafts of his enemies fall at his feet.

9. Wm. C. Rives.—Virginia's favorite son, like a star in the firmament, he shines with fulgure in our political horizon—he will not be at his zenith until he presides over a nation of Freemen.

10. Democracy.—"She hath built her house—she hath hewn out her seven pillars—they are founded upon rocks and cannot be shaken."

11. Modern Whig.—Like a foolish woman, she is clamorous; she sitteth upon her castle, the blare of her trumpet惊动ing the sentinels who go right on their ways."

12. The Bank of the United States.—The citadel of the aristocracy; led on by our gloomy chieftain, the people have stormed its ramparts and dried up the stocks of treasure within.

13. The event we celebrate.—We had it on the dawn of democracy, and, as at 1812 under the republican banner of Jackson, Fred. M. Douglass, Berkley, & H. L. Ellsworth.

14. The ground on which we stand.—Consecrated, after a lapse of fifty years, by the virtue and patriotism of a band of revolutionary patriots.

15. The Fair Sex.—Without them, political action might predominate, for then there could be no Union.

16. The Out.—They would move heaven and earth to pull us in; but, Archdeacon-like, they have no ground to stand upon.

17. Our late Political Canvas.—While it shows the undiminished confidence we have in our Representatives to Congress, it proves the contest was for "principles and men."

18. The Pithiad Troops under the White Flag—a corps composed of material heterogeneous, corrupt, and conflicting. You may unite the serpent with the bird—the lion with the lamb—in passive harmony, sooner than such a phalanx, thrown together by political union, can adhere or harmonize.

VOLUNTEER TOASTS.

By Michael K. Seibert, of Berkeley: Let there be a union of all honest men in support of the nominees of the Baltimore Convention; and, like Hamlet of old, let the true men of the country, place their hands on the altar of liberty and swear "eternal enmity" to the anti-Republican spirit of the domineering federalists.

By the same, Col. E. Lucas: We advise him for his principles, should he desert them, we will be first to rebuke him for vacillation.

By Major H. Ridings: Ancient and modern Whigism: The one a modest robe worn by patriots, the other a patched "garment of a mystical sublimity," to hide the deformities of naked impostors.

By Wm. Atkinson: Wm. C. Rives of Va.: A man of pre-eminent ability; his services cannot be dispensed with; a free and independent people will, ere long, call him to provide over their destinies.

By Bryant O'Bannon: Gen. Jackson: A son of the good vine, every tree is known by its fruit.

By Jacob Knott: Thomas Jefferson: A man of purest ray in the irradiated and intellectual conceptions of his countrymen and of the world.

By Michael Foley: The union is the circumference of our selection, the fitness and qualifications of men constitute the rule of our choice; Martin Van Buren, of New York: the man, the people will support him.

By S. S. Bassett: The friends of freedom here to-day: Alike true to religion, &c., to every act of sacrifice of liberty.

By James Bust, Jr.: Andrew Jackson: The firm defender of our republican institutions.

By E. W. Robinson, of Winchester: The democracy of Virginia: They will sacrifice every thing for principle—nothing for ease.

By David H. Tucker: Judge White: He is prepossessing himself to modern whiggery, he has forfeited the confidence of every true American.

By John Rockingham, Jr.: Martin Van Buren: His promotion can only be secured by the support of that people who aspire to the perpetuity of those sacred principles peculiar to the old Jeffersonian school.

By J. Randolph Cleaveland: The union of the states and their sovereignty: May they never yield to the usurpation and enlargement of the powers of the general government.

By Jasminian Seaman: The uncompromising Virginia Delegates: May the evil goad, that preys upon the granaries of so, sing sorrow upon them by sore trials, &c., through prediction to men, they cause old Virginia again to sink into the enemy's camp.

By John D. Grove: Col. Edward Lucas: His acknowledged republican principles, are a sure guaranty of the honor and success, with which he will discharge the duties entrusted upon him, in the next Congress of the United States.

By John L. Barker: Col. R. M. Johnson: The gallant Lee, of Kentucky, the war-worn veteran, the inflexible democratic representative of Georgia for twenty eight years, safely nestled in the Vice Presidency.

By J. H. S. Nodder: The Democratic Republicans of Jefferson: An infatuation on three principles which always characterized the disunited portion, 'tis when this country derived its name, and now in their watchful state.

By Wm. H. Lewis: Our gallant friend, Col. Edward Lucas: A fearless advocate of the present administration, and the strong principles of Martin Van Buren.

By Wm. H. Tucker: Our friend: Done in his estimation, and plenty in his store.

By John H. Marshall: Am. Anti-Slavery: Although we do not know him, we have now to agree with his estimate.

By John Marshall, Jr.: Col. Edward Lucas: A man of great talents, and a good friend to the rights of the people, based upon the inflexible position of principles purely democratic.

By Lewis Linn: The memory of Lincoln and Manchester countries: So principles are the basis of these important difficulties of these institutions.

By St. Louis: Redfern: The people did expect it, and Old Hickory has justified their expectations.

By B. W. Gray: The Old Dominion: Since she failed to elect her favorite, Wm. C. Rives, for the candidate for the Vice Presidency, may she give her entire support to the western patriot of the west, Col. R. M. Johnson.

By John Lock: The invincible Edward Lucas: May virtue and equity be the objects of all his undertakings.

By Jacob Knott: Col. Edward Lucas: He will go with his friends, and make an effort to strengthen our Union.

By Joseph W. H. Lewis: Virginian: Many good qualities, many principles, and many heroic performances.

By Christian Shultz: Col. Edward Lucas: A transcript of Virgil's Eclogues.

By John G. C. Cook: Col. H. M. Johnson, the hero of the Thermes: A man, who has done the service of his life for the honor of his country; a good people will duly appreciate his services.

By John Shultz: Martin Van Buren: A shrewd republican, governed by a professed Senate, persecuted by his enemies, families and neighbors. What other proof do we want?

By John G. C. Cook: Col. Old Hickory: He has produced himself out for enemies to recruit.

By David Tucker: Our Representative in Congress: No contention, no wrangle, unchanged and unchangeable.

By David Wade: The disputed wills of the Revolution: Their laws shall live in our numbers.

—Their spirits wrap the dusky mountain, Their memory lingers on the fountain;

The meadow still, the fragrant air,

With singing of their flocks."

By Montgomery Somers: The bold, manly and magnanimous: The hero and savior of his land, they are not to be matched in pluck by any worthy opponent.

By John F. Walker: Martin Van Buren: The kind of democracy: May the people of the United States, in their present condition, be more numerous than the slaves, and more intelligent than the masters.

By Robert A. W. Morris: The democratic party of Virginia: They have been, but have not yet lost, their original character.

By Daniel Hendrickson, Jr.: My American always finds enough in General Jackson to keep the Cabinet's fire going out.

11. Modern Whig.—Like a foolish woman, she is clamorous; she sitteth upon her castle, the blare of her trumpet惊动ing the sentinels who go right on their ways."

12. The Bank of the United States.—The citadel of the aristocracy; led on by our gloomy chieftain, the people have stormed its ramparts and dried up the stocks of treasure within.

13. The event we celebrate.—We had it on the dawn of democracy, and, as at 1812 under the republican banner of Jackson, Fred. M. Douglass, Berkley, & H. L. Ellsworth.

14. The ground on which we stand.—Consecrated, after a lapse of fifty years, by the virtue and patriotism of a band of revolutionary patriots.

15. The Fair Sex.—Without them, political action might predominate, for then there could be no Union.

16. The Out.—They would move heaven and earth to pull us in; but, Archdeacon-like, they have no ground to stand upon.

17. Our late Political Canvas.—While it shows the undiminished confidence we have in our Representatives to Congress, it proves the contest was for "principles and men."

18. The Pithiad Troops under the White Flag—a corps composed of material heterogeneous, corrupt, and conflicting. You may unite the serpent with the bird—the lion with the lamb—in passive harmony, sooner than such a phalanx, thrown together by political union, can adhere or harmonize.

19. Democracy.—"She hath built her house—she hath hewn out her seven pillars—they are founded upon rocks and cannot be shaken."

20. Modern Whig.—Like a foolish woman, she is clamorous; she sitteth upon her castle, the blare of her trumpet惊动ing the sentinels who go right on their ways."

21. The Bank of the United States.—The citadel of the aristocracy; led on by our gloomy chieftain, the people have stormed its ramparts and dried up the stocks of treasure within.

22. The event we celebrate.—We had it on the dawn of democracy, and, as at 1812 under the republican banner of Jackson, Fred. M. Douglass, Berkley, & H. L. Ellsworth.

23. The ground on which we stand.—Consecrated, after a lapse of fifty years, by the virtue and patriotism of a band of revolutionary patriots.

24. The Fair Sex.—Without them, political action might predominate, for then there could be no Union.

25. The Out.—They would move heaven and earth to pull us in; but, Archdeacon-like, they have no ground to stand upon.

26. Our late Political Canvas.—While it shows the undiminished confidence we have in our Representatives to Congress, it proves the contest was for "principles and men."

27. The Pithiad Troops under the White Flag—a corps composed of material heterogeneous, corrupt, and conflicting. You may unite the serpent with the bird—the lion with the lamb—in passive harmony, sooner than such a phalanx, thrown together by political union, can adhere or harmonize.

28. Democracy.—"She hath built her house—she hath hewn out her seven pillars—they are founded upon rocks and cannot be shaken."

29. Modern Whig.—Like a foolish woman, she is clamorous; she sitteth upon her castle, the blare of her trumpet惊动ing the sentinels who go right on their ways."

30. The Bank of the United States.—The citadel of the aristocracy; led on by our gloomy chieftain, the people have stormed its ramparts and dried up the stocks of treasure within.

31. The event we celebrate.—We had it on the dawn of democracy, and, as at 1812 under the republican banner of Jackson, Fred. M. Douglass, Berkley, & H. L. Ellsworth.

32. The ground on which we stand.—Consecrated, after a lapse of fifty years, by the virtue and patriotism of a band of revolutionary patriots.

33. The Fair Sex.—Without them, political action might predominate, for then there could be no Union.

34. The Out.—They would move heaven and earth to pull us in; but, Archdeacon-like, they have no ground to stand upon.

35. Our late Political Canvas.—While it shows the undiminished confidence we have in our Representatives to Congress, it proves the contest was for "principles and men."

36. The Pithiad Troops under the White Flag—a corps composed of material heterogeneous, corrupt, and conflicting. You may unite the serpent with the bird—the lion with the lamb—in passive harmony, sooner than such a phalanx, thrown together by political union, can adhere or harmonize.

37. Democracy.—"She hath built her house—she hath hewn out her seven pillars—they are founded upon rocks and cannot be shaken."

38. Modern Whig.—Like a foolish woman, she is clamorous; she sitteth upon her castle, the blare of her trumpet惊动ing the sentinels who go right on their ways."

39. The Bank of the United States.—The citadel of the aristocracy; led on by our gloomy chieftain, the people have stormed its ramparts and dried up the stocks of treasure within.

40. The event we celebrate.—We had it on the dawn of democracy, and, as at 1812 under the republican banner of Jackson, Fred. M. Douglass, Berkley, & H. L. Ellsworth.

41. The ground on which we stand.—Consecrated, after a lapse of fifty years, by the virtue and patriotism of a band of revolutionary patriots.

42. The Fair Sex.—Without them, political action might predominate, for then there could be no Union.

43. The Out.—They would move heaven and earth to pull us in; but, Archdeacon-like, they have no ground to stand upon.

44. Our late Political Canvas.—While it shows the undiminished confidence we have in our Representatives to Congress, it proves the contest was for "principles and men."

45. The Pithiad Troops under the White Flag—a corps composed of material heterogeneous, corrupt, and conflicting. You may unite the serpent with the bird—the lion with the lamb—in passive harmony, sooner than such a phalanx, thrown together by political union, can adhere or harmonize.

46. Democracy.—"She hath built her house—she hath hewn out her seven pillars—they are founded upon rocks and cannot be shaken."

47. Modern Whig.—Like a foolish woman, she is clamorous; she sitteth upon her castle, the blare of her trumpet惊动ing the sentinels who go right on their ways."

48. The Bank of the United States.—The citadel of the aristocracy; led on by our gloomy chieftain, the people have stormed its ramparts and dried up the stocks of treasure within.

49. The event we celebrate.—We had it on the dawn of democracy, and, as at 1812 under the republican banner of Jackson, Fred. M. Douglass, Berkley, & H. L. Ellsworth.

50. The ground on which we stand.—Consecrated, after a lapse of fifty years, by the virtue and patriotism of a band of revolutionary patriots.

51. The Fair Sex.—Without them, political action might predominate, for then there could be no Union.</p

THE subscriber, full and established, and trading in Jefferson, and Ber

Samuel S. Allen are now ready to

May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.

For sale by

James Brown, Charlestown,

Humphrey Keyes, Jr.,

Jos. G. Davis, Harper's Ferry,

Adam Young, Jr.,

F. J. McNeill, Shepherdstown,

Timberlike, Shepherd-

Street, May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.

For sale by

James Brown, Charlestown,

Humphrey Keyes, Jr.,

Jos. G. Davis, Harper's Ferry,

Adam Young, Jr.,

F. J. McNeill, Shepherdstown,

Timberlike, Shepherd-

Street, May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.

For sale by

James Brown, Charlestown,

Humphrey Keyes, Jr.,

Jos. G. Davis, Harper's Ferry,

Adam Young, Jr.,

F. J. McNeill, Shepherdstown,

Timberlike, Shepherd-

Street, May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.

For sale by

James Brown, Charlestown,

Humphrey Keyes, Jr.,

Jos. G. Davis, Harper's Ferry,

Adam Young, Jr.,

F. J. McNeill, Shepherdstown,

Timberlike, Shepherd-

Street, May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.

For sale by

James Brown, Charlestown,

Humphrey Keyes, Jr.,

Jos. G. Davis, Harper's Ferry,

Adam Young, Jr.,

F. J. McNeill, Shepherdstown,

Timberlike, Shepherd-

Street, May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.

For sale by

James Brown, Charlestown,

Humphrey Keyes, Jr.,

Jos. G. Davis, Harper's Ferry,

Adam Young, Jr.,

F. J. McNeill, Shepherdstown,

Timberlike, Shepherd-

Street, May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.

For sale by

James Brown, Charlestown,

Humphrey Keyes, Jr.,

Jos. G. Davis, Harper's Ferry,

Adam Young, Jr.,

F. J. McNeill, Shepherdstown,

Timberlike, Shepherd-

Street, May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.

For sale by

James Brown, Charlestown,

Humphrey Keyes, Jr.,

Jos. G. Davis, Harper's Ferry,

Adam Young, Jr.,

F. J. McNeill, Shepherdstown,

Timberlike, Shepherd-

Street, May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.

For sale by

James Brown, Charlestown,

Humphrey Keyes, Jr.,

Jos. G. Davis, Harper's Ferry,

Adam Young, Jr.,

F. J. McNeill, Shepherdstown,

Timberlike, Shepherd-

Street, May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.

For sale by

James Brown, Charlestown,

Humphrey Keyes, Jr.,

Jos. G. Davis, Harper's Ferry,

Adam Young, Jr.,

F. J. McNeill, Shepherdstown,

Timberlike, Shepherd-

Street, May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.

For sale by

James Brown, Charlestown,

Humphrey Keyes, Jr.,

Jos. G. Davis, Harper's Ferry,

Adam Young, Jr.,

F. J. McNeill, Shepherdstown,

Timberlike, Shepherd-

Street, May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.

For sale by

James Brown, Charlestown,

Humphrey Keyes, Jr.,

Jos. G. Davis, Harper's Ferry,

Adam Young, Jr.,

F. J. McNeill, Shepherdstown,

Timberlike, Shepherd-

Street, May 1, 1835.

The following will be

Harper's Ferry, May 1, 1835.

Concerning the

Attachment of

Shepherd's Patent Specific Ointment.