IN SENATE-MONDAY, May 16. A series of resolutions were presented by Mr. Mangum, from the citizens of Burke county, N. C., assembled at a public meeting, recommending to Congress the recognition of the Independence of Texas.

In consequence of his name being mentioned in the resolutions, accompanied by a request that he would sid panied by a request that he would aid in accomplishing the object, Mr. Preston made some observations, in which he expressed his sense of the honor sciousness of the ground on which it had been conferred, unless it was be-cause of his known attachment to the cause of his known attachment to the cause of liberty all over the world. He apologised for the insulting manner in which he had formerly spoken of Santa Anna, while he was riding triumphantly, and as with a deluge of fire, awaring the whole territory of Tayas. sweeping the whole territory of Texas; but now that the news had been received of the defeat, of the captivity, perhaps the death of Santa Anna, he felt no longer any resentment towards him. Pity had superseded indignation in his heart, and words of reproach should no longer find utterance from his tongue. But he glorified God that such events had taken place, that the Texians had, of themselves, and by themselves, been enabled to achieve this most glorious victory—that the Anglo Saxon language, and the Anglo Saxon spirit of liberty were now im-planted, with the Anglo Saxon race of men, on the plains of Texas; and he would say to the gallant Textans, when they had passed the Alamo and Golind, "Onward, onward! Never look back until the flag of Liberty shall wave over the city of Mexico." He thought, as the Texans had achieved so much clory, they ought to be left to them-

The question being on the motion of Mr. Robertson, to recommit the report with instructions to the committee to report a resolution declaring that Congress has no power to abolish slavery the District. Mr. Bynum spoke in opposition to

Mr. Pinckney, in reply to a ques ion, stated that the number of abolition memorials presented this session was 166; that the number of signatures was thirty-four thousand, of which 15,000 were females, and a large portion of the remainder children.

He further stated that he was in favor of the principle of the motion of Mr. Robertson, and had always held the opinion that Congress had not the constitutional power to interfere with slavery in the District of Columbia. But this question was disputed, and the committee, as well as the House, wished to avoid it. If it was pressed upon the House, it would be decided in the negative, and the impression would thereby be created that the House had affirmed the converse of the proposition. This would be of no benefit to the South, and would en-

It is painful to look at the blighted wheat fields of this region. Early in the spring, the prospect was pleasant to the eye and cheering to the heart—now it is absolutely appalling. During the last three weeks, vegetation has had the appearance of actually receding, and the ravages of the fly have been so fatal, that in many places the naked earth is presented, shorn of the rich verdure which for awhile covered its bosom. The late delightful rains have refreshed and invigorated other substances, but the wheat is beyond redemption.

(it will be seen by the annexed extracts from the most authentic periodicals of England, that Flexible is a horse of the highest quality: in his performances having beaten some of the finest horses on the English turf, having given to horses of his own age, great advantage, in weight; and at the age of 3 years, Flexible wen the extraordinary number of 9 races in that one year, and amongst them a four mile race with herey weight; and in his blood not only pure, but of the highest quality, his sire, 'Whalebone's, stock being considered universally in the periodicals as remarkable for their racing qualities, and his dam, after producing race horses, was purchased for the King of Prussia's breeding stud.]

The English Sporting Magazine says: "Ho was immediately afterwards saddled for a small handicep, giving to Borysthenes, five years old, no less than 13 lb and his year, heats! In this race he received an injury, from which he did not speedily recover, and was, after another trial, withdrawn from the turf.

English sporting works of standard authority:

"In Flexible, are thus united the blood of Matchem, Herod, and Eclipse. Flexible has beaten Longwaist," (equal to any horse of his day) "Dr. Faustus, Arashae, General Mina, Signorina, Whittington, Owestry, &c. &c. Flexible is full 15 hands and shalf high, with great muscular powers, and for nice proportion is equalled by few; his temper gentle, and nearly all his mares of last year are in foal."

"He is unequalled in strength of form, and his stock" (his get) "are worth looking at." "Flexible, one of the best aons of Whale-bone, descended from the two best Arabians, without an unfashionable cross. His speed and bottom or temper equalled any horse of his day."

Flexible is known to be a certain foal-getter. Two of his get only have run in public, one was a winner, and one ran very forward in a large aweepstakes.

JOSIAH WM. WARE,

"If any horse will do in your country Byron will; as to beauty and appearance he has no superior."

"Byron's colts are very much approved.— Dr. Minge told me that there were several of them with Timoleon, and that they were decidedly the handsomest with him."

"I give you are extract (because from the best authority) of a letter I received from Thomas Stubblefield, Esq. who stood Ryron last year, in relation to him, in which he says, "Byron's colts are of more promise
than any I have seen, the people are much,

and the most perfect beauty—he is worthy of encouragement.—Extracts from Colonel Johnson's letters in '30 and '31.

"Byron is a beautiful horse and on trial proved himself to be a great colt, but soon afterwards became lame and never had an opportunity of affording the proof he was able to give. Col. Johnson and Capt. Belcher, told me his trial over the New Market course, (Petersburg.) would have done credit to any horse in the world.—Extract from Capt. J. J. Harrison's tetter in 1831.

"I think him (Byron) finely bred, and one of the handsomest horses I ever saw. I never saw him run, but have heard his trainers speak highly of him."—Extract from J. M. Selden's letter in 1830.

"Byron, of whom you have heard, was purchased by me at 2 years old for $1500, is of the most approved blood in Virginia, and certainly the most beautiful animal in the world, and of the finest form. When three years old, Byron received an injury in one of his fore legs, which prevented him from ahowing any figure on the turf, though in a pricate trial which Col. Johnson saw, he pronounced him able to run with any horse of his age in the world. When let down entirely, Col. Johnson purchased him of me; his g: dam Bet Bounce, sold at fifteen years old for $2000, and produced her different owners in colts actually sold, $17,000; and I now have a letter by me, offering me $1500 for one of her colts two years old".—Extract of a letter from Dr. John Minge, to a gentleman of Hanover county, in 1830.

WILL stand this season at my stable,
A miles from Berryville, 6 from Snicker's Ferry, 8 miles from Charlestown, and 8 from Smithfield. The subscriber, having bred many of his best mares to Sir
Walter in the season of 1824, has been induced, by the great superlarity of his colts (experiment is the only sure test) to obtain hisservices for the present season.

From a wish to secommodate the circumstances of this section of country, in which is large gortion of the mares are not thorough bred, and where of course high prices for the season cannot be afforded, the subscriber has prevailed on his owner, Mr. X.
Robison, of Richmond, to put the services of Sir Walter Scott at a lower rate than any capital herse has heretofore stood at. The terms will be—for a single leap $10, to be, naid within the asson; otherwise, the season-price will be required. For he season $20, which may be discharged by the paymant of $15, on as before the last of August next for indurance $10, to be paid as soon as the mare is known to be in fool.—
(Parting with the mare or irregular attendance at the stand will forfeit the insurance.)
The season has commenced, and will termimate the first day of July next.

Sir Walter Scott will be seven years old this spring. In color he is a beautiful dark brown, theat of all colors for a stallion, for it is most apt to produce buys from mares of every color, 7 to hands high, and possessing all the requisites of strength, symmetry, bone and slivew.

Tyrant is not the only one of his dam's family that has become distinguished for his racing performances.
