Yesterday, after the debate had proceeded for some hours, Mr. Woolfolk (of Orange & Green) a warm and most decided partizan of the Administration, rose and re-nominated Mr. Tyler! The movement excited much astonishment, bu Mr. Tyler's apparent acceptance of a nomination from that quarter, by quitting his seat and leaving the Hall, excited more! This movement produced the deepest regret on the part of anumerous friends of Gov. Tyler, and a suspicion that so equivocal a proceeding had been arranged enneers between a fere, a ver tem While, and a portion of the Van Buren party. If this be so, what is demonstrated by it?
