A Case of Success Mr. Hooding Wheeler, of Petersham, (Vt.) was found hanging dead in his barn on Tuesday of last week. The cause of this suicide, as it has been told us, is somewhat singular. Mr. Wheeler, a month since, was a hearty old bachelor, verging upon three score and ten. But though old, his heart was not insensible to the "tender offices and affairs of love." In an unguarded hour, as it seems, he plighted his troth to a lady -we cannot say exactly how far .-In another moment " he did repent him of the rash act," and earnestly sought a release from the galling though silken chain. The lady was tenacious, and our bachelor generously offered one hundred dollars for a discharge. The lady pleaded blighted hopes, and, tearful as became her sex, would only account of twide that sum. The repentant lover thought this extertion, and refused; the pertinacious angel called nim a trifler, and threatened a suit for breach of promise. In the first place, I briefly state the promises and pledges of Mr. Smith to me at Keyes's sale. Incl. with him there and stated to him that the Whigs of Harpers-Ferry, Bolivar, &c. had he a meeting, and adopted sundry resolutions, in re ference to the second Whig meeting called in Charlestown; that the course pursued by the first nominees, (Messrs. Worthington & Baker,) in withdrawing, and subjecting themselves to the decision of another meeting, was a popular one nounce, such as his intention to the incetting in Charlestown on Monday. With this suggestion that then Dr. G. B. Stephenson and himself would be the nominees of the second meeting; and especially requested me to althe to all his friends at Harpers-Ferry, that he would be the last man in the county that would split or cause any division in the Whig party. Relying on this understanding with Mr. Smith I was suits
