PENNSYLVANIA BANKS .- The Resump. PENNSTAVANTA BANKS.—The Resumption Bill, as amended by the Senate of Pennsylvania, was before the House on Friday and Saturday. On Friday, Mr. Hegins moved to stiffe out the provision which makes a distinction between the note holders and depositors—the motion was negatived, 46 to 47. On Saturday a motion was made and carried, to recon-sider the vote on Friday, just mentioned above. In the course of the debate which followed, Mr. McPiwee (a leading Ad-estate with member, declared that he would not vote for the bill. He said it would not vote for the bill. He said it would never be approved by the Governor or the people. Mr. Hegins, in his speech in favor of the motion to strike out the clause making a distinction between note holders and depositors, asserted that the passage of the bill with the clause would have the effect of destroying every country bank in the Commonwealth. The question finally recurred on adopting the section as proposed to be amended by Mr. Hegins' motion, and the amendment was agreed to 49 41. And adjournment then took place.

. INTERESTING CASE.

My wife had been afflicted with a Chronic affec-ion of the liver for several years, but sufferings se-sere pain in the side, shoulders, extending series he back of the week lote the head, pain in the sto-ach with the assa, of the neek tote the head, pain to the sto-quach, with appression, had storette and debutte. At this stage of diseaser? commenced Dr. Brea-bach, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial. In the use of two hottles she was restored to better health than for several years, and could again aftered to the ordinary duties of the family. I have used it in the family in Cholera Morthus, Distribus, and Cholic with prompt relief. THOS. R. ELLIS. Senses co., Ohto, Dec. 19th, 1858.

For the last 20 years I have been subject to frequent and acvers attacks of sick or nervous Blood Ache. These attacks were often so violent as to sinfit one for business and confine me to bed. During this long period of suffering. I have never met with a remedy which would afford me more than partial relief until I communeced the use of Drs. I have been a violent attack a few days ago, and bacting found some exist on several occasions, from taking small quantities of this remedy. I now determined to give it a fair from I took three gloons, buff an now spart, one table-spounds can be not in the course of a short fire way so much relieved as to be able to go about for usual business.
