

Virginia Free Press.

OUR COUNTRY—THE RIGHTS OF THE STATES—UNION AND LIBERTY.

CHARLESTOWN, JEFFERSON COUNTY

Printed and Published Weekly

BY JOHN S. &amp; H. N. GALLAHER.

VOL. 33.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 28, 1840.

NO. 18.

A CARD.

BOGUE &amp; WEBSTER,

Fashionable Tailors,

Over the Market-House, Charlestown, Va.

THREE tailors having formed a company under the above firm, respectfully inform the public that they will be happy at all times to wait on those who may favor them with their custom. They have received the Eastern Spring Fashions, and are prepared to execute promptly and in superior style all orders in their line.FRANCIS S. BOGUE, THOMAS D. WEBSTER,
Charlestown, May 14, 1840.

Francis S. Bogue,

REPECTFULLY, though earnestly, call upon those inclined to him to close their accounts up to the 1st instant, the date of his co-partnership with Mr. Webster. All whose accounts are of six months standing are expected to make payment forthwith. It requires no more than a few moments to do this, and consequently indulgence may be looked for, as it cannot be granted; so he hopes this notice will not be disregarded by any one indeed.

May 21, 1840.

Dissolution of Co-partnership.

THREE partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, is this day (11th of May) dissolved by mutual consent. The books and papers will be closed on the 1st instant, left with Mr. John M. English, who is duly authorized to close the same. Persons interested will please call on him as early as possible and close their respective accounts.

The business in future will be conducted by John P. Smith, at the old stand.

JOHN P. SMITH,
Charlestown, May 14, 1840.

Tim, Copper, and Sheet-Iron Manufactory.

FRANCIS W. RAWLINS,

REPECTFULLY informs his friends and neighbors that he has opened a manufactory on his TIM COPPER, and SHEET IRON ESTABLISHMENT, at the old stand on the corner west of the Bank, where he will always keep on hand a large and general assortment of Tim, Copper and Sheet Iron Ware.

Made in the most approved and durable manner, and which he will sell upon the most reasonable terms. Farmers and others wanting any articles in his line, are respectfully invited to give him a call.

Orders for SPOUTING, &amp;c., executed with promptitude, the best Tin, &amp;c.

Charlestown, May 14, 1840.

HOOT &amp; SHOE FACTORY.

In Charlestown, Va.

THIS subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the HOOT & SHOE MAKING in the Shop on Main street, one door east of David Humphreys' Store, and now opposite the Savings Bank, Charlestown, and is now in full blast, making every article and every description of shoe in his line. He assures all those who may think proper to patronize him, that he will, neither spare pains nor exertions to make his work equal, in point of beauty or durability, to any other executed in this country.

CHARLES STONE,

Charlestown, April 30, 1840.

NEW

HOOT &amp; SHOE FACTORY.

In Charlestown, Va.

THIS subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the ROOT & SHOE MAKING in the Shop on Main street, one door east of David Humphreys' Store, and now opposite the Savings Bank, Charlestown, and is now in full blast, making every article and every description of shoe in his line. He assures all those who may think proper to patronize him, that he will, neither spare pains nor exertions to make his work equal, in point of beauty or durability, to any other executed in this country.

CHARLES STONE,

Charlestown, April 30, 1840.

LOG CABIN.

(No. Slender.)

M

IN MANUFACTORY is the Log Cabin, East of A. Hedges, where I invite my customers and others to call and see me, and if I cannot give them "hard cider," I will give them what will be more beneficial, good ROOTS and SOUP.

I am not vain enough to say that my work shall be equal to any made in the State of Virginia, but this much I will say, it will at least be equal to any made in this part of the country.

THOMAS LIKENS.

Charlestown, May 14, 1840.

SPRING AND SUMMER FASHIONS.

JAMES CLOTHIER, Tailor.

REPECTFULLY begs leave to inform his friends and customers, that he continues at his former stand one door west of J. B. Packard's store, and immediately opposite the store of A. C. & C. W. Meekins, where he may always be found ready to execute any order, however small, in the most prompt and expeditious manner.

He is particularly anxious to have his particular in stating the trouble of bargaining for the necessary of repairing his tailoring, and for the payment of his bills.

I must be satisfied. I must pay my horse by the price, and reduce to suit the meat repeat that all

according to the bill or persons.

THOMAS G. BAYLOR.

Charlestown, April 30, 1840.

REMOVAL.

WILLIAM HICKS,

Saddles and Harness Master.

WOULD respectfully inform his friends and customers, that he has removed his shop to the new building lately erected by Andrew Hunter, Esq., adjoining the old Clark's Office, one door West of Thompson's Hotel, and immediately opposite the Court-house, where he will keep his hand, and manufacture to order, at the shortest notice, and on moderate terms.

JAMES CLOTHIER.

Charlestown, May 1, 1840.

Saddles, Bridles, Harness, &amp;c., &amp;c., on the most reasonable terms.

He would take this occasion to return to his friends and customers his most grateful acknowledgments for the liberal patronage that has been extended to him since his commencement.

He pledges himself all well in his line, as far as he can be procured in the country, that he will still be favored with their custom.

Charlestown, March 30, 1840.

Sugar House Merchant.

W

EY SUPERIOR Sugar House Merchant for sale by J. E. MILLER.

PRESIDENT VAN BUREN'S STANDING ARMY.

From the Washington Statesman.

Address of JOHN CAMPBELL, Late Treasurer of the United States, to the People of his native County.Fellow-citizens—in the remarks I had the honor of submitting to you on your last court-day, at the request of many old friends and acquaintances, I had not then an opportunity of seeing the Bill which is at this time before Congress, in relation to the re-organization of the militia of the United States. My remarks were founded upon the report of the Secretary of War, made to the President of the United States, at the commencement of the present session of Congress; and in order that I might not misrepresent the Secretary, or injure the President, I will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the United States, and to give him (the President) the absolute command over them, twice a year, and there be subjected to any rules of discipline or government that he may think proper to establish. They can be marched to Richmond, Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore, or Delaware, twice a year, and are to be regarded as in the service of the United States from the time they are ordered from their homes until their return!

"And at a time, to be determined, when there is no war, no invasion, insurrection, or resistance to the laws."

Will here quote the section verbatim, as it has been recommended to Congress by the President, in order that you may form your opinions about it. It is in the following words:

"17. That the President of the United States, is to march them off some 3 or 400 miles to a place of rendezvous—to place them in the service of the

THE FREE PRESS.

CHARLESTOWN:

Thursday Morning, May 26, 1840

BOASTING.—The Richmond Enquirer seems to think its party entitled to the exclusive privilege of boasting. It is constantly finding fault with the Whigs for exercising their harnesses right; in reply to which the Fredericksburg Argus says—"The Whigs do boast—they are justly in boasting. They intend, too, to make good their boasting. They are just in the right frame of mind to ensure success—animated and encouraged by all the signs of the times and by every popular demonstration—but not so sanguine nor so confident as to induce the slightest relaxation of effort. They know too well the character and strength of their opponents; have, in just an appreciation of the power and influence of the Government, relaxed, for a moment, the vigor and continuity of their exertions."

The mission of Mr. EATON.—Plenipotentiary to the same Court, of course will now be at an end.]

Mr. FOSTER.—late of the U. S. Senate, one of the Whig Electors at large, for Tennessee, and is traversing the State and making addresses to the people on the Presidential question. In a paper before us we observe a list of appointments, amounting to THIRTY ONE, in the months of May and June. He is a man of very decided talent and eloquence, and must make a great impression. Three or four of the Van Buren electors have backed out from the contest, some alleging private engagements and others, deciding that they have not the "necessary documents" to defend the Administration.

EDITOR KENDALL.—We are not honored by an exchange with the Globe; but we infer from the following paragraph in the last Alexandria Gazette that Mr. Kendall's "excellence of composition," for the "benefit of his health," is very great:

"For a specimen of unabashed coarseness, vulgarity, abuse, and unfeeling contempt, we can hardly better than the editor of the Globe of Wednesday night. If such execrable, abominable, and foul minded a voter as he, still does not add to his cause of friends, there is no hope for the administration of this country. Such articles must disgust even the friends of the Administration."

A large army was raised and organised, as it was at that time declared necessary, by the administration, and was sent to the Executive, which, it was calculated, could best effectually be done by extending its patronage. The whole army, however, was disbanded without a cent of pay to its members, and was scattered over different parts of the Union, devoted to the will, and ready to defend every measure, of their benefactors, whether arbitrary or unjust."

Then, as this army, business of the elder Adams was thus regarded as a "monster of such hideous mein," is it the less Federal, monstrous, or hideous, when recommended and advocated by an Executive, under the garb and assumption of Democracy, as is now done by Mr. Van Buren, upon the most enlarged scale?

CONGRESS.—The Intelligencer of Friday last, says—"By a not unfitting succession of events, the Editor of Richmond Enquirer, after rejecting Mr. Clay's bill for preventing the passage of Government from coming in contact with the freedom of elections, has plunged into a discussion, which will necessarily be of great latitude, if not of great length, upon the three-rejected sub-Treasury scheme. The Administration seems to have staked every thing upon that bill, as it was the one only thing worthy of the care of a provident Government. Organised as the House now is, we shall not be surprised if the bill will pass that body and become a law. We desire no evil that good may come out of it; and therefore we hope, that the bill will not pass. We believe, nevertheless, that it, when passed, will, beyond doubt, be to accelerate the downfall of the Administration which will have forced it upon the People."

We have (says the Baltimore Patriot) a notable specimen of the selflessness and injustice of the Administration and its adherents, in their course upon the sub-Treasury bill. The anxiety of the President and his party to legalise as soon as possible, this scheme, by which the Executive has committed, or known will, and without law, to keep the public purse in his own possession and control, has caused them to sacrifice the Army, Navy, and Indian Appropriation Bills, and hundred of private claims, to take up the sub-Treasury bill. They have repeatedly refused to take up these supply bills, although pressed to do so by the Whigs. They have given to the Sub-Treasury precedence over them, although the Globe, and its echo in and out of Congress, have repeatedly proclaimed that each of these branches of the public service is suffering for the want of funds. Here we find the characteristic and callous selfishness of the Administration party exhibited. They have passed the appropriation bill, for paying the salaries of the President, and his Cabinet, and his troops of office-holders, civil and diplomatic, who hold their places as the rewards of party services. But they are content to let the Army and Navy officers wait for a more convenient season. We call the attention of those particularly interested, and the public generally, to these facts. If any suffering, if any prejudices, results to any branch of the service from the obstructions to the passage of the Appropriation bills, the Administration is to blame. The same majority who got up the Sub-Treasury, might have taken up the Appropriation bills. The Whigs urged that they should be taken up; but the Van Buren party being paid themselves, and the Treasury having no more to spare just now, refused.

LOUDOUN COUNTY.—With a Whig majority of 1,000 or upwards, at the last presidential election Loudoun gave but about 700 majority against Mr. Van Buren. But we are rejoiced to learn that the Whig interest county is fully alive to the importance of the present crisis, and have "resolved to do their duty in a political view more zealously and thoroughly than heretofore."

We have never seen (says the last Leesburg Washington) as large a political meeting in our county as the Whig one held in the Court-House on Tuesday last. The speakers of Merton Jones, and others, were entirely unprepared to respond to Mr. Jauncey's speech was mainly designed to show the unconstitutional and odious character of the Military Bill, the latest project of the Administration, and designed to place at the absolute disposal of the President a Standing Army of one hundred thousand men—and had it in a masterly and most conclusive manner. Very properly did he designate it the "Bloody Bill," and prove it to be alone congenial to the government of the Czars of Russia."

The Whigs of Hillsborough and neighborhood went to the meeting in procession, and were met and escorted low town by a number of the citizens of Leesburg. "A long line of mounted company, (says the Washington) headed by the fine Hillsborough band, with banners flying, music resounding, and a long cavalcade on wheels by eight white horses, constituted a most imposing display, which attracted great attention, and altogether presented one of the most animated scenes ever witnessed in our streets, through several of which it marched." Messrs. T. M. McMillan, Wm. Heath, William Divine, Samuel Cleland, Jr., John Cleland, Henton Purcell, C. A. Copeland, and John R. White were, we learn, the Marshals of the day."

Both boilers of the steam-boat Greenfield, plying between Hartford, Conn., and Greenfield, Massachusetts, exploded on the 18th instant, throwing the captain high in the air and injuring him so badly that he died in a few hours—killing the engine instantly, and severely wounding several others.

A terrible hail-storm, extending over a space of four miles wide and thirty in length, occurred in the neighborhood of Fairhaven, North Carolina, a few days ago. The half fell in masses as large as a man's fist, and some as large as St. Louis in circumference. Great crops, gardens, poultry, flocks, etc., were partly well and up."

Mr. Postmaster General NILES has arrived in this city, and entered on the duties of his office.—New O. Reg.

The Hon. Richard Dinkin, of Pennsylvania, has addressed a letter to his constituents, apprising them of his intention to resign his seat in Congress at the close of the present session. His health he assigns as the cause of his resignation.

AARON VAIL. (formerly Charge d'Affaires of the United States at London, and now, and for some time past, Chief Clerk in the Department of State,) has been appointed by the President of the United States, with the advice and consent of the Senate, to be Charge d'Affaires of the United States at the Court of Spain.

[The mission of Mr. EATON.

To the same Court, of course will now be at an end.]

Mr. FOSTER.—The Enquirer is constantly finding fault with the Whigs for exercising their harnesses right; in reply to which the Fredericksburg Argus says—"The Whigs do boast—they are justly in boasting. They intend, too, to make good their boasting. They are just in the right frame of mind to ensure success—animated and encouraged by all the signs of the times and by every popular demonstration—but not so sanguine nor so confident as to induce the slightest relaxation of effort. They know too well the character and strength of their opponents; have, in just an appreciation of the power and influence of the Government, relaxed, for a moment, the vigor and continuity of their exertions."

There is certainly no dependency—not in their overweening confidence. Assured of the rightness of their cause and of their growing strength, rejoicing in their unanimity and encouraged by the signs of dismay in the enemy camp, the Whigs are more than ever attentive to discipline—and never was the levy en masse seen under so admirable an organization."

EDITOR KENDALL.—We are not honored by an exchange with the Globe; but we infer from the following paragraph in the last Alexandria Gazette that Mr. Kendall's "excellence of composition," for the "benefit of his health," is very great:

"For a specimen of unabashed coarseness, vulgarity, abuse, and unfeeling contempt, we can hardly better than the editor of the Globe of Wednesday night. If such execrable, abominable, and foul minded a voter as he, still does not add to his cause of friends, there is no hope for the administration of this country. Such articles must disgust even the friends of the Administration."

Mr. FOSTER.—We are not honored by an exchange with the Globe; but we infer from the following paragraph in the last Alexandria Gazette that Mr. Kendall's "excellence of composition," for the "benefit of his health," is very great:

"For a specimen of unabashed coarseness, vulgarity, abuse, and unfeeling contempt, we can hardly better than the editor of the Globe of Wednesday night. If such execrable, abominable, and foul minded a voter as he, still does not add to his cause of friends, there is no hope for the administration of this country. Such articles must disgust even the friends of the Administration."

THE ARTS OF ADIE EDITORS.

We were greatly at a loss to perceive how it came to pass, that the Enquirer and ourselves differed so widely as to the aggregate of the returns of the late Election, when we did not differ as to the individual return. Our statement showed a Whig majority of 10, counting Gen. Bayly as a Whig.—In the Enquirer of the 6th inst., there is a tabular statement showing the strength of the House of Delegates for 1840, Whigs 69, Adm. 62—while for 1840, the relative strength is thus given, Whigs 67. Adm. 63. A correspondent of the Whig unravels the mystery. Aware that figures cannot lie through mistakes may occur. In addition, he took the trouble to add up for himself, and behold the result—the very statement inserted in the Enquirer showed that the flat for 1840, when rightly summed, made 70 Whigs and 61 Van Buren men, making the total 131. This was clearly incorrect.

TRIAL OF B. DABNEY.—The examination of Mr. Dabney was closed, yesterday, on the part of the Commonwealth.

The cross-examination was then commenced, and was not concluded when the Court adjourned. It will probably continue through to-day, and possibly to-morrow and next day—for the whole affair of the bank are scrutinized, and the trial seems to be as much a trial of the bank as of Green.—Richmond Whig.

TRIAL OF B. W. GREEN.—We learn from the Richmond Whig that the cross examination of Mr. Dabney was continued on Thursday, without closing. Nothing new or important has been elicited since the examination in chief. As soon as the trial is over, adds the Whig, we hope to be able to give all the material points in the testimony. As much currency has been manifested to know Mr. Dabney's

"THE EXCITEMENT OF COMPOSITION."

The following is the Ex-Postmaster General's first movement "for the benefit of his health." Twenty thousand copies of the following precious confidential letter are at this moment preparing for the mails. Amos calls upon all the officeholders to help him put down "the daring efforts now making by the People to conquer those who are in possession of the Treasury. It will be seen that he says, if you won't spare a dollar, send a half-dollar."

If this appeal does not enable Mr. Kendall and his Federal Vanites conspirators to put down the daring effort now making by the People, we advise him to take a commission under General Poindexter, and call out the standing army, and if the People won't give way before the 200,000 militiamen, then bring out the bloodhounds and "let slip the dogs of war."

Washington, May 26, 1840.

Mr. DABNEY.—Having embarked, with consciousness of right and hearty good-will, in defense of the Whigs and their party, he has formed a part, I earnestly invoke your assistance in rendering my efforts effective by disseminating the enclosed address, and obtaining subscribers to the Extra-Globe throughout your region of country.

As a farmer, mechanic, and workingman, should have one; and if they cannot well spare a dollar each, two or more should unite together to take one.

Subsidized by an enthusiastic devotion to the President ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails nothing if Mr. Poindexter concocts a scheme so heinous, so revolting, that the official organ of the administration ever gave his approbation to the details of the scheme, and distinctly throws all the responsibility upon Mr. Poindexter, with a flourish and complacency to his firmates. We do not believe this is true—nor is it fair towards the Secretary. But however this may be, it avails

H. LAUGHLIN:
so far, for the benefit family of THOMAS H.
Timmons, it appears from President of the late on V. L. McMahon,
the whole only to $30 12, of which sum erved from the State of and nearly $300 from the Mr. McMahon is in this statement owing to ports abroad as to the tributions, and that his e considered, as giving in, and might in some the intention of the Reso ing received was suffi the objects of the names of the donors ations are completed) are Romney Intelligencer.

N.C. POSSUM.

of the recent affair, at even as follows in the St.
It is the keenest kind
on record;

— commanding that
hell with a shirt over it,
that any attempt to re
ent would excede the
ace of insurance from
the while the sheriff
and Captain Raines re
discovered, he recovered
pony track, and some
was he at the success
that he placed another
eared, covered with a
It exploded, and
spot, it was discovered
had lied an opposer to
to escape, had explod
the Indians had stationed
as they came up, fired
killing one sergeant and
Captain Raines
ree privates. The In
estimated from $20 to

is Casualty of the 10th
ards Indians have mas
family of whites, who
ity of Blountstown.

New York American.

our harbor, some days Arabian man-of-war that Albanic is an occurrence.

The Sultan was of teak-wood, and is a elled and well equipped and crew are all Ara oriental costume of

and log boats pre pears on a ship's

commanded by a Captain

whose bearing has

grace of the Arabians.—

usucat to whom she e out on a commercial

a treaty effected with in 1830; loaded with treasures, and among them the President, two fine a box of pearls, a saffre, — LECISLATURE.—The

discussion on the 31st

appropriation bill report

Improvement Com

Mr. Snowden reported

h. contained a provision umption Bill of the late

Banks to re

of October next.

Bell America.

of Philadelphia, the mur her, [acquitted upon

of insanity.] has been

Court of Oyer and Ter

into the custody of his

of the ball bond is sureties are justified in

it. It is stated in the

“that he is now on part of the Union, in

of his bail.”

A. HORNIG.—The late

Philadelphia, who died

only lamented, made an

in his will that one dollar of his estate be ed in making his old

as long as he lives.—

that he shall be quar

every night, be regularly clean, and had just an agreeable and healthy than this. This fact

benvolence and kind

Doctor.

MAKED ME TO WORK.—

mark of my own but had graced the first cir husband was repul

who in the commercial

in common with many

all the profits of year

my mother learned me to see looked as happy in

as ever it did when the pamphlets of luxu

his wife is a treasure, she has been, had

urned her to work.—

[Boston Times.]

—We have been

apple, from the garden

log, or other fruit, fine;

and what is more,

have just finished eat

raps brothers on the

we appeared at Sav

cold temperature less

curious than desirable, ates there are 90 Col about 9000 students, 97

with 2700 students; and 300 students.

what you doin' air?"

ll what you goin' to do but some we're for

Tom?"

ny that little account indeed I didn't think so I must be off or I

11."

as Mr. Gaillard said in a punch in the pocket

—

AN OBSERVER.

Q U E R Y .
Would it not be advantageous to the Rail-road Company, and more agreeable to travellers to leave from Charlestown, than the Depot, than make the circuitous route open for the accommodation of a few days since the cars arrived at the Depot during a most violent storm, and the door of the house found locked, and the agent and sub-agent both elsewhere upon business (I suppose) of more importance. Among the several passengers who got out of the car, was a poor woman who was in great distress, and who had nothing to protect her from the storm. In her distress she was obliged, in order to protect her child, to raise the skirt of her dress over it, and necessarily expose her ankles to the gaze of the crowd. If this was the only time the depot had been closed against travellers, it might be overlooked, but as far as I can learn, it too frequently occurs.

AN OBSERVER.

HARRISON MEETING.
At a large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Harper's Ferry, friendly to the cause of HARRISON and REFORM, held at the United States Hotel on Saturday evening the 23d Inst., on motion, F. BECKHAM was appointed Chair man, and M. O'BRIEN, Secretary. The object of the meeting being briefly stated by Wm. H.
Thompson, Esq., in a forcible and eloquent speech portrayed the evils and corruptions practiced by the present administration; and briefly advocated the claims of Gen. Wm. Henry Harrison upon the American People for their support at the coming Presidential election.

Major concluded his remarks. Capt. John S.
Dugald, of the 1st Regt. N.Y. Inf'y, said that he had a shirt over it, that any attempt to re cent would excede the
ace of insurance from
the while the sheriff
and Captain Raines re
discovered, he recovered
pony track, and some
was he at the success
that he placed another
eared, covered with a
It exploded, and
spot, it was discovered
had lied an opposer to
to escape, had explod
the Indians had stationed
as they came up, fired
killing one sergeant and
Captain Raines
ree privates. The In
estimated from $20 to 100.

Dr. STRAITH, of the 10th

ards Indians have mas

family of whites, who
ity of Blountstown.

newspaper.

— commanding that
hell with a shirt over it,
that any attempt to re
cent would excede the
ace of insurance from
the while the sheriff
and Captain Raines re
discovered, he recovered
pony track, and some
was he at the success
that he placed another
eared, covered with a
It exploded, and
spot, it was discovered
had lied an opposer to
to escape, had explod
the Indians had stationed
as they came up, fired
killing one sergeant and
Captain Raines
ree privates. The In
estimated from $20 to 100.

Dr. STRAITH, of the 10th

ards Indians have mas

family of whites, who
ity of Blountstown.

newspaper.

— commanding that
hell with a shirt over it,
that any attempt to re
cent would excede the
ace of insurance from
the while the sheriff
and Captain Raines re
discovered, he recovered
pony track, and some
was he at the success
that he placed another
eared, covered with a
It exploded, and
spot, it was discovered
had lied an opposer to
to escape, had explod
the Indians had stationed
as they came up, fired
killing one sergeant and
Captain Raines
ree privates. The In
estimated from $20 to 100.

Dr. STRAITH, of the 10th

ards Indians have mas

family of whites, who
ity of Blountstown.

newspaper.

— commanding that
hell with a shirt over it,
that any attempt to re
cent would excede the
ace of insurance from
the while the sheriff
and Captain Raines re
discovered, he recovered
pony track, and some
was he at the success
that he placed another
eared, covered with a
It exploded, and
spot, it was discovered
had lied an opposer to
to escape, had explod
the Indians had stationed
as they came up, fired
killing one sergeant and
Captain Raines
ree privates. The In
estimated from $20 to 100.

Dr. STRAITH, of the 10th

ards Indians have mas

family of whites, who
ity of Blountstown.

newspaper.

— commanding that
hell with a shirt over it,
that any attempt to re
cent would excede the
ace of insurance from
the while the sheriff
and Captain Raines re
discovered, he recovered
pony track, and some
was he at the success
that he placed another
eared, covered with a
It exploded, and
spot, it was discovered
had lied an opposer to
to escape, had explod
the Indians had stationed
as they came up, fired
killing one sergeant and
Captain Raines
ree privates. The In
estimated from $20 to 100.

Dr. STRAITH, of the 10th

ards Indians have mas

family of whites, who
ity of Blountstown.

newspaper.

— commanding that
hell with a shirt over it,
that any attempt to re
cent would excede the
ace of insurance from
the while the sheriff
and Captain Raines re
discovered, he recovered
pony track, and some
was he at the success
that he placed another
eared, covered with a
It exploded, and
spot, it was discovered
had lied an opposer to
to escape, had explod
the Indians had stationed
as they came up, fired
killing one sergeant and
Captain Raines
ree privates. The In
estimated from $20 to 100.

Dr. STRAITH, of the 10th

ards Indians have mas

family of whites, who
ity of Blountstown.

newspaper.

— commanding that
hell with a shirt over it,
that any attempt to re
cent would excede the
ace of insurance from
the while the sheriff
and Captain Raines re
discovered, he recovered
pony track, and some
was he at the success
that he placed another
eared, covered with a
It exploded, and
spot, it was discovered
had lied an opposer to
to escape, had explod
the Indians had stationed
as they came up, fired
killing one sergeant and
Captain Raines
ree privates. The In
estimated from $20 to 100.

Dr. STRAITH, of the 10th

ards Indians have mas

family of whites, who
ity of Blountstown.

newspaper.

— commanding that
hell with a shirt over it,
that any attempt to re
cent would excede the
ace of insurance from
the while the sheriff
and Captain Raines re
discovered, he recovered
pony track, and some
was he at the success
that he placed another
eared, covered with a
It exploded, and
spot, it was discovered
had lied an opposer to
to escape, had explod
the Indians had stationed
as they came up, fired
killing one sergeant and
Captain Raines
ree privates. The In
estimated from $20 to 100.

Dr. STRAITH, of the 10th

ards Indians have mas

family of whites, who
ity of Blountstown.

newspaper.

— commanding that
hell with a shirt over it,
that any attempt to re
cent would excede the
ace of insurance from
the while the sheriff
and Captain Raines re
discovered, he recovered
pony track, and some
was he at the success
that he placed another
eared, covered with a
It exploded, and
spot, it was discovered
had lied an opposer to
to escape, had explod
the Indians had stationed
as they came up, fired
killing one sergeant and
Captain Raines
ree privates. The In
estimated from $20 to 100.

Dr. STRAITH, of the 10th ards Indians have mas</p

MAXWELL.
BY MISTER HUNTER.
Queen of fresh flowers, Whom vernal stars obey, Bring thy warm showers, Bring the social ray.
In Nature's peaceful river, down, Descend, and wash thy ample breast,
To earth and Heaven's welcome guest,
Thou merry month of May!

Mark how we meet thee,

Mark how we greet thee!

Hark! how we greet thee!
With all our rapturous glee!

While all the goodly things that be

In earth, in air, and ample sea,

Are waking up to welcome her,

Now merry month of May!

Flowers on the mountains

And buds upon the spray;

Trees, and birds, and holiday!

And love, the life of living things;

Love warms his bough, and claps his wing;

And land with his praises sings,

Thou merry month of May.

To preserve Corn from the Cat-Worm, It may not perhaps be known to all our brother farmers, that a handful of saleratus, lime, or lime-salts, applied to each bush of corn, will effectually protect it from the ravages of that pest, which has been the curse of our country for many years.

A madman once described money thus:

"Money is a necessary convenience. It entitles me to what I am entitled to, temper my wants, and salt my meat."

The New Comers.—A lady in this country presented her husband with twin boys a few days since; they were baptized Harrison and Taylor, and are familiarly called Tay and Tay.—Cin. Gaz.

Knows his Name.—He knows his name, I know he knows his name. His friends know he knows his name, and his enemies know he knows his name, of course he knows he knows his name.

SHENANDOAH RIVER LAND FOR SALE.

I purchased a tract of land last fall at settlement of Daniel Shambrough's estate, I will offer for sale at public auction, on Saturday the 6th day of June next, the PARCEL on the north bank of the Shenandoah river in Warren county, V. G., on which the said Daniel Shambrough, died, formerly lived, and which is now in the possession of his son, Daniel Shambrough, Jr., Esq., about 150 acres of fruit-bearing bottom. The buildings are a comfortable dwelling, large
new BARN, STABLES,
etc. Possession will be given on the first of September, to the highest bidder, right to his own credit. The terms will be automatic paid on the 1st of September, for which personal security will be required, and

the balance in two equal payments, without interest, to be secured by deed of trust on the property. JACOB S. DANIEL, Esq., Rock creek country, May 7, 1840.—46.

TWO VALUABLE FARMS
FOR SALE.

I have for sale two valuable farms, situated in the PALMER, in Berkeley county, on the road leading from Martinsburg to Winchester, formerly occupied by Benjamin Conner, Esq., and now by Douglas Campbell, Esq., as my tenant. This farm is too well known to require any description. It is a fine farm, containing about 150 acres, and is comfortable dwelling, large

BARN, STABLES, etc. Possession will be given on the first of September, to the highest bidder, right

to his own credit. The terms will be automatic paid on the 1st of September, for
which personal security will be required, and
the balance in two equal payments, with-
out interest, to be secured by deed of trust on
the property. JACOB S. DANIEL, Esq., Rock creek country, May 7, 1840.—46.

NEW GOODS.

MATHER & WHITE

We have just received a new supply of well assorted and fashionable Spring and Sum-

GOODS.

They would invite their customers and the public generally to call and examine their stock, which is now very complete and very cheap.

Shepherdstown, April 22, 1840.

New Spring Goods.

This subscriber has just received a large supply of No. 1, 2, and 3, Durlips.

Fax and tow Linens,

Panting Linens,

Cotton Osnaburg,

4-4 brown Sheetings,

7-8 do. do.

6-7 do. do.

All of which, will be sold very low.

W. H. CHESTERFIELD.

Summit Point, March 5, 1840.

Cashmere, Drills, &c.

We have received a large lot of summer

Cashmere, Linen Drills, &c., suitable for gentlemen's wear, a part of which consists of Wool dyed Cashmere,

Linen Drills, &c.

Victoria Supply Cloth, (new stripe.)

Burdette Drills (new article.)

Eminent do.

For sale by T. C. SIGAFOOSE & CO.

April 16, 1840.

Cheap Groceries.

This subscriber has just received a fresh and good supply of GROCERIES.

Loaf and Brown Sugar,

Rice and Java Coffee,

Tea, Currants, Raisins, &c.

Chocolates, Biscuits, &c.

Champagne, Wine, &c.

Sugarhouse Molasses,

Spirits and Mould Chardons,

Sperm and Fish Oil,

And a general supply of almost every description of Groceries, which will be sold very low.

W. H. CHESTERFIELD.

Summit Point, March 5, 1840.

Patent Drills.

W. H. CHESTERFIELD.

Summit Point, March 5, 1840.

SILKS.

Black and blue Italian Luteskins,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments, in various styles,

Plain, figured, and colored silk, for dresses,

and other ladies' garments