PHYPOTERLEADED:

Thursday Morning, October 15. THE CONVENTION .- It was our good fortune to be one of the many thousands who had the pleasure of attending the late great Whig State Convention at Richmond—and we regret that every Whig in this good old Commonwealth was not there, to listen to the many able and elequent speeches on the occasion, and to witness the patriotic spirit manifested by our friends from every quarter of the State. We can assure our friends in this section, that, their efforts in the good cause of Harrison and Reversi will be nobly seconded in other parts of the State that the right spirit is abroad every where-and that we must triumph in Virginia by thousands, if this spirit be, kept up, as we doubt not it will, smill Monday the second of November — Keep the ball in motion two weeks longer-and then come to the polls, one and all, and your efforts will be crowned with a success as graiffying to every genuine friend of Reform, as it will be astounding to the supporters and advo-cates of all the ruinous and destructive measures, principles and practices of the Admin-istralism for the last twelve years. Keep in mind the numberless abuses and outrages of your rulers since the reign of Jackson and Van Burenism—remember that they promised to re-trench public expenditures, and have increased by a larger regionity. them from thirteen to thirty-nine millions per

THE RICHMOND ENQUIRER ESTI-MATE .- On the 22d of last month (Septem ber) the Richmond Enquirer put forth a calculation, or estimate, in regard to the vote for the licket of each party, and we have added the Presidency at the coming election. In this ealculation, the State of Maryland was put down as "certain" for Van Buren. Virginia and Ohio V. B. were also put down among the States certain for Van Buren. Yet, notwitstanding these very liberal claims on the part of the spoils candidate, the list of "certainties" amounted to only 115 votes in the aggregate, and fell short of the number necessary to elect him by 29 votes -Counting Maryland as "CERTAIN" for Van Buren, there still lacked 33 votes to elect him-

Though this estimate was put forth so lately as the 22.1 ultimo, Maryland has since spoken, and has proclaimed, in a voice of thunder, that she is now and forever against the spoilers, and that the cartainty of the case is, that she will go for Harrison, by thousands.

But the point to which we would call attention is this: If so lately as two weeks ago, the nove perienced calculator of the spoils party raise even a plausible estimate, without putting down Maryland as certain for Van Buren, and, even with that assumption, could be elect him in paper, how desperate is the plight in which the foily, which can now anticipate his re-elec-
