JOHN W. MURDAUGH, Esq. It will be remembered by those who aftended Late Van Buren Festival at the Flowing Spring, that a Robert Thompson Meffet was one of the orators on that occasion, and that his speech consisted chiefly in coarse abuse of JOHN W. MURDAUON, Esq., the gentleman whose, name stands at the head of the Whig Electoral Picket of Virginia. Moffat stated that Mr. Murdaugh, white here in attendance upon the late Whig Festival, at the same place, made sundry charges against him, affecting if true his character as a gentleman; but, all of which charges he most emphatically pronounced false, and declared at the top of his voice. Mr. Murdaugh "a liar, poltroon, and scoundrel," for having made them, which drew from many of the crowd around him the most vociferous huzzas Moffat is a native of Portsmouth, Va., and recently came to Leesburg (upon the recommendation of the notorious Fisk) as the proper perser to edit the "Spirifof Democracy," a new V. one whom, when in their own town of Portsmouth, he dared not attack-evincing, as it did, gratuitons malignity on the part of Mr. Murdaugh, and rendering his conduct repre-" hensible in the highest degree," &c. &c.

Whereupon, the Whig party of Leesburg also held a public meeting upon the subject, and, without denouncing Maffat for his abuse of Mr. Murdaugh, simply called upon Mr. Murdaugh (who also resides at Portsmouth) to furnish such proof of charges alleged against Moffat as might relieve himself from the imputation cast upon his character by the resolutions of the Democratic Association."

In compliance with this demand, Mr. Moe daugh promptly furnished the "proof" of his charges against Moffat, and which proof is embraced in the proceedings of a Whig meeting in Leesburg, published in the last papers of that place. Mr. Murdaush, after detailing the man

."Benjamin Harrison, a signer of the declaration of independence, was of a highly respectable family in Virginia. The date of his birth is not precisely known .- He was a student in the College of William and Mary, when his father and two sisters were simultaneously killed by a stroke of lightning. He went early into public life, (in which his ancestors had long been distinguished) commencing his political career, in 1764, as a member of the legislature of his native province. The eminence which he acquired in that capacity, combined with the influence naturally accruing from Ist—Do you believe the people of the right to discuss any subject, that to them may seem worthy of consideration?

THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF THE PARTY. The following notice of the father of the Peoe's Candidate for the Presidency is copied from Encyclopedia Americana published in 1830, will be read with interest at the present

THE WAYS AND THE MEANS OF COR-RUPTION.

A writer in the New York Express, under the ignature of Aristides, who is engaged in examing the expenditure of public money in the om-House of that city, makes some curius developments. We subjoin a couple of paagraphs of his last letter, from which it appears hat the expense of 'collecting the customs at hat port has been increased by something like wo hundred per cent. since Mr. ADAMS's Adnistration, the number of persons employed in nat business being increased from one hundred and forty to four hundred and fifty ! / What a orps of pensioners is thus constituted many of hom are notoriously engaged in the business of ly any contribute a certain portion of the money they receive from the Administration in a fund for defraying electioneering expenses!

During the eight years that Mr. THOMP-ON was collector, the revenue amounted to $100,000,000, Mr. V. therefore colcied yearly on an average $12,500,000. Mr. How came into office on the 29th March, 1838, and collected from the 1st of April, 1938, to the 3/1st of March, 1840, lusive, being two /years, $24,220,510 69 cents. Mr. H. therefore collected on an average yearly, for two years, $12,-

It follows that Mr. Thompson, on anaverage yearly, for eight years together, collected more than Mr. Horr has done on a yearly average, by the sum of $389,-744 651 contain The greatest amount of evenue collected in any one year by Mr. THOMPSON AS $15,700,000. The greatest amount collected by Mr. Hoyr in any one year, is $13,970.332 27 cents.— So that we here see that Mr. Thoyreson exceeds Mr. Hoyr's greatest amount of collection, in any one year, by the sum of $1,729 667 73 cents. To do this, Mr. THOMPSON employed 140 officers and erks, and expended $149.498 $1 cents; while Mr. Hoyr, in collecting what he has done, employed according to the Na-tional Register of the 30th of September, 839, 452 officers, clerks, &c. and expendd $507,561 28 cents; employing 312 officers, clerks, &c. more than Mr. THOMPSON, and increasing the expendiures of collection 358,062 47 cents Look, fellow-citizens, at this enormo ncreased expense, and consider whether there is any thing in the increase of imports to justify this great difference ! Desend upon it something else is at the botom of all this besides the mere collection the revenue, which I think I shall ke appear before I am done. ARISTIDES.

It is to the latter part of the-resolution that we call attention. "Books of instruction" are to be opened in certain counties and districts which have returned Whigs to the next Legislature, to ascertain the sense of the People on the propriety of electing Administration Senators next winter! Did ever arrogance suggest or folly approve, so preposterous a proposition? What is the ground work of it? Why that the People were drunk in April, but may be sobered by November! An appeal from "Philip drunk, to Philip sober!" Will the People acknowledge that they were drunk in April, and honor the federal impertinence which makes the assumption?
