THE BLIND BOY. WRITTEN BY MISS GOULD.

Composed and Sung by Mr. Dempater. Oh! tell me the form of the soft sommer air. That tosses so gently the curls of my hair: It breathes on my lip, and it fans my warm cheek.

Yet gives me no answer, though often I speak; feel it play o'er me refreshing and kind, Yet I cannot touch it-I'm blind, ch! I'm blind!

And music, what is it? and where does it dwell I sink and I mount with its cadence and swell; While touched to my heart with its deep thrill- country, and seek a home and fortune in ing strain. Till pleasure, till pleasure is turning to pain: What brightness of hues are in music combined? Will any one tell me?-I'm blind, oh! I'm

Now, so far as the information of the writer extends, he can say without hesitation, that the "Convention" plan is very far from being the most acceptable mode of nomination; the objections are - 1st, The Convention can be too easily packed. Secondly, The members receive those whom they propose to represent And thirdly, The Convention holds its session in secret. The first objection may be sustained by fact, that so entirely is it considered a matter of form to appoint the delegates to the Conven- |bly, but indisputably true. tion that not more than a dozen persons can be mustered to accomplish the object. The consequence is that a designing man, by mustering a few favourites, may nominate his chairmanthe chairman will then appoint the individuals agreed upon, in secret caucus, who will accomplish their wishes in the county Convention (so catted) and thus a fraud may be practiced upon amongst the holders, and they were glad amount of the Treasury notes authorised by the the community. The second objection may be to sell them at I per cent. discount. sustained by the position that ten or a dozen persons is too small a number of voters to bind the action of the mass in each precinct, and cannot be a fair exponent of the popular will .-And thirdly, the Convention throws a veil over its actions by meeting in secret, if the writer is correctly informed, and vote by ballot. This is the case is altered. The people there are accountable to no one-they are acting for themcourse they pursue.

Now, Messrs. Editors, the remedy for all objections is very simple-ir is that the people should meet and do their own business for themselves. At March Court all the people there be played off. The people will take care of their own interests. And I will state as evidence that this mode of nomination able, that a very large proportion of the county have been given in the county of the followed in a speech which has suggestion in regard to the followed in a speech which has suggestion in regard to the principal of the county of the county have been given in the county of the county have been given in the county of the county have been given in the county of the of the county have been given in. The Court-house is not more than two hours ride from the door of any of our citizens, and hence the needlessness of appointing others to do that which we can so readily accomplish ourselves. With these arguments, pro and con, Messre. Editors, I but express the wishes of a large portion of the Whige.

I desire you to state that there will be a meeting of the Whigs at March Court for the purpose of nominating two fit persons as candidates for the Legislature.

Unless by some sub-equent proceeding the new McLeod should have been arrested a second time after having been once discharged from the custody of the law we may congratulate our readers upon the case having been disposed of without waiting for the interposition of the General Government, as appears by the following account of it:

From the Niagara (Lockport) Courier of March 2. ANOTHER McLEOD CASE.

Considerable excitement prevailed among our citizens yesterday, in consequence of the greet of J. Sheridan Hogan one of Her Majesty's Canadian subjects, on suspicion of having been one of the party who were engaged in the destruction of the Caroline. Hogan passed through this place, a few days since, on his way to Rochester, and on his return last Monday, information having been received that he was engaged in the Schlosser outrage, he was arrested, at a late hour in the night, and committed to jail for examination. Yesterday afternoon he was brought up before Justice Leonard. with Lot Clark and H. Gardner, Esgre. for counsel, District Attorney Wood acting for the people-the court room being crowded almost to suffication with anxious speciators. A motion to discharge the legality of the warrant being sustained, the court adjourned till to day at ten

A Southern paper has the following . There is a man living in the Black River settlement, Parish of Concordis, who is so ugly that he deadens the trees whereever he rides or walks; this individual country there is a lady so sweet, that the placed river known as the great Black. turns to thickest honey whenever her rosy lips brighten up with enchanting smiles.

THE LATEST -They have a bass singer in Ohio, who it is said, went once so low, that he has never been able to get up again since, and a gentleman so cold in his manners, that whenever he enters a room the thermometer falls to the freezing point.

Ten to One .- Strict attention to office hours is a duty incumbent upon every public officer. We have heard of a case of an American consul in a foreign country, who was not remarkable for his attention to duty. A gentloman calling one day, found his office shut, and a label "In from ten to one." Having called again several times within those nours without finding him, he wrote at the bottom of the label "Ten to one be's not in."

Connubial Happiness.—A New York paper says: "There is a woman living in Chesham who has two husbands, and one Court-house in the said town of Charlestown.

A Conv.—Teste of these husbands has three wives."

A preacher, in a funeral sermon on a lady, after summing up her good qualities, VIRGATA, to Wif: added, that "she always reached her husband's hat when called for without muttering."

Absence of Mind .- A gentleman in this city, not long since, put his spectacles on over his ears and walked sideways nearly two miles through a violent storm of rain.

May 27, 1841.-1v. Martinsburg. SHERMAN'S ORM LOZINGIES BROVED in more than 400,000 cases to be infallible, the only certain worm-destroying medihim cine ever discovered. Many diseases arise from with their custom, he hopes to receive a liberal worms, and occasion long and intense suffering, and even death, without their ever being suspected: grown persons are very often afflicted with them and are dectored for various complaints, without any benefit, when one dose of these Lozenges would speedily cure them. Mr. J. Murphy, 30 North street, Philadelphia, was applied to by a poor wom in whose daughter, 7 sears old, had been sick for nearly 3 years; her stomach was as large as a grown person's, her arms and legs so swollen that she could not walk or help bergelf, although she cat as much as two laboring Two celebrated doctors had exhausted their skill without any benefit; the father had spent all e could raise and was discouraged; he abstaloned it idea of doing any thing more for her, and looked eath alone to take her out of misery. Mrs. Murphy believing it a case of worms, gave her a box of MERMAN'S WORM CANDY, and TWO DAYS she returned with joy beaming in her 3, and said the Worm Candy had saved the life her child. The first dote brought away nearly a nt of worms in one living mass; she afterwards counted 800 that were discharged, besides the mass which she could not count. The child was literilly eaten up with them-another living witness of almost miraculous efficacy of Sherman's Lozenges. This is only a solitary case out of over 3,000 persons who have given in their names during the last year as references of the wonderful vir-tues of these Cough Lozenges. They cure all re-cent cases in a few hours, seldom requiring more than one day to entirely eradicate the most distressing ones. A supply of these valuable Worm Candies just received. Price only 25 cents per box. For sale at the store of WM. ANDERSON.
