DIED At 5 o'clock, on Monday morning the 31st ult. in the 23d year of her age, after a severe fever of a fortnight's duration, Lucy Ashby, consort of Mr James Ashby, Editor of the Fredericksburg Arena. We are sorry to announce the death of Mr. GEORGE STEERS, one of the original six reformed drunkards of the city of Baltimore. One of the glorious six who started and gave Temperance its first impulse in Maryland, so that the good cause has reached in its influence the whole Union; and, like the rising sun, which first gilded the mountain top, it will gradually give its vivifying influence to all the nations of the earth. His name will long be remembered as a true friend of mankind - Hagerstown Pledge.
