OFFICE OF THE BALTIMORE AMERICAN, ? July 31, 5 P. M. CATTLE .- The supply of Beef Cattle at the Scales this morning was small, amounting to only about 150 head. The sales embraced about 120 head at prices ranging from $2 to $3 per 100 lbs. on the hoof, which is equal to $4 a $5,75 met, as in quality. The sales were principally. however, at intermediate rates. There are now 30 head in the market unsold.

HOGS .- There is a good supply of Live Hogs in market, and the demand continues small. Sales were made this morning at $3,75 FLOUR .- The demand for Howard st. Flour continues light, and we note a further decline in price. Sales of some parcels of fresh ground, of good standard brands have been made from store to-day at $4.75, at which price the article is now generally offered. The receipt price has de-clined also, and we now quote at $4,624. GRAIN .- There is a fair supply of Wheat in Market to-day and the quantity sold has been large. The sales of Md. red Wheats have generally ranged at 95 a 100 cts. for good to prime and of another cargo to-day at 92 a 101 cents ._ pay cash. WHEAT .- New is appearing and sells in small parcels at $1 per bushel. The Mills near, are all stopped for want of water, and unless rain somes soon, millers will not be willing to pay the present prices. We should not be surprised to see it down to 90 cents. The Wheat harvest is closed, with a fair average crop of better quality than for some years past.

CORN.—Sales of one cargo white at 50 cts.

BALTIMORE MARKETS .- The Baltimore American of Saturday says :-
