GALLANT HARRY. TUNE-Royal Charlie. Written for the Clay Clais of Germantawn, and do diested to all the Clay Clubs throughout the Once more, and at our country's call,

We're here this night to rally, From lowly cot and stately hall, From mountain top and valley, Come east, come west, Come strive your best; Oh! freemen do not tarry,
But strike the blow, your foes o'erthrow,
And shout for gallant Harry!
And shout for gallant Harry! But strike the blow, your foes o'erthrow, And shout for gallant Harry!

When doubt and gloom o'erspread the land, And e'en the boldest trembled, Who was it took the foremost stand, And never yet dissembled! Come south, come north, For this he'll stand the test of time, And live in noblest story!
And live in noblest story!
For this he'll stand the test of time,

And live in noblest story! Then pass his honor'd name around "l'ill echoes catch your thunder, The universal glad rebound, Shall make the Locos wonder! Come one, come all,

Brave boys no longer tarry,
But stand by him who never quail'd,
Our true and gallant Harry,
Our true and gallant Harry,
But stand by him who never quail'd, Our true and gallant Harry! There's not a lass in this broad land.

But vows she'd scorn to marry. The lad who don't give heart and hand, To glorious gallant Harry! Come east, come west, 'Tis ours the day to carry. And once again our foes o'erthrow,

Led on by gallant Harry,
Led on by gallant Harry,
And once again our focs o'es throw,
Led on by gallant Harry! Then here's a health to Harry's cause, Let not the wild notes tarry, Thy noble name our heart's blond warms, Thrice great and gallant Harry! We'll strive our best,

And know no rest. Till we the ships shall carry, And all our foes o'ercome or wor, Subdued by gallant Harry, Subdued by gallant Harry, And all our foes o'creome or won, Subdued by gallant Harry!

Our Western Hope—the hope of all, Through us shall not miscarry, For now we'er pledged to rise or fall, With noble, gallant Harry! Come o'er the plain,

Be weet all ready. From traitors once more our councils to free, We'll stand by gullant Harry.
