The following will show the protection afforded by the Whig Tariff of 1842, to the enumerated, agricultural articles, which are Dr meir culture, the protection to them could not be less, to afford that protection due from the country to the planting interests :

Cotton duty 3 ats. per pound. Sugar " 24 cts. per pound.
Beef 2 cts. per pound. Pork 2 cts. per pound. Ham and Bacon 3 cts. per pound. Cheese 9 cts. per pound. Butter 5 cts. per pound. Lard 3 cts. per pound. Potatoes 10 cts. per bushel. Flour $1 25 cts. per barrel. Wheat 25 cts. per bushel. Hemp $2 per hundred. Oats 10 cts. per bushel.

We have deemed it proper to sketch the above tems of protection afforded the Agriculturalists by the Tariff, because, from the manner in which the Locofocos speak of the Whig Turiff, one, who may never have read it, would infer that no other interest except that of the manufacturera were protected by it. And we will seize this occasion to say to farmers, that, if they stu dy their own interest, they will stick by the Tariff and support HENRY CLAY AND THE WHIGS, as both he and they cling to the prineiples of protection as the only shield left to the ducing and loboring classes of society.
