THE COMPROMISE ACT. Cuscaloosa (Alabama:)

"I look back, gentlemen, with conscientious satisfaction to my agency in the passage of the Compromise Law. The motives which governed me on that occasion, have been so often publicly avowed, that it is not necessary now to repeat hem. A leading one was the preservaion of that Union which is at once the basis and guarantee of all our rights, privinected with this subject should be known and leges and liberties, as a nation of freemen. It was then, as it has been long manifest to me, that the spirit of mutual the saide and compromise which presided at the birth of our constitution, should be constantly borne in mind during the administration of the Government. With that spirit, extremes are wholly incompatible. Ultraism would have prevented the formagain: "Congress have repeatedly, and not with- I tion of the Constitution, as it may in process of time endanger its existence. DIRECT TAXATION.

The Locofocos profess to be opposed to a tariff, and are the boasted advocates of free trade. There are only two modes of raising revenue, specified in the Contions by our opponents. Let them read what stitution, viz: duties on foreign importations, and direct taxes. If the Federal Locofocos are in reality in favor of free favor of direct taxation, as the inevitable consequence. If they are opposed to direct taxation, then they are also opposed to for ect taxation, then they are also opposed to for a tariff. But we shall not question. THE LAND OF DREAMS. O ! land with flowers of fadeless beauty beaming, How the glad rays, from out thy portals streaming, W. leome my steps once more !

Erial shapes, and forms of fancy's painting, Pilgrim! upon Life's rugged pathway fainting,

Enter! the rest that toil and woe denied thee Dwell in that pleasant land: There friends of other days will sit beside thee And clasp, in love, thy hand.

Those who to thee were kind and gentle-hearted, Meet thee with dear delight, And cluster round the lost one, the departed, With brows of angel-light.

Strains soft and low will soothe thee, like the flowing Of Childhood's loved streams; All things with mild and gentle light are glowing, Within the Land of Dreams.

Friends doomed by Fate's decrees to part for ever, Meet as in time of old; There naught their tried and trustings faith can sever Nor Love's pure flame grow cold.

Oh! would, when sorrow palls my weary vision, When Life delights no more, I might, within its groves and bowers Elysian, Dream on and wake no more!

Yet, there's a land where ne'er the spirit slumbers. But lives in waking bliss; Where Life's dull load no more its flight encumbers, A brighter land than this.

More lasting love than gladdened our ideal, With fair yet flecting beams; A purer bliss, a higher and more real, Than o'er we feel in dreams.

Dr D JATNE, Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, May 10, 1838. Dr Jayne-Dear Sir : I feel that I can hardly ay enough in favor of your Hair Tonic. My hair had been falling off for about two years, and had become very thin, threatening speedy baldness when I commenced using your remedy. In about one week it ceased to fall off. I have used it now for about three months and have as full and thick a head of hair as I can possibly lesire. I have recommended its use to a numher of my friends, who all speak well of it. If faithfully employed I have no doubt of its general success. I may add that before using your Tonic, I had tried many of the various articles employed for the hair, such as the Macassar Oil, James Moore, Andrew Hunter, and Wm. all the different preparations of Bear's Oil, Ve-

Gold seven times purified is much reduced in bulk. TS original size, when found connected as it is with its dross and impurities, would be about the average of a peck measure to a $5 piece of fine gold—and in such proportion can the medicinal pro-perties of roots and plants be extracted and concen-trated from their dross and impurities. Every body knows that nine grains of sniphate of quinine contains all the medicine to be found in 480 grains of Peruvian bark, from which it is extracted, and those nine grains may be put up in the form of two small pills, so that we have in two pills all the
