flow sweet the rest that Isbor yields The humble and the poor, Where sits the patriarch of the fields Before the cottage door!
The lark is singing in the sky,
The swallow in the caves,

And love is beaming in each eye Beneath the summer leaves! The air smid his fragrant bowers Supplies unpurchased health, And hearts are bounding 'mid the flowers More dear to him than wealth ;

Peace, the sunlight plays
Around his bumble cot,
And happy nights and cheerful days
Divide his lowly lot.

And when the village Sabbath beil Rings out upon the gale, The father bows his head to tell The music of its tale;—
A fresher verdure seems to fill The fair and dewy sod, And every infant tongue is still, To hear the word of God!

Oh! hearts! To Him who stills The ravens when they ery, And makes the lily 'ueath the hills So glorious to the eye.
The trembling patriarch prays, to bless
His labors with increase; Such "ways are ways of blessedness,"
And all such "paths are peace."

Specimens of Locofoco Changes. The Age last week under the head of 'Changes in Ohio,' published a card signed by Thomas B Gill. Adamson Peck, James M'Daid, A. N Milton and Edward Peck of Vernon Township, Ohio, purporting to be their renunciation of white principles, and pledge to support Polk and Dallas. This gun is spiked by the Rich-land Bugie, in the following mapner: The story started that five mening yer-

Verily. Locolocoism must be tottering to its fall, or its supporters would be witling to let the dead rest in peace and not stempt to injure their memories by the circulation of such foolish tabrications.

The Age also says 'Louis McLane has come out for Polk and Dallas. Most likely, Mr. McLane was formerly an old federalist, of the blue light order, and defended the old federal party on the door of Congress in 1824. He was of the right kind of material of which to make a Locofoco. Accordingly, we find him early in Gen. Jackson's administration, transformed into a modern Locofoce of the first water. He has ever singe leen so, and will probably continue so until the day of his death. He was Gen. Jackson's Secretary of State, and sent afterwards as: Minister to England, with instructions to: make the disgraceful colonial arrangements under which we are now suffering. He has always continued to hang on the the skirt of the old Hero's garatent. It. would not be surprising if he should vote for Polk and Dallas, would it, Mr. Age? Kennebes Journal.

THE Proprietor of this preparation deems it proper to premise that nothing is farther from his purpose than to offer it to the public at a universal medicine, or cure-all. It is adapted to a few diseases only, for which it is considently recommended as one of the most agreeable as well as most certain remedies which have at any time claimed public attention.

It imparts a healthy tone to the stomach, improves the specific when impaired, and promotes the digestion—it soothes and tranquilizes the nervous system, when excited or disturbed, produces cheerfulness of spirits, with feelings of general comfort and satisfaction. In the following diseases it is recommended as a prompt and in most cases an effectual reof Maryand. Sams Creek, Frederick co. Md. ? August 26th, 1842. Mr. C. Ferstons-Dear Sir-Having suffered much during the spring of 1841; as I then informed you, with what I regarded as a dyspeptic condition of the stomach, and having procured a bettle of Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, at your instance. I have pleasure in informing you that from its use I was in ten days entirely relieved on that occasion. It has also been successfully used in tha family for other purposes, so that we are never without it. D W NAILL.

From the Rev. Zachariah H. Tippett. Mr. C. Herstons - Dear Sir - I willingly comply with your request, to furnish a statement of my case, in which your medicine named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial has been used by me with success. I had been sufforing for six years under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz: A loss of appetite, restlessness at night, great debility, &c., in fact, my spirits were quite gone down. Various medicines as well as medical assistance had been tried, but al failed. Your cordial as mention his past I have completed a cree from that disease and enjoy better health than I ever expected Z-H TIPPETT.

TS original size, when found connected as it is with its dross and impurities, would be about the average of a peck measure to a $5 piece of fine gold—and in such proportion can the medicinal pro-perties of roots and plants be extracted and concentrated from their dross and impurities.

Every body knows that pine grains of suphale of quinine contains all the medicine to be found is 430 grains of Peruvian bark, from which it is extracted, and those nine grains may be put up in the form of two small pills, so that we have in two pilis all the efficacy of one ounce of bark stripped of its useless particles. In like manner are the ingredients which compose Stainburn's Vegetable Extract Pills, stripped of impurities, and nothing enters their composition but the true medicinal properties of such plants, roots and bark as have been proved by expeplants, roots and bark as have been proved by experience to possess a curative virtue for the various paladles incident to the human frame. Thus forming nature's true remedy, pure, perfect and original. Have you Scrofula or King's Evil, producing to ning tumors on the glands of the neck or on the shoulders? The alterative and purifying principle of Sarsaparilla, so powerfully yet minutely contained in Stainburn's Pills, will immediately attack the seat of disease, and gradually, by means of their purgative operation, most surely drive out all disease from the system. Have you Rheumatism, pains in the elbow, in the shoulder, hip or knee joints? The Vegetable Extract Pills are eminently adapted to alleviate sufferings. That portion of them which has a poculiar tendency to correct the secretions will stir up and unloose this trying disease from its hold, while their apartics action will save of the humans which
