BY E. POLLOCK.

How beats the heart with wild delight,
When on the scul the spells arise,
That gladly gush from wine so bright.
And fondly beam from starry eyes!
How melt the clouds of eare away,
When sunn'd in beauty's roseate sheen,
And life, how like a cloudless day
If star-eyed Pleasure reigns the queen;
O! then no magic so divine. O! then no magic so divine, As woman's love and sparkling wire!

But ah! the power of light gone by.

The whirl of passion's tempest o'er.

The cares that clouded life's bleak sky.

Seem darker, heavier than before;

And faint, and cold, the spirit turns

From cloud-built halls to earth again,

And the sad and in dark age.

And the sad soul in darkness mourage
Earth's vestiness and toll the part;
So plessure's fairy dreams depart,
And leave behind an aching heart. Then let me shun the fading glow

Of beauty's bright but meteor gleam,
Of beauty's bright but meteor gleam,
And let my only light below
Be reason and religion's beams;
So shall my path, though storms sweep by;
On warring winds, by fury driven,
Be all beneath a cloudless sky,
'Till lost at last in light and Heaven,
Where shipes o'en blissful all mes above Where shines o'er blissful climes above, The sun-light of eternal love. THE FADED FLOWER.

I keep it still, the faded flower, Through long and cheerless years, In memory of that happy hour, Which time the more endears. When from thy hand the gift I took, And saw the tear-drops start, And clasped with fond and gentle look,

The giver to my heart. That flower, like her who gave it, then Was loveliest of the kind ; And vainly might I seek again So fair a flower to find ; But brief alike the joy and bloom,

It withered in a day, And reft of hope and wrapt in gloom, I bore it far away. In distant lands, midst care and grief, That flower was yet more dear, And often every cherished leaf Was moistened with a tear ; And still I keep the faded fi wer,

And hold, while life shall last.

The memory of that happy hour,

Which consecrates the past. WHIG ADDRESS

NEW-YORK, July 25, 1844. MESSRS. SANDS:-Gentlemen. - I consider it but an act of justice to you to state the following facts in reference to the great benefit I have received, in the cure of an obstinate Cancerous Ulcer on my breast. I was attended eighteen months by a regular and skilful Physician, assisted by the advice and counsel Manufacturers of Cabinet Furniture, & Dealers in of one of our most able and experienced Surgeon without the least benefit whatever. All the various methods of treating cancer were resorted to; for five Hiss & Austen Commission Merchants for the sale of all kinds of ringed with a weak solution of nitric acid, and the cavity or internal older was so large that it held an ounce of the solution. The Doctor probed the ulcer and examined the bone, and said the disease was advancing rapidly to the Lungs, and if I did not get speedy relief by medicine or an operation, the result would be fatal. I was advised to have the breast aid open and the bones examined, but finding no rerapidly getting worse, I almost despaired of recovery and considered my case nearly hopeless.

Seeing various testimonials and certificates of cure ov the use of " SNDs's S REA PRILL" in cases sirailar to my own, I concluded to try a few bottles, several of which were used, but from the long, deep seated character of my disease, produced no very decided change; considering this as the only proba-ble cure for my case, I persevered until the diserse was entirely cured. It is now over eleven months since the cure was completed; there is not the slightest appearance of a return. I therefore pronounce myself WELL, and the cure entirely effected by SANDS'S SANSAPARILLA, as I took no other medicine of any kind during the time I was using it, nor have I taken any since. Please excuse this long defertions to you. I can say many things, I cannot write, and I do most respectfully invite ladies afflicted as I have been, to call upon me and I will satisfy then uily of the truth as stated above, and many other things in reference to the ease.

I was attacked in the year 1839 with a scorfulous affection on my upper lip, and continuing upward taking hold of my nose and surrounding parts, until the passages for conveying tests from the eyes to the nose were destroyed, which caused an unceasing flow of tears. It also affected my gums, causing a discharge very unpleasant, and my teeth became so loose that it would not been a hard last a substant out with a slight jerk—such a hard last a substant out with a slight jerk—such a hard last a substant out with a slight jerk—such a hard last a substant out with a slight jerk—such a hard last red grant out with a slight jerk—such a hard last red grant but hitself benefit.—Every thing I heard of was tried, but all of no service, and as a last resort was recommended change of arribut this, like other remedies, did up good of air ; but this, like other remedies, did no good. the disease continued gradually to increase, until my whole body was affected. But thanks to humanity, my Physician recommended your preparaition of Sarasparilla. I procured from your agent n this City, Dr. James A. SAPPINGTON'S HOTEL

THE undersigned, having no other ambition to serve than that of paying his honest debts and I those for which he is liable, and supporting, in an honerable way, begs leave to inform his numerous friends, and the public generally, that he has determined, upon the 1st day of April

next, to take charge of his Large and very commodious three-story BRICK HOTEL

This Hotel is well known at home as well as abroad for the comforts of its pleasant paricure, its delightful chambers, and its very healthy and agreeable location-situated in the centre of the town—the front presenting a southern exposure,—adjoining the public square, near the market Louse, and but a few steps from the Court House door, having a good pavement leading to the latter-nearly opposite the post office-and in all respects decidedly the most desirable

Henry Beahm and Juliet Ann his vife, not having trons) will hear testimony with me to the fact-it is therefore the privilege and pleasure of the entered their appearance, and given security undersigned to express a fond hope f r the success of his predecessor, and for the undisturbed according to the Act of Assembly and the rules happiness of his aniable family in their new abode at Harpers Ferry, where they intend to re-idence that they are not inhabitants of this coun- The undersigned deems it only necessary to add, that it will be the constant desire of his try: It is ordered. That the said defendant do ap. heart to keep a genteel, orderly and dignified house, and promises to spare no labor or attention pears here on the 1st day of the next term, on his part to make it equal, if not more agreeable, than heretofore. The chambers are all large, airy and comfortable, with fire places in each, and boarders can

The subscriber would respectfully inform the inhabitants of Clarke, Jefferson and the surrounding Counties, that he is now prepared to carry on the above business in all its branches, and from his experience, he cannot fail to please those who may favor him with their custom. His prices are moderate—and he guarantees that his work shall not be surpassed by any workman in this part of the country. The subscriber would say to the public, that he served his apprenticeship in the City of Baltimore, with one of the best painters in that place; therefore, he feels confident that his Painting cannot be excelled. He blinds himself to do his work in a next and workmanlike manner, and at these
