WOMAN'S TEMPER.

No trait of character is more valuable occasion, by the friends of our uniting, and as is the usage of that county ax opt for Charlestown. After this, and after social opprecinct meetings was ordered for larpers Ferry, Scoperdstown and Smithfield, I vouch for the trath of the the call for a county meeting was ordered by the friends for a county meeting was ordered by the friends clared that I was 23nd of March, and appointed six delegates o represent it in Convention. The committee to report members, to the Convention, reported that all the delegates appointed would not run, unless another at the COUNTY meeting, were entitled to seats as mem-bers, in consequence of which the two delegates (G. W. Baker and myself) were received as members to represent edinger men.

Convention was called, and nominated me. And being informed by letter, before I left Washington, that it was circulated that I would run, without the Winchester precinct. The committee further, RE-COMMENDED, (by way of conciliation) that TWO, an equal number of the delegates appointed by the WINCHESTER PRECINCT MEETING, should be permitted to hold seats in the Convention, and with the two appointed at the such nomination, I had actually prepared a card to be published, withdrawing my name as a candidate, and recommending the call of a new Con-vention, but I was induced to postpone its publi-County meeting to represent this Pakonsor, so that Win-chester would have been represented by 4 delegates, in-stead of two. The Committee also recommended that the delegates, themselves, would select from their number cation until I got home, at the instance of a member of the Central Committee at Richmond, and that of a number of other friends. My written card was read to several friends. Upon my re-THE two which were to take seats as delegates. When the Convention voted upon the recommendation of the turn, however, I found that my friends, who knew ommittee, it decided that two of the delegates might me personally, had to a man, taken the proper take seats, but they declined doing so, and withdrew.-So that if the Winchester precinct was not represented stand, and declared in advance of any disavowal by me, that I was no candidate and would not be, as they would say by the REGULARLY APPOINTED DEL. without a Convention nomination. I also saw, GATES, then it was the fault of the delegates themselves, and not of the Convention. The COUNTY MEETING was held without a PREVIOUSLY PUBLISHED NOTICE, but was that of the four Democratic papers in the District, three at least, had come out for a new Convention. All this superseded the publication of my card .----My friends, every where, went for prompt action, in getting up another Convention. And, as the presses all, except the Romney Gazette, were understood to be, for Mr. B., no difficulty was apprehended in succeeding, until the publication of the letter of the five delegates, before stated, and Mr. B.'s published acceptance of their nomination, and his taking the field. Old Frederick, however, moved, and held a county meeting at her March Court, and appointed delegates from each precinct; and Berkeley ed delegates from each precinct; and Berkeley followed at her March Court. No published no-indication in the second vote, and for tice was given in the case of the Frederick meeting-there was such a notice in the case of the Berkeley meeting. The Frederick meeting was as large as such meetings usually are, and so was that in Berkeley, though the published notice, in point of fact; did not specify for what purposes it was called, and not a half a dozen persons were in attendance, as I am informed, from the Gerardstown and Back Creek precincts, where my strength is said to lie. The Frederick meeting appointed a majority of delegates friendly to me, as a matter of course, as the county was admitted to be for me, and had so proved in the first Convention but passed no resolution of instructions. And all the precincts, except the Winchester precinct. (that is six out of the seven,) acquiesced. No stir Was made by the friends of Mr. D. except hr the Winchester precinct, where a precinct where a precinct was called, by a public notice, and some 22 persons, as I am informed, attended, and appointed 6 Bedinger delegites. My friends did not unite in the meeting. In Berkeley, a majority of delegates was appointed favorable to Mr. B. and all instruct ed to vote for him : and the precinets, all I believe, acquiesced, because I presume, ft was conceded, that the majority of the party, in that county, is for him, as a majority is for me in Frederick. In Jefferson, where I have shown that, by the fairest test, that of an actual ivision and count in the meetings, I am the decide choice of the party. Precinct meetings were called by public notice, through the county, (though not as on the former occasion, by the friends of oth uniting.) and as is nevertheless large and respectable, and fully and fairly represented the various sections of the County, number-ing from fifty to sixty, which is as large as those kind of meetings usually are. - The Winchester PRECINCT meet-ing, was held pursuant to a public notice, and as I undersed, for size, color, game and stoutness, hi colts are nearly all unequalled. The appointment of delegates for the Country MEETING, were not made, as far as I know, with a view to their preferences, either for your-self or Mr. Bedinger. The PRECINCT meeting as far as I am informed, made its selections, with a view to fur-ther the elgims of Bedinger, as I believe all the six were Badinger und three colts to start in America-all were winners and some of them several times.
