THE SPIRIT OF LIGHT.

The shades had dimmed each silent nook. With gentlest sigh the whispering brook.

Rippled in peace away;

When from her star-bower, pure and bright, Came forth the Spirit of the Night; And thus she breathed her lay:

Sleep, Infant, sleep ! thy Mother's arm Shall pillow thee with care ;

Sleep, Maiden, sleep ! and fondly dream Of bliss thou ne'er shalt know;

Sleep, young Man, sleep! the cares of life Are shading o'er thy brow; A few sad years of strife and pain

Sleep, Mother, sleep! thine anxious eare
Can never drive away
The threat'ning illa that cluster round
Thy lov'd one's opening.c.y.
Sleep, Father, sleep! thy inclosed brow
'Notes years of deepers takes.'
Leave now that dream, so family cheesel.

Leave now that dream, so fondly chased,

Thou hast been tempest driven: Thy hopes lie buried with thy years,

The Spirit ceased : her twilight song,

Save one-thy hope of Heaves.

In saddest cadence, died ;

ty more than once."

HOME.

Sleep, Old Man, sleep! Life's longest date,

"OF AGE."

Of happiness in Life!

And Angels o'er thee vigils keep,

Too soon, alas ! thy cup will taste

Thine earnest heart will bow.

In answer to her prayer.

DUTY OF THE WHICK.

We agree with the editor of the American Review, as to the duty of the Whige under all emergencies. It is, to "abide by our organization, our principles, and our name. Let us cherish the conviction, that whatever good can be hoped for our country, must be accomplished through the agency of the Whig party, in its present form and constitution. Let new light illuminate our counsels, new vigor confirm our etrength, new arder inflame our spirit-but let no short-sighted policy commit us to merely local interests, in prejudice of our duties to the

A SPECIMEN OF LOCO FOCO ECONOMY

It will be remembered that the U. S. Senate, 6th of March last, was re-convened on the next day, by the President, for the purpose of acting upon Cabinet appointments, and such other Excentive business as might demand its attention. -and yet, the new Vice President, Mr. Dallas. decided that they were entitled to the same mileage as if they had been summoned from their homes, and had each of them travelled from his had gone to Galveston, to inform the Texas gorespective place of residence to Washington. This hopes of converting dimes into dollars-and may be termed poli ical elaircoyance; and the they are loud in their denunciations of foreign tionist! The whole amount of public money Texas to give up her independence-but it is thus given away is about $40,000! Even the Lexington "Valley Star," (than which there is not a more decided Locofoco paper in the State,) denounces this decision of Vice President Dallas. "Such a waste of public money (it says) is inexequable, and the officer deserves the severest reprehension for his vile decision." This is but the first step in Locofoce economy!

THE TRUE GROUND.

the Whigs stand, and the spirit by which they are governed, that we take pleasure in transferspects as expressive of our views and feelings .-The Whige are, in truth, so thoroughly devoted to "the good old constitutional cause of republican liberty," that they are always ready to approve any act of their opponents which has a tendency to promote that cause, and thereby advance the cause of the country.

"The present administration has now fairly got under way, is shaping its policy, and setting its course for the term of its existence-and, we may add, without offence, for the continuance in power of its own party, and the ascendancy of the measures of that party-we cannot say prinsiples - because we are not able to define accurately what they are--or to what extent, being defined - they are to be acted upon or supported. Intending to deal with the present Administration. opposed as we were to the elevation of those who compose it, with perfect fairness and candor, we desire to say, at the outset, as we believe we have already once before mentioned, that we have seen nothing since the fourth of March last. to cause a moment's doubt in our minds, as to the correctness of the views we have all along taken, and of the truth of the estimate we had formed of the public and political character of those who are to compose the executive department of the government, and, in a great measure, to mould its entire course. But whilst we are free to make this declaration, we are yet anxious to be known, as far from being desirous of thwarting or opposing, for the mere sake of opposing, the measures of the administration, or of destroyed.

condemning its policy, from factious considerations. If we know ourrelves, it will always give us greater pleasure to appland than to condemn, nor are we of those who think that allegiance to a party is shown by finding fault with one's opponents upon all occasions, without regard to right or justice. No! we act upon other and far higher considerations. Politics with us, is not a game of profit or loss -- or a mere contest between outs and ins, for spoils and office. We know, in the language of a distinguished citizen of Virginia, that we have a party to which we are attached-but we recollect that also we have a country to serve-and that the true interests of that country are paramount to all personal, selfish, or mere party views. "Fortunately, with us, and with all the Whies made subservient to the happiness and prosperity of the Republic, and no Whig is required or expected to step one inch beyond the line of duty to his country. his Creator, and that he retained his faculties to the last. His death was peaceful, and his example, in the stern hour of departure, such as might be use-ful to all who contemplate calmly the dignity of a Christian's death-bed.

OBITUARIES.

Departed this life, on Tuesday morning, 15th inst., at his late residence, Mr. WILLIAM MAR-suall, aged 81 years. He left his native place, Bucks countr, Pa., October, 1787, and became a sitizen of Jefferson countr, Va. Here he sat under the ministry of the venerated Moses Hoge, D. D. during which time he become a member of the Presbyterian Church, in which connection he maintained, through Grace, a uniform, christian deportment for not less than forty-four years. He was remarkable for his kindness to all-was much esteemed by all, and much beloved as a christian. He felt deeply that he was a most unworthy einner; put his trust entirely in the Grace of God, through Jesus Christ; delighted much in religious conversation, and was never more juyful than when All of the above will be sold at the very lower singing of that Grace which abounds to the chief of rates for Cash, or exchanged for good paper. Although he lived to four-score years, and felt the infirmities of old age, yet he was cheerful. His confidence in God was strong; his pleasure the purest to be enjoyed on earth. In the belief that the "Eurnal God was his refuge," and underneath were "the everlasting arms," he was happy. He had confidence unshaken in God, who had led him along through all the successive changes from Infancy to old age, and that confidence did not fail him when called to exchange worlds. The Grace of God had taken away the sting of leath, and we realized the full import of these words: "Thou shalt come to thy Grace in a full age, like as a shock of corn comets in his season." Job, 5, 26— Mr. M's christian character was well matured, and he has been gathered home to that "inheritance which is incorruptable, undefiled, and that fadeth not away." It was an affecting scene to behold his children, even to the third generation, gathering around the coffin to look for the last time upon that patriarchal form, now sleeping in death. May they all be followers of him who, through faith and patience, now inherits the promises!" Whilst writing the above, a messenger knocked at my door; he came to inform me that another member of Christ's visible budy had "fallen

Since that time, they have steadily adhered to the great Whig cause, which they believed to be the cause of the country, and have opposed the measures and principles of the Democratic party. They have been encouraged to go on in their undertaking: they have received the support and cordial good wishes of many influential friends; and now, with additional editorial strength, they appear before the public under a different name, with more extended views, and with a more determined resolution to deserve the confidence of the Whie party. JUST received, a large supply of Hughes fire bar iron, from 3-8 by 1 1 4 inch to 1 inch by 2 inch; round do from 1 to 11 inch customers upon a short credit. THOS. RAWLINS.

THE undersigned, having no other ambition to serve than that of paying his honest debts and those for which he is liable, and supporting himself in rp honorable way, begs leave to inform his numerous friends, and the public generally, that he has determined, upon the 1st day of April next, to take charge of his

Large and very commodious three-story

BRICK HOTEL In Charlestown, Jefferson County, Virginia.

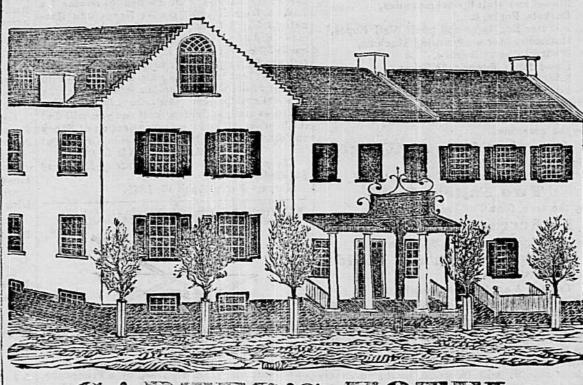

This Hotel is well known at home as well as abroad for the comforts of its pleasant parlours, its delightful chambers, and its very healthy and agreeable location asimated in the centre of the town-the front presenting a southern exposure,-adjoining the public square, near the market house, and but a few steps from the Court House door, having a good pavement leading to the latter-nearly opposite the post office-and in all respects decidedly the most desirable and convenient location for all business transactions in the town.

It has also acquired much notoriety and celebrity by being known as Abell's Hotel, and without flattery or unmerited applause to Capt Joseph F. Abell, the public (and especially his patrons) will bear testimony with me to the fact-it is therefore the privilege and pleasure of the undersigned to express a fond hope for the success of his predecessor, and for the undisturbed happiness of his amiable family in their new abode at Harpers Ferry, where they intend to remore and settle about the 1st of April next. The undersigned deems it only necessary to add, that it will be the constant desire of his heart to keep a genteel, orderly and dignified house, and promises to spare no labor or attention on his part to make it equal, if not more agreeable, than heretofore. The chambers are all large, airy and comfortable, with fire places in each, and boarders can have choice of wood or coal for fuel. The Bar shall at all times be supplied with choice Liquors, and, (except upon Sabbath days) may be dealt out in moderation to the weary and thirsty. Having procured of Bushrod Taylor, Esq of Winchester, one of the best cooks in the Valley, the undersigned can, with great confidence, promise to his guests, dishes rare and palatable .-And lastly, relying upon his unlimited acquaintance with the good people of his native county, his own unremitting exertions to please, and the liberality of a just and generous public, he flatters himself that he will merit, and hopes to receive, a bountiful share of patronage, with the further assurance, however, that none who favor him with a call shall go away dissatisfied .-His charges will be moderate, and all sorts of country produce received in payment of bills now G. PERFORMANCES AND THOSE OF HIS GET.

"SKYLARK is in splendid health, order and ondition, and will no doubt please your country better than any horse they ever had, saw, or can see. He is a rich bay, beautiful, gay, of very superior action and power, strong enough for a Dray, and is to day the next horse to Priam, if not fully his equal. Many of the best judges think Skylark's colts in this country are the finest they have ever seen in size, bone and appearance, except perhaps Fylde's colts; indeed, for size, color, game and stoutness, his colts are nearly all unequalled. He has had three colts to start in America-all were winners and some of them several times. Of their runnings and winnings in Ireland and England, I cannot say enough; last year his colts won nine out of sixteen King's Plates in Ireland, more than half of all run for, and against the get of Sir Hercules, Priam, Velocipede, Emilius, Economist, Sire of Harkaway, and all the other stallions nearly of Ireland and England. He thanks to his friends and customers for their liberal patronage heretofore extended to his friends and customers for their liberal patronage heretofore extended to his friends in the country and Harpers-Fer-tof them many times on the English turf. It has had only three or four colts carried over to to him, and begs leave to state to his friends phia and timore Markets, with a large and will thus be seen they have been successful wherever tried-his colts are very celebrated for the saddle, the chase, or as hunters, as well as on the turf. Many of his colts have won at four miles and four mile heats."

But observe his own performances. "SKYLARK WON 42 RACES, heavy weights. long distances, 24 King's Plates, more than any other horse ever won. He won near 30 races of 3 and 4 miles, many of them heats, and sometimes two races the same day. In the handicap races, he generally carried heavier weights than any other, often gave 2 or 3 years and great odds in weights - in the same day, carried 168 lbs. 3 miles, giving 14 lbs. and 37 lbs., and won both races. Frequently for the King's Plates, carrying from 150 to 170 lbs., 4 miles. He beat Economist, sire of Harkaway; he beat Lady Elizabeth 4 miles twice, carrying 168 lbs . and she ran 4 miles in 7 min. 45 sec., with 135 lbs. on her! As a proof of the high estimation in which he stood with turfmen, he was handicapped to carry the most extraordinary and unheard of weight of 210 lbs for the Corinthians. Which here ill be pleased to dispose of on the The alterations in the King's Plates HAVE BEEN ATTRIBUTED TO HIS UNPARAL-LELED PERFORMANCES, WHICH HAVE BEEN CONSIDERED UNRIVALED ON ANY TURF. PAt eight years old, he challenged the world to run four miles under the very heaviest weights. No horse accepting the challenge, he was withdrawn from the turf unblem-JOSIAH WM. WARE.
