POETRY.

From the St. Louis Reveille.

You come when the evening is closing,
And you say that you love me then;
You stay while the flowers are reposing,
And you swear you're the fondest of men;
But when the broad glitter of day
Allures you away with the gay.
Ah, then your affection is dozing, And you dream not to love me again.

O, mine is a deeper emotion, And looks for a fonder return ; And whatever may be your devotion, Yet mine must unchangeably urro. As deep and as brosci as the sea Must the love of a fond woman be.

Yet wild as the waves of the ocean,

When doomed of deception to learn ! You come in the day of my spleader. Before my young beauty to bow; But in my decay will you render The homage you pay to me now?

O, ne'er in the bloom of her morn Is a maiden left ever forlorn ;

But when years implore a defender, Fickle man often falls from his vow Come, come when the daylight is leaving The stars of the evening to shine, And say that in gladness or grieving You will ever and ever be mine, And thine through all joy or all shame-Thine, thine with a passionste flame; Yes, e'en though I knew thee deceiving,

THE OREGON DEBATE.

The Oregon question appears to engross the attention of the Senate, to the exclusion almost of all other matters. There appears to be a general understanding that the Resolutions of Notice, as they passed the House, will not receive the sanction of the Senate-but that those offered by Mr. Colquitt, somewhat a mended, will, in all protability, pass that body. One of the Senators from Mississippi, Mr. Chalmers, said, in a late speech, that four-fifths of the Senate were favorable to a compromise on the 40° of latitude. And in Mr. Benton's words, in his late speech, the 54° 40' men are now becoming "Small by degrees and beautifully less." There can be no doubt, therefore, that some resolutions conciliatory in character, and inculcating a renewal of negotiation, will alone receive the sanction of the Senate of the country-that body in which though there may be found some reckless spirits, has scarcely its equal in Christendom for wisdom, sagacity, and patriotic arder. We can then confidently "look to the Senate," feeling doubly assured that whatever the character of their enactments may be, they will have been made coolly, and with due calculation as to the cost of Senate then, we "look," believing that have their "look" in vain.

THE SENATE.

The Norfolk Herald, (that old and able Republican paper of Virginia,) in commenting on some recent references to the Senate of the United States, avows the subjoined opinion, in which it expresses, we have no doubt, the universal sense of

to the Senate' with that hope and confidence which the mariner feels, when, at the moment before his barque is dashed upon the rocks, he sees her helm consigned to the hands of a skillful and experienced pilot, who he is assured can and will save her from destruction. They are left in the vocative-wanting. They are defeated, and the country's safe."

A MOTHER'S FEELING.

The Richmond Republican noticing the bequests that have been received for the support of the mother of the late John Hampden Pleasants, and for the education of his children, says :

The language of Scripture is in the BLOOD is the Life." If it ever becomes impure it may be traced directly to the stoppage of the INSENSIBLE PERSEL. RATION. It never requires any internal medicines to cleanse it, as it always purifies itself by its orgaheat and action, and throws off all the offending humors, through the Insensible Perspiration. Thus we see, all that is necessary when the blood is stag-N the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery, for the County of Jef-itself from all impurity instantly. Its own heat and vitality are sufficient, without one particle of medicine, except to open the pores upon the surface. — Thus we see the folly of taking so much internal remedies. The Thompsonian for instance steams, the Hydropathist shrouds us in wet blankets, the Homopathist deal out infintissimals, the Allipothis Gerard B. Wager, Adm'r of Frederick W. sign is, that no medicine within their knowledge is PLAINTIFFS, capable of doing it. Under these circumstances I present to physicians and all others, & preparation that has this power in its fullest extent. It is Mcbert Koster, George R. Berry and El. Salve. It has POWER to restore perspiration on the feet, on the head, around old sores, upon the chest, in short, upon any part of the body, whether DEFENDANTS, diseased slightly or severely.

It has POWER to cause all external sores, scrofulas, humors, skin diseases, poisonous wounds, to discharge their putrid matter, and then heal them. Consumption .- It can hardly be credited that a saive can have any effect upon the lungs, not having entered their appearance and seated as they are within the system. But we say

Worms.-If parents knew how fatal most medicines were to children taken inwardly, they would be slow to resort to them. Especially mercurial 'lozenges,' pills, &c. The truth is, no one can tell, invariably, when the worms are present. Now let me say to parents, that this salve will always tell if a child has worms. It will drive every vestige of them away.
