Mrs. E. W. Phelps,

WILL reiopen her School for Young La dies on Monday the 15th day of Septem ber next. An accomplished young Lady has associated herself with Mrs. P. who will assist her in the various Departments. This Institution is situated in a pleasant village, whose prox. ran. imity to the Baltimore and Camberland Railroad, makes it perfectly easy of access, while its retirement is peculiarly fasorable to study. All the branches of a thorough English Education are carefully taught, without neglecting those accomplishments which add such attractiveness to the Female character. Well qualified Instructors are employed to give lessons in Music and in the French Language. The reading of German and Italian, will also be taught if desired. There is room in the Family of the Principal for a few young water-shose morals and manyers will be enjoy the advauh assiduous care, and who will en on all sums of $5 and upwards, upon the acquire a complete Erden lione, while they month, and prompt payment will be expected.

The fencing is infefor perhaps to none in the valley, and the shape, location and general arrangement of the farm but are beau'ifully situated in a fine grove, in the centre of the tract commanding a view of every field. A young orchoid of choice Apple Trees is growing near the house. Water is supp'ied by a well, which never failed before the unusual drought of 1845, and by a number of poads which furnished an abundance of water even then. Churches and schools, mills, factories, stores and mechanics of all sorts, abound in the vicinity, the neighborhood being thickly settled by a builty, industrious and orderly pop-ulation.
