THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITU.

The splendid Seminary building was erected expressly for a Female Collegiate Institution, at an expense of more than $16,000, and so far as we regard beauty and elegance of structure, the perfect adaptation of all its parts to the purpose for which they were designed, the elegance of its furniture, the comforts and conveniences of the boarding department, we confidently believe it is not surpassed by any similar Institution in the Southern States. Parents and Guardians are particularly invited to call This Institution comprises three separate and distinct departments-the JUVENILE, where the elementary principles of an education are commenced -the PREPARATORY, where the pupils are thoroughly grounded in the substantial branches of education, namely-Spelling, Reading, Writing, Grammar, Geography and higher branches of a finished Female education, both useful and ornamental, are pursued to as great an extent as they are in our best Northern Schools. Embracing in its range a full and complete course of instruction, from the Alphabet to the completion of the Collegiate course. The whole is under the immediate control of the President, Mr. H. The whole country has declared in favor of Santa Anna, who left Havana for this city on the steamer Arab, but had not arrived, which makes his friends rather anxious for his safety. The New Orleans Picayone of the 12th Aug., in a postscript, says, that the British brig of war "Daring" arrived off the Balize last evening, from Vera Cruz, and two of her officers came up to the town this morning, with a mail and despatches. The steamer Arab arrived off Vera Cruz, on the 16th August, with Santa Anna on board. He immediately placed himself at the head of the movement in that department. The departments of Puebla and Mexico have declared for Santa Anna and Paredes has already been fato Mr. A. H. Ives, of Pennsylvania, at seven- ken prisoner. The revolt at the capital was headed by General Sales.

Before Santa Anna left Havana he took letters from Gen. Campbell to Commodore Conner, and avowed himself, in reply to some inquiries as to his intentions. The following extract of a letter, shows the as follow: "If the people of my country are for war, then I am with them; but f
