POETRY.

THE BLUE BIRD.

The Blue Bird's song we soon shall hear,

Sweet harbinger of Spring!

Its notes are welcome to my ear,

It comes, the soonest of its race,

And flies with gentle wing ;

And there it loves to sing.

To share the joy you bring.

Is where it used to be ;-

The food ye want, it shall not fail,

And we will welcome thee!

Sweet Harbinger of Spring!

Its notes are welcome to my ear,

There is a star that brightly gleams,

And throws o'er life its golden beams

A beacon pure, whose radiance bright

I love to hear it sing!

Calm in the sky above,

Of happiness and love:

No lowering cloud confines;

With heavenly lustre shines,

There is a star, whose magic power

That e'en in joy's most sunny hour

A glorious light, whose mystie spell

And calms the wild tempestuous swell

The star that from its glittering sheen

The star that drives the clouds away,

Though dark they frown awhile;

And ever shines with peerless ray-

And throws o'er youth's resplendent scene

TIME AND ETERNITY.

Time and eternity? What a crowd of thoughts and feelings-of doubts and fears, rush over the human soul at these two words so awful in their import, and so sublime in back over the thousands of years that have elapsed since the creation-with what ease it can grasp millions yet to be measured by revolving planets; from the mighty source of time!-eternity! But when it endeavors to form a conception of that which was neither beginning nor end-when it seeks to comprehend one eternal immeasurable duration, cycle or limit,-its weakness and inequality to the task, shows clearly that God has severed time from eternity, and given it to man, and that he can never pry into the secrets of the eternal world, until the Almighty shall reveal them to time. When that time shall come! When the vigorous and unfettered spirit shall flutter over the threshold of time-through the portals of eternity, and then soar away to the everlasting from whence it came-when that time shall come, he may feel himself an immortal lapse of centuries? Let the "mind's eye"

The rosy tints of hope.

Is woman's angel smile.

Man feels its sweet contcol:

But in affliction's stormy night

So firmly binds the soul,

It seeks the old frequented place,

Come, gentle bird, and let us hear

The early notes of Spring;

And may thy mate, as wont, be near,

Come, build the nest, the hollow rail

The Blue Bird's song we soon will hear,

WOMAN'S SMILE.

I love to hear it sing.

The New York Tribune publishes the following extracts from letters received from San Francisco by one of the most respectable houses in Pearl st .-It will be seen that they fully confirm the most exciting accounts as to the richness of the mines and the quantities in which the gold has been precured by individuals. The writer has been for eight or ten years the California correspondent of the house

San Francisco, Dec. 1, 1848. The prices obtained for goods here are enormous. Were I to quote, it would not be

You will undoubtedly have heard of the great discovery of gold in this country-a discovery which is destined to produce a greater excitement throughout the United States, if not throughout Europe also, than any event which has happened for a century. The amounts of gold obtained are truly astonishing, and the quantities every day brought to this place equally so.

Every article of food and necessity is of course very high at the mines. Flour has been sold at $21 thelb; four quarts of wheat for a horse have brought $8; boots, $75 per pair; pork, $250 per barrel.

The wages of carpenters are $10 per day; common laborers earn $8 a day or $1 an hour; a cook, $60 to $100 per month. Brandy fetches 4 oz. gold for a bottle; bread is $2 per lb ; blankets, $80 per pair ; washing is worth $8 a dozen; clerks, $3,000 per annum and found. Emigration is pouring in from all quarters of the Pacific, and it is quite impossible to find a place to put one's head in. A room at a hotel rents for $200 per month. The commonest hovel or shanty you can im-

MISSIONARY TO CALIFORNIA.—The Rev. Flavel S. Mines has taken passage in the Crescent City for Chagres, on his way to San Francisco, whither he goes to establish an Episcopal Church, being sent out by means of the funds recently contributed by several of the churches of New York. The owners of the steamer, on learning the object of his mission, immediately refunded the passage money. The Rev. Thomas Driver, pastor of the Baptist Church at Stanbridge, Mass., is also about to leave for California.

For California .- The St. Louis Republican estimates that at least 20,000 persons Spring for California.

HORRIBLE MURDER AND SUICIDE.-A letter in the N. Y. Tribune, from Warren, Bradford county, (Pa.,) states that on the night of the 10th instant the house of Charles Corben, of that place, was burnt to the ground, and horrible to relate, Mr. C. and his two sons, one 7 and the other 13 years of age, were found literally burnt to ashes -The father first killed his children, set fire to the house, and then cut his own throat .-He also tied up eighteeen head of cattle and one horse in the barn, previous to setting it on fire. The motive of this fearful crime is thought to have been a brutal ferocity by hatred of his innocent and affectionate wife.

The lion, nothing loth to make a slight luncheon, seized the jacket of the little fellow, who being terribly frightened thereat, and just President. set up a lond ory for help. Two men happened to be near at hand, took hold of the boy, and with a hearty pull, rescued him from the grasp of the lion, undamaged in person, though with the loss of a portion of his nether integuments. Luckily the boy's jacket was large and unbuttoned, or he might not have escaped so easily .- Boston Trav.

THE QUEEN OF THE WEST .- Circinnati has become one of the wealthiest cities of the Union, possessing heavier capitalists than Boston. Nicholas Longworth, paid a tax last year of $11,500, while the largest tax paid by any man in Boston was considerably less than $3,000. There are one hundred and five persons who average more than $1000 each—their aggregate tax being $110, 105. The entire tax of 1810, amounted to only $2594, of 1820 to $12,792, of 1830 to $57,057, of 1840 to $222,222, and of 1847 to $475,000.

THE TREASURY-MR. MEREDITH.

A report was started in Washington, a fortnight since, by his opponents, that Mr. MEREDITH, the new Secretary of the Treasury, was a Free Trader .-This is put to rest by the following letter, addressed, by him some weeks since to a meeting at Pottsville,

My DEAR Sin :- I had the pleasure of receiving. a few days since, your letter on behalf of the comttee, inviting me to be present at the Whig jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

There could be no occasion on which I should more joyfully participate in the festivities. The importance of the result of the late election cannot be overrated. The passage of the act of '46 in-volved insult as well as injury to Pennsylvania, and the people must have been blind to their own honor and interest if they had not resented it. The triumphant manuer in which the people of the Comonwealth, and in an especial and remarkable deree the people of Schuylkill county, have vindicatheir rights at the recent elections, not only ws a determination that the principles of the tariff of '42 shall be restored, and that their industry shall not in future be sacrificed to suit the views of political partisans, but exhibits in a strong light the fact that the people cannot be long deceived, and that they can and will enforce the due responsibility of their public servants. With men able to do this we may be sure that the republic will continue to be just, glorious, triumphant. I offer for the acceptance of our brethren the following sentiment: Pennsylvania-Proof alike against the wisdom her enemies and the subtleties of professing friends, she will always stand for the rights of industry and the principles of freedom.

MR. HANNEGAN'S APPOINTMENT. It has been said in letters from Washington, that the appointment was solicited, at the last moment, by some leading Whigs of the Senate, and it has been intimated in private circles that Mr. Webster was one of those Whigs. Such, however was not the case, as the following letter from Mr. W. abundantly prove, while it throws some additional light Washington, March 12, 1849. My Dear Sir :- I have received your let-The gold is inexhaustable, and for years ter of the 10th, respecting Mr. Hannegan's appointment as Minister to Prussia. That appointment can have surprised nobody more than it surprised me. The Senate having completed all its business, as I supposed, I left the Senate Chamber between six and seven o'clock on Sunday morning, the 4th of March. I had never heard a syllable of any intention of nominating Mr. Hannegan as Minister to Prussia, or for any other office Real estate has gone up here, as well as and supposed it certain that no nomination, of any kind, would be sent to the Senate af-

When I heard the next day, that Mr. Hannegan had been nominated to a foreign mission, and that the nomination had been confirmed, I at once contradicted it, saying that Sunday morning, when the Senate was about breaking up, and I had heard nothing of any such nomination. circumstances, as one of the most disreputable proceedings recorded in the history of I am, with much respect, your ob't serv't, DANIEL WEBSTER.

The Whig journals are already taking the costion that Gen. Taylor will not be held responsible for any blunder that may be committed by his administration, on the group that he is not familiar with the affairs of the new that he is not familiar with the affairs of the new that he is not familiar. The editor of the Union knows that the Whig organs are taking no such position .-They scorn to take it. President Taylor will cheerfully bear all the responsibilities of his own acts. I have found that the men who are really the most fond of the society of the ladies; who cheerish for them a high respect, are seldom the most popular with the sex. Men of great assurance, whose tongues are highly hung, who make words supply the place of ideas, and place compliment in the room of sentiment, are the favorites. A due respect for women leads to respectful action towards them; and respectful is usually distant action, and this great distance is mistaken by them for neglect or want of interest.

THE SENATE HAS ADJOURNED.

The special session of the Senate of the United States was closed on Friday last. Only such appointments were presented for confirmation by the President as seemed indispensable to supply expiring terms, and to put the new Administration in motion. Great liberality has been evinced towards the opposing party, and several of their most prominent men have been re-appointed to their respecsatisfied. Nobody expected them to be so. No thing short of the retention of every officer, no mat- like vassals-all, candidates, people and all, "chcerter how busy a partizan, would suit their taste.

But the liberal and reflecting portion of the community will see nothing in the course of the Presi dent thus far to deserve condemnation. The partizan editors who were mute during the "reign of terror" of Jackson, Van Buren, Polk & Co., may now raise a clamour about prescription-a word not known in their vocabulary heretofore-but in equalizing the offices between the parties, no just cause of complaint will be afforded. The President, in such a course, will prove their sincerity of his declaration that he will be the head of the nation and not of a party. As things now stand, the proportion of departments at Washington, as 160 to 660, and allover the country in the same proportion. Can there be any injustice in displacing such brawling partizans as supplanted quiet citizens, or in putting out such officers as are totally incompetent?

But there should be an end to proscription as a system. There never was a more appropriate time for taking a stand on this subject. Notwithstanding Mr. Polk brought to the "guillotine," in the four first months of his reign, one hundred and thirty-six victims in the City of Washington alone, (the names of whom are furnished by a correspondent of the | ments of Northern fanaticism. Norfolk Herald.) still we should not like to see the same vindictive spirit evinced, even to correct

But, to test the sincerity of the grumblers, let us beg of them to permit us with a single instance in Democrats have denounced so bitterly !!- [Whig. which any one of them condemned a removal by Mr. Polk or his predecessors. It would be refreshing just at this moment to read such an article. When a vacancy occurs, all things being equal, we would prefer a political friend-and so would the very sympathizers, who are now for the time, shedding tears over the fate of such "martyrs" as W. J. Brown and J. M. McCalla, both of whom took the field in the

In an instance like that of the Postmaster at Richmond, we feel a peculiar gratification. There, the worthy Democratic incumbent was re-appointed. It is true, he was put in originally upon party grounds, but so was his predecessor-and we were glad to see that Gen. Taylor found a stopping point in the case of so estimable a gentleman as Col. Col. Edmund P. Hunter was then nominated.

Bigger. We are confident, therefore, that although there will be many changes in the offices of the country, to bring about something like equality, still the Administration of Gen. Taylor will prove to be a liberal, tolerant, and just one. Many disappointments must occur to gentlemen ready to serve the public, but the great body of the people, who expect no favors, will be satisfied with the magnanimous spirit likely to be the leading feature in the career of the People's President.

But, as the Democrats of the present day profess to be the genuine disciples of Thomas Jefferson, we give an extract from a letter of his while President, dated July 12, 1801, and ask how they can have the boldness to open their mouths upon the subject of proscription; and more especially, too, after their intollerant course for the last 20 years. But to the

"Is it political intolerance to claim a proportionate share in the direction of the public affairs? Can they not hermonize in society unless they have every thing in their own hands ! If the will of the nation, manifested by their various elections, calls for an administration of government according with the opinions of those elected; if for the fulfilment of that will, displacements are necessary, with whom can they so justly begin as with persons appointed in the last moments of an administration, not for its own aid but to begin a career at the same time with their successors, by whom they had never been approved, and who could scarcely expect from them a cordial co-operation?"

CHESAPEAKE & OHIO CANAL.

We last week adverted to the gratifying action of the legislature, in giving a guarantee for $200. 000-a sum sufficient to put the whole finished po ution of the Canal in repair. A new life has been infused into the operations on the line, and the contractors have put on so large a force as to render certain completion of the whole work to Cumberdand by the 1st of October.

The Cumberland Civilian states that a responsible party has made a contract with a Coal Company to earry 100,000 tens of Coal to market the year after the navigation is opened. The Canal is to be deepened to the amount of six feet, and put in thorough repair. More than 25 years ago, we were inditing paragraphs on the subject of this work .-It will not take another quarter of a century, to dewedge the glorious fruits of the enterprise. We learn from the Washington News that the Bonds of the Company have gone up from 60 to 680, and are now sought as a good investment.

OUR PROPHECY.

In our paper of the 4th March, 1847, noticing the proceedings of the Locofoco Convention, held Winchester in that year, we said:

"The democrats of Page may "hang up their fiddle" if they facitly submit to the overbearing policy as exhibited by the representatives from other counties. Whilst Page and Warren furnish the Demoeratic majorities, it is notoriously true, they can never be allowed the privilege of sending one of their own sons to Congress: The trickery and chicanery of other parts of the District being such as to out-weigh all the strength of the party, in these strongholds of Democracy. So far, our prediction has been verified. By reference to the proceedings of the Locofoco Convention held in Winehester on the 22d of last month. it will be seen that notwithstanding Warren county presented a gentleman every way worthy (Giles Cooke, Esq.,) her wishes were entirely disregarded. and a gentleman (Richard Parker, Esq.,) who had not even been talked of by the people, and who did not get a single vote in Convention ontil the 10th ballot, was selected, whilst Mr. Cooke, who received votes from the first to the 16th ballot, was set aside! Such a result, however, was intended by the wireworkers; but they were nevertheless disappointed in their man. Their design was to have in the Convention proper proportions of decided Bedinger, Byrd, Cooke and Sloan men, who would hang on to their favorites pertinaciously, until it would he necessary to take up a Compromise candidate, as the National Convention did in 1844, when Mr. Polk was nominated, and as the Winchester Conention ultimately had to do, in selecting Mr. Parker. This result was unexpected to those who were pulling the wires; and Messrs. Bedinger, Byrd, Cooke and Sloan, may congratulate themselves, that, in their defeat, the intriguers were also defeated.

But Page and Warren never can have a candidate. They can give their votes when the pinch comes, but they must stand aside when candidates are to be selected! They must yield to the superior intelligence of the other counties in the District! Those who bave witnessed the movements of leaders, know what earnest efforts are always used to soft-soap an "Old Bell-wether" from Page .tive offices. Still, the Democratic presses are not | They soap him well and then, in return, he pledges the independent voters of Page, and transfers them fully" submitting.

VIRGINIA LOCOFOCOISM.

The Richmond Whig says the following is one of a series of resolutions that were passed at a Locofoco meeting in King George, Virginia, lately "Resolved, That each of us determines by activiv and zeal, to do more than cast one role for A. R. Holliday, and that, by such means throughout the District we will not only elect him, but as we hope and believe by a decisive majority. In noticing which the Delaware Republican remarks that the Locofoco practice of doing "more than cast one vote" is not, we are inclined to think, peculiar to the Old Dominion. That party doubtless owe many of their former victories in other latitudes to similar practices.

COLORED DAGUERREOTYPES.

Our attention was called a few days since to some beautiful specimens of the Daguerrean art from the gallery of Mr. Moulton. The portraits were excellent likenesses of the originals, the expression of the face being transferred to the plate with faithful exactness, and the outlines of the features imprinted with accurate distinctness. The coloring and shading too, are soft and delicate, the teints being applied with judgment and sparing moderation, yet substituting for the spectral-ghastfiness of the impression, as at first taken, the air and appearance of nature. ELECTIONS.

HEAVY STORM.

A telegraphic despatch to the Baltimore Sun, dated Harrisburg, March 27, states:

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 10TH COX-GRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

With full deference to the opinion and wishes of the friends who announced me as a candidate for Congress, and tendering to them my grateful thanks for their confidence and friendship, I beg leave, very respectfully, to withdraw my name. I take this occasion also, to express my warm acknowledgments for the friendship and kindness manifested by both Whigs and "Taylor Democrats," who have repeatedly invited me to become a candidate since my return from Mexico, and to those of both parties who have tendered me their support since the announcement of my name. In withdrawing from the canvass, I am actuated solely by a wish to see the friends of Gen. Taylor and his Administration united, and to further, as far as it is in my power, the election of a Whig. ly, either Mr. Faulkner or myself can beat Mr. Parker, but it would be idle for both of us to run against him. Mr. Faulkner has a more general personal acquaintance in the district than I have; more able to eanyass the district; is an old hand at electioneering; has been frequently before the people-I ever have, and the thing is therefore new to me .-He is now in the field, with a better prospect of vic-tory than Gen. THE CONVENTION SYSTEM. Messrs, Editors: I am one of those who for many years have felt very great aversion to the Convention or Caucus system-and I think late events in this County are sufficient to disgust both parties .-The machinery is often set to work to turn up particular men who could not otherwise attract the publie attention-and so far from reflecting the public will, candidates are brought forward who are as much astonished at the result as are the people themselves. If a man really possesses the qualities necessary to render him fit for legislation, does it require sixteen ballots to bring him up? Or are the people so ignorant of the merits of their prominent citizens, that it requires a squad of political thimble riggers to point out the "bright particular star ?" I am neither a disappointed aspirant, nor the friend of one—but if I vote for any man brought out by a caucus hereafter, it will be under the pressure of some stern necessity which I don't think exists at present. And this is the sentiment of more than one OPEQUON.

MESSRS. EDITORS-In my intercourse with many of the Voters of the county I find great dissatisfaction expressed at the course of the nominating Convention for County Delegates. They complain and say, that the will of the people was not reflected in making the nomination, and that they do not mean to stand by it. One of the nominees is an entire stranger in part of the county, a proviso that no such tax shall be levied except upwhilst the other, necessarily from his profession, (a lawyer,) is rendered objectionable.

A SKETCH

Of some of the Acts passed by the General Assembly o Virginia, at the Session of 1848-49: An act to repeal so much of the act, entitled an act prescribing the mode of electing trustees for the town of Darkesville in the county of Berkeley, and resting them with corporate powers, and of electing rustees of the town of Romney in the county of Hampshire, as concerns the town of Darkesville. Repeals the first eight sections of said act, saving rights and remedies now existing.

An act to amend the act, entitled an act to limit the assessment upon titheables, and to authorize a tax upon property for the purpose of defraying county expenditures within the county of Berkeley, passed March 5th, 1835. Authorizes the court, for any debt incurred under said act, to issue certificates of debt in such amounts, and reimbursable at such times as it may deem expedient, transferrable by delivery and endorsement.

An act directing the Governor to present a sword o Francis Otway Byrd, for his gallant conduct in the war of 1819.

An act allowing the commissioners of the revenue for the county of Loudonn compensation for An act making an appropriation to the Virginia Military Institute, for the support and education of additional cadets. Appropriates seven hundred and t n dollars annually, to provide for supporting and elucating the additional cadets required by the act which provided that the board of visitors should appoint one cadet for each senatorial district in the An act providing for the purchase of furniture for the Eastern and Western Asylums, and for other purposes. Appropriates $5500 for the Western, and $6266 for the Eastern Asylum, to purchase furniture and to provide clothing for the additional number of patients that may be received in each, and a por-over the last appropriation. An act incorporating the Western Telegraph Company, to maintain a line of Telegraph from Barpers-Ferry to the Ohio River through Virginia. An act to amend the several acts concerning the Martinsburg and Winchester Turnpike Company. Directs the road to be divided into two precincts, the first to extend from Martinsburg to Bunker's Hill, or to the Frederick line, as the Company may determine in general meeting, and the other from the point selected to the town of Winchester; and upon the subscription by solvent persons of three fourths of the sum required to be subscribed by individuals for either section of the road, the subscription of the State is to be made. Reduces the capital to $45,000; and provides that in lieu of a subscription by individuals of $12,000, as required by the act of 1838, when $8000 is subscribed and paid, or properly secured, the State shall subscribe $12,000, and so on in like proportion until the amount of its reduced capital is made up. An act imposing taxes for the support of government. Imposes for the present and all future years, until amended by the legislature, the same taxes imposed for the last year, with the following exceptions: To the tax on interest, and profits of moneys loaned out, on bonds or other securities, and upon bonds or other securities purchased, is attached on such interest or profits as shall have been received, converted into principal or otherwise appropriated during the year next preceding the time or foreign States, are not taxed unless they exceed same tax is levied as last year. Resident dentists are taxed five dollars, last year the tax was imposed upon them in every county in which they practised. Non-resident dentists are taxed in every county --This net does not contain the clause in the last act, exempting physicians, surgeons, dentists and attornevs at law from taxation as such, until they have been practising one year. In the tax on auctioneers, in towns containing a population not exceeding three thousand, if their sales do not exceed ten thou sand dollars, they pay a tax of twenty dollars only the sales. Aucti neers may take out a license to sell real estate. Ilv, and for that they are to pay fifty dollars. The tax on merchants and auctioneers commencing business may be apportioned according to the fractional part of the year for which their licenses are granted, and in the succe ding year, the merchants' tax shall be twenty dollars, and the auctioneers' tax, one hundred and fifty, without reference to preceding sales. Exhibitors of shows are to pay ten dollars for a license for every twenty-four hours, or for each time of performance. Bowling allevs, if at a watering place, kept as a place of publie resort, are taxed ten dollars, if elsewhere twenty dollars, and application must be made to the county or corporation court for authority to exhibit or keep the same, and the court have power at any time, upon ten days notice, to revoke the license.-Billiard tables in private houses for private use, are taxed fivedollars. Printing presses are exempt from taxation. [To be continued.]

INTERESTING FACT.

In the year 1817, the first Sunday School, we believe, organized in the State of Virginia, was opened in this town, in connection with the Methodist Episcopal Church, by George Walker, James McGehee and John Thurman-the last of whom still survives, a useful, venerable and respected citizen of Lynchburg. In a very short time two hundred scholars, of both sexes, were collected, many of whom had no other opportunity of acquiring the slightest education. It is not possible to say what amount of good may have been done by even a single year's operation of the School. We confine ourselves to an allusion to two cases, which have been brought to our notice. Among the first scholars who attended was a slim, spare youth, who manifested a capacity and desire of improvement. That youth grew up-removed to the Weststudied law-and has long been known to the nation, as the Hon. MIXED Emerious .- The Philadelphia Times, referring to the pathetic description by the Union of the parting scene between Mr. Walker and the clerks in his department, on which occasion "the voice of the chief clerk was thick and husky with the feelings of his noble heart," is reminded of the shipwrecked mariners, described by By-

"They grieved for those who perished in the Cutter, And also for the biscuit easks and batter?"

The Baltimore Markets.

OFFICE OF THE "CLIPPER," Baltimone, March 27, 1849. The recent European advices have had a depresing effect on the market for breadstuffs, and flour has declined. There were small sales of Howard street brands yesterday at $1 62 and to-day at $4 56 the market closing on ,change rather heavy .-City Mills nominal, without sales. Sales of 350 bbls, city Cora meal at $2 50. Rye flour $3 31 -Nothing doing in wheat, and very little arriving .-We quote red at I a $105. Corn is steady, with sales of white at 11 a 16 cents, and yellowat 19 a 50. Oats 25 a 28 cents. Rye 5 a 60 cents.

INFLUENZA AND CONSUMPTION.

It is indeed, a melancholy truth, that thousands fall victims to consumption every year from no other cause than neglected colds; yet we find hundreds, nay, thousands, who treat such complaints with the greatest indifference, and let them run on for weeks, and even months, without thinking of the danger .-At first, you have what you consider, a slight cough ness to prevent you from giving it any attention; it then settles upon your breast, you become hourse, have pains in the side or chest, expectorate large quantities of matter, perhaps mixed with blood; a difficulty of breathing ensues, and then you find your own foolish neglect has brought on this complaint. quack nostrum to cure you; but immediately pro-cure a bottle or two of that famous remedy, DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which is well known to be the most speedy cure ever known, as thousands will testify, whose lives have been saved by it. R. HENDERSON T. RUTHERFORD, C. G. STEWART. March 59, 1849. AMERICAN & VIRGINIA BIBLE SOCIETY.

There are many Churches that have not taken up sheir annual collection for their Society, and it is very desirable that they should be excited to immediate action by the urgency of the case. The calls for the Word of God were never so many and urgent as at the present moment. A great demand is made for the Bible to be sent to various portions of our own state that yet remain to be supplied. Much has been done in this noble cause during the last two years, but much yet remains to be done. The Gen-eral Agent, assisted by others, will hold meetings in behalf of the cause in the following places: At Charlestown, on Sunday the 8th of April; at Winchester, on the 10th (Tuesday night,) the anniversary of the Winchester Bible Society will be held.— Thursday night, the 12th, the annual meeting of the Shepherdstown Bible Society will be held in that town. On Sabbath following. (the 14th.) at Har-pers-Ferry, the cause will be presented morning and night; and on the following. Tuesday night in Marinsburg (the 16th.)
The friends of the Bible cause in the places de rignated will please have the meetings published in the several churches. J. POISAL March 22, 1849. Martinsburg papers please copy.

CHURCH NOTICE. The Rev. J. Poisal, Agent for the Virginia Bible Society, will preach in this place on Sunday morning, April 8th, and in Smithsed on the afternoon of the same day, at half past 3 o'clock. March 22, 1849.

To Country Merchants and Dealers

Generally. W. M. BAYNE is now receiving per schr. Hamilton, from New York, his Spring supply of GROCERIES. His purchases were made with an especial eye to the wants of country merchants. In his opinion nothing is to be gained by them (all things considered) by going further north for arti-cles in his line, and under no circumstances can they be losers by examining this market as they pass through. W. B. considers it his interest to put his customers on the best footing, otherwise he could never calculate on having a permanent trade. His stock consists mainly of the following articles, to which he invites attention :-SUGAR .- Porto Rico, Cuba, N. O. Clarified, Brown Havana, in boxes; Woolsey's, Loaf and Crushed and N. O. YARIETY.

SEVEN YEARS' ITCH.

It is close unto eighteen years ago, that we stayed all night at the very house where Oakly stirred up the wasp nest. We reach-ed there after a disagreeable day's ride in the snow and sleet. We had stopped at the Chachita river and spent an half hour very pleasantly-old Scarborough fiddled, while his wife and Hedge Triplett run a reel -The cold souce we got that day will never be forgotten." At night, after a hearty supper, we prepared for lodging. Dr. Billy Rayburn, now of Orleans, and ourself took one bed : Tom Scott and Fountain Pope another ; Hedge Triplett a third; a stranger, who fell in with us, a fourth; while the mail rider, an awkward, gawky boy of fifteen, prepared to turn in somewhere. His eye fell first upon Hedge's bed, and he was making up to it when Hedge cracked his teeth together in a terrible manuer. Rayburn and ourself took the hint. We asked Hedge if nothing would prevent its he replied no. Rayburn proposed bleeding him; no use, said Hedge, it won't stop they. Stop what? said the mail boy. Fite replied Hedge. It would have done you good to see the mail boy

His only chance now was with the stranger, who very good naturedly invited him to partake of half his bed. The boy accepted; and having divested himself of his clothing, was about turning in, when the stranger rising up in his bed observed: "My young friend, I hate to take advantage of you-I have got the Itch !" "O," said the boy, as he brought a nasty rake with his finger nails, "is that all? why, I've had it these three years!" If you had seen that stranger leave that bed you would know how lightning travels. Peter Whetstone A MEAN MAN .- We have heard of mean men in our day, but a correspondent of the St. Louis Reveille mentions one to whom must be yielded the palm : "Talk about mean men! Why, there's that Bill Thompson, he's the meanest man I ever heard on-Bill was a constable there. Why, don't you think, he had an execution against me, for a little matter of groceries, and he came out and levelled on my old 'oman's ducks, and he wanted me to drive 'em up and ketch 'em for him, and I told him to ketch 'em himself; and he chased 'em round and round the house, and every time he'd ketch a duck, he'd set down and wring its head off, and charge mileage!" NEW AND TRUE .- A very modest old maid visiting a newly married friend recently, saw her husband's shirts lying on the bed, and exclaimed:

"Oh, merey a man's shirt on your bed? Such a thing on my bed would give me the night mare! "Very likely," responded the wife, "unless the man was inside of it.

Miseries of Authors .- "Now, then, Thomas, what are you burning off my writing table there ?"

"Only the paper what's written all over, sir; I aint touched the clean." . What's the matter with your veal?

said a nasal voiced Yankee to a street butcher in the Bowery, the other morning "what makes it look so blue? Didn't die, did it?" "No," said the butcher, "it didn't die 'zactly, it kind o' gin cout !" 13 A lawyer not over young nor handsome, examining a young lady witness in court, determined to perplex her, and said, "Miss, upon my word, you are very pretty !" The young lady very promptly replied, "I would' return the compliment, sir, if I were not on oath!

"Shocking times !" as the old woman said when the lightning knocked her over the wash-tub.

Pat, who were your aucestors? "My aunt's sisters?" Be jabers, and it's hard telling.

The Chronicle tells of a man meetling two attorneys, one of whom he did not know, but asked his friend to be introduced to his brother-in-law. I A New Orleans paper advertises for sale one "undivided half of a negro."

"Delaware will never yield an inch," said a patriotic Delawarian when the Pea Patch case was being tried. "If she did," replied a bystander, "she would lose half her territory."

II If you want an affectionate, loving wife, choose a thin, lean, raw boned gal. You'll be nearer her heart.

Dobbs, on being questioned by the court, as to whether he had been extensively engaged in the hotel business, answered that he rather thought he had, as he once "boarded a frigate and two sloops of war."

FEE SIMPLE.-I den't know much about fee simple, but I know that, For the gain of a simple fee, The wisest lawyers disagree.

THE IRISHMAN'S WINDOW .- A gentleman residing in Albany, as the story goes, seeing an Irishman removing an embankment from a dwelling, inquired—"Patrick, what are gou doing?" "I am opening the cellar winden to be sure," "And what are you doing that for ?" "May it plaise your honor," said Patrick, "to let out the dark."

A crusty old codger remarked of absent-minded people, that it did not make much difference whether their minds were absent or present for they hadn't much of that article any how.

Caution is the Parent of Safety. HOW often do we see persons atflicted with a slight Cough and Cold, who go on neglecting it until it settles on their longs, and brings on AN AT-TACK of PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, which may eventually cause their death; when, if they had procured a bottle of in the beginning, they never would have experienced any iil results from their cough, but have been cured of it immediately Therefore, all those who are troubled with a slight cough, will recollect that delays are dangerous; for what may appear trivial in the beginning, may lead to the most dreadful consequences. PURIFICATION.

It is a settled creed in all correct medical jurisprudence, that unless the blood is kept free from imourities, the whole system must inevitably become liseased. When the blood becomes clogged, thick, and moves through the veins and arteries with a sluggish motion, we may rest assured that sickness with its concomitant train of evils, is about to ensue. The utmost care and greatest precaution are herefore necessary, and the system should be closey watched. Those who generally provide them-selves with mild and aperient physic, should give a preference to such as are of a strictly vegetable nare. Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills appear to be the universal favorite, as they are composed entirely of Vegetables and co-operate so efectually-eleansing the system-purifying the blood and removing all undue biliary secretions.

JOHN GIBSON. Harners-Ferry, May 11, 1848 v Another Miraculous Cure.

DEAD the following letter, and then, if you It are troubled with any disease of the lungs, go and get a bottle of DR. HASTINGS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF NAPTHA St. Johnsville, New York, Feb. 5, 1848.
Mr. Harrison: Sir—I will trouble your patience a few minutes by informing you of the great triumph which your Naptha Syrup has obtained in the case of my brother. He increased the dose as you directed, and the result was that he began to raise very freely, and it scented so badly that it was impossible to stay in the room where he was, on the fifth day after the increase of the dose. In a day or so after, he began to get better, and at this present time is quite revived, has a good appetite, and don't cough a quarter as much as he did previously. A severe cough and immense ex-pectoration were the prominent symptoms of the disease. I think his case was a singular one; none of the physicians here had ever heard or seen any thing of the kind before. I mention all these particulars, as I am firm in the belief that, had it not been for the Naptha Syrup, he could have expected nothing but a speedy grave, as there was an immense number of tubercles formed on his lungs, which the medicine took immediate hold of, and in a few days he threw them up by the quantity, some of them were as large as a beam. If he improves as fast as he has done, I do not think tha he will need any more than the six bottles I now send for. Enclosed are five dollars, Direct the box as before to Jonas Snell. Care of Charles Kingsland, Railroad Depot. Yours respectfully, JONAS SNELL. After reading the above, who can doubt that Hastings' Naptha Syrap possesses all the virtue that is claimed for it. A very important Communication TO ALL PERSONS IN ALL PLACES.

AT ALL TIMES, AND Under all Circumstances. IF you are sick, get cured; if well, employ measures to continue so. Every individual indulges in habits, which most, to a greater or lesser extent, disarrange the admirable and intricate combinations which form the system, and consequently EVERY INDIVIDUAL should lossess some mild, yet efficacious, simple and accredited agent for preserving all the functions of the body in good order.

Dr. Sweetser's Panacca will achieve this result, and should be in every family, and in the hands of every person, who by business, profession or general course of life, is predisposed to the very many little ailments that render life a curse, instead of a blessing, and finally result, in their aggregated condition, in the cause of Death. For Eruptions of the Skin, Scurvy, Scorbutic Affections, Tumors, Serotula or King's Evil, White Swellings, E. ysipelas, Ulcers, Cancers, Running Sores, Scabs and Biles, time and a determined perseverance in Dr. Sweetser's Panacca, will effect a cure.

For Indigestion, Rejection of Food, Nausea, Vomit-For Indigestion, Rejection of Food, Nausea, Vomitings, Nervous Affections, Bilious complaints, Head ache, Paleness or Female Irregularities, Dr. Sweetset's Pauacea will soon effect a cure; but if obstinate, or attended with griping, flying pains, the dose should be increased, and the cure will soon be effected. Let not the patients frighten themselves with the idea that they are too weak to take much medicine; but bear in mind that the will be action or the patients of the cure will soon be effected.

this mildly operating medicine puts not weakness into the frame, but most certainly draws weakness out, leaves streng h in its place, and by giving composed sleep at night, and an appetite to relish any food, re-animates the whole frame with vigorous action, clearing the mind and improving the sight In cases of Jaundice, Asthma. Liver Complaints, Tie Doloreux, Rheumatism or Rheumatic Gout, Dr. Swetts-ers's Panacea sannot be too highly extolled; it search-cs out the very root of the disease, and by removing it from the Blood makes a cure certain and permanent.

For diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Strictures, Gravel, Stone, Piles, Fistula, Urinary Obstructions and Extreme Costiveness, Dr. Sweetser's Panacea is the best remedy ever tried; it removes all those acrimoni-ous humors from the blood, which give rise to the above diseases, and by keeping the blood in a pure condition

For Dropsy, Falling of the Bowels, Impurities of the Blood, Mercurial Taint, Weakness of the Spine, Flow of Blood to the Head, Gliddiness, Singing or Buzzing Noise in the Head and Ears, Dr. Sweetser's Panacea will give certain relief; in all severe and chronic cases the patient cannot be too often reminded that LARSER DOSES and PERSEVERANCE will effect a cure.

In chills and Fevers, Billious Fever, Affections of the Eyes and Ears, Spongy and Bleeding Gums, Bronchitis
and recent Congles and Colds, Dr. Sweetser's Panace will be found perfectly sure and certain in its effects.

DR. SWEETSER'S PANACEA. Being composed only of vegetable matter, or medi-cal herbs, and warranted, on oath, as containing not one particle of mercurial, unineral, or chemical substances, is found to be perfectly harmless to the most tender age or the weakest frame, under any stage of human suffering; the most pleasant and benign in its opera-tion that was ever offered to the world; and at the same time the most certain in searching out the root of any ermplaint, however deep, and of performing a care.
