

VIRGINIA FREE PRESS AND FARMERS' REPOSITORY.

Virginia Free Press.
BY H. N. GALLAHER & CO.
THURSDAY MORNING.
MARCH 14, 1850.

MR. WEBSTER'S SPEECH.

The interest excited at the Capitol, to hear Mr. Webster's Speech on the agitating question of the day, seems to have been extended to that portion of the people who have to rely upon its perusal—Every body desires to see it, and we regret that our limits will not enable us to spread it at once before our readers. It exhibits the master mind, not merely in the collection and narration of historical facts, but in the logical combination of high and patriotic thoughts.

Totally free from excitement himself, Mr. Webster uses a calm and statesman-like view of the exciting topics of the day, and points out the errors and follies of both sections of the Union. It is true, as he says, that "we live in the midst of strong agitations, and in the midst of very considerable dangers to our institutions of government"—that "the impulsive winds let loose" —and that "the East, the West, the North, and the stormy South all combine to throw the whole ocean into commotion, and to toss its billows to the skies, and to disclose its profoundest depths." Mr. W., modestly disclaims the ability "to hold the helm in this combat of the political elements"; yet we venture to say that he has succeeded in a very great degree in calming the troubled waters. He has touched the talisman of reason, as Mr. Clay had previously touched the chord of patriotism—and the right-thinking and truly loyal friends of the Union are every where rallying to the rescue.

Mr. Webster has given a true history of the troubles now upon us—it has shown how sedulously he and other cool heads of the country had endeavored to avert them—and he has proven conclusively that the continuance of further agitation would be out of place and not in accordance with the plan of settlement which he sketched rather than proposed.

The speech of Mr. Webster, together with that of Mr. Glass, shows with what force the conservatives of the North can approach the slavery question and deal with it practically. The enactment of the Wilcox provision, in application to any of the new territories, is decreed by both of these distinguished gentlemen. The extreme views of Mr. Clay are repudiated by the general sentiment of the South—even by some who were supposed to be most zealous for him.

The middle ground, therefore, remains. Northern fanaticism and Southern fanaticism stand alike rebuked, and the intelligence and patriotism of both sections now challenge the confidence of the country which demands that wife and parrotic counsels shall prevail in the National Legislature. There is no room of whatever eminence in the political world who can venture at this time to stand out upon a platform or an extreme sectional ground, without rendering himself subject to distrust and execration.

We may expect dissenters from some of the positions of Mr. Webster in the South, and perhaps opposition and abuse from the fanatical部分 of the North, but we believe the great conservative masses will respond to Mr. W.'s former sole sentiment, now so happily enforced, and join with greater fervor in the cry, "Liberty and Union, one and inseparable, now and forever!"

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

On Tuesday, the 5th, in the House, a bill was reported incorporating the Virginia State Agricultural Society.

A motion was agreed to, for a survey of the route of the Rail Road from Covington to the Ohio River.

This Senate's resolution, for adjourning on the 1st instant was agreed to.

On Wednesday, of Mr. West, ten thousand copies of the bill providing for the call of a Convention were ordered to be printed.

This bill concerning the Richmond judicial circuit was passed, with the entire alliance of the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

After some remarks from Mr. Webster and Mr. Foote in explanation, the Senate adjourned.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. P. King presented the resolutions of the State of New York authorizing their Senators and requesting that Representatives to use their efforts for the passage of a law to put an end to slavery in the District of Columbia, to resist firmly and to the utmost of their ability, the attempt to extend the jurisdiction of Texas over New Mexico; to vote for the admission of California, and to do all in their power to prevent a dissolution of the States. He moved that Mr. Walker should decide on the agitating topic of the day, and the powerful effect which their self-government would produce on public opinion in the South. Some bills had been filled (at public expense) with moral anxiety and heat, and occasioned such a press for information that it could not be easily obtained in great part, and out of these seats, and the voice in the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The speech—so we are, through the exertions of our patriotic reporters, able to give a full report of Mr. Webster's speech, and his great influence and abuse from the fanatical部分 of the North, but we believe the great conservative masses will respond to Mr. W.'s former sole sentiment, now so happily enforced, and join with greater fervor in the cry, "Liberty and Union, one and inseparable, now and forever!"

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

On Wednesday, the 5th, in the House, a bill was reported incorporating the Virginia State Agricultural Society.

A motion was agreed to, for a survey of the route of the Rail Road from Covington to the Ohio River.

This Senate's resolution, for adjourning on the 1st instant was agreed to.

On Wednesday, of Mr. West, ten thousand copies of the bill providing for the call of a Convention were ordered to be printed.

This bill concerning the Richmond judicial circuit was passed, with the entire alliance of the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

After some remarks from Mr. Webster and Mr. Foote in explanation, the Senate adjourned.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. P. King presented the resolutions of the State of New York authorizing their Senators and requesting that Representatives to use their efforts for the passage of a law to put an end to slavery in the District of Columbia, to resist firmly and to the utmost of their ability, the attempt to extend the jurisdiction of Texas over New Mexico; to vote for the admission of California, and to do all in their power to prevent a dissolution of the States. He moved that Mr. Walker should decide on the agitating topic of the day, and the powerful effect which their self-government would produce on public opinion in the South. Some bills had been filled (at public expense) with moral anxiety and heat, and occasioned such a press for information that it could not be easily obtained in great part, and out of these seats, and the voice in the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The speech—so we are, through the exertions of our patriotic reporters, able to give a full report of Mr. Webster's speech, and his great influence and abuse from the fanatical部分 of the North, but we believe the great conservative masses will respond to Mr. W.'s former sole sentiment, now so happily enforced, and join with greater fervor in the cry, "Liberty and Union, one and inseparable, now and forever!"

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

On Wednesday, the 5th, in the House, a bill was reported incorporating the Virginia State Agricultural Society.

A motion was agreed to, for a survey of the route of the Rail Road from Covington to the Ohio River.

This Senate's resolution, for adjourning on the 1st instant was agreed to.

On Wednesday, of Mr. West, ten thousand copies of the bill providing for the call of a Convention were ordered to be printed.

This bill concerning the Richmond judicial circuit was passed, with the entire alliance of the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

After some remarks from Mr. Webster and Mr. Foote in explanation, the Senate adjourned.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. P. King presented the resolutions of the State of New York authorizing their Senators and requesting that Representatives to use their efforts for the passage of a law to put an end to slavery in the District of Columbia, to resist firmly and to the utmost of their ability, the attempt to extend the jurisdiction of Texas over New Mexico; to vote for the admission of California, and to do all in their power to prevent a dissolution of the States. He moved that Mr. Walker should decide on the agitating topic of the day, and the powerful effect which their self-government would produce on public opinion in the South. Some bills had been filled (at public expense) with moral anxiety and heat, and occasioned such a press for information that it could not be easily obtained in great part, and out of these seats, and the voice in the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The speech—so we are, through the exertions of our patriotic reporters, able to give a full report of Mr. Webster's speech, and his great influence and abuse from the fanatical部分 of the North, but we believe the great conservative masses will respond to Mr. W.'s former sole sentiment, now so happily enforced, and join with greater fervor in the cry, "Liberty and Union, one and inseparable, now and forever!"

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

On Wednesday, the 5th, in the House, a bill was reported incorporating the Virginia State Agricultural Society.

A motion was agreed to, for a survey of the route of the Rail Road from Covington to the Ohio River.

This Senate's resolution, for adjourning on the 1st instant was agreed to.

On Wednesday, of Mr. West, ten thousand copies of the bill providing for the call of a Convention were ordered to be printed.

This bill concerning the Richmond judicial circuit was passed, with the entire alliance of the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

After some remarks from Mr. Webster and Mr. Foote in explanation, the Senate adjourned.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. P. King presented the resolutions of the State of New York authorizing their Senators and requesting that Representatives to use their efforts for the passage of a law to put an end to slavery in the District of Columbia, to resist firmly and to the utmost of their ability, the attempt to extend the jurisdiction of Texas over New Mexico; to vote for the admission of California, and to do all in their power to prevent a dissolution of the States. He moved that Mr. Walker should decide on the agitating topic of the day, and the powerful effect which their self-government would produce on public opinion in the South. Some bills had been filled (at public expense) with moral anxiety and heat, and occasioned such a press for information that it could not be easily obtained in great part, and out of these seats, and the voice in the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The speech—so we are, through the exertions of our patriotic reporters, able to give a full report of Mr. Webster's speech, and his great influence and abuse from the fanatical部分 of the North, but we believe the great conservative masses will respond to Mr. W.'s former sole sentiment, now so happily enforced, and join with greater fervor in the cry, "Liberty and Union, one and inseparable, now and forever!"

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

On Wednesday, the 5th, in the House, a bill was reported incorporating the Virginia State Agricultural Society.

A motion was agreed to, for a survey of the route of the Rail Road from Covington to the Ohio River.

This Senate's resolution, for adjourning on the 1st instant was agreed to.

On Wednesday, of Mr. West, ten thousand copies of the bill providing for the call of a Convention were ordered to be printed.

This bill concerning the Richmond judicial circuit was passed, with the entire alliance of the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

After some remarks from Mr. Webster and Mr. Foote in explanation, the Senate adjourned.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. P. King presented the resolutions of the State of New York authorizing their Senators and requesting that Representatives to use their efforts for the passage of a law to put an end to slavery in the District of Columbia, to resist firmly and to the utmost of their ability, the attempt to extend the jurisdiction of Texas over New Mexico; to vote for the admission of California, and to do all in their power to prevent a dissolution of the States. He moved that Mr. Walker should decide on the agitating topic of the day, and the powerful effect which their self-government would produce on public opinion in the South. Some bills had been filled (at public expense) with moral anxiety and heat, and occasioned such a press for information that it could not be easily obtained in great part, and out of these seats, and the voice in the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The speech—so we are, through the exertions of our patriotic reporters, able to give a full report of Mr. Webster's speech, and his great influence and abuse from the fanatical部分 of the North, but we believe the great conservative masses will respond to Mr. W.'s former sole sentiment, now so happily enforced, and join with greater fervor in the cry, "Liberty and Union, one and inseparable, now and forever!"

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

On Wednesday, the 5th, in the House, a bill was reported incorporating the Virginia State Agricultural Society.

A motion was agreed to, for a survey of the route of the Rail Road from Covington to the Ohio River.

This Senate's resolution, for adjourning on the 1st instant was agreed to.

On Wednesday, of Mr. West, ten thousand copies of the bill providing for the call of a Convention were ordered to be printed.

This bill concerning the Richmond judicial circuit was passed, with the entire alliance of the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

After some remarks from Mr. Webster and Mr. Foote in explanation, the Senate adjourned.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. P. King presented the resolutions of the State of New York authorizing their Senators and requesting that Representatives to use their efforts for the passage of a law to put an end to slavery in the District of Columbia, to resist firmly and to the utmost of their ability, the attempt to extend the jurisdiction of Texas over New Mexico; to vote for the admission of California, and to do all in their power to prevent a dissolution of the States. He moved that Mr. Walker should decide on the agitating topic of the day, and the powerful effect which their self-government would produce on public opinion in the South. Some bills had been filled (at public expense) with moral anxiety and heat, and occasioned such a press for information that it could not be easily obtained in great part, and out of these seats, and the voice in the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The speech—so we are, through the exertions of our patriotic reporters, able to give a full report of Mr. Webster's speech, and his great influence and abuse from the fanatical部分 of the North, but we believe the great conservative masses will respond to Mr. W.'s former sole sentiment, now so happily enforced, and join with greater fervor in the cry, "Liberty and Union, one and inseparable, now and forever!"

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

On Wednesday, the 5th, in the House, a bill was reported incorporating the Virginia State Agricultural Society.

A motion was agreed to, for a survey of the route of the Rail Road from Covington to the Ohio River.

This Senate's resolution, for adjourning on the 1st instant was agreed to.

On Wednesday, of Mr. West, ten thousand copies of the bill providing for the call of a Convention were ordered to be printed.

This bill concerning the Richmond judicial circuit was passed, with the entire alliance of the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

After some remarks from Mr. Webster and Mr. Foote in explanation, the Senate adjourned.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. P. King presented the resolutions of the State of New York authorizing their Senators and requesting that Representatives to use their efforts for the passage of a law to put an end to slavery in the District of Columbia, to resist firmly and to the utmost of their ability, the attempt to extend the jurisdiction of Texas over New Mexico; to vote for the admission of California, and to do all in their power to prevent a dissolution of the States. He moved that Mr. Walker should decide on the agitating topic of the day, and the powerful effect which their self-government would produce on public opinion in the South. Some bills had been filled (at public expense) with moral anxiety and heat, and occasioned such a press for information that it could not be easily obtained in great part, and out of these seats, and the voice in the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

The speech—so we are, through the exertions of our patriotic reporters, able to give a full report of Mr. Webster's speech, and his great influence and abuse from the fanatical部分 of the North, but we believe the great conservative masses will respond to Mr. W.'s former sole sentiment, now so happily enforced, and join with greater fervor in the cry, "Liberty and Union, one and inseparable, now and forever!"

The following is given as the probable cast of the select committee to be raised in the Senate—Mr. Clay, Chairman; Messrs. Webster, Phelps, Cass, Cooper, Dodge, Jr., and Dickinson, from the North; and Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Mangum, Marion, Sibley, and Butler, from the South.

On Wednesday, the 5th, in the House, a bill was reported incorporating the Virginia State Agricultural Society.

A motion was agreed to, for a survey of the route of the Rail Road from Covington to the Ohio River.

This Senate's resolution, for adjourning on the 1st instant was agreed to.

On Wednesday, of Mr. West, ten thousand copies of the bill providing for the call of a Convention were ordered to be printed.

This bill concerning the Richmond judicial circuit was passed, with the entire alliance of the chamber, as well as the galleries and lobbies, were filled with a dense and brilliant audience.

VIRGINIA FREE PRESS AND FARMERS' REPOSITORY.

Arrival of the Steamer Georgia at New York.

TWO WEEKS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

The small steamship Georgia, Lieut. D. D. Porter commanding, arrived at New York at 104 o'clock on Friday night, having sailed from Chagres Feb. 27. The Philadelphia remained at the anchorage when the Georgia left.

The Georgia brings all the San Francisco news from Dec. 31 to Feb. 1; being two weeks later than the Albermarle's advices. She brings about 150 passengers, 120 left at Havana for the Falcon, and about $500,000 in gold.

Col. Fremont, United States Senator from California, arrived in the Georgia, from Chagres, accompanied by his lady (daughter of Colonel Bonaparte). Mr. Fremont has received from her many interesting letters. Not a soul present, he was able to walk about, having had a protracted attack of intermitent fever. When sufficiently recovered the party will proceed to Washington.

Among the details at San Francisco, we report that of Dr. McNair, of Arch street, near Tenth, in the city of Philadelphia, who is said to have broken his neck by a fall from a ladder, on the 22d.

—A man in San Francisco.—A man named George Davis committed suicide at Brown's Hotel, in San Francisco, by swallowing a quantity of laudanum. A letter directed "To the finder of my corpse," was lying on a table in the room. Its contents are as follows:

"I have committed this awful act rather than die a lingering death by starvation. Please give this to Captain Webster, on board the English steamer Peru, now lying at Clarke's Point; and he will forward it to my father, Mr. George Davis, in Liverpool. I remain, to the last, in the confidence of his son's fate. I have driven hard, God knows how hard—to get an honest living, and can't, as have only to die."

G. D. Co. & Co.

Several attempts have been made to fire building in San Francisco, but have failed.

Earthquake.—The residents of San Francisco were startled on Wednesday, January 16, by several shocks of earthquake.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

The Royal Mail Steamer Canada arrived at Halifax on the 8th inst., and brought dates from Liverpool to the 23d inst., and London to the 22d.

England.—There is nothing of great importance from England beyond the fact that Parliament has been engaged during the fortnight in debating the free trade question, or in making some arrangement of the Irish law, regarding elections—in the free trade question, or policy, the Ministers were sustained by a majority of only 31.

France.—The closing price for best Western Canard, 24cts per lb.; Philadelphia and Baltimore, 24cts.

Telegrams have been very firm and prices advanced, with an upward tendency.

SHEPHERDSTOWN BRIDGE.

Owing to the rise in the Potowmack, consequent upon the heavy and continual rains in the early part of last winter, the bridge over the river at Shepherdstown, the Contractor for the Shepherdstown Bridge, the temporary road, trestling crane, &c., were washed away down the river, though thanks to the vigorous exertions of himself and hands in his employ, nearly the whole of the material has been recovered. Now, however, the work has been much depressed, and prices almost nominal. Yellow was quoted at 27cts, and white 30cts, 6d per quarter Wheat was quiet.

Flowers.—The closing price for best Western Canard, 24cts per lb.; Philadelphia and Baltimore, 24cts.

Telegrams have been very firm and prices advanced, with an upward tendency.

COLONIZATION.

THE LADIES of the Episcopal Church, in Shepherdstown, will have presented at Mr. Colclough's, a most choice Collection of which they hope the object of it is to further a religious cause, that general public will partake.

Married.

On the 20th of December, 1850, at Pleasant Green, Cooper County, Mo., Mr. George S. Cockrell to Miss Elizabeth Rucker, daughter of Mr. Samuel Rucker, of Lee's Summit.

In Louisville, 26th ult., by the Rev. William Eggleston, Mr. W. H. Gilliland to Miss Mary Anne C. Newell, all of the above name county.

Died.

At the age of 80 years, on the 10th ult., of the year of our Lord, 1850, Mr. John Powers, of Clarendon, a native of the Hon. H. Clay.

On the 27th, in Marietta, Mr. John Fawley in the 78th year of his age.

On the 1st, Mrs. MARY FINLEY, widow of Col. John Finley, of Louisville, Ky., aged 80 years.

On the 1st, Mr. WILLIAM COOPER, of Cincinnati, Ohio, aged 80 years.

On the 1st, Mrs. ELIZABETH L. HARRIS, of Jefferson, Virginia, wife of Col. Robert L. Harris, formerly of Lee's Summit, Indiana, and formerly of St. Louis, aged about 80 years, last evening a citizen of Indiana, and formerly of Jefferson, Virginia.

Baltimore Market.

CLOTH & LINEN'S MARKET FOR PEAS IN THE BALTIMORE MARKET FOR THE WEEK ENDING MARCH 6 1850.

REPAINTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE FREE PRESS.

SALES—SALES AT $10 TO $40 PER BBL.

BUTTER—DRIED SALES AT THE FOLLOWING PRICES: PRIMA $11 TO 11 1/2; KEG 12 TO 12 1/2; CASKS 13 TO 14.

BAKED—HOLD NOMINALLY AT 20 CENTS.

BAKED SOAPS AT $1 TO $1 1/2 CENTS.

COATS—SALES AT 46 TO 47 CTS., 10 WHITE AND 46 RED.

CAKES—AN IMPROVEMENT IN PRICE IS MADE IN THE 22D.

CHOCOLATE—SALES AT $1 10 TO $1 50.

CHOCOLATE MARKET IS THE ONLY ACTIVE LIQUID RECEIPTS FOR THE LAST WEEK.

CHOCOLATE—SALES AT $5 25 TO $5 75.

COOKIES—SALES AT $1 10 TO $1 25.

COOKIES—SALES AT 40 TO 45 CENTS.

COOKIES—SALES AT 30 TO 35 CENTS.

COOKIES—SALES AT $10 TO $13.

COOKIES—SALES AT $1 10 TO $1 25.

COOKIES—SALES AT $1 10 TO $1 25

VIRGINIA FREE PRESS AND FARMERS' REPOSITORY.

THE Virginia Free Press

IS PUBLISHED WEEKLY, AT
Two Dollars and Fifty Cents

PER ANNUM.
Payable half yearly, but Two Dollars and Fifty Cents will be charged for each payment in advance.

If no payment is deferred beyond the expiration of the year interest will be charged.

Subscription for six months, $1 25, to be paid invariably in advance.

ADVERTISING.

The weight of my advertising, for a square or less $1, for three insertions—larger ones in the same proportion. Each continuation 25 cents per square.

All advertisements not ordered for a specific time, will be consumed until filled and charged accordingly.

M. V. H. is an American Newspaper and Advertising Agent in the cities of Philadelphia, New York and Boston, has been appointed Agent for receiving and forwarding subscriptions and advertisements for this paper, at his offices in those cities respectively, viz.,

Philadelphia, N. W. Corner of Third and Chestnut Streets.

New York, No. 30, Ann Street.

Boston, No. 14, State Street.

BALTIMORE AGENCY.

Mr. William Thomas, S. E. Corner of Baltimore and Chestnut streets, is an authorized Agent for receiving and forwarding Subscriptions and Advertisements for the "Free Press," and a copy of the paper, terms &c., can be found on file at his office.

VARIETY.

HEARTS AND HOMES.

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure, Music breathing as they fall,

Making each other's treasure;

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,

Having Love, it holds all,

Hearts and Homes, sweet words of pleasure,

Music breathing as they fall,

Once divided losing all,

Homeless, home may never hold,

Be the dwelling ever so small,