OCTOBER 22, 1850. TO THE EDITOR-DEAR SIR:-I have understood that there is a report in circu-fation in the county, that I have some claim to the tract of land which I conveyed to my father some years ago. My object in writing this note is to say that I have never said or done any thing to induce any one to think toat I had the slightest claim whatever, to the land to question. All the claim I ever had, I sold to my father some years since, and I think be paid me a fall and fair price for it, and the Deed is of record in the Clerk's Office of the County Court of Jefferson. I have have now no claim of any sort, kind or description to the said land, either in law or equity. JOHN W. D. DUFFIELD.

I WISH to read a House and Lot adjoining my Mother's faring near Duffield's Depot, on the Bultimore & Ohio Railroad. The dwelling house has four rootas a kitchen stands near by. The Lot coatains beregen ark and seven acres. I will make at an object so any one wanting a situation, to rent this property. There is a plank building within one hundred yards of the dwelling, also for rent. All of said property can be had for twelve months at a very low less by applying soon.

Magson, E-q, and were adopted with great unanimity by the meeting, viz: Resolved, That while we are disposed to entertain a decent respect for the opinion of others, we are nevertheless constrained to believe, that the action of the miscalled Convention, held in Winchester on the 3d of April last, did not reflect the will of a majority of the Democracy of the District. Resolved, That we heartily approve of the suggestion of the Democracy of our sister county, Page, to hold a Convention in the town of Winchester on the 18th of July next, to nominate a person as a candidate to represent this District in the next Congress.

Resolved, That it should be distinctly understood, that while we have our personal preferences, no such considerations shall cause us to violate the pledge, which we hereby make, to use all proper and honorable means, to secure the election of the nominee of the Convention. Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Winchester Virginian, and the other Democratic papers of the District, and that the Editors of the Winchester Republican, Charlestown Free Press, and Valley Democrat, be requested to copy the same. JAMES R. COBURN, Chairman. JOHN M. MAGSON, Secretary.

PETRIFIED FORESTS.

On the banks of the Brazos river, in Texas, there is a large forest which has been entirely changed to stone. Some of the trees are still standing, but most of them are thrown down, and their trunks and branches are completely petrified, and covered with beautiful crystal. But the most singular fact of the whole is that the nuts which we want upon these trees are also found there entirely petrified. One of these stone nuts is now before us, and is certainly a wonderful curiesity.

MISCELLANY THRILLING SCENE.

The following description, by an eye-wi ness, of the terrible steamboat accident opposite Cincinnati, in 1835, is from Arthur's Home Gozette " Captain of the M----, sir?"

"Up for Cairo and New Orleans, I see." " Just so." " When do you leave?"

"At three, this afternoon." " Please book my name for Cairo." "I will," said I, though I knew i would be a wonderful thing if a loat should leave

The M- was a new, elegant and fast commander intended on this day to show her off to the best advantage. Before three o'clock I went on board, she was thronged with passengers, many of them the elite of the city, all in good humor, auticipating a delightful voyage in this palace of the waters. At Fuiton, a small village about two miles up the river, were a large number of emigrants, German, I believe, consisting of men, women and children, who were to be taken aboard the M -- at that place. " Aye, aye, sir." " Draw in the plank. Right gallantly did she walk the water; her sharp cutting prow dividing the stream so smoothly as scarcely to cause a sparkle of foam on her breast; but a highway of milkwhite foam issued from 'neath her rushing keel, marking her course to the destined landing, while her roaring steam pipes hardly drowned the deafening shouts of the excited and admiring spectators. An hour was spent in taking abound the emigrants and their heavy luggage. Many an eye then brightened with hope as it rested and judgment which have given so much on the noble craft, which, they thought, renown to the proprietors in past years, and | would so soon bring them to the printised is so much enhanced by this large display of land. The engineer reluctantly obeyed. Myself and several others heard the blasphemy, and were shocked beyond measure. There was a whi-pering among the passengers, and many myself among the number, ordered the baggage ashore, and left the boat fearing the consequences of remaining. We had handly time to leave ere the plank was drawn

Majestically she swings around her breast to the current; proudly the Captain stands on the dizzy edge of the hurricane deak, fen joying the admiration of the spectators; one revolution of her paddles, and then, thorrors! an explosion of sound, as of the whole "artillery of heaven," shook the air, mingled | in every branch of business. with the noise of a thousand crashing oaks. One of the most heart-rending accidents, which it has been our misfortune to witness, occurred in this town on Saturday last .-The circumstances attending this sad occurrence are briefly these : About one o'clock, Mr. Jacob Lichliter was called upon to shoot a dog, supposed to exhibit signs of hydrophobia. He loaded his rifle in Mr C. Lichliter's tailor-shop, and while in the act of putting on a percussion cap, accidentally the cap was exploded, and terrible to say, the ball took effect in the right side of Mr. Jno E. Clower (son of Samuel) entering just underneath the lower rib, passing through the stomach and lodging in the chest or abdomen. A physician was present at the time, and others were immediately called in, who did for the sufferer all that medical aid could afford, but all was in vain. He survived until about five o'clock in the evening, during which time be evinced the utmost composure and consciousness of his perilous situation, when death released him from his pain. ' On Sabbath evening, his remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of weeping relatives and sympathising friends. The most sincere sympathy is felt in the whole community, both for the bereaved parents of the deceased and the innocent instrument of this sad affair. Naturally of a generous and kind-hearted disposition, and although Mr. L. is entirely unblamable, his grief at the irreparable loss he has occasioned, is distressing indeed .- Tenth Legion.

JULY 10, 18$1. EXTENSION OF THE CAPITOL.

The ceremony of laying the Corner Stone of the New or Extended (asset of the Nation is one of the events in our history to be remembered, not merely by those was signify but by those who may tead the interesting details.

We cunnot go into these details. All we can say at present, is, that, the coaster stone was laid on the th, with ceremonies of grandeur and interest. The President of the United States officiated in part, with great dignity and modesty, and the Masonic Brethren had, 4s in 1793, a conspictious

In the grand procession from the City Hall to the Capitol were seen, on foot, preceded by several handsome military companies, the President of the | unsuspicious nature; " magnanimous, artless an Uni ed States and his Chainet and other civil offi- credu ous, boundless in his confidence, ardent in his mary of the Eunevolen Societies.

Drawn around the age of the corner stone, were the dignitaries aforesaid, and the Masons, when fervor and eloquence, thanking the Almighty for all his mercies to us as a nation, and invoking his smiles upon the exercises of the day throughout our beloved land-that "our liberty should ever be guided by law, our knowledge by religion, our power by justice, by mercy, and by peace." And, by all the fond hopes, and interests that could animale us, to preserve the States of this Union forever free and forever one!

After the President had performed his part, he gave way to the Masonic Fraternity-and an excellent, though brief, praver was offered up by Rev. CHARLES A. DAVIS, Grand Chaptain,

B. B. FRENCH, Esq., the grand Master, then applied the usual implements of the Order, and declared he stone "well leid, true, and trusty." He used the identical gavel which was used by the immortal Washington in 1793 in laying the first corner stone of the Capitol, and wore the same apror that he then wore.

The working tools were then presented to Mr. WALTER, the Architect, with the usual address. and the President and his attendants repaired to the platform prepared for the addresses by Grand Master French and Secretary Webster.

Mr. French's address was not only eloquent and instructive, but it was in fine taste as to time and substance. He saw in the corner stone of the exand representatives FOREVER!

When Mr. French had finished his discourse, amid great applause, the Hon. DANIEL WEISTER took the stand, amid loud and long-repeated huzzas. His address occupied nearly too hours in the delivery. It has been well described by a Democratic journal as "a wise, elaborate and patriotic review of the past and present condition of our country, and comprised the recital of much statistical data."

This speech has been revised by the author himself, and carefully printed as it was delivered .-Every body will read it with more than common interest, and nothing but extreme length will prevent its insertion in our columns.

Several handsoms military companies were in sttendance from Baltimore and Alexandria -- and the Temperance Societies and Sunday Schools were an imposing feature.

The work upon the extension will be carried on with great vigor, and will afford employment to a large number of mechanics and laborers. All this brokes on the water & OLIVIUS.

Mr. Buchanan is about to be put forward by the managers of the Democracy as their candidate for the Presidency, and Gen. Scott by the managers of the Whig party for the time being. These movements are somewhat premature, and can scarcely be considered as any very certain indication of what him with those who know him. "The Whig Convention of Pennsylvania has nominated Gen. Scott for the Presidency-a compliment which in our opinion, the South ought to reciprocate by nominating some Northern man for the same high office. The Seward portion of the North has made a great ado about the fact that the South has had so many Presidents. Yet, these are the first men to call the son of the South to accept the mantle which has fallen from the shoulders of the heroic Taylor. The South will not permit the North to do herself so great an injustice. She intends hereafter to imitate the example of her worldly-wise brethern of the North, and, learing honors | Anavai Report he says :to others, betake herself to cotton spinning, com-merce and cash. But she will not surrender her character for chivalry and magnanimity. Gen. Jackson once declared that he would not allow any man to outdo him in politeness, and, in the same spirit, the South gracefully declines the courteous profer of Pennsylvania, and will insist that the North shall herself wear the wreath she wishes to place upon a Southern brow. And what representative can the North present more worthy than

The whole Whig South will answer, "No one." Mr. Fillmore has acted a part which challenges not merely the admiration of all liberal men, but which kindness. PENNSYLVANIA.

We have already adverted to the nomination, by the Pennsylvania Whig Convention, of Gen. Scott for the Presidency, and Ww. P. Jonniston, Esq. for re-election as Covernor. These nominations are not altogether acceptable to Southern Whige, because they seem to have been made under inaur-Zictous circumstances, and to have been managed by doubtful leaders. The declaration of opinions on the Compromise Measures were not as explicit and decided as we could have wished. Upon this point, we agree fully with the Richmond Republican, which says :-

"Sie far as Gen. Scott is concerned, we think it peculiarly unfortunate that his name should be asso ciated with these Seward movements. We do not for a moment doubt his patriotism. We honor him for his great military services. We tegret, however, that we have met with no declaration from his pen of his opinions as to the late Compromise measures. Such a declaration is quite indispensable for any public man who would secure the confidence of the friends of the Constitution and the Union. He said "Mr. Fillmore ame into the office of President by the death of Gegeral Taylor. He had it in his power to put an ery to the entire slavery agitation in twenty days

But he choose to be the opposite course, to turn his back upon the riends who had elevated him, to falsify the professions of his past life, to throw himself into the aline of those who are prostituting the Government to se extention of slavery, to set the seal of his approbation to a law which, in my humble judgement, no terrilized government on earth, except our own, rand I now enact."

You emperilled all for us, and Virginia is not the dwelling place of ingratitude. [Cheers.] You have asserted the vital rights of the South. A tottering power of the general Government leaned against you for support, and you upheld it; you claimed its execution, not merely by a silent vote or a formal speech in the Senate, but you have traveled into your adopted State, the State of Massachusetts, which was bone of your bone, which for a quarter of a century had given you all she had to give, and is ready to do it again, and there, with the shadow of that great Revdutionary monument over you, and in the language of your great prototype you proclaimed, "Ye men of Athens, ve worship an unknown God." And you have but just returned from the great State of New York and there in her central parts, where these hydra principles first received serious political organization, even there, rung, with a mofal sublimity all your own, into the ears of every civil officer in that vast dominion, the fearful challenge to look to and respect the oath he hath taken to support the Constitution of the United States. Sir, you came among us suddenly, and, I can add unexpectedly. We have neither pomp nor circumstance to give you, but we have a deep and abiding sense of the inestimable services you have rendered our beloved country, and we have sought and do now most earnestly seek to impress your mind with that conviction. WASHINGTON, July 8th, 1851. Salutes-Procession-Oration of Mr. Webster - S. S. Celebrations - Accident.

We are beginning to cool somewhat since theex. citement, &c., of the Fourth has passed away. You may expect to hear of the customary account of sundry accidents to sundry individuals, who have been too ambitious in making gunp, wder reports. It is very proper that a national salute should be fired upon the annual recurrence of this day, but it should always be done by persons who understand their business-and there are such in every community. Cannon should never be fired too rapidly -- but have sion to the Capital and the ceremonies of laving the corner stone, were very imposing. The various Orders were well represented. The Military made quite a fine display. Several companies from Baltimore were in the line. Most of the Sabbath Schools of the District cities spent the day at places convenient of access, exchanging the dust and heated a tmosphere of the city, for the cool and refreshing breezes of the country .-We think that this is a very appro vriate and rational way of celebrating the day. We had the pleasure of accompanying the School attached to the Congress St. M. P. Church of Georgetovo. At an early hour the children assembled at the Charch, and were formed into procession by J. Orme, Esq., Chief Marshal, and his assistants. With music and banners we then proceeded to the farm of J. H. King, Esq., where the beautiful grove reserved for such celebrations became ours for a day's enjoyment. The Declaration was read in a very creditable manner by Master J. S. Blackford, Jr., who prefaced it by a neat little speech. Addresses were wing of the Democracy. He has the assurance delivered by the Rev. J. P. Moore and the Rev. in the afternoon, in an excellent speech. A dreadful accident happened yesterday morning, to the workmen on Brown's Hatel. Several of the bricklayers had not resumed work, and the bricks had consequently accumulated on the scaffold, the laborers not wishing to lose time. At the instant of the accident they were at the windlass, when the mass of bricks, &c., above them, fell and buried six or seven of them. Several were sent to the Hosian Band" of Markinsburg, headed by the renown- | pital. One of them died last hight. The timbers were thought to be defective.

It excited some surpirse here that Governor Floyd hould have left Richmond on Friday morning last, the day that a public reception was to be given to the President of the United Strtes. It is more remarked, because he did so without any resort of necessity, as a special train left for Charlottsville at 3 o'clock, for the express purpose of bringing him and the members of the Convention up. If he had waited for this train he might have participated in the ceremonies of the day, and then arrived here by bed-time. What inference are we to draw from this conduct? Did he intend it as an insuit to the President? If so, it is the meanest and must contemptible trick of which any Governor of Virginia was ever guilty, and that is saying a great deal. A POSER.

A correspondent of the Martinsburg Republican from Morgan county, in discussing the propriety of another Democratic Convention in this Congressional District, for the purpose of securing harmony to the party, says :-"How it may be in Berkeley, I am unable to say, but that great dissatisfaction exists in every other county in the district is a fact too apparent to be concealed. Anting the dissatisfied are the most reliable, active, energetic men of our party-men who have never been known to shrink for a single moment from the duty, allegiance and fidelity which every honest man feels he owes to his party. this state of facts then before our eyes, is it not easy to foresee that defeat is inevitable, unless something can be done to avert it. What that remedy shall be is the important question to be determined.

"In reply to the argument that no such convention can be gotton up, we would ask why it cannot Is it because Mr. Bedinger's friends will not go into it, and he too the choice according to their own showing of a majority of the district. Surely if neither he nor stry ought to object to a second convention, when, according to their own argument, his nomination must be confirmed by such a convention. But a on the other hand, it should turn out that he is not the choice of the party, he should not desire to be their candidate, nor would his him upon the party, contrary to their wishes."

A Word or Two on another Convention.

It seems from the indication of meetings in Page and Free rick that a portion of the Democracy of this Petrict is fully determined to force through the as embling of another Convention at measure as in solitic. It certainly cannot meet with the sanctan of a majority of this District. It will have a tendency to still widen the breach in the Democratic ranks. Every conciliatory measure shoule be resorted to, which might have the effect to hell the disturbances now existing. But there is one fact which strikes as as being sufficient of it Alf, to cause all true Democrats to ponder ere they take a step which may bring irretrievable ruin. It is the strong disposition mainifested on the part of the Whig press to fan the ittle spark of dissention into a destroying flame. The Winchesser Republican and the Hardy Whig seem to be greatly troubled about the disparity of feeling now existing in our party; and even our neighbor of the Romney Intelligencer, shows some little signs of uneasiness, though he would not " meddle with the family broils. How disaffectedly complaisant! But the Charlesto ve Free Press pursues another course-one which he thinks will take with the disaffected crat," that the Whigs will support him. As soon would we believe in the "spirit rappings!" fellow Democrats, do not be deceived by their siren songe. Their object is to widen the breach as far as possible, by holding out such inducements, and then to unite their forces on a Whig, and elect him. This will surely be done if another candidate is put into the field by the Democrats. We do hope that no candidate will suffer his name to come before the people for such an unholy purpose. Therefore, we admonish you to beware of these facts, before you place the party in jeopardy by having duplicate candidates. Romney Argus. IIt will be seen from the above that the editor of the Argus is not willing that the Whigs shall decide even between Locofoco candidates, although their interest in the District is certainly not inconsiderable. The editor seems to think that the nominee should be sustar ed, no matter what intrigue brought about his nomination, or what his sentiments are in regard to the Compromise and the Union. We are perfectly aware of the manner of the nomination as well as the sentiments of the managers of the Convention of the 3d of April, upon the subject of the Union. They are anti-compromise, Nashville Conbe onen-monthed Secessionists Whilst we entertain personally a high regard for Mr. Beninger, and know that he has many friends amongst the Whigs of the District, we can assure Richmond, Va., conducting the Cockade which now gracefully floats the proud em district.) that the "latterday" sentiments of Mr. B. upon the Compromise does not satisfy the voters of this section. Indeed, we are surprised that he has not been dubled, by our neighbor of the Spirit, for his late acquiescence, a " Submissionist." But upon that subject the Spirit is also quite docile.

From the Lynchburg Republican, July 3. ANOTHER DREADPUL TRAGEDY.

We are called upon this morning, to re-

ord another most painful tragedy, occurre

g between gentlemen who may almost be nsidered citizens of this place. The cirunistances which caused it hon ever, being a most delicate nature, we shall allude to hem only in so far, as will be necessary to make intelligible the sad termination of the affair. On Sunday evening last, about dark, Or Lorenzo D. Williams, son of Jno. M. Williams, residing across the river, on the Amherst side, sloped with the eldest daughter, aged about nineteen, of Capt. Richard G. Merris, who also lives immediately over the river, for the purpose of marrying her.

The couple, accompanied by one of W's brothers, and a Mr. Edmund Hill, took the Charlottsville route for Washington City The family of the young lady getting wind of the elopement accidentally, in a short time after it occurred, Capt. Morris and his son Fichard G. prepared immediately for a pursuit. They overhauled the runaways in Charlottsville, they having been disappointed in meeting a ready conveyance from that place. The daughter was concealed in the Hotel, but the father and brother got possession of her, and then had Williams and his party bound over in the sum of a thousand dollars each. Both parties left for home, dollars each. Both parties left for home, dentally at the same Hotel, in Loring to. Nelson county. When Williams' party and young Richard Morris were seated at the supper table, opposite each other, some indignity was offered young Morris by the other party, when he threw his plate into the face of Williams. Morris, Williams and Hill, then commenced a general shooting, which resulted, after some eight or ten rounds in the immediate death of young Morris, and the mortally wounding of Hill was shot in the head and in a vital part of the body, it is supposed-Hill was shot by Morris, in the centre of the breast, and Williams was shot by him in the side or back. When this occurrence took place the father and daughter were in their room, up stairs. A message was forthwith dispatched to the families of the parties, who arrived here at an early hour on yesterday morning. The news of so dreadful a tragedy of course created the greatest excitement and regret in this community. As to the feeling of the unhappy families involved, whose cup of grief has been perhaps forever embittered. we shall not attempt a description. Language would be inadequate to the task As we have gathered these facts altogethon the part of gentlemen whor they were in- er from rumor, there may be and doubtless tended to "draw out," and the occasion was are, many inaccuracies in them. But there is no doubt about the sad termination of the affair. When we receive the authentic and detailed particulars we shall give them. P. S. The report has since reached here, that Hill had died of his wound. . MORE AUTHENTIC .- Mr. Morris was shot but once, and that through the body. He was not killed in the general melee, but was shot by Williams after he (Morris) had shot down both of his antagonists, Hill and Dr. W., and was retiring from the dining room Dr. W's first cap exploded, when he was shot by M. MYSTERIOUS APPAIR.

During the month of May, while the small por prevailed at largers Ferry the bedy of a man was found in a field between the hills, in this county, covered with an old coat. It was supposed, at the time, that he was some poor vietim of the disease, who had wandered away from the haunts of man to die. A jury was hastily held, a hole dug, and the body drawn into it and covered up. A week or two since suspicion was awakened that the man, who ever he was, had been foully dealt with. His body was taken up and examined by Dr. Turner, of Hillsborough, who found that his skull had been badly fractured, and that he had other wounds about his person, proving that he had been basely murdered. It is supposed that the corpse was that of a peddler, who was travelling about selling lineas of different kinds, as a man of this description was seen, a short time before, at the "Ferry," with a considerable amount of money in his possession.

It is to be hoped that the perpetrators of this wile crime may be ferreted out, and be made to suffer the utmost rigor of the law. [Loudown Chronicle.

Infallible Yeast Powder, For Making Light and Sweet Bread. BREAD made with this Yeast is perfectly wholesome, not liable to sour upon the stomach, and is more nourishing and economical than bread raised with the common Brewer's or Baker's Yeast, which, as is well known to chemists, in producing lightness, converts fath gas and spirit a portion of the sweet and nomishing qualities of the Flour, which are thus whelly lost. It is a great convenience, that it is all rays ready and sure to act-the dough requires no standing, but is ready to bake as soon as mixed, and the most ignorant can hardly. mistane in its use. We would an excess be put in, it will not turn the feesil yeller, with an ashy or soapy taste, as saleratus and soda will; thus saving

BIG GUN.

Jee Billings, a romancing Yankee, was one evening seated in a bar room of a country tavern in Canada. There were assembled several old countrymen discussing various matters connected with the pomp and circumstance of war. In the course of his remarks one of them stated that the British Government possessed the largest cannon in the world, and gave the dimensions of one he had seen.

Jos's Yankee would not allow him to let such a base assertion pass uncontradicted. FALL FLAT ON THE PROMISES .- A negro in Virginia, who was remarkable for his good truths of Christianity, and especially for his ready large and valuable, having been made with sense and his knowledge of the essential freedom from all gloomy tears in regard to his eternal state, was once addressed in this wise " You seem to be always comfortable in the hopes of the Gospel. I wish you steadily in this blessed frame of mind !'-Why, massa, he replied, "I just fall flat on the promises, and I prayed right up;" an answer that would do honor to the head and heart of a philosopher, and that contains in it the true secret of earthly happiness.

Counting too Strong .- We have heard a story of an old maid in Vermont, who lately preferred a complaint to Mr. Attorney Sage, against an ardent bachelor of 60, for "courting her too strong!" The attorney replied that it was difficult to reach cases of this sort, as "the mean temperature courtships was not set down in the books." --"Why, this is just the case," said the aggrieved spinster, "it's the mean temperature of his affection that I don't like !" The attorney promised to "talk to the man," and the unhappy sufferer from "strong courtship" retired .- Post.

One day at dinner, Curran said to Father O'Leary, " Reverend Father, I wish you were St Peter" " And why, counsellor, do you wish I were

St. Peter ?" ssked O'Leary. "Because, Reverend Father, in that case." replied Curran, "you would have the keys of heaven, and you would let me in." "By my honor and conscience," replied the divine. "it would be better for you that I had the keys of the other place, and then I could let you out!"

UNITED STATES HOTEL, SARATOGA SPRINGS, A July 5, 1849. \(Dr. J. C. Ayer,-Sir: I have been afflicted with a painful affection of the lungs, and all the symptoms of settled consumption, for more than a year. I could find no medicine that would reach my case, until I commenced the use of your "Cherry Pectoral," which gave me gradual relief, and I have been steadily gaining my strength till my health is well nigh restored.

While using your medicine, I had the gratification of curing with it my reverend friend, Mr. Truman, ot Sumpter District, who had been suspended from his parochial duties by a severe attack of broughitis. I have pleasure in certifying these facts to you,

The Louisville Courier thus speaks of Bull's Sarsapa-We have been shown by Mr. John Bull, proprietor of that world-renowned preparation, 'Bull's Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,' an original, genuine, and beautiful letter addressed to him by the accomplished lady of one of he most eminent old physicians in the West, giving a detailed account of one of the most astonishing cures on record, performed alone by the use of " Bull a Sar-

This most excellent and charming lady had long suffered from prolapsusuteri, fluor albus, piles, and chron-ic diseases of the stomach and digestive orgous, and derangs ment of the whole system, attended with dis-tressing cutaneous eruption, sick hendache, and violent attacks of cramp. After exhausting all of her hus-band's skill, and applying to many celebrated medical gentlemen, both at home and abroad, and also using great quantities of Townsend's Satsaparilla, without the all object raises she was induced to use the conthe slightest relief, she was induced to use John Bull's Satsaparilla, and what was the happy result? Rheumatism Cured! Let all who are suffering under the agonizing tortures of Rheamatism read the following, and see what may be done for them, if they will use the infallible remedy: UNIONTOWN, KY., May 12, 1848.
Ma. JOHN BULL — Dear Sir: For the last three years I have been afflicted with rheumatism of the severest character. I was at times in the greatest agony of oa n : I tried every remedy I could procure for the discase, but found no permanent relief until I was induced to use your preparation of Sarsaparilla, which has entirely cuted me of rheumatism, and greatly improved my general health more than any medicine I ever used. I have been free of pain for several months, and have no doubt the cure is permanent, and I recommend it as the best medicine in use for rheumatism ISHAM BRIDGES. It is useless to produce further testimony in favor of this great r. medy. It has only to be tried and proved to convince the public of its superior efficacy. NOTICE TO FEMALES.

John Bull's Sarsaparilla is one of the greatest female medicines now in existence. In those numerous cases where the constitution is debilitated, the nervous energy is lessened, when the efforts of nature are weak and eficient, or are profuse and overwrought, when the face is pale and colorless, the strength feeble and yielding, the spirit troubled and depressed, the health broken, mind shaken, and consequently the happiness de stroyed-then Bull's Sarsaparilla is a sovereign remedy It assists nature in the performance of her duty; braces the whole system, renews permanently the natural energies, removes obstructions, check's excesses, creates re and healthy blood, and imparts health and bappiless. Were ladies generally to adopt the use of this edicine, we would see far less suffering, disease and uchappiness among them than now exists, health would take the pl ce of disease, the rosy cheek would succeed the pallid face; we should have smiles instead of tears, and perhaps a happy long life instead of one cut short by disease, or made miserable by continued suffering ad affliction. At that critical per od termed the turn flife, which is often attended with so much danger, 's Sarsaparilla is found to exert a most beneficial effect. All ladies approaching this crisis should be apprised of this fact, and avail themselves of this valua-

A Beautiful Clear Skin. How we all admire a clear, beautiful white skin, and rosy colored cheek. How often do we see persons, possessing this " desideratum so devoutly to be wished." resorting to cosmetics, lotions, washes, paints and coloring materials to restore to them a semince of what disease has deprived them of, and that, , with great injury to the skin. Bull's Sarsaparilla is the best Cosmetic known. It beautifies the skin, by removing every particle of morbid and diseased matter from the blood, making it pure, healthy, and vigorous, giving activity to every minute vessel, and changing the yellow and dark countenance to the bloom and freshness of youth. Ladies, abandon the use of paints and mixtures, and use Bull's Sarsaparilla, the only effeetual remedy. 'A word to the wise is sufficient,' and a hint is enough for the Ludies.

Than was ever offered in favor of any Medicine— Read the testimony of Dr. Moore! Mr. John Bull : I have no hesitation in saying that I believe your Sarsaparilla to be the best article ever manufactured for the cure of Scrofala, Syphilis, and many other Cutaneous or Glanular Affections having used it with entire success in numbers of the above JAS. M. MOORE. Louisville, Dec 26, 1847. More Testimony from Dr. Moore.

Better Testimony

Mr. John Bull: I am using your Sarsaparilla in several new cases of Scrofula, and with happy effect. 1 am now confident it is one of the most efficacious medicines that can be made for that disease. Yours, Winchester, Ky., Feb. 1, '48. J. M. MOORE. From Dr L. P. Yandell, Professor of Chemistry in Louisville Medical College. I have looked over the list of ingredients composin John Bull's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, and have no hesitation in saying that they form a safe compound, and one that promises well in chronic diseases, to which it is applicable. L. P. YANDELL, M.D. Louisville, June 6, 1848. From Dr. Pyles, Physician by appointment to the Louisville Marine Haspital. Louisville, March 20, 1849. I have examined the preparation of the prescription of John Bull's Sarsaparilla, and believe the combination to be an excellent one, and well calculated to produce an alterative impression on the system. I have used it both in public and private practice, and think it the best article of Sarsaparilla in use. M. PYLES, M. D.. S we have conferred with friends, not a few, we A swe nave concluded to raise the standard of the old and well tried trade of TAILORING in this place, where we have enjoyed the privilege of being citizens for a number of years, and although we have been often cast down yet we are determined to take a fresh start in the above business. Our establishment may be found nearly opposite Mr. J. Harris' Store and the well known Co tionary establishment of J. F. Blessing, and one door east of Dr. G. F. Mason's dwelling. We hope by industry, perseverance, and atten-tion to business, to share in public patronage. We also hope to be able to give general satisfaction. If experience has any advantage, surely we have a right to claim a share of that advantage. And if former success in making an improvement in the appearance of man—by giving good fits in garment cutting—we have a right to claim a share of it is also. We promise and pledge ourselves for the faithful performance of our duty to any and all who may entrust us with their work, assuring them it shall be done with neatness and dispatch. Garments cut to order at ail times. All kinds of Country Produce taken in exchange for work.
