POETRY.

CONSTANT LOVE. Nay, tell me not my dearest. That time has dim'd thine eye : Still, still, my path thou cheerest. As in days that are gone by.

Say not thy cheel is faded, By sorrows, cares and fears, That the brow is somewhat shaded, By the cloud of other years. If time much more had taken, I could forgive each theft; Whilst thy heart remained unshaken, And its love for me was left,

I, too, am something older Than when I met with thee; But hearts become no colder, It they are what hearts should be. Thy own has never altered. As years have o'er up past Thy love has never fairered, When my brow has been o'ereast.

In cheek, or brow, or hair; The love such loss estranges. Must be lighter far than air. Though morning's carly splendor, May rapture's thrill impart, The vesper hour, note tender, Sinks deeper into the heart.

Then tell me not of changes,

And summer skies are clear; Yet autumn's hand encloses The rich harves of the year, E'en age's wintry weather, Inspires no thought of gloom, In hearts that share together, Hopes of bliss beyond the tomb

Though spring be gay with roses

clearly was the road that led to her home :-the verdurous Greendale. Greendale was a cheerful place; where there were always guests and parties. And when the young people wished to have an excursion on the water, or any other entertainment, I it was who always planned everything, and proposed it to the old Baroness, the mother, for whom all the children entertained a very considerable and wholesome respect. On these occasions she used to say, "My dear sir, if you are with the children, I will permit it; for I trust to you. and I know that you will take care of them.' "Yes, to be sure!" It required some little time before I could reconcile my mind on this point. 'Sunholm !' sounded awfully through my ears for many a long hour. I began to reason on the subject. If, said I, Nature has bestowed a bassvoice on this beautiful young lady, is it not ceal or embellish it? How easy it would have been for her to cry "Suaholm !" in falsetto: but she would not be false, even in this! Not willing to assume a disguise. even for the sake of winning admiration, she summons Sunholm in the voice which God has given her. Is there not something grand in all this? One who thus calls out " Sunholm " will not deceive an honest fellow with hollow words of pretended feeling, but will play an open game with him, and let him understand the truth at ence. I was introduced to the handsome Abla. There was no denying that the voice was not fine; but, when you were acexistomed to it, it ceased to be so very disagreeable; besides which, her words were so simple and candid, and her face so beautiful, that by and by I was completely dazzled .-My cars crept, as it were, into my eyes, and gazing day after day, on Abla's faultless profile, I was conveyed at once into the realms Abla if she would be "my wife." She answered "Yes," with a force of utterance that nearly frightened me We were betrethed, and the nearer I gazed on her fine-profile the more I was satisfied. This, however, did not last very long. The period of betrothal is a very singular one; a period of halfness and incomplete ness; nevertheless it is a sensible institutica, when it does not continue too long. It is the prelude to a union that nothing but pear impossible to execute harmoniously the duet which has now commenced, there is yet time to break it off calmly. The first discord that disturbed the dust between "my wife elect" and myself wasnot her deep voice, but alas! precisely that very thing which, at first, had reconciled me to it, viz: her love of truth, or rather, I

' my wife ' A younger sister of my friend's wife lived in the family. No one would have been attracted to her for external charms, but a short time brought you completely under the spell of her kindness, the intellectual expression of her countenance, and the cheerful friendliness of her manners. All the household leved her; she was kind and amiable to all To myself, however, it seemed that there was an exception : I thought her somewhat cold and distant. I was almost sorry when I perceived that I was grieved by this; a short time convinced me that I had really fallen in love with this

DEMOCRATIC FAIRNESS.

The Louisville Courier very forcibly exposer the want of cando; and fairness of a portion of the Demogracy, who are abusing Mr. Fillmore for his Preciamation forbidding unlawful enterprises as gainst Cuba, in violation of our treaty obligations. The Courier gaotes from the Proclamation of Mr. Van Duren, bound during the Canadian outbreak, when the people were in Frms for their liberty.-Mr. Van Buren warned " all those who have en-"gaged in these or iminal enterprises, it persisted in. THE LETTER OF MR. CLAY.

The letter of this distinguished statesman, in r ply to an invitation from New York to address the people on the actual condition and menacing danger of our country," is one of the ablest efforts of his great mind. It reviews in a masterly style the origin and objects of the Federal Union, and exposes the absurdities of the day with a power irre-

The letter will be read with great interest by impartial men of all parties, and will have its weight | der the choice viands, and even extras to an unlimin spite of the strained inferences and ridiculous commentaries of partizan presses. Every calmminded and patriotic citizen will agree with Mr. Clay in his corcluding picture of the presperity and ercatness of this Republic, and in his estimate of "Such (he says) are the gratifying resu." which have been obtained under the anspices of the U.Zion which some rash men, prompted by ambition, passion and phrensy, would seek to dissolve and subvert! To revolt against such a government, for any thing which has passed, would be so atrociousand characterized by such extreme folly and madmess, that we may search in vain for an example of it in human annals. We can look for its prototype only (if I may be pardoned the allusion) to that diabolical revolt which, recorded on the pages of Holy Writ has been illustrated and commenorated by the sublime genius of Milton."

DEMOCRATIC EXULTATION.

As might have been expected, the whole Democratic phalanx are shouting for joy at the success of their party in Pennsylvania and Ohio. In the first named State they have had the advantage of the unfortunate position occupied by Gov. Johnston in regard to the Fugitive Slave Law, thousands of Whigs refusing to vote-and in Ohio, they have had the aid of Giddings and the whole tribe of Ab-

Well, we are content to let them crow over their victories, until the regular battle for the Presidency comes off. With an unflinching National Whig like President Fillmore, for our candidate, and fair issues upon the measures of the Administration, we feel confident of a great and glorious triumph. In 1839, the Democracy swept every thing before them-yet the next year the Whig giant rose from its slumbers, and gave the Philistines a signal overthrow.

So in 1848-and so will it be in 1852. Untrammelled and untainted by Abolition allies, the great National Whig party will come forth in all strength and majesty, and again prostrate the

THE MILITARY SYSTEM.

Mr. Beninger, in excusing himself in a recent speech at Harpers-Ferry, for not making an effort in Congress to set aside Military Rule at Harpers-Ferry, asserted, as we learn, that Mr. Ashmon, a member of Congress from Massachusetts, would not aid him in the scheme. A gentleman of Harpers-Ferry immediately wrote Mr. Ashmun informing him of the fact. Mr. A. replies, that if Mr. Bedinger says be conversed with him on the subject, it was in such a slight and easual way that he has no recollection of it-and further adds, that had Mr. B. made the attempt to set aside the systetn, there would have been no difficulty in doing so. The Spirit asks-

"But why is Mr. Ashmun called from Massachusetts to contradict a statement of such a man as Mr. Bedinger? And when? When Mr. B. has his back thrued, and is in the upper part of the District, a letter from a free soil Whig of Massackusetts is brought forward to stamp falsehood upon his honest and truth of statement."

We end tell heedster. It was because the people of Harpe's Ferry wanted to know all the facts in the case. They had the good sense to write to Mr. Ashmun, whose "back" was "turned" not in "The upper part of the district "but in Massachusetts.

The District Locoloco editors of Virginia are exciting over the election of Busines, the Compremies can lidate for Governor in Pennsylvania, vet they are using every means in their power to elect Secession and Disunion members of Congress in this State, who declare the Compromise a damaable cheat and fraud! Every locofoco candidate in the State is a Secessionist. This is beautiful consistency 1 But the locofoco pendorm is broad enough for all creeds. Their cry is, "The Spoils, the Speils!

VALLEY AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

We congratulate our readers that we have the pleasure of announcing that the first Annual Fair of the Valley Agricultural Society was in every respect an auspicious one. The weather was most delightful and thousands of visitors througed the spacious grounds of the exhibition. Ample arrangements had already been made to accommodate the large number of Stock expected. The ranges of stalls were filled with specimens of Caule that would have graced any show ir the country. Among them we noticed the Khais! Hull which was riginally brought from the Dead Sea by Lieur. Lynch. It is a noble looking animal. The display of horses was also fine. Several teams in gear showed to great advantage. We do not think that ay better teams can be produced.

Of hogs there were quite a goodly number. One monster Swine entered by Mr. James Hewitt of Jefferson measured seven feet in length, six in girth, and weighed seven hundred and twenty lbs! The number of Sheep present was quite large, and the nality of course, could not be beaten anywhere,-We must have the palm of superiority in this paricular, awarded to the Valley. LETTERS OF ACCEPTANCE FROM MR. SUMMERS AND MR. BAKTER.

We have the pleasure of laying before our readers, to-day, letters from Mr. Summers and Mr. Baxter, accepting the nominations tendered them respectively by the Whig State Convention. No reply to the letter of the committee has yet been 'eceived from Mr. Watts, for which we cannot account, except on the supposition that he is absent from home.

Mr. Summers' letter will be read with much silisfaction and entire approbation by the Whig par y He plants himself firmly and unreservedly up the resolutions adopted by the Convention with reference to our federal relations; while his views of State policy must commend themselves to every true son of Virginia.

> > KANAWHA C. H., Oct. 3d, 1851.

I received yesterday your letter of the 26th ult. nforming me that the Convention held last week at Charlottesville, by its unanimous vote, had nominated me as a candidate for the office of Governor of Virginia, under the new Constitution of the

It is perfectly well known, that I have neither sought for, nor desired this nomination; on the contrary, nothing would have been more gratifying esent some other citizen for this high station - | for it. My name has been fixed upon, in opposition both ny entreaties and my protestations; and did I and my decided views of personal interest, and dothe position, which the Convention has under circumstances so flattering, been pleased to assign me. Recognizing, however, as one of the canons of republicanism, the doctrine that individual interest. thanks for remembering us, and personal preference, should give way to the general wish, and that the sovereign has a right to command the citizen, I yield obedience to the call will of the people-the only sovereigns who bear rule in our happy country-to confer upon me, the Well this may be very facetions, but we confess office referred to, I will endeavor to discharge its we can't see the joke. We might submit that Mr. | functions, and its duties, to the best of whatever abilities I may possess, and in such manner, as shall, in my judgement, most tend to promote the interest and prosperity of the whole Siste, and the welfare and happiness of all her citizens. In expressing the disinclination of my mind, to become a candidate for this office. I beg you to be he may need all his pity for himself; for it may assured, that I am not insensible to its importance, or unmindful of the distinguished honor implied, in being thought qualified to occupy it. 'I'o be electe the Chief Magistrate of Virginia, by the free choice of her people, is a distinction worthy the aspiraions of the most gifted and exalted citizen within her borders, and far beyond any claim or deserving

My anxious desire that our beloved and venerated Commonwealth, in her illustrations of popular supremacy, under the new Constitution, shall call into her service, and employ in every department of the State government, the very best material which she possesses; the consciousness of my own want of qualification for, and adaption to, this most elevated and responsible station; the great difficul ty and inconvenience of so sudden a termination of professional engagements as would be brought a bout in the event of my election; and the unavoid able change and derangement of my private and tance, which I have intimated.

In yielding my own wishes to the desire of others, it must, however, be distinctly understood, that I cannot consent to become a candidate for mere party purposes, if there be any such to be accomplished by my election; and that, if elected Governor of the State, I will not accept, or exercise the office as a political partizan.

In reference to general politics. I have decided opinions, not now to be made up for the first time. and to suit the occasion. But it strikes me, that the Chief Magistrate of Virginia, now to be elected will find other work to do more important and profitable to the State, than inditing essays on Tariffs and Currency, or aiding in the contests of party, for federal offices. We have a great commonwealth of our own.

We have now arrived at a new and interesting epoch in Ler history. A degree of popular energy. nitherto unknown in her councils, is about to be imparted to the State government. Let the occasion be seized to lay deep and broad the foundation of her power and her prosperity, by a wise system of State legislation, having for its object the retention of our people at home; the gradual and eco nomical develorment of our internal resources: the improvement of the popular mind; and the establishment of the public credit. These, so my estimation, constitute the surest basis, upon which to secure the happiness and welfare of the State, and to the attainment of such ends, all our efforts should

In relation to the great questions which now occupy, to some extent, the public mind, and which are calculated to affect the tranquility and integrity of our federal union, I need only say, that my own centiments and opinions are in accordance with the resolutions adopted by the Convention, whose organ you are. While I regard the Constitution of the United States, "as the strongest and surest safeguard of the liberty and happiness of the American people," in order to be efficiently protective, its guarantees must be carried out and executed, not grudgingly, but in the ample spirit of friternal kindness and good faith, in which the union itself had its origin. The constitution will cease to be of

More inexcusable still, is the opposition and open resistance, by a portion of the pec de of the north, to the execution of the fogitive slave law; a law en acted in pursuance of a plain and positive provision of the Constitution, and of paramount authority on the people of all the States.

While causes of disturbance exist, outside of the Commonwealth, it is a matter of heartfelt congratulation, that the people of Virginia are about to be has advertised her ansband, George Dove, for acsering her and her brood of six little Doves, to go

The new constitution, rejecting all subdivisions of her territory, only knows Virginia as a whole; as "one and indivisible." The "Blue Ridge" and the "Alleghany" are not named in the instrument. These frowning ridges no longer east their gloomy shadows upon the organic law.

Let the strife of sections terminate with the expiring constitution, and forgetting all past questions of discord, let us look forward and onward to a bright and prosperous future presenting hencef rih. no rivalry, or quarrel, except a fraternal con est, who shall do most to promote and perpetuate the peace, prosperity and honor of Virginia. We see it stated that during the month of September the number of Certificates sont from the Third Auditor's Department to the Pension office was 9.675. As is generally known after the vacation of this office by Peter Hagner, Mr Gallaher recieved the appointment. Mr. H. had filled the office nearly half of a century, and from the ability and moral honesty of the incumbent it was deemed a post of honor that would be hard to fill. The Go ernment were, howerer, very fortunate in their selection, for no man in the Union combines more of the rare qualities necessary to the duties of this office than John S. Gallaher, Esq. Gregory, of Richmond, himself formerly Lient. Governor of the State, stated that there were certain charges affecting the moral character of Mr. Leake which he wished to have explained. Upon this Mr. Frank G. Ruffin said (we copy from the Spectator) "that if gentleman wished the charges they could get them from the fountain head; and he was prepared to prove them by five respectable Democrats of Albemarle county."-Col. Randolph here interposed, and attempted to quiet the matter by declaring his intention to support Mr. Leake, acquainted as he was with the facts alluded to by Mr. Ruffin.' CHARLESTOWN ACADEMY.

THE Trustees of this institution, having appoint-L ed as its Principal, JARED F. CROCKER. a thoroughly qualit ed and accomplished instructor of youth, take pleasure in ant ouneing that the Academy will be re-opened under the most favorable auspices, on Monday next, the 20th instant. The trustees have exercised every precaution and their best judgment in making a judicious selection of principal; and they believe they may now assure those interested in the thorough education of their children, that no Academy in the country offers greater advantages in accomplishing that important object. They have determined to give their personal attention to the exercises of the school, and to co-uperate with the principal in securing good order and proper discipline, and at the same time by exciting in the pupils a proper spirit of emulation, to render their studies agreeable, or at least as little irksome as possible. The course of instruction will comprise every branch connected with a thorough acalemic education, especially the Latin and Greek languages and the higher Mathematics, including Elocution and Composition; at the same time, particular attention will be paid to pupils in the department of a plain English education. Semi-monthly reports will be made by the principal to the parents or guardian, of the standing and progress of each pupil.

Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. THE world cannot produce stronger evidence than this, kindly handed to us by J. Stockbridge, Esq., of the Fountain Hotel, Light street, a gentleman extensively and favorably known. The writer of the letter. Captain Canot, is the brother of the celebrated Physician to Louis Napolicoa, President of the French Republic Numbers of our most respectable citizens will give equally strong testimony in favor of Aumpton's Ve ctable Tinchare. It near Carlisle, Pa. The Trees are young is a certain care for Dyspepsia, Scrofnia, Liver Complaint, &c., and all diseases from impure blood.

BALTIMOAE, June 4th, 1851. Mr. Stockbridge, of the Fountain Holel, Light street, Ball. Dear Sir: Being on the point of leaving the city, I avail myself of a few idle moments to thank you kindly for the medicine you sent me, and which has restored me to the use of my limbs. I ber you to send me four bottles mere to carry on my veyage. Since I had the fortune to use Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tracture my confidence is so strong that, in gratified to the proprietors of said medicine. I begyon to present my respects to them, and induce them to make it more publicly known as a sure Liber natic cure. Having called on me on the 19th of April list, and seen me prestrated on my bed, useless in all my limbs, you can appreciate nearly ns well as myself the prompt relief I received from Dr. Hampton's Tincture, and I am positive had it not been for your streng and forcible recommendations I should still have been in bed. It is really a pity this specific should not be approved of by medical men, and like all justent drugs it should suffer the imputation the public generally give to such preparations. I myself, who was always opposed to a patented specific, took this medicine with reluctance, and without confidence in it, and it was only through your disinterested, filendly recommendations, and my critical situation, that induced me to try this really beneficial Vegetable Tincture. You may inform Musses, Mortimer & Mowbray that they are at liberty to make use of my pame in the support of the good effects of Dr. Hampton's Vegetable nothro, as it has cared me in five weeks, of a Chronic Inflammatory Rheumatism, contracted under tropical climates, and of seven years' periodical duration. I have only used three bottles, and find that even the deformed parts of my hands are fast returning to their former hatural appearance.

I have been under the treatment of several physicians in London and Paris, without any apparent benefit; also, while in New York, having tried the Thomponian and Homepathic remedies, after having been tor-mented with galvanic batteries, cold and aromatic baths, and handreds of internal and external medicines, all to no effect, I am, so far, cared by this Hampton's Vegetable Tincture only. Therefore, my dear sir, accept of the assurance of my graticude, and believe me your well-wisher, For sale by MORTIMER & MOWBRAY. General Agents, 240 Bultimore street, Baltimore. The following certificate is from an eminent lawyer of Kentucky, who is known in all of the States, having far a number of years represented his State in Congress. It affords me pleasure to state that Dr. Hampton has ffected a most extraordinary cure of my slave boy Albert. The patient was three years of age, and had the scrofula. His father is scrofulos. The loy was a moving mass of sores from head to foot. The upper lids of the eyes were much swellen and turned inside out, exhibiting horriple mattering pieers, and profruded over the eyeballs so as to produce blindness. It is strange, yet true, this child—that I felt resigned to see die as relief from suffering—has been restored to health under the treatment of Dr. Hampton. W. P. THOMASSON. Louisville, March 20, 1851. The Great Discovery of the Age. Baltimore, June 24th, 1851. Messis Mortimer & Mowbray: Gentlemen-A sense of gratitude, and a desire that those suffering under disease be induced to try Hampton's Vegetable Tincrune, has influenced me in making the following statement of facts of my case-On the 14th of November, 1836, I was attacked with what is called Inflammatory Rheumatism; my pains were so intense that, for three months, I could not rest night or day. I lost all desire for food, and became ery weak. At this stage of my disease my physician had a consultation with one of the most eminent of the profession in Baltimore. They gave me a large amount of medicine, none of which had any good effect on me. my sufferings every day becoming more intense, my right ann, right knee and left knee, from each of which my physician pronounced my disease deeply seated and the influence of an opate. Many of my friends knowing my sufferings, and kindly sympathising with me, persuaded me to try the Thompsonian Sweats; also, the Homopathic medicines, which I did without effect. Liniaments, all represented as certain cure all's, but from which I derived no benefit, rather growing weaker every day, suffering, if possible, more after every new remedy I tried. In the early part of August, 1842, you first introduced Dr. Hamptonis Tincture to me. Well do I remember that morning; it was after a sleepless knight of great suffering. By your advice I commenced, as a last resort, to try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, and I am happy to say, before I had taken one bottle, my pains grewless, my appetite increased, Hope began to spring er quantity. I continued taking the Tincture, and was soon en abled to eat any kind of food, thereby gaining strengt every hour. In the space of a few mouths my paint left me, the ulcers in my arms and legs were entirely healed, and I was embled to lay aside my crutches out pain, and in the enjoyment of health, which, for years before, I was a stranger to. I am glad to say low, though nearly eight years have elapsed, that the cure in my case was made with Vegetable Tincture. A large number of my relatives and (riends can testify to the truthfulness of the above meagre statement of my sufferings, as well as my relief Wishing you every success in bringing this valuable medicine before the public, and hening that the afflicted may receive the same benefit I have from it. I remain yours, JARRETT PLUMMER, 153 East Baltimore st. We have hundreds of other certificates from some o the best men in our country. We ask the public to call and get pamphlets and see letters, and have reference, to numbers of our most respectable citizens who have used this wonderful Tincture. Its success in curing dis-ease is astonishing. Never were such prompt cures made before by other medicine. Never before was such genuine testimony given in favor of any other medi-cine as that offered, unsolicitee, in favor of Hampton's Vegstable Tincture. For sale by MONTIMER & MONBRAY.
