MISCELLANY. A VICTIMIZED LODGER.

A MISTAKE OF A NIGHT-TIME.

BY PAUL CREYTON. Mr. Benjamin F. Derby returned to town, and to his lodgings, at Mrs. Covey's rather sooner than he was expected. It was late in the evening, and having entered by means of his night-key, and finding nobody stirring he walked leisurely up to his room.
This was the apartment Mr. Derby had always occupied in Mrs. Covey's house; but on this occasion it seemed to him very liitle like home. Before leaving town he had carefully put away all his clothes in his trunks, and during his absence, other revolutions had been made in the room, which gave it a different air. Not the least disagreeable thing in the room, was the darkness. Mr. Derby had entered without a lamp, expecting to find that desirable article in the old place; but after knocking over an ink bottle, a vase and a snuff box, in his blind search, he concluded that the wisest course would be to go to bed In no very good humor, Mr. Benjamin F. Derby began to undress. To return home after an absence of two weeks, and to be obliged to go to bed in such a dismal man-ble, since they did not expect him; but Mr. Benjamin F. Derby chose to be angry and "And where is Margeret Maria?" muttered the unhappy man. "Oh, faithless daughter of an unfeeling landlady! I didn't expect this from you? When I tore myself from your arms two weeks ago, you protested, with tears in your eyes and perfidy in your heart, that you would watch, with the anxious eyes of love, for my return !-Oh, this looks like it! Even now, I know you are making yourself merry with some fresh conquest, or if you are sleeping under this roof, you are dreaming of pleasures in which I have no share!" So saying, Mr. Benjamin F. Derby threw his trowsers on a chair, and began to grope his way in the darkness to the head of the bed. At this moment, a merry laugh close to his chamber door, startled him. Mr.

Derby paused. "Margaret Maria's laugh, by all that is false!" groaned Mr. Derby. "She said she should do nothing but sigh and weep during my absence-and hear her! ah, she laughs again! The false hearted-!"

funted by the sound of a hand grasping his door latch. With considerable trepidation, he flew to lock the door, but before he could reach it, a merry laugh, a blaze of light, and two girls burst into the room. Now Mr. D. was a very modest person, and it was a very lucky circumstance for

And Derby could hear somebody kissing somebody, and somebody was laughing as if she could not help it.

A moment after, the girls had left the room, Derby stole timidly from his hiding place. Margaret Maria had taken the lamp and his clothes with her; she had left darkness and her own clothes behind. A happy thought struck the unhappy Derby. In all haste he enrobed himself in Margaret Maria's gown, then he threw her shawl over his shoulders, and put on her bonnet and veil .-His eyes having become accustomed to the darkness, he could see to do this without much difficulty. In five minutes, he was ready to follow Susan and Margaret Maria. During this time, there was a great deal of laughing up stairs. Margaret Maria, in Derby's attire, went to Mrs. Slade's room, who was a little startled at first, but who took things very coolly, until she found that it was not a man, after all, when she virtually gave vent to her indignation. The adventurers next proceeded to the attic where the girls were sound asleep. Susan was very much astonished, of ourse; and the girls were very indignant; and not one of them would confess that she had been kissed, until Susan pointed out the marks of the coal moustache on their faces, and called in Margaret Maria. Then there was a great deal of laughing; and Margaret Maria, having gallantly kissed them all again,

But now it was Derby's turn to have a little fun, and Margaret Maria's to be astonished. As Susan advanced, the lamp she carried revealed a frightful looking object standing at the foot of the stairs. It was apparently a woman of gigantic structure; her dress was so short that her bare feet and aneles could be seen distinctly; and she waved her large, bony hand at the terrified girls, majestically as a ghost. Never were two mischief makers more frightened by an apparition. Susan dashed herself against the wall. Up went a scream and down came the lamp. The oil covered the stairs, and Derby himself-cried-

'Robber, help, murder, at the top of his voice; and immediately stepped into his room locking the door behind him.

Before Margaret Maria recovered her scattered senses, all the boarders were astir. Susan ran into Mr. Slade's room; Margaret Maria would have followed her. but Susan, in her terror, shut her out. Next, Margaret tried her mother's door; and her mother, hearing the alarm, appeared at the moment, and terrified by the coal moustacke and smashed hat, took her own daughter for the robber, dropped her lamp and screamed fearstriking twelve! CHOICE OF A PROFESSION.

Some young persous entertain curious notions as to the choice of a profession. Carried away by a glitter of uniforms and this splendid pageantry of a soldier's life, nething will please there short of entering the army; or, perhaps, carried away by the narration of maratime adventures, they resolve upon following the hazardous profession of a sailor. But a very little experience of the realities of life generally banishes these idle dreams. Others pitch upon the clerical profession as most suitable to their ideas of living an easy and dignified existence, and enjoying the reverence of those, around them; without reckoning whether their parents of guardians are able, in the first place, to precure them the necessary centree of education, er if they would subsequently have the good fortune to obtain a benefice. Many more equally delude themselves with regard to what are called professions. As a matter of course, they must be something better, though only in appearance. than their fathers; and so they frequently turn their actention to occupations which to them look remarkably genteel, but which all the world besides, know to be superficial and upprofitable. The young in the midde and lower ranks of society should, by all means, be goterned in these matters by their seniors, for they are certainly the best judges with respect to what particular departments of industry they should attach themselves.

DESIRE TO BLESS.

The desire to bless is Godlike. By imparting happiness we increase our own store; by withholding blessings we impoverish our own souls. To love another more than one's self, and for the loved one to reciprocate our affections, is the highest and noblest happiness. To stand alone, without the capability of loving disinterestedly, is misery indeed. Yet, the selfish man infliets this misery on himself. He seeks happiness in receiving, it something out of himself, he does not possess the capability of being happy. To love another selfishly,-to love for gain,-to expect Jane 'husbed' accordingly, until she saw reward father than to rejoice in imparting good, is to trade on the purest feeling of humanity, it is to offer them in a mart for sale, it is to forget, and practically to deny, that it is more blessed to give than receive."

THE LOAVES AND FISHES.

A speech was made at the Democratio State Convention, by Mr. Deneale, of Rockingham, a gentleman whose name, before the nomination of Mr. Letcher, was prominently mentioned as one of the candidates for the pedestal just made vacant by the removal of McDewell's giant statue. Mr. Deneals appears to be a person of infinite candor. His language, especially when applied to his political opponents, savors rather of the strong than the elegant. Thus, in one of his speeches, he describes the Whigs as "the jackals of federalism," and declared that " if G. W. Summers should come to the Valley, the plough boys, if not able to throttle him, would trip up his heels." That is certainly not exactly in the McDowell vein. But we must concede the candor of this represetative of the Tenth Legion. The following extract from his speech, a portion of which we have itali-cised, will establish that quality : "He knew no division in the political controversies which had agitated the country. He would ask no questions about the basis. so that the nominee had a good Democratic basis. He desired to alternate with the East-and of loaves and fishes would make the East work better, the East have fish

When the young ones told their mother this, "Then," says she, we must begone, indeed; for, when a man undertakes to do his business himself, it is not so likely that he will be disappointed. So she removed her Young Ones immediately, and the corn was reaped the next day by the good man and his son.

ACCEPTANCE,

From the following correspondence it will be seen that Wat, GRANTHAM, Esq., has accepted the nomination tendered him by the Whig Convention as a candida:a for the House of Delegates.

We can alse assure our Whig friends that Mr. HENDERSON has accepted the nomination. The correspondence will be given next week: November 10, 1851. It gives us pleasure to inform you, that the Whig Convention which assembled in Charlestown on Saturday last, nominated you as a Candidate to. represent the County of Jefferson in the next House of Delegates of Virginia. The undersigned, a Committee appointed by the Convention to Botily you of the fact, can but express the sincere wish of themselves, and as they believe of the Whig party of the County, that you should GENTLEMES -Having received through you the Information of my being nominated for a seat in the next Legislation, by the Whig Convention at the Court House, Charlestown, on Saturday the Sth inst. after mysure reflection I have concluded to accept the nomination. Yours respectfully, ... WM. GRANTHAM.

To Messrs David Fry, John F. Shaull and Samnel J. C. Moore, Committee THE WHIG NOMINEES.

It will be seen that Messrs, HENDERSON and Gantain is the accepted the nomination lately tendered there by the Whig convention. We have not time to day - being about to go to press-to enumerate the parallel qualifications which each of these gentlemen possesses, to fulfil the duties of the office with art lit to himself and fidelity to the trust, We do not believe that a better selection could have been made. They are extensively and favorably known throughout the county as men of high character, and as bound and reliable Whigs.

But, it must be remembered, that the "battle is not always with the strong." We must be up and a doing. No time is to be lost-and we therefore wege upon the Whigs residing at the different points of the County to exert themselves in behalf of the Whig chadidates,

ANOTHER LOCOFOCO GUN SPIKED.

It will be seen from the following Care, from Mr. Eminier, that the squib of our neighbor of the Spirit is a perfect, failure. Our neighbor seems to be much incressed that Mr. Shirley " underwent the fatigues and labors of the canvass," and then should be withdrawn with his own consent. Well, now, neighbor, restrain your indignation, for your object is too transportent to deceive any one. Just take care of your own party, and perhaps you may find full employment.

There were set 1100 votes cast for the candidates as the Spirit should endeavor to make its readers believe-and the reason why Mr. Shirley did not get more than 151 votes, was because there was no opposition, and because the election was a "mere matter of form. November, 10th, 1851.

MEESES. Epirons .- I wish you to announce through your paper, that I fully acquiesce in the decision of the late Convention. My friends in withdrawing my name in Convention, did so by noy approbation and consent-and I shall support the nominces, let them be whom they may, I remain yours very respectfully ROBERT V. SHIRLEY.

LOCOFOCO NOMINEES.

The locofoios of this county have nominated as candidates for the Legislature Benjamin Moon and JOHN THOMAS GIBSON, Esq's. So far as personal staracter is concerned these gentlemen are unexseptionable.

Mr. Moon is a Northern gentleman, but has been Master Armerer of the U.S. Armory at Harpers-Ferry for a number of years. Whether he is a "Northern man with Southern principles," or not, we leave to his party friends to determine. He was doubtless nominated with a view of carrying in the M. E. Now we contend there was no pride woundedno wrong lifficied -or injustice done any one. We have the first Whig to hear say, that he doubted his faith, capacity or zeal. The whole difficulty grew out of the last, that the voters under the new Constitution derlined being governed by the action of the first Convention; and we sincerely believe, that had not Mg Shirley been so young a man and stightly actualisted in many partions of the county this objection would have been waived, and be would have received a unanimous re-demination. Our opponents may say, "we talk this way to salve over matters;" let them enjoy their osinio: but we knise, we talk truth and common sense. The card of Mr. S , in another column, ought to and srid convince the whole party, that he has the cour and not self at heart.

It will be recollected that the Legislature of Virginda, many years ago, made a handsome subscription to the stock of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company. In 1832 there was a subscription of $250,000-and in the spring of 1848, by the active Possmac region, and the zealous co-operation of State was secured for the Company's bonds, to the amount of $300,000 more. HORRID MURDER IN RICHMOND.

An Irishman named Owen Broderick was brutally murdered by a fellow countryman, named Patrick Carrol, in Richmond, on Friday night last. The parties met at a house kept by Henry Kane, and whilst there got into a controversy about the old feud between the "Corkonians" and the "Fardowners." After having a knock down in the house the parties were separated, and Carrol went away, but it appears he was lurking in the neighberhood for some hours or so afterwards. It is a pity that "Old Joh" had not been present during the debates between the candidates for Congress from this District, that he might have reproved Mr. Caskie for his anti-tariff and anti-improvement heresies .-It will be perceived that the writer of the letter nails "Old Joe" by quoting from his own Circu-Kanawiia C. H., Oct. 25, 1851. To the Editors of the " Timer.

Having recently had an opportunity of examining an old Circular, issued in 1825, by one Joseph Johnson, the present Democratic candidate for the office of Governor, I present you below with some extracts, lending to show how far his opinions of that day correspond with the "resolutions of '93 -99," and the recent Baltimore Platforms, upon which he, in his letter of acceptance, now plants himself. You will agree with me, upon examination of the extracts, that Col Johnson must have been put to his mettle to keep up with the "progressive Demecracy;" and that, if he had not possessed a pecular facility of adapting himself to the changes of the times, he would hardly be entitled, at this time, to a place on the "Baltimore Platforms," where he seems to have seated himself with so much self-complacency. But I desire to do entire justice to Col. Johnson. The inconsistencies to which he has been eriven, is more the fault of his party than of himself. A Protective Tariff, Internal Improvements by the General Government, and Henry Clay, have all come distasteful to the "spoils party" -heretofoce the strong side-to which party Col. Johnson has always belonged, and always will belong. Put him on the weak side and his "occupation is gone. I Office, and a fair and liberal share of the public spoils, have ever been the sole object hands of his party without stint; hence his duty to requires that he should occasionally change his retion of writing a Circular. Mischief-makers The Committee reported the ten following will occasionally turn these old records up. To guard against a future inconvenience on this score, Col. Johnson has very wisely, I think, put himself tions of '98-9," Let the Democratic party progress as it may, the resolutions of '98-9 at least will stand; they at least will furnish a secure shelter, for they are easily construed to mean anything that's wantthey are not. But I digress from the purpose of this communication. To the extracts:

At a time when the policy of Internal Improvements was popular with the so called Democracy, Col. Johnson held forth as follows:

Extracts from Col. Johnson's Circular of 1825. The great constitutional question, as the power of the Government, in relation to Internal Improve-[I am not aware that the Constitution has been altered in that respect since Col. Johnson wrote in

"The connection of the Eastern and Western waters by the way of the Potomac and the Monongabela has been pronounced, on examination, to be practicable at an expense not exceeding five and a half million of dollars. The celebrity of this connection as a lagament to bind the Union, to increase commerce and trade, and promote social intercourse (excellently well reasoned") need at present no comment. It will be all important to this district (very forcibly put) "It is due to myself to say that I have interested and acquainted myself with this subject, have had full and free conversations with the principal men of the government, and have agreed to accompany the Engineers next Summer in exploring the Cheat route, which I am friendly to, and shall use all proper means, consistent with national good to have the location made of that route. [Weil dene, good and faithful servant"]-I have, by mversation and explanation, gotten things in such a train that as soon as the people residing in the South part of the district will agree on a route, there is a fair prospect of obtaining the patronage of the Greatment, (another Cheat route, we suppose.) of a great road through this quarter to the Now hear Col. Johnson on the Tariff: "Believing it right to encourage home industry, to e independent of foreign nations, to encourage an American system, (where is the "great embodi ment ?") I give my support to the Tariff; in other words, to intant struggling manufactories, and I am happy to say the result is proving the correctness of the measure. Manufacturing establish ments are springing up, and the produce of a farmer is finding a demand in a home market." (You will search in vain for such doctrines in the Balti-Hear him also on Mr. Clay and Adams: " It is known that Mr. Clay was my first choice, what! "The one solitary and alone of all the Virginia delegation in Congress, voted for Gen. Jackson,") but when I was satisfied that Gen. Jackson was the choice of the people, I felt it my duty (unpleasant no doubt) as a faithful public servant o vote correspondingly. Mr. Adams is known to be deserving of the high office conferred on him, and will no doubt do honor to the station "

In corresponation of which latter opinion, I will add that Col. Johnson in 1827, took an active part in an Adams meeting held in Clarksburg. POISONING CASE.

The trial of Mrs. Nancy Hufford, charged with administering poison so as to cause the death of Mrs. Rebecca Engle, which has occupied the attention of the Court at Cumberland, for a week past, was brought to a close on Friday, by the jury rendering a verdiet of acquittal, after being out 18 hours. The case excited considerable interest, and the verdict of the jury caused some excitement at Cumberland. Mrs. Hufford was a nurse, and it was charged against her that sheadministered arsenic to Mrs. Engle while attending ber in her confinement. She died in about the days thereafter, and the doctor who attended her gave it as his opinion that foul means had caused her death.

The budy was opened, the stomach examned, and the conclusion was that Mrs E had been poisoned with arsenic. One wit ness testified Mrs. Hufford purchased of him both arsenie and calomel, about ten days before Mrs. E.'s confinement. Mrs. H. had given the sick woman all the medicine she took. On the part of the defence, several physicians testified that, in their opinion, the woman did not die of poison. Two of them had examined the substances in the stomach and submitted them to the usual tests of arsenie. One gave it as his opinion that the woman died of malignaut typhus fever .-The post mortem examination according to M. Society $20,000; N. Y. The National Loan Fund Life Insurance Socieiv possesses advantages, which, while fully equalling those of any Society in this country are far superior to those possessed by most of re cent origin. (See advertisement.)

The great success, which has attended the management of the Company's affairs, will now justify the issuing of Policies of from $500 to $15,000. The number of policies thus far issued by them is about 7000. The amount of claims accruing by death in 1849, tell short of the established estimates by the considerable sum of $61. 680-a fact affording the best possible evidence of the Company's prodent management in the acceptance of risks.

The policies paid by this Society in Virginia to thelend of 1850 amounted to $21,000 Within the United States to the same period, $220,550 The Society may be readily reached by legal process, should any one desire, as large funds are invested in New York City, in the hands of a Board of Directors there residing, including a tions. permanent Chairman. Winchester, November 13, 1851-1y WHELL BARS.

THE WHEAT FAN, known as the "Genessee Farmer," has superseded the use of almost every other Fan in the State of New York and other Wheat growing States. It is adapted to cleaning every description of seed, and as a Clover Seed or Cimothy cleaner has no superior. This Fan has een most fally tested, and every where elicited the ligh st commendation. It has taken the premium at several of the best Northern exhibitions, and for superiority of construction, capacity for working, and economy of price, stands unrivalled. The fol-I swing certificates from some of the most intelligent and successful agriculturists in the Valley of Virginia attest its merits wherever tried. This list, were those offered not deemed sufficient for all reasonable men, could be extended to an indefinite JAMES RUNYAN. Charlestown, Nov. 13, 1951.

Mr. James Runyan's Fan has been used and tried against another celebrated Fan on the farm of the late Mr John Myers this season with entire satisfaction. So far as my experience enables me to judge, it has no superior in speed or excellence of JOHN J. H. STRAITH.

This is to certify that I have tried one of Mr. Jas. Runyan's Fans and I have no hesitation in saying it is the best I have ever used, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to farmers.

Washington and others, and containing about 260 AURES OF LAND. thirty of which are in timber, the balance in arable land, divided into nine fields, all under good fencing, mostly post and cap-fence.

The improvements consist of a large, convenient and newly built Dwelling, containing seven rooms, with cellars under the whole——smoke house, ice house, servant, houses, stabling, corn house, and a large grana, cert one of which we guarantee to principle. s, stabling, corn bouse, and a large grana- form accurate time ry divided into garners, capable of holding 2000 bushels of wheat. All the buildings necessary for the comfort and convenience of a family have been erected within a few years past and are in good repair. There is upon the farm a variety of choice Rings, Fish Kulves, Salt Collars, &c., &c., of ruit selected from the test purseries and most of | Sterling Sitter at them now bearing, viz: apples, peaches, cherries, spricots, plums, &c. The land has been farmed exclusively with a view to its improvement, clover and plaster has been fixely used, and it is now in a fine state of cultivation. The Winchester and Potomac Railroad 11 miles distant, and the Baltimore Stands, elegant Evernes for the dinner or supper and Ohio Railroad 4 thiles distant, offer great facilities for the transportation of the produce of the farm either to the Baltimore or District markets -The Harpers-Ferry and Smithfield Turnpike affords a good and safe route to Charlestown at all seasons of the year.

Its location will compare favorably with that of any farm in the county of Jefferson, as regards ! health, society, fertilety of soil, or facilities to market. "I should like you to have seen," said a friend to us, the other day, "a specimen of a green Yankee, who came down the Sound in a Hartford steamer with me. He had never been to "York' before, and he was asking questions of everybody on board the boat. However, if he was as 'green as grass,' he was picking up a good deal of information, which will, doubtless, stand him in good stead, hereafter. One of his comparisons struck me as decidedly original: 'Up to Northampton,' said he, 'I took breakfast and they taxed me tew shillin's! 'Twas a pooty good price, but I gin it to 'em. 'Twas enough, any way. Well, when I come down to Har ford, I took breakfast ag'in, next mornin', and when I asked 'em 'How much?' they looked at me and said, 'Half a dollar!' I looked back at 'em pooty sharp-but I paid it; and arter I'd paid it, I sot down, and ciphered up inside how much it would cost a fellow to beard long at that rate; and I tell you what, I pooty soon found cout that 'fore the end of a month it would make a fellow's pocket-book look as if an elephant had stomped onto it!" "Sam Slick" himself never employed a more striking simile.

As two urchins were trotting together. one of them fell and broke a pitcher which he was carrying. He then commenced crying, when the other boy asked him why he

"Cause," says he, "when I get home. mother will lick me for breaking the mug." "What," said the other, "haint you got no grandmother living at your house?"

"No," was the reply. "Well, I have, and I might break two mugs, and they daren't lick me."

If figures "de not lie," John Waite, of Gloucester, has in his possession one of the oldest enapping turtles of these parts .-He was taken in Hamilton River, weighs forty-six pounds, has claws uearly as large as a bear's, and has the figures 1641 carved upon his back in a very antique and puritanical style. He is doubtless the oldest inhabitant of Hamilton, and judging from his stardy appearance, will have no difficulty in living six months after John cuts off his head .- Glouwster News.

IG A Boston paper says that, on the night of a recent fire in that city, two strangers, who lodged in the same room, jumped out of bed at the alarm of fire, and both grappled the same pair of pantaloons, and each inserted a leg into them, and thus chained together, like galley slaves, they got into the street, and cried "Fire" lustily.

To Young Men .- Be cratious of that lady who runs from the wash tub to exchange ther dress at your approach-you will want a long purse to supply her. Also beware of her with a half dozen rings on her fingers, and who sits in church with her gloves off, that all she has of any value about her may be seen to advantage.

Never be ashamed to Learn .- And in conformity to this, never be ashamed to confess your ignorance, in the presence of those who have more information than yourself. Meny of us would be wiser, if it had not been for the conceit of being wise enough already.

Let no man be too proud to werk. Let no man be ashamed of a hard fist or a sun burut countenance. Let him be ashamed only of ignorance and sloth. Let no man be ashamed of poverty. Let him be ashamed of dishonesty and idleness.

Hampton's Vegetable Tincture.

THE world cannot produce stronger evidence than this, landly handed to us by J. Stockbridge, Esq., of the Fountain Hotel, Light street, a gentleman extensively and favorably known. The writer of the letter, Captain Canot, is the brother of the celebrated Physician to Louis Napoleon, President of the French Republic. Numbers of our mos respectable citizens will give equally strong testimony in favor of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. It is a certain cure for Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Liver Complaint, &c., and all diseases from impure blood.

BALTHONE, June 4th, 1851.
Mr. Stockbridge, of the Fountain Hotel, Light street. Balt. Dear Sir : Being on the point of leaving the city, I avail myself of a few idle moments to thank you kind-ly for the medicine you sent me, and which has restored me to the use of my limbs. I beg you to send me tour bottles in re to carry on my voyage. Since I had the fortune to use Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture my confidence is so strong that, in gratitude to the proprietors of said medicine. I beg you to present my respects to them, and induce them to make it more publicly known as a sure Rhuematic cure. Having called on me on the 19th of April last, and seen me prostrated on my bed, useless in all my limbs, you can appreciate nearly as well as myself the prompt relief I received from Dr. Hampton's Tincture, and I am positive had it not been for your strong and forcible recommendati as I should still have been in bed.

It is really a pity this specific should not be approved of by medical men, and like all patent drugs it should suffer the imputation the public generally give to such preparations. I myself, who was always opposed to a patented specific took this medicine with reluctance, and without confidence in it, and it was only through your disinterested, friendly recommendations, and my critical situation, that induced me to try this really beneficial Vegetable Tincture. You may inform Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray that they are at liberry to make use of my name in the support of the good effects of Dr. Hainpton's Vegetable Tincture, as it has cured me in five weeks, of a Chronic Inflammatory Rheumatism, contracted under tropical elimates, and of seven years' periodical duration. I have only used three bottles, and find that even the deformed parts of my hands are fast returning to their former natural appearance.

I have been under the treatment of several physicians in London and Paris. without any apparent benefit; also, while in New York, having tried the Thomponian and Homopathic remedies, after having been tormented with galvanic batteries, cold and aromatic baths, and bundreds of internal and external medicines, all to no effect, I am, so far, cured by this Hampton's Vegetable Tincture only. Therefore, my dear sir, accept of the assurance of my gratitude, and believe me your well wisher, [Signed] THOMAS CANOT For sale by MORTIMER & MOWBRAY, General Agents, 240 Baltimore street, Baltimore. The following certificate is from an eminent lawyer of Kentucky, who is known in all of the States, having for a number of years represented his State in Congress. It affords me pleasure to state that Dr. Hampton has effected a most extraordinary cure of my slave boy Albert. The patient was three years of uge, and had the scrofula, His father is scrofulous. The boy was a moving mass of sores from head to foot. The upper lids of the eyes were much swollen and turned inside out, exhibiting horrible mattering ulcers, and protruded over the eyeballs so as to produce blindness. It is strange, yet true, this child-that I felt resigned to see die as relief from suffering-has been restored to health under the treatment of Dr. Hampton.

Louisville, March 20, 1851. The Great Discovery of the Age. HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE—Superior to any of the preparations now in use for the cure of disease, it exerts a powerful influence in renovating and parifying the blood, and freeing the system from all impurities. Whilst thus acting as an alterative, it also stimulates the liver to a healthy action, and exerts a pleasant and wholesome influence over the bowels, urinary organs and skin. In all diseases peculiar to fema very splendid assortment of all other kinds of work, which is made of the very best materials and in the neatest and most durable manner. In fact he intends to keep every thing for sale that belongs and Healthy and full of energy under its influence. It counteracts the weakness of the female frame, which is the cause of barrenness. This wonderful Tincture, when taken as directed, will cure all Chronic diseases, as Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Cough, Sore Throat, Tetter, Old Sore, pain in the Back, Spinal Disease, Piles, Fistula, with all the other diseases arising from impure blood.

More Home Testimony. Wonderful and permanent cure of one of our most highly respectable citizens. Baltimore, June 24th, 1851. Messrs Mortimer & Mowbray : Gentlemen-A sense of gratitude, and a desire that those suffering under disease be induced to try HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE FINC-TURE, has influenced me in making the following statement of facts of my case— On the 14th of November, 1836, I was attacked with what is called Inflammatory Rheumatism; my pains were so intense that, for three months, I could not rest night or day. I lost all desire for food, and became very weak. At this stage of my disease my physician had a consultation with one of the most eminent of the profession in Baltimore. They gave me a large amount f medicine, sone of which had any good effect on me, my sufferings every day becoming more intense, my pains continuing night and day, ulcers forming on my right arm, right knee and left knee, from each of which splinters of bone came out. After years of suffering, my physician pronounced my disease deeply seated and incurable. My pains at this juncture were so great that I had not one moment's relief from them, unless under the influence of an opiate. Many of my friends know-ing my sufferings, and kindly sympathising with me, persnaded me to try the Thor the Homepathic medicines, which I did without effect. After this I also tried a large number of Panaceas and Liniaments, all represented as certain cure all's, but from which I derived no benefit, rather growing weaker every day, suffering, if possible, more after every new remedy I tried. In the early part of August, 1842, you first introduced Dr. Hampton's Tincture to me. Well do I remember that morning; it was after a sleepless knight of great suffering. By your advice I commenced, as a last resort, to try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, and I am happy to say, before I had taken one bottle, my pains grew less, my appetite increased. Hope began to spring up. I continued taking the Tincture, and was soon enabled to eat any kind of food, thereby gaining strength every hour. In the space of a few months my pains left me, the ulcers in my arms and legs were entirely healed, and I was enabled to lay aside my crutches; and when August, 1843, came around, it found me without pain, and in the enjoyment of health, which, for years before, I was a stranger to. I am glad to say now, though nearly eight years have clapsed, that the cure in my case was made with to the extensive Stabling, conveniences already on the lot. Every thing will be done for the comfort of Vegetable Tineture. A large number of my relatives travelers and others who may favor him with their and friends can testify to the truthfulness of the above meagre statement of my sufferings, as well as my relief Wishing you every success in bringing this valuable medicine before the public, and hoping that the afflict-ed may receive the same benefit I have from it, I re-JARRETT PLUMMER, 153 East Baltimore st. We have hundreds of other certificates from some of the best men in our country. We ask the public to call and get pamphlets and see letters, and have references to numbers of our most respectable citizens who have tion of the town; formerly occupied by Mr. John used this wonderful Tincture. Its success in curing dis-Linn, and is now ready to accommodate those who ease is astonishing. Never were such prompt cures may favor him with a call. From his long ex- made before by other medicine. Never before was such genuine testimony given in favor of any other medicine as that offered, unsolicitee, in favor of Hampton's Vegetable Tinciure. For sale by
