Wholesale Watch & Jewelry Store.

T. W. MILLER & CO., WATCHES, JEWELRY AND FANCY 105 boxes Adamantine do GOOD's, have leased the Old Stand, formerly occupied by Messrs, Canfield, Brother & Co., South- 225 cupied by Messri Canfield, Brother & Co., South-rad core of Charles and Baltimore Streets, (No. 105 " Starch and Choc- 10 " Family Shad 221,) which they are putting in complete order for PLESALE WATCH AND JEWELRY BUSINESS, to be opened about the 20th of July. In cathing the attention of the trade to the new concern, we mention the fact that we are associated with one of the most extensive Jawaray Manufac-TRAING ESTABLISHMENTS in the country, which most give a decided advantage over all others in this market, for capplying dealers with Jewelry at manufacturers' prices, a feature in this branch of trade long since needed, between Ealtimore and the Southern and Western Merchants.

We desire to call narticular attention to the Watch department, which will at all times be supplied with a great assortment from the most cele brated manufacturers, and kept in perfect running order, so that purchasers may at once take them, with a written guarantee that they will perform cor-

This branch of the insiness will receive the especial attention of one of the firm, whose extensive and practical knowledge of the business, will, we hope, give us a place in the confidence of buyers. We respectfully invite you to call upon us when you next visit our city, confidently believing that an examination of our Goods will prove to you, that they are better styles and cheaper than you have ever seen in this market, and assure you that no effort shall be wanting on our part to make the acquaintance one of mutual benefit,

POETRY.

O NOT I AM NOT BLIND. Westenfor and aff ctionately desicated to "Little Etten," at the Kentucky Institution for the Blind.

BY REV. SIDNEY PYER. They tell me that my face fair, And pleasant to behold; And of they stroke my sitken bair,

Tim talls in many a fold: And then such tender words they speak, infleed it is so kind, They whisper, as they kiss my cheek, "Alax, that she is blind!"

I bear the birds in woodland bowers. Their forms I may not see ; I smell be fragrant versal flowers, How beauteous they must be 1 They say the stars shine every night, To gladden all mankind.

But not one ray breaks on my sight, Asar, that I am blind! I hear the tread of merry feet, But slow my step must be And when the joyous group I meet, Their smiles I cannot see,

And it I mingle in their plays, Anon I'm sure to find, I am debarred such sportive ways-Alas, that I am blind! Yet deem not that I e'er complain,

That sightless orbs are given, Further who formed them thus doth deign The purer light of Heaven. And though those eyes in darkness roll, The visions of the mind, Like sanlight lie upon the soul-

O no! I am not blind! MISCELLANY.

AUTUMN. Sad, sweet season! What solemn and tender recollections cluster around thee !-With every changing leaf that flutters in the breeze, falls some cherished memory upon our spirit path. It is well that we should feel peculiarly tonder and solemn in this melancholy time -- for let the artist, with glowing pencil, tinge as he may the ruddy Bacchus god of imagination, and call him autumn, depicting with hale, florid health, and the broad sensuous smile of pleasure, still the season, with its chilling breath and cold, pale skies, is melancholy. The trees-poor naked things-how sorrowful they seem, flinging upwards their bare brown arms in the keen air! They have given us our abundance- shed the fruit that so beautifully clothed them in purple and in gold, upon the changing earth, and now they are turning black, and withering at the frosty touch of Autumn. The flowers in my garden, too, are paling, drooping and dying. They turn their sickly heads to the sun, but alas! in their very hearts the hoar frost is nestling, gnawing away their gentle lives, so when the kindly glance of their good physician falls softly upon them, there is no longer vitality in their beautiful forms. They are dying; and so are many gentle ones of carth; outwardly lovely, like those swret flowers, the angel of death is shadowng them with his broad wings, and they are swiftly passing away.

Autumn season. How many a mother exclaims, " last autuan a bright-eyed babe nestling upon my bosem-this autumn he sleeps calmly upon the clod lap of earth." And the wife, with the warm tears of grief bedewing her pale cheeks, whispers -" last autumn, how foudly I leaned upon the arm of one whom I loved next tomy God-now these crisp leaves circle about his narrow grave. I SEE A LIGHT-PM ALMOST HOME.

The following is related of a young girl, whose journey of lig: was near its end: About her chamberglided the loved forms of her parents and only sister. She silently noted their movements with a mild expression of her dying eye, turning it from side expressive of affliction and patient suffering, they paused to look upon her, whom they

Mother, father, sister, all came closer to her side. A playful smile lit up her coontenance. She laid her little pulseless hand within her mother's palm, then closed ber eyelids to the light of earth, and sank away. The cold lamp air of death's shadowy valley seemed circling over her .-Slowly sinking down, she glided to that river's shore which, like a narrow stream, divides the spirit land from ours. But see the quivering lips essay to speak! "Mother?" Oh! how each heart throbbed now, and then each pulse stood still. They listen. " Mother?" the dying girl breathes forth,

This centeman has been elected a Senator of the United States for the State of Georgia by a veto decided majority, to fill the place of Judge Ben-FIRN, whose ome will expire on the 4th of March 1853. The Halge, it seems, speaks no longer as a Whig, but in behalf of what he terms the Constitutional Union Party of Georgia-which party, he says, will not send delegates to either the Whig or Democratic National Convention, but hold itself in readiness to join the one which declares most strong ly for the Compromise measures.

OUR APPAIRS WITH SPAIN.

Some of the memspapers speak of a high-toned communication from the Spanish Nin ter at Washing on to Mr. Webster, demanding rep qration for the igsal to the Spanish Consul at Ne. V Orleans, and for the damage done to the prope, 'ty of Spanish cutizens in that City. And it is added that this demand was accompanied with an intimation that the withdrawal of the Minister would be the consequence of a refusal.

We have no doubt there has been a high coloring given to this affair. Certainly, the conduct of the mob at New Orleans was inexcusable-and it Is more than propable that the President of the United States ordered a prompt disapproval of it to be notified to the Spanish government, and a promise of indemnification as far as he bad power to promise it. 11e doubtless, too, was preparing to stale his views to Congress, upon this affair and the invasion of Cuba, in a manly and proper style

But there is such a thing as improperly anticipa-1, of the co. desy, the fairness, and even the justice of a nation. Gar government needed no prompt ing to induce it to to all that was becoming or honorable in the precises. It required neither entreaty por menace, and certain by it could not be expected to yield even justice to the latter. We cannot, therefore, beliege that Calderon . e la Barca, well informed as he must be of the temper and honesty of our fun tion seles, could have been wea kenough to approach the President, through Mr. We. bster, in the way indicated. Nothing but a "ferego." conclusion to bring about a rupture, could have led to any such movement. We shall therefore disbelieve it, uthil we see the testimony.

If Epair has made such a demand, it must have been under the sixuigation of some other power that wishes to bring about a war. But as our people have had along prace of something more than three pears, they are to this time ripe for another " bit of of fun," And is the Spanish Queen wishes a little entertaint ent eff a higher order than a "bull fight," we have no doubt she can be speedily accommoda-

We have a reliance, meanwhile, that President Fillmore and Secretary Webster have done up things too handsomely to leave room for any just complaint. Let us await results before becoming " wolfish."

There is a time for all things.

KOSSUTH.

The speeches of the Hungarian leader, at several places in Lagland, show him to be an extraordinary man, whether we consider the manner or the matter of his effusions. He is not a Red Republican, as was generally supposed, but for free government in a rational and conservative sense. It is probable, however, that after a sojourn in this country to awhile, he may adopt the doctrines of the Pragmageres. He seems to have an inveterate and muco merable antiputhy to Russia. He declared that at he wishes is, " that public opinion dishould was as his as the ruling principle in the pulities of England, the acknowledgement of the " right of nations to dispose of their own affairs-" nortogive a charterto the Czarto dispose of whole

Fountain Rock, Nov. 15, 1851 I received to day your favor of the 14th inst., informing me of the very flattering and unlooked for honor which was yesterday conferred upon me by the Whig Senatorial Convention, at Martinsburg And although the honor is one which I did no seek, and which I had not the remotest expectation of receiving, (inasmuch as I had been induced by unforscen contingencies, to request my friends from Shepherdstown to withold my name from the consideration of the convention.) yet it comes to ings and with so many assurances that my accept ance of it will be in accordance with the expectation of the Whig party generally in the District that I do not feel at liberty to disregard the dictates of the duty it imposes upon me. I therefore accept ie nomination with no other reluctance than that which arises from the consciousness that the com pliment it implies would have been far more fully conferred upon some older and abler member of the

Our neighbor of the Free Press, under the caption of " Locofoco nominees," urg is objections to rather than by open charges, which would have been in our opinion, more maniv -- Sobul.

Now, we deny that we have either made "eliar ges" or "insinuations" against the Locofoco nominees. We stated fasts which our neighbor of the Spirit has not, and cannot controvert. We stated that Mr. Moon was a Northern gentleman. This is not denied. We did not say he was a " Northern man with Southern principles," for we do not believe he is. We left that question to be decided by It is gratifying to be able to state that business | his friends. The Union, we all know, professes to be a great friend of our adopted population-particularly of the Irish; and it is equally vehement in its abhorrence of the advocates of a protective tariff, and of internal improvements by the General Government. Let us try the Union's favorite by these standards. Col. Jourson has been long in the councils of the nation; he is a man of more than sixty years of age, and, despite his obscurity as a statesman, he has necessarily left some traces of his opinions and public conduct on the records of the country. We all recollect the dreadful famine which prevailed, in 1846, in Ireland. It excited the liveliest sympathy throughout our country. We are indebted to that glorious but oppressed island for much of our best population. Every thing which touches the interests and well-being of Ireland, therefore, finds a responsive chord in the American heart .-Accordingly, when the appalling news of the misery and starvation which devastated the Emerald Isle reached this country, the whole people were deeply moved, and measures were at once adopted for their relief. Liberal contributions were made by towns, cities, and individuals, to purchase food to be distributed amongst the sufferers. But this did not satisfy the public sentiment. It was thought the Government should move in the matter, so as to give greater dignity and efficiency and a more national character to this glerious manifestation of | all their former Whig sins upon their heads. I am American benevolence. Accordingly, Mr. CRIT-TENDEN, one of the Senators from Kentucky, prompted by the generous impulses of his truly Irish heart, introduced a bill, appropriating five hundred thou-

What say you, Irsshmen, and descendants of Irishmen, to such friendship as this ? On the eve of elections, when your votes are wanted, the Union and its Democratic friends swear you are a glorious people and that they are your best friends! But when the day of your adversity comes-when your countrymen are starving-whenthe whole nation is moved by feelings of Christian charity-these same men deny you even a crust of bread to save you friends and countrymen from their horrid fate !-Nay, more; the Union and the Democratic party are now calling on you to honor the men-Johnson and LEAKE-who turned a deaf ear to the pleadings of your suffering country ! But this is not all the evidence. Messrs. Jounson and LEAKE having been defeated in their attempt to strangle the bill, it was referred to the Com-Mittee of Ways and Means. On the 3d day of March, 1847, Mr. WINTHROP, of Boston, doubtless reflecting the will of his enlightened and generous "moved that the rules be suspended, for the purpose 'of enabling him to offer a resolution, instructing | this subject, he choosing still to keep the people unthe Committee of Ways and Means to report forthwith to the House the bill from the Senate for the relief of Ireland.' THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.

The importance of the approaching session Virginian) canr et be toe constantly borne in mind by the people. The setting of the machinery of our new system to work, will require the best talents and the largest Legislative experience that the State can afford. In a party aspect it is also of the highest importance. The Congressional districts have to be re-apportioned. Suffering as the Whig party have done, for ten years, an almost total exclusion from Congress through the instrumentality of an outrageous gerry mander, it behooves them to make every exertion to remove this incubus from themselves and redress the wrong they have so long undergene. In addition to this, an United States Senator is to be elected in to the probability of sundry candidates for the the place of R. M. T. Hunter, who, like his speakership occupying that high office. But what did the Democratic Legislature do? Did they respect the great republican principles of protecting the rights of minorites? Not they. We heard a full account of the matter given by the people of Halifax by a leading actor in the transaction, Mr. John R. Edmunds. He openly avowed before his constituents that he worked out the problem of so arranging the districts as to give the Democrats fourteen of the whole fifteen. Among the improvements named in my last, I forgot to mention the fine steeple lately erected on the St. Matthews Church. The remodelling of the front of the edifice and the graceful spire towering above, give the building a fine effect, forming one of the most imposing objects of the city, seen from a distance. There is no city in the Union of the same size and population of Washington, that has more churches than may be found here. Many of them are buildings whose architecture would adorn any city. The new Trinity Church on the corner o Third and C. screets, built of Senaca stone, attracts much attention from stangers on account of the singularity of its construction, and its proximity to the

It is no more than they deserve-for they give you good fare, good accommodations and good attention to your wants, at a good, cheap, price .-Every one seems desirous that this Line should be well sustained. Perhaps the Rail Road men form an exception to this rule-for their number of passengers will be sensibly diminished. The writer of the letter, Captain Cauot, is the brother of the celebrated Physician to Louis Napoleon, Presideat of the French Republic. Numbers of our most respectable nitizens will give equally strong testimony in favor of Hamplon's Vegetable Tineture. It

Complaint, &c., and all diseases from impure blood. BALTIMOSE, June 4th, 1851. Mr. Slockbridge, of the Foundain Holel, Light street, Ball. Dear Sir: Being on the point of leaving the city. I avail myself of a few idle moments to thank you kindly for the medicine you sent me, and which has restored me to the use of my limbs. I beg you to send me four bottles more to carry on my voyage. Since I had the fortune to use Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture my confidence is so strong that, in gratitude to the proprietors of said medicine, I beg you to present my respects to them, and induce them to make it more publicly known as a sure Rhumatic cure. Having called on me on the 19th of April last, and soon me prostrated on my bed, uscless in all my limbs, you can appreciate nearly as well as myself the prompt relief I received from Dr. Hammers Theotore, and I am positive had it not been for your strong and in cible recommendati as I should still have been in bed.

It affords me pleasure to state that Dr. Hampton has effected a roost extraordinary cure of my stave boy Albert. The patient was three years of age, and had the serofula. His father is scrotulous. The boy was a moving mass of sores from head to foot. my sufferings every day becoming more intense, my pains continuing night and day, ulcers forming on my right arm, right knee and left knee, from each of which splinters of bone came out. After years of suffering my physician pronounced my disease deeply seated and inentable. My prins at this juncture were so gre I had not one moment's relief from them, unless under the influence of an opiate. Many of my friends knowing my sufferings, and kindly sympathising with me, persuaded me to try the Thompsonian Sweats; also the Homospathic medicines, which I did without effect. After this I also tried a large number of Panaceas and Liniaments, all represented as certain cure all's, but from which I derived no benefit, rather growing weaker every day, suffering, if possible, more after every

Dr. Hampton's Tincture to me. Well do I remember that morning: it was after a sleepless knight of great suffering. By your advice I commenced, as a last resort, to try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, and I am happy to say, before I had taken one bottle, my pains grew less, my appetite increased. Hope began to spring up. I continued taking the Tincture, and was soon en-abled to eat any kind of food, thereby gaining strength every hour. In the space of a few months my pains left me, the elects in my arms and legs were entirely healed, and I was enabled to lay aside my crutches; and when August, 1813, came around, it found me without pain, and in the enjoyment of health, which, for
