gated wisdom of the Democracy constructed their national platform, and already a couple of the strongest planks are drifting scaward.
The passage of Mr. Bennerr's bill through the House of Representatives knocked off one plank. The bill distributes large quarti ies of land to the different States, and could not have been carried without Democratic votes; whereas the Democratic platform specifically condemns the principle on which the measure is based The anti-internal improvement plank has shared the same fate. The grants of land demanded by the West to aid in carrying out great plans of improvement were demanded by constituencies that have been overwhelmingly Democratic, and the few that have been conceded could not have been obtained without a junction of Democrats with the Whigs. On Friday the last pair was wrenched out by Democratic hands, and the plank is gone forever. For on that day a majority of the members of a House that is controlled by Democrats passed a bill appropriating a million and a half of dollars for river and barbor improvements. The items are precisely similar in character to those 'That may be,' said Charles, 'but after all, the only mental labor you perform is memory. You only remember Mr. White's instructions, and then follow them, and in method of doing the work you are engaged on. For instance, you know how long to make the rafters of the house we are now building, and you know how to let them in the plates; but de you know the philosophical reason for all this? Do you know why you are required to perform your work after given rules?

"I know that I am to do it, and that when I am of age, I shall be paid for doing it, and I know how to do it. That is enough,' answered Ludlow, with much emphasis.

· It is not enough for me,' said Charles -Every piece of mechanism has a science in its composition, and I would be able to comprehend that science so as to apply it, perhaps, to other uses. In short, Lud, I would be master of my busin iss.'

'And so would I. I tell you, Charley, I believe I could frame a house now.'

'Certainly. Everybody must be taught at first.' 'True; and everybody may gain improve-

· No. Here the conversation ended. That evening Ludlow Weston bired a horse and chaise and went to ride; while Charles Bracket betook himself to his room, and was soon deeply interested in his History of Architecture. Some parts he would read over several times so as to thoroughly compre-hended them, and odcasionally he would take notes, and copy some of the drawings. Before he retired to his rest he had finished the book; and when he arose the next morning, the subject of his study was fresh and vivid in his mind, and he felt happy and satisfied with himself.

'Ah, Charley. I had a glorious time last night,' said Ludlow Weston, with a heavy yawn, as the two apprentices met before breakfast.

'So did I,' returned Charles. 'At your dry books, eh?'

"Yes. 'Well, I don't envy you. Egad, Charley, the recollections of last night's ride and supper will give me enjoyment for a month.' ' And the recollections of my last night's study may benefit me for a lifetime."

an opportunity to contract for a good share of the carpenter's work.' 'Good!' We shall have a change of air,' said Ludlow, in a merry mood. That evening Charles took his paper from the post-office, and in it he found an advertisement calling for an architect plan for the new State House. He went home, locked himself up in his room, and devoted half the night to intense thought and study. The next day he procured a large sheet of fine drawing paper, and again betook himself to his room, where he drew out his table, spread his paper, and then taking his case of mathematical instruments, he set himself about his task. For a whole week he worked till twelve or one o'clock, and at the end of that time, his job was finished .-He rolled his sheet of paper carefully up in a substantial wrapper and having directed it to the committee, he entrusted it to the care of the stage driver, to be delivered at its destination in the city of S-

'Yes, sir.' 'There's a powerful genius there, sir, said the spokesman of the visiters 'Ay,' returned Mr. White, 'and there has been deep and powerful application there, too. Charles Bracket has been with me from a boy, sir, and every moment of his leisure time has been devoted to the most

GEN. PIERCE'S DENIAL.

The letter of Gen. Pierce to Mr. De Leon of Washington is hailed by the Democratic presses as a frank and complete vindication of himself against the charges of certain Democratic Abolition prints in regard to his speech at New Loston. But let any candid man read his denial with care, and he will see that Gen. Pierce has not even touched the point in issue. The charge was that he attered the following sentiments: " I have been asked if ! like this fugilive slave law I answered, No-I LOATHED IT, I HAVE A MOST REVOLTING FEELING AT THE GIVING UP OF A SLAVE: THE LAW IS OPPOSED TO HUMANITY.

The denial is not relevant to the subject. He says the speech is a "gross misrepresentation," but he does not state in what particular. True, he says his " action and his language in New Hampshire, touching this matter, have been at all times and under all circumstances in entire accordance with my action and language at Washington."-He talks of the " consistency of his opinions upon the subject of the constitutional rights of the South in relation to slavery." But let it be remembered that it is his opinions upon the Fugitive Slave law that is the matter in controversy-and he has had no opportunity of uttering any remarks upon that subject at Washington.

Why did he not march up to the point in direct terms, and say whether he "loathed" or approved matter. It is folly to be introducing denials upon irrelevant issues. The worst of the Fanatics ac- | prise knowledge the "Constitutional Rights" of the South in relation to Slavery," but they denounce the institution itself and the Fugitive Slave Law in particular, and like the General declare that " the law is opposed to humanity."

We have had the satisfaction, the two last weeks, of witnessing the demolishment of two of our locofoco friends. We allude to the drubbing received by Mr. J. Well, Mr. S. finished, after making a very able and eloquent speech, which all parties must concede, when up jumps Mr. B. and pounces into Mr. S. His blows, however, were weak. He did not even attempt argument, but seemed to rely upon the affected enthusiasm of a few of the noisy Democracy, together with some graceful gestures, to make a stir. We cannot follow Mr. B. Suffice it to say, that he presented nothing new from his former speech, except the mere denial of Gen. Pierce o his " loathing" speech, and the speech of Mr. Charles James Faulkner. Mr. B. was not as courteons to Mr. Shackleford as he generally is to strangers; and seemed to think the Whigs had wakened up something green-but it was not long after, when Mr. S. arose to rejoin, that Mr. B. discovered his mistate. The scarrification Mr. B. received was a caution! He knocked Mr. B. so blind that he cried out, in his agonies for " more light." #### COUNTING THE COST.

The resolution offered by Mr. Meriw ther (says the Richmond Republican) requiring a report of the amount of public money paid Gen. Scott for his military services ought to have been amended, so as to have embraced a wider circle of subjects. A report ought to have been demanded of the cosof the late war, and also of the war of National Independence. It is opvious, according to the patriotic theory of such Democrats as Meriwether, that our generals and soldiers ought to fight for nothing, and, such being the fact, it would be well enorigh to inquire how much money has been unnecessarily expended upon warriors since the first gun of the Revolution.

Our neighbor of the Spirit seems to think that the denial now by Gen. Pierce, that he did not say in January last that he "loathed" the Fugitive Slave Law, late; and the mere denial of Gen. P., to the sworn affivention, will stand in spite of the lamentations of our neighbor of the Spirit. We venture to affirm that there is not now in their party an intelligent man who does not believe in his heart that Mr. Pierce did entertain and utter the sentiments ascribed to him, and if time were left them, they would-that is, the Southern portion of the Democracy-discard him as unworthy of | ture? their support.

Our neighbor and his party were equally indignant when abelitica sentiments were attributed to their very pink of South ra feeling candidate Governor Joe Johnson. He was holstered up as the very quintescence of southerism, boiled down. But, alas! Jordan Hatcher was not then thought of.

JORDAN'S SPRINGS.

We learn from visitors at this delightful retreat, that The Proprietor of these springs richly deserves cacouragement, for we have "our personal experience" in saying, that he takes pride in contributing to the wants and comforts of his guests. We are at a loss to decide which is entitled to the palm for the true spirit of accommodation—the "Old Fogy" or "Young himself into the Presidency, and was in this city some America;" but as this is the progressive age, we "gue that the former will have to give way to Dr. R. M. & G. N., worthy nephews and polite gentlemen.

We clip the above from the Spirit, and heartily unite in bearing testimony to the truth of all he says about "Old Fogy" and "Young America," We have known the former for many years, and can therefore speak "by the book," that there is not at any public house in the State a more worthy or attentive host; and as "Young America" was "brought up" under his tiffion, it is no wonder he does honor to the "raising."

The fatness of the table, the luxuriance of the viands and sociability of the guests, conspire to render this favorite retreat one of the most attractive in the country "These are our honest sentiments," as Sir Hector says, "and we are proud to express them."

For going from the Schate chamber one day and returning next moraing, he charged the people of this country $2,495-as though he had actually been to and from Texas during the night. This worthy, on his own motion, has recently been placed at the head of a committee to investigate Government abuses. We should be sorry to believe that he could discover a grosser swindle in any department of the weeks since, railing against the extravagance and corruption of the Administration, perpetrated a similar deed. Pretending he had been to Illinois and come back between two days, he charged the public treasury for his imaginary trip, $1,034! These are fair samples of our Democratic economists. And speaking of them reminds us of the defaulters of the Van Buren era. We saw yesterday, taken from the Register's office, a list of these worthies, and the amounts which they had "picked." The depredations in the Land office department alone, amounted to upwards of a million. Then there were Swartwouts, Hoyts, and others, in the Customs-going up in the neighborhood of two millions. These are the same gentry who are trying to get back into the treasury .-They talk mightily about public virtue, honesty, economy, and all that-but they have their old principles, and are besides as hungry as half-famished woives! [Richmond Whig.

"THE UNION" A WITNESS.

A friend has called our attention to the fact that, as late as the 27th of June last, the Washington Union published a report of a speech delivered by General ungling, of bowling, of mountain and water scenery, and PIERCE at Manchester, New Hampshire, in the course of which he asked:

"Who did not deplore slavery? But what soundthinking mind regarded that as the only evil which uld rest upon the land? The men who would dissolve the Union did not hate or deplore slavery more than he

The speech in which this declaration was made was embodied in an elaborate biography of General Pience, prepared by the Boston Post immediately after his nomination, and republished in the Union of June 27, with this editorial accompaniment:

"We assign to-day a large space in our columns to a very able and well-written notice of General PIERCE, which we copy from the Boston Post, where it appears

CONSISTENCY.

Before the people gave decided opinions of approbation upon the Compromise measures, the locofoco le iders, including the editor of the Spiril, swore that it was the most iniquitus species of fraud ever perpetrated upon the was our good fortune to sojourn for a day or so at the | Southern people-and the friends of the measure were dubbed as "Submissionists," because they would not join the Democracy, "Louthed" it. And now, the Southern [We can endorse all our neighbour says above of the Democracy, finding it popular, they insist that they are its peculiar champions! Whiist Gen. Scott gave it the weight of his great name and talents, Gen. Frank Pierce was "louthing" it.

CORRECTION.

Heavy James, who was tried at the July term of our County Court, charged with the commiss'on of a most heinous outrage upon a little girl of Harpers Ferry, will have his tinal trial in October before Judge PARKER. Judging alone from the appearance of the man, we inadvertently stated he was an Irishman by birth, which, from a personal interview with himself, we feel ourselves called upon to correct. He states that he was born in Greenbrier county, is unmarried, lived in Rockingham for several years, and went to Harpers-Ferry as a boatsman under the employ of Capt. Raines, and if proved to be guilty of the gross outrage with which he stands charged, will be sent to Richmond at State expense, and without "benefit of Ciergy."

LIKENESSES.

Mr. Bailer is now engaged at the Odd Fellows Hall. in taking a superior caste of Daguerrean Likenesses. A fair opportunity is now offered our citizens of giving their friends desirable memeatoes.

HON C. J. FAULKNER. The following is the moly of an intelligent mechanic to Mr. FAULKNER, for the forcer of a copy of Mr.

Toomas' speech : Bolivan, near Harpers-Ferry, Va.,

July 25th, 1852. Sin: I am one of those who, before the present Constitution of Virginia went into cheration, were subjects of the Government ith at being citizens. Consequently, I had no vote to give you last November; but my gratifine for your efficient labors in the State Reform Convention; my confidence in the soundress of your opinions upon all the great questions which divide the two great political par ties; and my admiration of your character and loilities as a public man, enlisted me warmly in your support; and on my part, nothing within the small compass of my abilities was left undone, that could contribute to your election. I therefore ask of your courtesy, (what perhaps a constituent might claim from his Representative as a right,) permission to address you a few words in relation to the extraor linary political course you have thought roper to pursue, and in answer to the communicaion I have just received from you, in the shape of a speech delivered by Mr. Toomts of Georgia. outhing the approaching Presidential election o which is appended the "pronunciamento" which has made you and your associate seceders famous. The legitimate inference from the fact of your having circulated this speech, is, that you endorse the sentiments and opinions it contains, as well as those contained in the address to which you have athred cour signature. I have these documents, (or rather this document) now before me. It purports to give the reasons, or some of them, why you refuse to support Gen. Scot for the Presidency, and advise Southern Union Whigs to prefer den. Pierce. I have read them carefully, and I cannot discover a single one that will bear investigation. All are based upon false premises. Says Mr. Toombs: I do not know of a single sentiment ever uttered by Gen. Scott, in relation to the principles sattled by the compromise, or in relation to the subject of slavery in general, that is in nison with my own, or the convictions of the slave ding States of this Union." The "Pronunciaento" says-"He obstinately refered, up to the ne of his nomination, to give any public opinion favor of the Compremise." Mr. Toombs says Gen. Pierce- From my small knowledge of his his ory I take him to be an early, consistent, and energetic opponent of anti-slavery fanaticism in all its forms, and a firm and decided friend of the Com-

Now Mr. Toombs' knowledge of the history of ott, as well as Pierce, must be very small indeed he does not know that Gen. Scott most unqualidly declared himself in favor of those measures in the presence of thousands of his fellow-citizens, at Castle Garden in the city of New York. Was not that giving a "public opinion in favor of those acts?" I cannot imagine what constitutes a public expression of opinion, if that speech was not one. You cannot be ignorant of this fact, nor of the other conclusive fact, that Gen. Scott, in Washington, while those measures were pending, supported Clay with all his ability and influence, in his efforts to procure their passage. Thus the objection falls to

May I ask you, in this connection, if Gen. Pierce did not refuse to "give any public expression of opinion in favor of the Comprom se," when interrogated by R. G. Scott of Richmond? and has he ever replied to Mr. Scott's letter up to this date?-Moreover, sir, does your knowledge of Gen. Pierce's history comprise any cognizance of the fact that, in a speech at New Boston, in New Hampshire. he declared that "he loathed the Fugitive Slave ment that any man, with these facts staring him in he face, can assert that Pierce stood fairer upon the Compromise before his nomination that Gen. Scott

You also allege, that "Gen Scott has not since his nomination made any declaration of his approval in controversy." Now plain Whigs, like myself, politicians, cannot be made to understand how such anguage as that contained in his letter of acceptance-'i accept the nomination, with the resoluin those resolutions are so broad that but little is left for me to add"-"I should neither countenance nor tolerate any sedition, disorder, faction, or resistance to the law or the Union on any pretext, in any part of the land"-can be construed into any other meaning than unqualified approval of the Platform, the Compromise included. Nor can I see how the last paragraph but one of his letter can be made to meen anything but that he gives "the known incidents of his long public life," his character and his fame, as security for his "strict adherence to the principles of the Whig party, as expressed in the resolutions of the Convention." You allege, as another reason why Southern Whigs should prefer riesce to Scott, the fact that the latter is supported by 'the open and avowed enemies of those measures," (the compromise,) and is therefore unsound upon that question. The absurdity of this allegation is only equalled by the effrontery of presenting such argument to an intelli-gent people. If Gen. Scott is a Freesoiler because Seward supports him, and is therefore not entitled to the support of the south, pray what constitutes Pierce's claim to that support, who numbers among his partisans the two Van Burens. John P. Hale, Robert Rantoul, B. F. Hallett, &c. 7

In answer to the position, which is rather implied than asserted by Mr. Toombs, (and consequently by you.) that the Democratic platform is equally explicit with that of the Whigs, on the subject of the Compromise, it is only necessary to point to the facts,—that while the latter considers those acts a 'final adjustment, in principle and substance, of the abjects to which they relate," the former carefully oids the word ' tadl," and, by a much fairer rule of construction than the one you apply to Gen. Scott's letter, will mean that the Democratic party are only pledged to excepte them while they are laws, reserving the right to repeal them. And that while the Whig party are pledged to support and maintain them, and insist on their strict enforcement, until further legislation shall be necessary, which legislation, while it will guard against evasion of the laws on the one hand, and abuse of their powers on the other, shall not impair their present efficiency to carry out the requirements of the Constitution. The Democratic party "adopted the principles of the Virginia and Kentucky resolutions of '98 as constituting one of the main foundations of their political creed, and is resolved to carry them out, in their obvious meaning and import"-the second of which resolutions lays down nciples of construction, which, if admitted to be true, and applied to the Fugitive slave law, render that law "void and of no force." It defines and provides means to punish crimes which cannot be koned among those enumerated in the resolutions of 93, and all such laws are declared by those resolutions of 1798; and the Democratic resolutions of 1852, to be "altogether void and of no force."-Think you that the Southern Union Whigs will prefer this platform to their own? These reasons, sir, thus set forth in the document you have sent me, are not sufficient to shake my llegiance to the Whig party; to impair my confidence in its great principles, or in the great man who has been selected to bear its standard in this campaign. And I am confident that I express the sentiment of the entire Whig portion of your constituency in this district, when I say that you have utterly failed to justify your desertion of the party whose principles you professed to advocate, and to whom you owe your election to the position you now occupy. And other considerations, to which I beg leave briefly to advert, cast a still darker shade upon the picture. You said, at your own residence, to Mr. Whitehouse, that you "believed Gen. Scott to be as sound upon the Compromise as any man in the Union, or words to that effect. How can this be reconciled with the charge you now bring against him, that he is unsafe upon it?

One of the principal issues in the canvass which resulted in your election, was the Union and the endorse the sentiment of Mr. Toombs, that there are the renewar of which she (the State of Georgia) will and ought to resist, even, as a last resort, to a disruption of the Union ?" The Whig party has distinguished itself by its devotion to the Union, in opposition to the Democratic secessionists-how can you. a Union man, refuse to support its nominees? The Whig Platform most unequivocally endorses the compromise -how can you, a compromise Whig. refuse to place yourse, f upon it, alongside of Ger. Scott? Gen Pierce has expressed opinions, since the passage of the Compromise acts, bit only hostile to the Fugitive Slave law-Gen. Scott publicly declared his approval of the Compromise acts while they were still pending-how can you then, a southern, compromise, Union Whig, give your support to Pierce instead of Scott, and thus league yourself with a party comprising within its pale all the factions which have disturbed the peace and endangered the safety of the Republic for 20 years?

if I say that I cannot divert myself of the suspicion, that, formost among those "reasons," is the desire to ally yourself with what you think the strongest Whatever, sir, may have been your motives: whatever may hereafter be your political course, I trust you will find the Whigs of this district united in support of Scott and Graham, and if they are defeated, they will still have the proud satisfuction of knowing that they, at least, have done their duty.

QUEER DEVELOPMENTS.

Mr. W. E. Robinson, an active and enterprising Irishman in New York, has been down to Concord, New Hampshire, to examine the records to ascertain the course which Gen. Pierce pursued on the clause in the Constitution disqualify og Catholies from holding office. He has discovered some strange things about the New Hampshire Yankees- which go far to prove that they are the greatest cheat; in this country.

It will be recolled;ed, that the day after Pierce was nominated, Mr. Dallies made a speech in Philadelphia and vindicated Gen. P., from the charge-which, by the way, had never been made-that he was in favour of the bigoted clause in the New Hampshire Constitution. As the wicked flee, whee no man pursueth, Mr. Relinson's suspicions u ere excited by this premature vindicationand he explored all the records. He finds, that the original clause was inserted in 1791, at the instance of Gen. Pierce's father -that that old gentleman was h furious champion of the alien and sedition laws-and a clergyman having said prayers before the Legislature, without praying for the President of the United States and Congress, as required by law, was on his motion informed that they had no farther use for him.

He also discovered, that in the Convention of 1850, General Pierce mad no speech on the Catholic clause. Judge Woodbury made such a speech-but Pierce did not open his mouth. By an ingenious forgery, Pierce is saddled with the credit of Woodbury's speech. That speech in favour of abolishing the clause is published; then follows a line of astericks-(these are powerful weapons in the New Hampshire armory-witness Mr. Campbell's certificate)-then comes a speech of Gen. Pierce, which was delivered on a different subject-but by the juxta-position made to appear in favour of Woodbury's proposition-which had been decided long before Pierce spoke. We have no recollection of a baser or more contemptible fraud than this. It is enough to destroy all confidence in Pierce's integrity -- for it was perpetrated in the New Hampshire Patriot, directly under his nose, and has been permitted to be circulated uncontradicted throughout the Union. We shall refer again to this subject.

Mr. Rabiason also ascertained that negroes are permitted to vote in New Hampshire. That's the Commonwealth over which Joseph should rule! Would to Heaven, that he and his brethren would take it into their heads that that is the true Egypt, and betake themselves thither !- Richmond Whig.

Since his nomination General Scott has been the "best abused man," that this country has ever seen. Locofocoism has never been able to see a really good act that he has done. No! net one. Whether our Democratic friends ever entertained a very high opinion of General Scott or not, we really have no means of knowing. That they professed great admiration for him previous to his nomination, we have the most conclusive evidence. We furnish the proof:

LOCCEDGO OPINIONS OF SCOTT .- " They (the Whigs) now prefer a candidate distinguished not merely for military renown, but for the pecual! qualification of having formed no opinion upon the leading political questions which so long divided the two parties of our country. The Gallant Scott. the General-in-chief of our army; the conquerer of Mexico, a Virginian by birth-has been entirely overlooked by his Whig brethren in his own Statehe who, though a military enjeftain, has formed and expressed opinions on their issues, and in accordance with their cherished principles, and their most ardent desires."- Virginia Locofoco Address, '48. " Having been defeated in our last contest, when we run a statesman against a captain, without any qualification for the office, it now becomes of the well as a good and true democrat. For let it be remembered, that we are now threatened with another captain, fully as renowned, and much better rualified in every other respect, to be our President, than he who was last elected."-South-Side Dem. "THE MOST DISTINGUISHED LIVING SON OF VIRGINIA." - Gov. Floyd. "The officers and soldiers who have carried the arms of their country in Mexico have crowned ! with imperishable glory, and gives them a right to pass "abolition" "Wilmot proviso" resolution the profound gratitude of their country and admiration of the world."-Locofeco Platform, '48. "General Scott is an older soldier than General Taylor, one who is at least equally, if not more accomplished, and who has distinguished himself by more, and as brilliant battles during the war-who captured Vera Cruz, and the Castle and the Capitol of Mexico, and one too, who has more qualities of a civilian, and is better known as a Whig.

Mr. Seiss has been connected with the church in this place between four and five years, and so far as we know has maintained the most harmonious relations with its entire membership. He was regarded by persons of inteligence of all denominations, as an effective and accomplished pulpit orator, a fact which was well attested by a speedy change from a comparatively small to a well filled church, and the consistently fraternise with the Disunionists, and universal regret with which they have received the announcement of his intention .- | 25 to 35 cts. CHARLESTOWN ACADEMY.

MIE Trustees of this institution, having appoint ed as its Principal. PHILIP H. POWERS. a thoroughly qualified and accomplished instructor of youth, take pleasure in announcing that the Acallenty will be re-upened under the most tavorable auspices, on Wednesday, 1st of September, 1852. The trustees have exercised every precaution and their best judgment in making a judicious selection of principal, and they believe they may now assore those interested in the thorough educati n of their children, that no Academy in the country offers greater advantages in accomplishing that im-

Thry have determined to give their personal attention to the ex reises of the school, and to co-operate with the principal in securing good order and proper discipline, and at the same time by exciting in the pupils a proper spirit of emulation, to render their studies agreeable, or at least as little irksome as possible. The course of instalction will comprise every branch connected with a thorough acalemical education, especially the Latin and Greek languages and the higher Mathematics, including Elecution and Composition; at the same time, par-ticular attention will be paid to pupils in the department of a plain English education. Monthly reports will be made by the principal to parents or guardians, of the standing and progress of each pupil.

The land has been farmed door of the Court-House of this County, on the first exclusively with a view to its improvement, clover and plaster has been freely used, and it is now in a fine state of cultivation. The Winchester and Potomac Railread 14 miles distant, and the Baltimore and Obio Railroad & miles distant, offer great facilities for the transportation of the produce of the farm either to the Baltimore or District markets.

The Harpers-Ferry and Smithfield Turnpike affords a good and safe route to Charlestown at all seasons of the year. Its location will compare favorably with that of any farm in the county of Jefferson, as regards health, society, fertility of soil, or facilities to market. Persons wishing to purchase land, well improved, with every thing to hand, are requested to all and view the premises.

For terms apply to the subscriber, living upon the premises, or if by letter, addressed to Charlestown.

THE DOG DAYS.

DY JOHN C. SAXE. Heaven help us all these terrific days! The burning sun upon the earth is peiting With its directest, hottest, fiercest rays, And every thing is melting! Pat mea, infatuate, fan the stagnant air,

In rash essay to cool their inward glowing, While with each stroke, in dolorous despair They feel the fever growing! The lean and lathy find a fate as hard, For all a dry, they burn like any tinder Beneath the solar blaze, till wither'd, charr'd,

And crisped away to cinder! The dogs lie lolling in the deepest shade, The pigs are all a wallow in the gutters, And not a household creature—cat or maid, But querulously mutters!

E'en stoics now are in the melting mood; And vestal cheeks are most unseemly florid; The very zone that girts the frigid pride, Is now intensely torrid!

"Tis dreadful, dreadful hot," exclaims each one, Unto his sweating, swelt'ring, roasting neighbor, Then mops his brow and sighs as he had done A quiet, herculean labor !

And friends who pass each other in the town, Say no good morrows when they come together, But only mutter, with a dismal frown, What horrid, horrid weather !" WINCHESTER, Va. THE REV. WILLIAM JOHNSON, A. M., Principal. TIME Trustees of the Winchester Academy take 1 pleasure in stating that this Institution has been under the care of the Rev. Mr. Jouns in for the last twelve months; and they are fully persuaded, from their personal knowledge of Mr. Johnston and his mode of teaching and governing the boys committed to his care, that for efficiency and sound scholarship and that in discipline he has few superiors .-We have seldom known a gentleman who possesses to as great a degree the qualifications of an accomplished teacher and diciplinarian. His government is mild, but firm. His method of teaching is thorough. The recent public examination of the pupils, together with an occasional attendance upon the school during the year, has given us a high opinion of the advantages of this Institution. It is our cancid and deliberate judgment that no private school or Academy in the State affords greater facilities for a complete academical education. Mr. Johnston will be assisted by Benj. F. DIGESTIVE FLUID OR, GASTRIC JUICE.

by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., Philadelphia, P.a. This is a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspensia, Jaundice, Liver Conplaint, Constipation and Debility, Curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice. Half a teaspoontul of PEPSIN, infused in water, will digest or dissolve, Five Pounds of Roast Beef a about two hours, out of the stemach. PEPSIN is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastrie Juice-the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent for the Stomach and Intestines. It is ex-tracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus orming an Artificial Digestive Finia, precisely like he natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, also, while in New York, having tried the Thompson and furnishing a complete and perfect institute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing cases of Debility. Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The Scientific Evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree curious and remarkable

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE, BARON LIEBIG in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid, analogous to the Gastrie Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various articles of food. as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed, and as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner as they would be lids of the eyes were much swollen and turned inside in the human stomach." Dr. PEREIRA, in his famous treatise on "Food and Diet," published by Flowers & Wells, New York, page 35, states the same great fact, and describes the method of preparation. There are lew higher authori ies than Dr. Pereira. Dr. COMBE, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that a "diminution of the due quantity of the Gastric Inice is prominent and all-prevailing cause of Dyspensia; and he states that "a distinguished professor medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding everything else to fail.

Having called on me on the 19th of April last, and seen me prostrated on my bed, useless in all my limbs you can appreciate nearly as well as my self the prompt relief I received from Dr. Hampton's Tracture, and I'am positive had it not been for your strong and forcible recommendations I should still have been in bed.

It is really a pity this specific should not be approved of by medical men, and like all patent drugs it should suffer the imputation the public generally give to such preparations. I myself, who was always epposed to a atented specific, took this medicine with reluctance, and without confidence in it, and it was only through your disinterested, friendly recommendations, and my critical situation, that induced me to try this really beneficial Vegetable Tincture.

Well do I remember that morning; it was after a sleepless knight of great suffering. By your advice I commenced, as a last re-sort, to try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, and I am happy to say, before I had taken one bottle, my pains rrew less, my appetite increased. Hope began to spring bled to eat any kind of food, thereby gaming strength every hour. In the space of a few months my pains

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT. WITH A HEALING BALM WE COME TO

GREET YOU!!! THE action of this Liniment is one of the most perfect remedies ever offered to the afflicted .-Its action upon the organization is truly wenderful. Its volatile, penetrating, soothing and healing properties diffuse themselves to the very bones. It enters into the circulation of the blood—gives a new impulse to the whole nervous system to the very extremities of the fingers and toes—stimulates the absorbents and secretions, and thus assists nature to theory of and rid herself of any and thus assists nature to throwout and rid herself of any diseased action of the nervous chords or ligaments, ma-king it equally applicable to sores of any kind, Racama-tism, PAINS IN EVERY PART OF THE BODY, from a diseased action of any of the structural portions of the system. WHILE IT IS PERFECTLY HARM-LESS to healthy flesh, skin or bone, it has the property of entering into combination, and dissolving any of the organic tissues when they are diseased, or their vitality is destroyed. Possessing these poculiar powers, is the REASON WHYIT IS EQUALLY EFFICACIOUS in so many different complaints. It acts upon scientific principles and FIXED LAWS OF THE CREATOR! The large number of cases in which this Liniment has proved its value, in the short time it has been before the people of Virginia, is sufficient to give the greatest confidence that its virtues are incomparable in the cure of Rheumatism, Bruises, Strains, Buras, Wounds, Swellings, Broken or Caken Breast, old Sores or Pains in any part

TESTIMONY FROM THE SOUTH. PHEUMATISM CURED IN ITS WORST

FORMS.

Extract of a letter dated New Orleans, March 5th, 1551: "Captain A. Angell has been five years under medical treatment for Rheumatism. Drs. Stone and Cartwright and other Physicians have bad him in charge most of that time. He was in Dr. Stone's Hospital a long time, under constant treatment. Dr. Stone pronounced his case incurable. Large lumps, of a hard bony substance, had formed on his hands, wrists and other parts of the body, and his lower extremities were drawn out of shape, and he could not move about without assistance. Enclosed is a note from him, dated New Orleans,

"I sent to your store a week to-day, and got one bottle of the Mexican Mustang Liniment, and commenced rubbing it on my hands, arms, legs, feet, and other parts of my body. I am now up and can walk nearly as well as even! I find it doing me so much good, I send for another bottle. A. ANGELL." Three weeks after the date of the note quoted above, he was well. He used altogether two fifty cents and one dollar bottle. This has called the attention of several of our first Physicians here, who are now prescribin it in all cases of Chronic Rheumatism. There are many other cases of almost as marked a character as the above; but it is unnecessary to say more. A. KENDALL & Co.

MORE TESTIMONY FROM THE SOUTH. SAVANNAH, FEB. 5th, 1852. Having been afflicted with acute Rheumatism for some time, and tried several of the most popular remedies, and also under medical advice, and received no relief until I had tried the Mustang Liniment; and much to my surprise, I received immediate relief; and I am confident, that by a few more applications of this truly celebrated Liniment, I shall be entirely cured; and I advise all who are afflicted to try the Mexican Mustang Liniment.

(Signed) A. FREEMAN. PINE VALLEY, Miss., Dec. 25, 1851. Dr. A. G. Bragg & Co.—The nine dozen bettles of Mexican Mastang Liniment left me five weeks ago, are all sold. Send me thirty dozen immediately. The Mustang Liniment has performed some wonderful cures here. Dr. W. W. Nevil says it is the greatest Lini-ment in the world. He had a negro girl that was nearly deaf and blind-his remedies did her no good-a few ap plications of the Limiment cured her entirely. It is also curing James W. Coy's leg, which has been a running sore for forty years. It has not failed in a single case here, so far as it has been tried. (Signed) ARTHUR HUDSON.

TESTIMONY OF A PHYSICIAN [Extract of a letter, dated Pittsburg, Jan. 12th, 1852;] I will say, that your Mustang Liniment is about the best I ever used. It gave immediate relief, and, in the morning, I could be a little parcha man, and with as little pain. The medical professior, you know, leave a great aversion to these kinds of remedies; but from a knowl-cdge of the lagredients of the Mustang Liniment, I would rave no hesitation in recommending it wherever a rema number of cases in my own practice, and, as far as I in learn, it has acted with equal celerity and certainty in my own case. Hoping that it may be used for, and ive away pain, wherever it exists, and that it may resuperate you well for your exertions for bringing s valuable a medicine before the public, I subscribe my self, truly yours. GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D. HIS WOUNDS ARE HEALED. John Shirley, Poseyville, indiana, Dec. 30, 1851, says; "The Mustang Liniment has performed a great cure for me. On last Saturday week, I, by accident, ran a red hot rod of iron through my hand, entering through my thumb and fore finger, passing through the thick part of my hand, and coming cut on my wrist, between the two large leaders. I immediately applied the Mustang Liniment, and continued its use. On Saturday next after that it was well, and I went to work as usual.'

HORSES AND OTHER ANIMALS. There is nothing that can be compared to the Mustang Liniment, in its speedy and pernament cure of strains bruises, cuts, galls, chafes, scratches, sweeny, pole evil, fistula, big head, spavin, ringbone, wind gall, cracked heel, or any other wound, stiffness, or unnatural enlarge ment of bone or muscle. A livery stable keeper of this city had a match horse that he prized very highly, that had a large ring-bone on both legs. The horse was com-pletally cured, and his limbs left perfectly smooth, by the TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS

I have used on my farm and am still using one of the Wheat Drills, patented by Gervis S. Gardner and George Rohr, and now sold by Messrs. Henson, O'Bannon and Hunt. I do not suppose any intelligent farmer would now dispute the advantage of drilling over broadcast sowing; I also consider the above Drill altogether equal to any drill now in use, and the advantage of applying as compost box to it, makes it very desirable. The compost part of the drill acts well in every p rieular and is one of the greatest inventions of the day for the farmer; it might well be called the farmer's friend, as it saves both time and labor.
