There are purple beds and golden
Hidden, crashed and overgrown.
God, who counts by souls, not dresses,
Loves and prospers you and me,
While he values thrones, the highest,
But as pebbles in the sea.

Man, upraised above his fellows.
Off forgets his fellows then;
Masters—ulers—lords,
Men by labor, men by feeling,
Men by thought, and men by fame,
Claiming equal rights to sunshine
In a man's canobling name.
There are foam embroidered oceans,
There are feelile useh high sanlangs.

There are feeble such high saplings, There are cedars on the hills; But God, who counts by souls, not station Loves and prospers you and me; For to him all vain distinctions Are as pebbles in the sea

A RICH JOKE.

A gentleman played off a rick joke on his better half the other day. Being something of an epicure, he took it into his head that he should like to have a first rate dinner .-So he addressed her a note politely informing her that 'a gentleman of her acquaint ance- an old and true friend, would dine with her that day.' As soon as she received it all hands went to work to get every thing in order. Precisely at twelve o'clock she was prepared to receive her guest. The house was as cleau as a new pin-a sumpturus dinner was on the table, and she was arrayed in her best attire. A gentle knock was heard, and she started with a palpitating heart to the door. She thought it must be an old friend-perhaps a brother from the place whence they once moved. On opening the door she saw her husband with a smiling countenance. 'Why, my dear,' says she, in an anxious tone, where is the gentleman of whom you spoke in your note?

'Why,' replied her busband, complacently, here he is' ·You said a gentleman of my acquaintance -an old and true friend, would dine with us to day.' 'Well,' said he, good-humoredly, 'am I not a gentleman of your acquaintance, an old and true friend?' 'Oh !' she cried, distressingly, 'is there nebody but you? 'Well, I declare this is too bad,' said his dinner without having company. At a cheap boarding house in Pearle street, New York, where board was at two dollars and a half a week, there was a huge feeder, who 'earned' the price of a week's board in three days out of the seven. WHAT THE DOCTOR HAN TO SAY OF WOMEN AS PUBLIC SPEAKERS.

Oh! woman! how strange are thy ca prices—how boundless try ambition, that thou shouldst leave the place that thy Greator designed there for, and which thou dost adorn so well, but without thee, it not—none—to wander furth and mingle in the conflicting strifes of a turbulent world; and, above all, that thou shouldst face the gaze, and raise thy voice before the multisade.

of life. Without the endearments of home, enterprise would lese its stimulus, the tradesman would fall into a letharzy, the husbandman would turn sluggard, and the shepherd would leave his flocks to wander without care. Home is the abode of loving hearts, and these way be found in all conditions of life; but without these there is no home. There are two orbs of pre-minent importance to us in the solar system, besides the one we inhabit. The one is brilliant, glorious, powerful. On him is our dependence—he lights the way, and governs all our mevements. The other is calm, placed and benign; wooing us from the cares of day, to the genial loves of home.— Such should be the organization of every household. Man should be looked to as the source of ligh and support; while weman, as the embod ment of love and happiness. The one is fitted to rule by the strong arm-the other by the pursuasive eloquence of the affections only. Let the sun and the moon change places, and how soon would confusion and chaos follow, and the other little orbs which make up the solar syste. Talk not of the dignity of age; it has no jove like those balla up ourselves .-In either the relation of mother or belpmate, woman is, in both, the central object of the affections. Who would not rather be thus loved, than to have the honor of the world? The Creator has provided the elements of human bappiness, and all that is required is, that they should unite, not only in hand but in heart-each in its true relation-and the integral is perfect. How few such unions there are! How many of the old elements float upon the sea of life, and are wafted down the current of time into the broad ocean of eternity, without having accomplished the end of human existence, or partaken, in any degree, of that high order of human happiness which is to be found in the home that reciprocated affection can

THE HAPPIEST DAY OF MY LAW! The ancients certainly made a great all-take in not choosing Niobe for the Gudden of marriage. Hymen is by far too folly, be is all smiles—more of the Agena than the proceedile; whilst Niobe is just as the ought to be all tears. There never yet was a marriage that was not a perfect St Swithin affair. No one—unless be has the soul of conflicting strifes of a turbulent world; and, above all, that thou shouldst face the gate, and raise thy voice before the multitude.

Nobody can feel more truly wretched than on the happiest day of his life. A wedding is even more melancholy than a funeral The bride weeps for everything and nothing. At first she is heart broken because she's about to leave her Ma and Pa; then because she hopes and trusts George will always love her; and, when no other excuse is left she bursts into tears because she is afraid he will not bring

When Pape gives way his darling child, he does it with as many sobs as though he were handing her over to the fiercest polygamist since Henry sauce that accompanies her The bridegroom snivels, either because crying is catching, or because he thinks he ought for decency's sake, to appear deeply moved; and the half dozen bridesmaids are sure to be all weeping, because every body else weeps --When the party return home however, the thoughts of the breakfast cheer them up a little; and the bridesmaids, in particular, feel quite resigned to their fate. As if they cares for a while in the white soup tureen. . Then the father gets up and, after a short and pathetic eplogium stre tapie, and tells the company that "any one who would not treat her properly would be a scoundrel." Upon this, every one present turns round to look and frown at the wretched villain of a bridegroom, and then they all fall to weeping again. But so strongly has the feeling set in against the new son in law, that it is only by a speech of the deepest pathos, that he can persuade the company that he has not the least thought of murdering or indeed even assaulting his wife. At last, the mother, bride, and bridesmaids retire to say, "Good bye," and bave a good cry altogether up stairs. Then the blessing and the weeping begin again with renewed vigor. The bridesmaids cry till their noses are quite red, and their hair is as straight as if they had been bathing. And when the time comes for the 'happy pair' to leave, in order to catch the train for Baltimore, then the mother, father, sisters, brothers, bride, bridegroom, bridesmaids, and every soul in the house, all cry, even down to the old cook, who knowed her ever since she was a baby in long clothes,'-as if the young couple were about being 'transported for life' in the

"Of all the men spon the earth, he seems to me to be the least acceptable to the true democracy of Virginia, being the veriest time server and place-hunter imaginable, and pur worst fears were partially confirmed when the result of the nominating convention was announced. He had a majority of the voters present—that was all—and that was obtained by intrigue!

"As we have said, we still believe the course of the Northern Abolitionists has eleated Wise, but be this as it may, he cannot gain the confidence of the Democracy of Virginia or the Union. The past he cannot blot out. It will stick to him with all its revolting memories, like the poisoned shirt of Nessus, and success to him will be nothing more than the fabled fruit of the Dead Sica, which turns to ashes on the lip."

ATROCIOUS MURDER.

We learn from the Romney Argus, that a horrible der was committed on Sunday week, at the house of Mr IRAAC LOCKMILLER, in that county. It appears that Mr. Lockwiller and wife had left home to visit a sick neighbor a short distance off; and soon after they left home SAMUEL McDexald, son of Jared McDonaid, red Mr. Lockmiller's house by breaking the window with a view of robbing it of what he could find to suit him, we suppose. While there, Mr. DAVID ORN-DORN and a little daughter 10 years of age, approached the house for the purpose of paying a friendly visit, and fast before he reached the door he was seen by Mc-Donald, inside, who, fearing detection, seized Lock-miller's rife which was there loaded, and deliberately shot Oradorff, the ball entering near the naval and passing obliquely to the hip bone where it lodged. The wound must prove fata!, and from what we were informed by these who brought McDonald to jail, we resume he has scarcely survived up to this morning. Mr. Orndorff, we understand, has a wife and eight chilen. McDonald is only 19 years of age.

All the spiring politicians, who have become tired waiting for preferment, and every timid man who faints at the first disaster, very naturally fall into the ranks of the Democracy as a place of refuge-for it, assorious that renegade Whigs are preferred over sool-dyed Democrats, and in this way there is a standng premium for apostacy.

The platform adopted at Philadelphia, whilst i e ntains many good points, has the great fault of prolixity. There is too much of it. The masses will lever remember even its main features, buried up as they are in a bundle of truisms.

So far as it goes for the Union-obedo nee to are to the agnation of the stavery of tion-for a revision of the laws regulating immigration and naturalization-and for the restriction of Executive rower and petronage-these are all very well, and easily understood.

But that portion which mingles religion and politics, whilst it has the appearance of separating them, will brobably prove fatal to the whole struc ure .-Cert ain it is, that thousands of Protestants, who neither see nor believe in the alleged "aggressive policy and corrupting tendencies of the Roman Catholic Church in our country," will not co-oper ate with the "American Party" beyond I gitimate opposition to an aggressive Democratic policy

Whig as I am in the grain, and of thirty years tanding-unchangeable as I am in my hostility to Democratic men and Democratic measures-I certainly shall not sanction either by word or deed any thing which has a tendency towards intolerance on the subject of religion. I have no idea that men without religion themselves shall be c'amorous in their care and regulation of other people's religion. The less substantial piety a man has, the more apt is he to become violent in regard to other men's opinions. To this feature may be largely ascribed the disastrous result in Virginia, and this it is that will forever prevent the ascendancy of the "American Party," unless I have failed to appreciate properly the American character. The total exclusion of Catholics gives the whole body of them, and who have family ties or affinities with them, to the Democratic side, or drives thousands to a neutrality which will tell fatally for the opposition in from the others upon a sectional issue. But the the hour of need. A blunder has been committed, fault of this lies not with the majority. They as which is probably beyond correction.

NASHVILLE, May 22, 1855. Sin: As I am not a nullifier or abolitionist or apologist in any degree for President Pierce and his Cabinet in the attempt to govern the country by a coalition of the most dangerous factions in the land, you will oblige me by crasing my name from your list of subscribers. In 1832, Tennessee, with but a few dissenting voices, in accord with Mr. Madison, the author of the celebrated Virginia Report, declared her concurrence with Gen. Jackson, when denouncing the attempt of South Carolina, to nullify the laws of the United States as Treason, And this is now the sentiment of nine-tenths of the people of this State. Yet it is notorious that the individuals the most prominent in adherence to this Treason are those especially sought for by President Pierce to fill the most elevated and responsible national trusts; but not a word is ever to be found in your paper warning the country against conduct so obiously the result of the intrigue which has surrendered the power of the Federal Government to the nullifying factions of the day. We all remember that the most active leader. of the Tennessee division of the s school of Democrats, after a mysterious flouring of patriotsm on the top of his Mount Pisgah, came down and informed us that his heart would break before Virginia on the 27th inst. This we believe is the he could rejoice at the passage of the Compromise first time that the honor has been conferred upon | and more recently that the present rominee to the office of Governor, by the same school of Demo-crats, shocked the religious sense of the age, in calling the Democracy the Jacob's lauder of the The following gentlemen have been appointed Disacred scriptures. THE PLATFORM OF THE AMERICAN PARTY. THE PLATFORM OF PRINCIPAL VIEW AMERICAN PARTY. The Pletform of Principles adopted by the I time! Convention in Philadelphia last work is done only destined to be widely discussed and exercise an influential effect upon the politic

The following are the "Platform and Principles of the bryanization" as finally decided upon by the American Sational Convention:

II. The callivation and development of a sentiment of profoundly intense American feeling; of passionate attachment to our constry, its history and its institutions; of admiration for the surer days of our national existence; of generation for the heroism that precipitated our revolution; and of emulation of the virtue, wisdom and partialism that framed our constitution and first successfully applied its provisions.

III. The maniferance of the union of these United States as the paramount political good; or, to use the larguage of Washington, "the primary object of patricula desire." And heroe:

will be the ultimate result of the adoption of this position can scarcely now be foreseen, but its immediate and proximate effects is the raising of a standard of nationality upon this subject, and the either for one or the other side. The distinct and unequivocal assertion of the position taken will admit of no dodging or unmeaning generalizations by other parties, under cover of which power is obtained by false pretences, and both parties alike

It is true, and the admission must be made with regret, that the result of the division in the Convention has been to divide its members upon the slavery question and to present, perhaps with more distinctness that ever before, an organization which seeks the segregation of one portion of the States suned a national ground, the only ground upon the country could be placed, and the recusant mem-tendency their action may have in weakening the integrity of the Union and in destroying the unity they have much over estimated their power for

Upon the subject of naturalization the demzens themselves. Upon this question, and the cor-relative one of cultivating a spirit of intense nationality, the Convention has assumed ground on and confidence of the American people.

There is one blot, however, upon the platform which we can neither approve nor pass over in si-lence. We aliade to that feature which institutes a religious test, and proscribes a certain set of Christians. We are aware that this is attempted to be done on the assumed political aspect of Roman Catholicism, but the distinction is so indefinite and so certain to be overstepped, even if it could be clearly drawn, in the heat of the contest, that it may be safely asserted that the effect of the article will be to introduce into the political arena religions questions that have neither a moral nor degal right there. We can recognize neither the propriety nor necessity of this feature of the platform, and think that it cannot be insisted upon as an essertial feature of the principles of the party without greatly weakening its claim to rublic confience and exposing it to charges of intolerance which can neither be parried nor satisfactorily answered .-

Much of the evil of this feature of the platform is, however, abated by the accompanying strong assertion of the right of every man to the anrestrain-ed and peaceful enjoyment of his religions opinions and worship; still we cannot but thin that the entire omission from the declaration of principles of all reference to a particular religious sect would have been more in accordance with that just sentiment of the country which looks with fear and distrust upon the formation of politico-religious

With the exerction referred to, the platform appears to us entirely unobjectionable. Its religious acknowledgment of the Almighty favor, its national spirit, its inculcation of patriotic sentiment, its maintenace of the Union, and requirement of obedience to the Constitution, its demand of the public and party corruption, its demand of the radical revision and remodelling of the laws requirements of the laws required in the constitution of the constitution of lating immigration, and the essential modification of the naturalization laws, its mainter once of the public schools and the recognition of Christianity in them by the reading of the Holy Scriptures, its avowal of the principles upon which our foreign intercourse should be governed, and finally its re-heretofore surrounded the organization, each and all recommend themselves as sentiments worthy the adoption and support of American, and their promulgation must awaken a hearty response throughout the country.

Robbert and Essertation.—Sometime last January, a Mr. Boyle was robbed of a valuable gold watch, in Richmond, Va., and, in spile of the class of the police, nothing could be heard of it. A tew weeks ago, a friend of Mr. Boyle recognized the watch in the hands of a person in New Orleans, La., and advised him to return it to the owner, which he agreed to do. Last week a young man handed the watch to Mr. Boyle together with $35, to say no more of the affair. The watch was gladly accepted, but the money was declined, where upon the repentant robber drew from his picket one of Colt's five-shooters, and made him a present of it, telling him at the same time that if he had awoke when his watch was being taken, he would have been killed with that identical pistol, as there were two other men with him, one of whom swore he would commit murder rather than he de-tented in robbery.

And, as a corollary to the above:

1. A habit of reverential obedience to the laws, whether national, State or municipal, until they are enther repealed or declared unconstitutional by the slave States as they at present exist, regarding matter, and to deny to Congress in the future the proper authority.

2. A tender and sacred regard for those acts of states power to legislate upon the subject either in the State or Territories. We see no injustice that this

2. A tender and sacred regard for those acts of statesmanship, which are to be contra-distinguished from acts of ordinary legislatica, by the fact of their being of the nature of compacts and agreements; and so, to be considered a fixed and settled national policy.

V. A radical revision and modification of the laws regulating immigration, and the settlement of immigrants.
Offering to the honest immigrant, who from love of liberty or hafred of oppression, seeks an asylum in the United States, a friendly reception and protection. But immanalifiedly condemning the transmission to our shores, of telons and pappers.

VI. The essential modification of the naturalization laws. The repeal by the legislatures of the respective States of all State laws allowing foreigners not naturalized to vote. The repeal, without retroactive operation, agreement will impose upon either section. THE AUSINISTRATION.

The article from the Washington Sentinel tells a story of its popularity—whether true or unitue, the people will judge, and the Democratic party should consider. For ourselves, the readers of this newpaper well know, that, while cherishing a cor-dialesteem for the President and Mr. Dobbin, while respecting Col. Davis and camenting his unfortu-nate espousal of the Pacific Rail Road scheme, we do not respect or confide in the rest of the Cabines. The Washington Union may affect to believe that in this we do not represent the sentiment of the masses of the Democracy of Virginia; but there is no fact which we more firmly believe than that our pinion of the Cabinet and the Administration is the prevailing sentiment of the Democratic party of our State. The Staunton Convention which nominated Mr. Wise, adopted a very significant resolution on this subject, confined expressly, in its terms of endors, sent and approval, to the President himself. It is not significant that such a resolution should have been adopted by the leading Democratic State of the Union within two years from the common ment of a D. mocratic Admin. from the commen emert of a Democratic Admin-from the commen ement of a D. moeratic Administration elected by the largest popular vote ever given before in the history of the country?

While adhering to our own our long entertained and unalterable opinion, that it is the imperative duty of the Democratic party to express, plainly, promptly and bluntly, under all circumstances, its cissent from improper acts of any administration, as often as they occur, we entirely concur in the opinion of the Sentinel, that considerations of prudence and party policy urge the Democracy to that course at this juncture of affairs, in respect to the present Administration.

The Cuban and Kansas policy of the Administration is especially chooxious to censure, and if the Democracy allow this policy to receive a color of endorsement from themselves we can already read, in the sequel to all former Northern administrations, the fate in 1856 of the party which sustains the present administration.—Rick. DEPOSED CATHOLIC PRIEST CLAIM-ING BIS WIFE IN A COURT OF JUS-

The case of The Pet ple ex relations. Nithol as Stamber against Anthony Schnieter, which came the ore the Gourt of Common Pleas of Cook county, Hon John M. Wilson presiding, on Saturday, presented curious picture of married life.

It appears that about a year ago, Nicholas Stamber, them a priest of the Gatholic church, was attited in marriage with Arna Mary Schneiker, a German girl, the daughter of the defendant and a good Catholic. The marriage ceremony was performed by Father Peter Iramer, in a private moon, without the use of the wedding ring, and without witnesses. In all other respects, the marriage ceremony was according to the rites of the Gatholic church, the parties agreeing and assenting thereto, promising to be man and mife to each other, and the priest giving them the naptial benediction and pronouncing them min and wife.

After the ceremony, Father Nichols took the girl home and kept her as an appear servant or housekeeper, treating her kindly and paying her wages regularly. The girl says herself that although he always soke of her as his wife, they occupied separate a partments.

Some three months since she left his house and went to Niles, Michigan, where she entered a family in the capacity of a servant. Her own account is, that both her marriage to and desertion from her husband was in accordance with the advice of her parents and friends. To use her On ianguage, "she was talked into it."

Up to the time of his wife's leaving him Father her parents and friends. To use her of language, "she was talked into it."

Up to the time of his wife's teaving him Father Nicho'as had continued his public ministration in the Church, but since then we understand he has been deposed from the pristhood, as has also Father Peter Kramer.

This suit was by 19ht in the chancery side of the Court of Common Flees, by the husband, to recovered the wife issued, commanding Schneider to procur, the body of Amia Mary before the Court. It was served on Schneider on the 6th of June, by T. S. Buckley, deputy sheriff. On going into the country to serve the writ, he found Ama Mary at the house of one Judson, about four miles from her father's residence, at d took her there with him.

On Saturday, the delendant appeared before Hon. John M. Wilson, in the Court of Common Pleas, and in obedience to the writ produced the body of his daughter. The husband was also present. For the purpose of ascertaining the true state of the case, and of finding out why, her wishes were in regard to laving with her husband, the Court ordered the room to be cleared of all persons except the officers of the court, an interpreter, and reporters for the press, and proceeded to question the cirl.

reporters for the press, and proceeded to question We are not, of course, at liberty to disclose all that was then elicited; i ut it appeared in addition to the above facts, that she did not consider the marriage legal or linding, because her husband was a priest; that she had left her husband of her own accord, and that she wished row to go with her parents and stay with them, and not go with her husband: that the reason she wished to leave her hu-band was that she had been educated in the bilief that she could never go to heaven if she lived in marriage with a pries; but that no threats what-priests, or ty the Bishop. She gave her name as Anna Mary Schneider, and not as Anna Mary Judge Wilson informed the lady that the marriage was a perfectly valid and legal one, by the a laws of this State; although it might be a matter of discipline in their own church; and that she could not marry any other man while her husband was living; but that she was not compelled to live with him; and asked whom she would go with, her husband or her father? She answered promptly, with her father. The doors were then re-opened, and her husband and parents, the attorneys on both sides, and the other members of the bar re-entered. The husband was informed that the body of his wife had been produced, and that she was here in court; the marriage, by the laws of Illinois, was perfectly legal and valid, but that he was not to ase any force in compelling her to go with him.

The husband now walked across he room to where the lady sto d, and intimated to her his desire that she should go home with him. But she resolutely refused; nor could all his persuations induce her to waver from her determination. She left the court with her parents, and the last we saw of the disconsolate spouse, he was following in the wake of his wife, pouring forth his entreaties, to Wisner's Patent Washing Machine. A NDREW ROUSH has the sole right to man-offacture and sell these Machines in the Counties of Berkeley and Jefferson, Virginia.— These machines are being used by many of the most respectable families, and they give entire satisfaction. Every house-keeper should have one, as it is the most complete labor-saving machine ever offered to the public. One girl can do the washing with one of these machines in an hour, that would require a day in the ordinary way, and the price is fixed at so reasonable a rate that none need do without one. Price at the Shop-$7.00. TERMS CASH-OR SHORT CREDIT CLUSED

Directions for using Wisner's Patent WASHING MACHINE. WASHING MACHINE.

Put the clothes to be washed, (say from 6 to 8 shirts,) together with the requisite quantity of warm water and soap, in the tub; then place the rubber on them and cause it to perform alternate semi-revolutions about the spindle. Time for working from 5 to 6 minutes. The weight of the rubber and the motion given to it causes the ribs again the rubber and the bottom of the tub to press, reb and agitate the clothes sufficiently to remove their impurities without injury to their taxture.—

This machine, for simplicity of construction, facility of operation and cheapiers, is superior to all washing machines in u.e., and only requires a test to render its merits apparent. Any one wishing it, may try the machine area, and return it if not satisfied with it.

Full orders addressed to Andrew Rouse, Martimburg, Berkeley County, Va., will be premptly attended to.

The Way to Sell Land.

W E advise all persons owning Virginia Lands, and desiring to sell the same, to Advertise -first in their own local papers, so that their neighbors may become acquainted with their desire; and next in some journal of wide circulation printed at a distance, so that the attention of strangers may be drawn to the property. The best paper in Pennsylvania to advertise Virginia Lands, is the VALLEY SPIRIT, published at Chambersburg, Pa., by P. S. Dechert & Co. Its circulation burg, Pa., by P. S. Dechert & Co. Its circulation is three times as large as the average circulation of County papers in Pennsylvania, and care has been exercised to have it extensively circulated among the agricultural community, they being generally the most substantial patrons. It is generally believed that an advertisement of Real Estate in this paper, will be read by more Farmers, and therefore by more persons disposed to purchase, hat kind of property than if inserted in any other ournal in this part of the country. The Valley Spirit's circulation lies mainly in the rich and populous counties of FRANKLIN and CUMBER-LAND, but yet it is not confined to those counties. States. The building is one of great architectural heauty, spacious and commodius, created and adversage expressly for a female Coilege, and admirably adapted to the near of such an institution. This institution has an able and efficient Board of Professors and Teachers, a good Library, excellent Musical Instruments, an extensive Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus, and it is confidently believed that it offers as many facilities for im parting a thorough, extensive and refined education as any Seminary in the land. The School is NOT SECTARIAN, on the contrary, the young ladios are strictly required to attend such Church as parents designate, accompanied always by a teacher. Scholars will be received at any time during the year, and will be charged proportionably from the date of their entrance to close of the scholastic year On the 1st of January next, after the Christmas holidays, will be a very appropriate time for scholars to enter the school, and the friends of Female Education are respectfully invited to call and examine the superior accommodations for comfort and study in this Seminary.

My Patent Premium Threshing Separating, Cleaning and Bagging Grain Machine, is for sale, which received the first premium at the Crystal Palace, New York, over all Threshing, Separating, Cleaning and Bagging Grain Machines on exhibition—thus proving conclusively that simplicity in construction, cheapness in price, and darability in my machine, is being fully appreciated, and the old and new costly inferior complicated separating Machines, must yield their places to a superior Labor Saving Machine. The celebrated Machine for Threshing, Separating, Cleaning twice, Screening and Bagging Grain by one simple operation. The greatest labor saving Machine in the world for separating sill pure and imparities. This Machine throws he straw to itself the chaff to itself, the wheat in the bag, the screenings chaff to itself, the wheat in the bag, the screenings to itself, and the smut and cheat to itself. Everything has a place, and everything is in its place to suit be conveniences of the farmet. For simplicity, durability, chenpness and capacity, it has no in the different papers concerning Mr. Zimmerman's L'achine receiving the first premium at the Crystal Palace, New York, is false, and not true. It is also stated that Mr. Zimmerman received a number of marminum at the annuable of marminum at the annuable of marminum at the annuable of marminum at the capacity. number of pramitions at—and other fairs. That I know nothing about—perhaps he did; but it is very easy to win the race, as the boy said when he ran by himself. 1.21 my honorable friends, this was not the case at the World's Fair, New York. Mr. Zimmerman had a number of other boys to run with, besides nimsels, which made the race more difficult for him-so much so, that he, Mr. Zimmerman, was neither first nor second-so you may judge where he was. These are facts that cannot be devied. The nndersigned would inform the public that his farmers' labor saving Machine for Threshing, Separating, Cleaning, Screening and Bagging all kinds of Grain, is for saie. THE subscribers would return their sincere thanks to the Formere and the public principly, for their liberal encouragement during the past season, and hope by swice attention to business to insure a continuance in the future. From the extraordinary demand for our justly celebrated Patent Premium Threshelt, Cleaner and Hagger, we have prepared for the com- ag season the largest assortment of Threshers and Powers in the State, including our improved Tomising Staft Gen Horse Power and Cleaner—the only Separator the furmer can with safety place in the hands of his rervants. It has but one small strop about the whole machine, and we warrant it to thresh more grain and break end waste less than any other separator now in use with the same number of hands and horres, we also make them with straps, equalled by no strap machine in the country. Also, the very best simple Thresher and Shaker with Tombling Shaft or Step.

Our Stock consists of the following sizes, and their prices at the Shop, viz:
Largest size for 8 and 10 Horses, 36 inch Cylinder, $200.00 Power for same, With Strop, and with Tombling Shaft and Gears on Thresher, extra, Second size 30 inch Thresher, for 6 and 8

Fower for same, With Strop and with Tombing Shaft, extra, Third size for 4 and 6 horses, Thresher, Fower, with Strop, With Tombling Shaft, extra,

We also make simple Threshers and Shakers For S and 10 horses, 500 00
For 6 and 8 horses, 75 00
And for 4 and 6 horses, 55 00
These Machines are all completed with wrench-These Machines are all completed with wrenches, &c., and ready for operation when sent away from the Shop, and we will further say to the farmer that we have calculated our Powers for this season so that the horses if desired will walk slower than to any other Machine now in use. We also make a very superior two horse WAGON to carry the Cleaner upon, which we will furnish to purchasers at a low price.

We are also making a very superior

Wheat Drill, with Corn post

Attachment, which we warrant not equalled by any other Seed-er now in use for the simplicity and durability of tis construction. This Machine should be in the possession of every farmer who uses Guand or any similar fertilizer, as it will save one half the Guano sown the common way, and better insure a crop-This has been so thoroughly tested by many of our most practical farmers that it only requires a trial of the most skeptical to convince them of the utiliity, and we respectfully invite all who want either of the above machines to give us a call and examine our stock.

All work sent out warrented to be made in the strongest and most durable manner.
