when the country is convulsed by intemperate sectional contentions, and violence and anarchy, vituperation and abuse, threaten the subversion of public order, for the first time the party is missed at the advanced posts it has been accustomed to occupy and ennoble. It is the proud distinction of the Whig party to have rendered invaluable services, as well to the country when out of power, as in, by the influence of its sound, moderate and conservative views in rebuking and restraining party bigotry .-It was the Whig party which composed the agitation and restored the fraternal relations of the Union in former instances of of civil feudy, exasperated to fierce intolorance. ministration of Manager Frances of April, 1854, and after the close of his glorious Administration, Mr. Filimore made a visit to the city of Savannah. He was met at the depot of the Central railroad by the citizens, almost en masse, and the entire military of the city, under the gallant communit of Col. A. R LAWTEN, Democratic Representative from Cheatham, in the last Georgia Legislature. A Democratic board of Aldermen were the first to greet him, and having landed from the cars, the Hox. John E. WARD, the Mayor of the city. and since PRESIDENT OF THE CINCINNATI

Convention, addressed him as fellows ; "Mn. Fillmore :- With unfeigned pleasure I perform the duty assigned me of welcoming you to the city of Savannah.— Whilst the events which mark your of ministration of the government are of too rebushed to rest, we must all remember that these high and splemu trusts were not assumed by you in the sunshine of our prosper-ity. It was at a dark and eventful period in the history of our Government "when and the pious to doubt the favor of God.'-Dark and fearful were the clouds that hung on our horizon, violent the factions that ag-itated our land, and men seemed to rock not how wildly raged the storm, so that in its fary it upturned the institutions of the Cauth

It is fit and proper, now, was you have laid saide place and power and patronage that the affections of a grateful people should follow you to your home, and linger around you in your retirement. As the constituted authorities of the city of Savannah, we welcome you within her limits—as the representatives of the people, we walcome you within her limits—as the representatives of the people, we walcome you to our hospitalities—as a portion of her citizens, we welcome you to our homes
