THURSDAY MORNING.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1858.

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE

FOR CONGRESS.

ALEXANDER R. BOTELER ESQ.,

FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

ALEX. R. BOTELER, ESQ.

The Virginia Free Press holds the name of this gentleman, as an independent candidate for Congress, from this District. Mr. Boteler has been beaten, so often by the Democrats, that we thought his friends would hardly dare to bring him forward again for that position.—Martinique Republican.

Will the Republicans inform us how often

Mr. Gallaher was a candidate for Congress, and defeated? If our memory serves us, he was a candidate in 1853, against Edward Lecan, but withdrew in consequence of A. C. Smith and Mr. Naylor, being candidates.

In 1855 he was a candidate in opposition to Wm. Lecan, and defeated. In 1856 he was a candidate for Congress, in Richmond, and defeated.

But, in 1851, taking advantage of the split in the Democratic party with Messrs. Breckinridge and Bryan, he defeated Mr. Hodges. And then, after finding him self in a largely Democratic District, he turned tail upon his former friends, and, from interested motives of delegates from the Harper's Ferry precinct, he was nominated, after a hard struggle, by the very party he had been warring against all his life, and that, too, after defeating their champion Hodges, who had stood to the party through every emergency.

But Mr. F will have strong opposition in the ranks of his new allies; and it is more than probable that he will be compelled to retire to the shades of Boydville to ruminate over the vanities of political life.

INCORRECT ASSERTION.

The Free Press in its last issue asserts as much confidence as if the editor had the poll book before him, that Mr. Fadher cast his vote for Geo. W. Schenck in 1851. We learn from very good authority that this is not true, and if the fact was of sufficient importance to be the subject of a positive avowment by the editor, he should at least have informed himself better before he made the statement, and drew his inference from it.—Spirit.

Our statement was made upon what we considered reliable Democratic authority—and we are not convinced by the above marvellous liberality of the Editor of the Spirit, that his authority is more worthy of belief.

And, although we made our statement with a degree of confidence, we assure our neighbor, that, notwithstanding the Poll Book for Mr. Fadher's District, as we learn, has been spirited away from the Clerk's Office, we have not had it before us. It may be that the "authority" of the Spirit can inform us what has become of the missing Poll Book?

Is the statement of the Spirit editor made upon the authority of the Poll Book? Who did Mr. F. vote for? Will the Editor of the Spirit consent to tell us, and base his assertion upon the Poll Book?

The Spirit says—We learn that this statement [that Mr. F. voted for G. W. Schenck] is not true. Now, we ask, how does the editor know that it is not true? Has he examined the Poll Books? We answer for him, No! emphatically. For he could not have seen that which was not to be seen, in the Clerk's office.

As we have been informed by the same Democratic authority that the Poll Book of that District is not in the Clerk's office in Berkley we ask of our contemporary of the Richmond Whig to examine in Berkley the Auditor's Office for the Poll, and inform us.

We can assure our readers that we have no disposition to misrepresent the Representative of this District. Our statement was based upon Democratic authority without our solicitation, but we consider it equal to that of our neighbor. And we will make the correction or amende when informed from a source better informed than our contemporary of the Spirit, who has not seen the Poll Book unless presented to him in Charlestown.

NATURALITY OF BALTIMORE.

Col. Alexander P. Smith, has been nominated by an independent party in mass meeting in Baltimore, as candidate for May or, in opposition to the Hon. Thomas Swann, the present incumbent, and nominee of the American party. Col. Shutt has been a justice of the peace, warden of the jail, and has served in various other public offices, and is now an obliging and gentlemanly conductor on the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, which position the people of Baltimore will allow him to fill on the 13th of October, by casting their suffrages for the Hon. Thomas Swann.

OAKSMITH & CO.

The above is the title of a publishing firm in New York, and by whom is published "Emerson's Magazine." We have received from this firm a copy of "Emerson's Magazine" an interesting and instructive monthly, and for which we read with a great deal of pleasure.

JOHN PURVIS—SHEPHERDSTOWN.

The expense of the Free Press heretofore deposited at J. H. McNaughton's store, Shepherdstown, will be found in future at the Post office in that town.

EDWARD LLOYD.—We are requested to state that the funeral sermon of Mr. Philip Ott will be preached in the Methodist Church, on Sabbath morning next, but at some future day—of which due notice will be given.

EDWARD LLOYD.—It is stated that Gov. Wise has accepted an invitation to deliver an address at the National Horse exhibition to be held at Philadelphia, from the 5th to the 8th of October next.

A LEAF BY THE WAY-SIDE.

Two gentlemen of our acquaintance—travelling quietly along the road on their way to a neighboring County—neither having a thought beyond the concerns of this life, and either suffering from the ills which flesh is heir to, consequent upon a careless and irreligious life—espied lying in the road what appeared to them to be a treasure—money perhaps. One of them with the activity of youth and health, ill suited to the complaints of rheumatism which so constantly fall from his lips—leaped from the vehicle, bent upon securing the prize—Opening the document, they read the following which we republish that they may read it again and again. And we ask if the reading of this "Dialogue" moved them to give a single thought to the things third-tang, was it not a treasure more precious than gold?

TO-MORROW.

A DIALOGUE WITH MYSELF.

Q. Do I expect to die to-morrow, impatient, without an interest in life, lost for ever?

A. Then when do I intend to repeat?

Q. Do I know that my soul is not safe in death, and my poor soul is in hell?

A. No, I do not.

Q. Do I expect that my soul will be required of me?

A. Of course, this is a solemn thought. God said to me, "Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee."

Q. Do I believe Christ's words, "Keep thy soul, for it is thine?"

A. Then I cannot repeat soon. Too much is involved in this.

Q. Do I expect to die to-morrow?

A. Of course, this is a solemn thought. God said to me, "Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee."

Q. Do I expect that my soul will be required of me?

A. S. Reader, my friend, affectingly sollicited me this little favor of you. It is that you would put this in your pocket, and, as in the presence of the great and living God, read it over a few nights just before you lay upon your pillow. Remember, "Except a man live to-morrow he cannot see the king of God." John 3: 3.

SEED WHEAT.

We have been kindly remembered by Joseph Holt, Esq., Commissioner of Patents, with a few sacks Wheat—one called the North Carolina Improved White Wheat, and the other the Tuscan Wheat. Of the North Carolina wheat, the commissioner says—

"The plan determined upon for the cultivation of this wheat is to sow it in drills, nine or ten inches apart, on good soil properly prepared, and at a considerable distance from other wheat fields. In reporting, the periods of sowing and harvesting must be stated; the effects of the weather, insects, or rust, if any, upon the crop; the quantity raised to a given space of ground, and the weight per bushel."

The Tuscan wheat is very productive, and has not been known to rust for nineteen years.

Col. J. O. Johnson, of Edenton, North Carolina, speaking of the North Carolina wheat says—

"This wheat I have been sowing for eight or ten years. It is very much improved by picking and selecting the largest wheat grains. A bushel of wheat was obtained by this process, and from that thirty-five bushels were gathered."

I sowed the field which furnished me with twenty-five bushels to the acre.

It ripens generally about the 25th of June. It weighs 58 pounds to the bushel."

To any of our farmers who will pledge themselves to sow this wheat, and then furnish us with the result, &c. we will hand over our sacks.

THE REV. DR. HAINES.

We regret to see the name of this gentleman announced in the last Free Press as an independent candidate for Congress. We regret it because, Mr. H. is a gentleman whom we admire and of whose good sense we had formed a high estimate, and we are sorry, at any time, to see so clever a gentleman if they would absent themselves entirely. There are those, however, who in violation of good manners, are disposed to disregard a note which prominently posted in the vestibule, in relation to the use of tobacco in the church. We hope for decency's sake that this will be done, if repeated. The Spirit says—

"We regret to state that some persons with more impudence than prudence have rendered themselves conspicuous by laughing and whistling during the services, to the annoyance of the congregation, the majority of which is composed of well-behaved and orderly people. These individuals would confer a favor upon the members of the church if they would absent themselves entirely. There are those, however, who in violation of good manners, are disposed to disregard a note which prominently posted in the vestibule, in relation to the use of tobacco in the church. We hope for decency's sake that this will be done, after be observed."

A CONSISTENT INTRODUCTION.

The Philadelphia Press—Forney's paper—still keeps up a heavy firing against the Administration. It has been scored off from its purpose, as yet, by the denunciations and threats of the President's organs. It still exhibits pluck, as the following paragraph will show:

"It is a consistent deduction from the abandonment of the accepted doctrine of Democracy, and the wanton breaking of all solemn covenants as ever were entered into between the people and their servants, that the Administration of the Federal Government should be henceforth regarded as the Democratic party. This is the new ritual, as explained and insisted upon by the Washington Union, and the slaves that walk in its shadow. The President and his Cabinet, the Administration and its policy—these are our new iniquities. To obey and worship them is to die. A comfortable faith and an easy one, now, do we not intend to insinuate that the Administration can make any mistakes? Heaven forfend! We are free to accept its utterances as inspired wisdom, wisdom applies to gold, set in pictures of silver. We are ready to believe that all the eight people in Washington, President and Cabinet, are immaculate gods; that they are better than eiders, higher than conventions, and more potent than pledges. But our difficulty is here. How is the Democratic party to get on in the event of there being no mortality? It is emphatically a house divided against itself. Prominent politicians and journals are completely at loggerheads. Seeing this unsatisfactory condition of things, the Alexandria (Virginia) Sentinel has become troubled and say—

"The new system of procedure towards members of their own party adopted by a number of the Democratic journals of our State, and particularly by some of the Richmond editors, is by no means commanding itself to the approbation of the people, or vindicating its wisdom by its results. The fact is, we view these demonstrations both with pain and alarm; and unless the calm, impartial, and disinterested mass of the party come to the rescue, there is great danger, that is almost a certainty, that the invincible, indivisible phalanx of the Virginia Democracy will speedily be replaced by discordant and belligerent factions."

"Already we see men high in position among the Democrats of the State, criticised and assailed with pens as unparaging as have hitherto been used only by our roughest writers against our most daring foes. This is indeed a most remarkable illustration of the principle of fraternalism, and deserves our most unhappy consequences. What is to become of an army that delights to shoot down its own tried and true old officers?"

If discord, such as here referred to, existed alone in Virginia Democracy, the power of cohesive attraction, well understood by democrats of the old Dominion, would soon effect its cure, but a similar want of harmony is apparent throughout our Union.—It is a spoils contest, without principle—a ship laboring at sea with mutiny on board.

Who can otherwise expect that such marauders, seeking plunder, will "delight to shoot down their officers?"—Balt. Pat.

RELIGIOUS MEETINGS.

The Rev. Dr. Haines, of the Baptist denomination, immured two persons, on Sabbath morning last, at the "Flowing Spring Mill." He afterwards delivered an earnest and eloquent sermon in the Presbyterian Church of this town.

The Right Rev. Bishop Meade, preached in the P. E. Church of this place, on yesterday, and will, to day, administer the rite of Confirmation.

Interesting exercises are still in progress in the Methodist Church, and a number of persons have made a profession of religion, whilst many others are living on

"Hope—a team of oxen."

The Rev. Norval Wilson and Geo. V. Leech are laboring in their labors.

Charleston is truly blessed with the "means of grace"—few towns have superior religious privilege and advantages,—yet, how few, comparatively, have a "hope of glory."

FOR THE PENITENTIARY.

An individual by the name of Wm. Earl, was placed in the Jefferson Jail on Sunday last, where he is awaiting his passport to one of the Public Buildings in Richmond, for violating three hundred dollars and a gold watch from Mr. Wm. Williams, of Harper's Ferry, on the night of the 11th inst.

When taken, he stated that he had returned to compromise matters—being, however, minus the watch and two hundred and ninety seven dollars.

He was making his way upon the bars, but being rather thirsty, he tarried too long at the bar. He will be brought to the bar of Justice soon, when nearly all the property Mr. Francis accumulated most of his estate by lending money on security, negotiating paper, &c., and always taking care of "number one."

THE HEIRESS OF A RICH MAN.

E. Francis, of Boston, who died a few days ago, leaving an estate valued at $4,000,000, was the father of Mrs. Mason, wife of Robt. M. Mason, a merchant, and Mrs. Bowditch, wife of N. J. Bowditch, a lawyer, both of Boston. The two ladies will fall heir to the great estate.

It is a unit, upon all questions, in all portions of the country! What a hypocritical, sordid, detestable thing is modern Democracy!

"We are a little curious to know what party Mr. B. will act with when his independent friends send him to Congress. Not with the Republicans, we presume. Not with the Douglastonites, we reckon, and as these are the only parties represented in the National Councils, we are a little curious to know what side of the house Mr. Boteler may be reckoned on. Will the Free Press inform us?"

We will gratify our neighbor, by saying that Mr. Boteler will represent the people, not a miserable grovelling corrupt party, who have been a curse to the interests of the country. He will not be like the present incumbent, turn upon his friends who placed him in power.

COUNTY COURT.

The County Court adjourned on Friday last. The contested election case occupied the Court from Tuesday till the adjournment, without getting through.

Mr. Campbell had six majority but twenty-three having been thrown from his poll at former Courts left him in the minority. The late Court have stricken off twelve from Mr. Aspinwall's poll, leaving but sixteen.

It is very desirable that the master be decided so as to relieve the parties interested, as well as the county of a heavy tax.

BURGLARS ABOUT.

We understand that the house of Mr. Harvey Lloyd was entered a few nights ago, by some person unknown—who escaped by the window, before an arrest could be made. It would be well for property holders to be on the look out for offenders.

HAILSTORM.

The County Court adjourned on Friday last. The contested election case occupied the Court from Tuesday till the adjournment, without getting through.

Mr. C. Bowes has opened a house of public entertainment at Berryville, where he is prepared to cater for the public. Mr. B. is an obliging gentleman, and is ever ready to serve the travelling public. Berryville is again without a hotel. Call on Bowes.

VIRGINIA FREE PRESS AND FARMERS' REPOSITORY.

COMMUNICATED
PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY HORN, VA.
September 21, 1858.

Mr. Editor:
A most horrifying scene occurred yesterday in the Court of this County. It appears that some time in August negro Jim—a slave—attempted to commit violence upon the person of a Mrs. Gregory. He was duly apprehended and committed to the jail of the county, where his Counsel fought him. It was just before August Court—which occurred on Monday. I was present when the case came on to be heard. The Court was moved by Jim's Counsel to postpone the trial, which seemed to meet the apprehension of all present, especially when they heard reasons for the postponement which were "that the key of the Jail would not unlock the room in which Jim was confined, and that he had not an interview with him." The case was very justly postponed, which was last Monday, and was again argued on both sides. The trial was, for some cause or other, postponed until October Court. Upon this announcement Mr. Samuel F. Gregory, (the husband of the aforesaid lady,) in the presence of the Court, cut the throat of his slave. The boy is still living, and it is supposed he will recover. The Negro Gregory was seized immediately—put in jail—was soon bailed out. The amount of bail was considered very low—$500 for himself, and $600 for his security.

Died.

Departed this life on the 13th of August last, at his residence in Greene County, Ohio, where he has resided since the year 1833, SAMUEL BOWEN, aged 90 years. The deceased was well and most comfortably situated, and died in the full possession of his faculties, having removed to Charles town from Chester county, Pa., early as 1796—Having been a man of great industry and labor, his savings were large, and he left a sum of $10,000 in his will, leaving the rest of his estate to his wife, who is now 89 years of age. As a husband, he was affectionate and kind; as a citizen and neighbor efficient, useful and zealous; as a man of business, of high responsibility, and always with a smile on his countenance, a source of infinite satisfaction to those whom he delighted to serve. How few of his early associates are now left, to review the recollections of "one by another he loved, and departed!" The end of his man is peace.

In Hedgesville, Berkeley county, on the 10th inst., after a protracted illness, LUCINDA NADENBOUSCH, aged 39 years.

At Springfield Parsonage, Carroll county, Md., on the 15th inst., HENRY, younger child of Rev. T. W. and Mary O. Simpson, aged 12 months and 29 days.

On Sunday last, after a short illness Mr. ALFRED TAYLOR, of Harper's Ferry, aged about 50 years.

On the 18th instant, Mr. LLOYD LANHAM, of this county, aged about 75 years.
