Aide de Camp to the Gov. of Va.,
and Commander in Chiel. THE EXCITEMENT,

The last week has been one of great ex eltement. The various rumors, whether well founded or not, have exhibited the premptness with which Virginia can respond to the discharge of any duty which may develve upon her. We now have in our midst a corps of Southern chivalry that will compare with any other on the face of the carth. We have now in our town the 175th Regiment Ya. Militia from Alexandria, Col. C. B. Stewart commanding-Dr. C. W. Chan-celler, Surgeon. This Regiment is composed of the Alexandria Riflemen, Capt. M. Marye, and Lieutenants A. J. Humphreys, H. S. Wallace and Quarter Master P. B

BENNOTT & CO.

In order that our readers may be advised of passing events we insert letters from these worthies. Whilst Sennott professor over his signature, to defend the citizens of Jefferson county from the aspersions of letter writers, he is defaming them with his anonymous letters through the New York Tribune. These letters profess to be written in this town, but this is a move ruse on his part. We can only say that Mr. Sennott must keep out of this town. The people will not submit to having in their midst incendia y ras-

GOV. WISE AND STAFF

Gov. Wien and bis Staff arrived in this town on Sunday evening last, and were made the guests of our worthy townsman, W. J. Hawks, E.q., whoselhospitality is unbounded, and who is ever in the front rank in making his mansion attractive by the generous welcome always extended to visitors .-Gov. Wise's Staff consisted of Gen. W. C. Seott, Col. S. T. Baily, Col. N. A. Thompson, Col. Chastain White, Col. Wm. II Brown, Major J. Bryan, Surgeon J. S. D. Cullen, and assistant Sugeons E. Mason and O. W. P. Brook.

ed the regiment, and on Tuesday morning left Charlostown with bis Staff.

As an evidence of the abandoned character of the men who were engaged in Brown's lawless enterprise, (says the Winchester Republican) a mulatto woman belonging to Col. Lowis W. Washington was saken prisoner, and whilst the party were about starting in his carriage for Harper's Feery, Stevens, one of Brown's righthand officers, lingered behind and offered violence to her person. It is truly gratifying to believe that very few women at the North would seek to magnify into religious martyrs men who under the pretext of freeing the slaves of the South, would give loose to the most beloous crimes known to the dees-

OPPOSITION MEETING.

Although a large number of our "Oppo eltion" friends were in town to attend the meeting called for Monday, yet no formal meeting was held in consequence of the great excitement in our midst. A meeting will be held to-morrow, Bri-

NOT NECESSARY.

It was the intention of the people of this sounty to meet on Monday last to give expression in reference to the policy to be puraned towards John E. Cook, who is to be hung on the 16th of December next, but us Governor Wise was bere, such a course was deemed unnecessary, as he will not iterere with the centence of the Court.

COUNTY COUNT.

Is consequence of the excitement in town caused by the large number of troops, occupying as they do every room in the Courtouse, the Court was in session but a short flice. The first business done was to dis-barge the Jury, and after issuing initians of desinistration, adjourned.

TELEGRAM OFFICE,

By request of our State authorities a Telogram Office Las been re-opend in Charlesown. Mr. Westbrook, Saperintendent o the telegraph line of the Baltimore and Ohie Railroad, has placed one of his operatives at this point. He has employed in the service of the Railroad a corps of some 35 operatives There are 30 stations, on the road, giving a facility in the regular transaction of the business of the road which ensures promptness n every particular.

The Master of Transportation, J. Pansporr Smirn, Esq , is unremitting in the prompt discharge of his duties. Verginie owes much to the energy and management of the officers of this company in affording facilities for transportation of our troops.

This gentleman, after an absence of four ears, has returned to our town. He has been Kaneas, and has participated in the truggles in that country. He is well known o our community, and comes back to share n any of the trials which may ocdur.

He assures us that the Brown party are reparing for Brown's rescue, and that noth ing but our readiness to meet them will prevent them making the attempt. Being detained in Bell Air, Ohio, by sickness, he had an apportunity to gather information at to their movements.

JOHN E. COOK-JOHN BROWN

To the Editors of the Richmond Enquirer RICHMOND November 16th, 1859 .- I ob erve in a communication from Charlestown the following sentence, in regard to John E. Cook, one of the Harpers Ferry Invasionists, now under sentence of death : The feeling here now in favor of Cook is ory great and a commutation of punishment to imprisonment, would give great satisfaction of the community."

Having returned from Jefferson county since the conviction and sentence of Cook, I am as competent to speak of the popular sentiment in regard to him as the writer of the communication referred to. So far from any such sympathy in his favor existing there, among a majority of the thinking portion of the community, less sympathy is felt for him than for any of the murderers, Brown not excepted. The just indignation of the community is more fully aroused sgainst him than any of them, for the reason that he alone had been a sojourner in their m dat, had been entertained in private families, had married in the neighborhood, had made enquiries at the Clerk's office in regard to the freenegro population in Jefferson, bad boarded four weeks in Shepherdstown; in fine, had not the recognition of the state of the same than the same of the same than the same of t acted more thoroughly the incendiary than Brown or any other of his party. It would be most unnatural that such a man should receive any sympathy from a coma unity whose hospitalities he has so basely violated, whose hospitalities he has so basely violated, and whose feelings he has ourraged beyond all endurence, by his perfidy. The people there do respect and pity Governor Willard and his family, in their disgrace and affliction; but they do not believe that the sentence of a murderer should be communed on account of the respectability of his connections, nor do they feel called upon either to reward our Northern friends or propitiste our Northern enemies, at such a cost The above communication gives the true version of the feeling of this entire community in regard to Cook. We venture the cals. An eye will be kept to them. COOLNESS OF OLD BROWN.

The opolness exhibited by "Old Brown' much lauded by his sympathisers, and pointed to as a proof of virtue; as if the most remorsoless of murderers had not a thousand times before shown as much. One of the best citizens of St. Louis was "coolly"; shot down by one of her worst, in June last On Friday last the murderer was hung

See what 'cool courage" he manifested. "On emerging from the jail, Thornton re-cognized two or three old acquaintances in the crowd, who stood eagerly watching his approach. On seeing them, a pleasant smile appeared upon his countenance, and giving a gentle tow of his head, he peased on to the steps of the scall ld, which he assended more rapidly and vigorously than did any person accompanying him. On reaching the two elergymen, and looked sround as if desirous of seeing some one he knew. 'He was asked by the marshal if he had any thing to say, and he replied in the negative by shaking his head. He then declared himself ready, and stood upon a box placed upon the trap-door. The slightest quiver ng of a perve could not be detected in him even now when he saw the death warrant which Mr. Cunningham held in his hand and was about to read to him. This being done, Deputy Marshal Eves proceeded to cover his face with a long white cap, while Mr. Cuhningham pinioned his arms behind his back, with a small cord. The repe being adjusted, all she paragas on the staffold who bad accompanied the prisoner, stood back, which all was declared ready, and at 14 min. utes past three o'clock the murderer or Jo seph Charless hung suspended between bear

CLARKE COUNTY.

The Clarke county Conservator of yesterday in speaking of the excitement in that county on Friday last in consequence of various rumors says:

About 1 o check hast Friday night, the Alexandria Artitlery, aumbering some 40 men, with two pieces of canson, under command of Maj. Dutiey, strived in this piece vis Manassas Gap R. R. and Winchester, They were sent here in consequence of a rumor which had gone to Charlestown had thence telegraphed to Gov. Wise, that some 150 men had encamped in Berry's Ferry, in this County. Immediately upon their arrival, part of them, accompanied by a number obour citizens, set out for the "encampmen," has well as for the purpose of a general swatch throughout the County. In the morning he balance of them, accompanied by a number of the Clarke Guards, attarted out to join those who had gone before. They all returned about dart, without finding anything suspicious, or arresting any one. They They all returned about dark, without finding anything suspicious, or arresting any one. They searched several houses—among them the anocupied tenement of the notorious John C. They finally wrested the weapon from her grasp, but not without first giving her a bayonet wound on the arm.

The Conservator also again.

From various quarters, as we have hereto-fore remarked, the suggestion has been made that it would be bad policy for Virginia and the South to take the lives of the Harper's the South to take the lives of the Harper's Ferry insurgents; and, somehow, the impression is gaining ground, that they will yet escape so dreadful an explation. One half of the Northern-people, we believe, are of this opinion. Many of their most kenst ble and conservative journals have entered the field in favor of mercy, alike from considerations of humanity and true policy enthe part of the South. The New York Journal of Commerce and Philadelphia Journal of Commerce and Philadelphia Ledger, are of opinion that it would be a wiser course to hold "Old Brown" in limbe for the remainder of his days, than, by ending them at once on the gallows, give the Abelitionlats a chance to make a god of him, and hold their satanic powwows to plot mischief against their Southern fellow ditinens and against the peace and harmony the Union sa his name! It would be a just one, and we should be faithless to our families and our firesides, did we fail to execute it upon them, when the legal right and the opwill never be stopped until we teach men to believe that they risk their necks by the

On the score of policy, we scorn all such appeals. Let the blood of Brown and his comrades be the "seed" of the Abolition Church—let their execution be "grist" ta-ken by the South to the 'Abolition mill, and let the infernal machinery grind on the South is able to protect berself, and, what is more, she isstands to do is. We are under no obligations to referm the fanatics of the North. Let the North do her own work - we shall do our duty to ourselves. THE SHOOTING OF THE EDITOR OF

The Nashville (Tennessee) Banner, of Saturday last, contains the following additional particulars conserning the late fatal collision between Messrs Allen A. Hall, e itor of the Nashville News, an Opposition paper, and Goorge G. Poindexter, editor of the Union and American, a Democratic should be done to us or any strangers but fournal. The difficulty had its origin in the over their own dead bodies.

GEO. SENNOTT, first place in an acrimonious newspaper con-

Early Friday morning Mr. Poindexter counting room of the News, and asked for Mr. Hell. He was informed that that gentlemen had not yet come down. The call was repeated, and Mr. Hall had not yet arthe fact that Mr. P. was seeking b moments after he was farther apprised that him twice to stop in a loud voice. Mr. P. rather quickened his pace, and at the second oominand made a movement as if to draw a weapon. Thereupon Mr. Hall leveled a double tarrel shot gun, charged beavily with buck-shot and fired. Mr. P. fell upon the pavement about fifty feet from Mr Hall; and died in a few moments without artico His body received five buck-shot, either one of which, in the opinion of a physician who examined the wounds, would have proved fatal. In addition, his left arm, in which he supported an umbrella, was hadly broken The ambrella shaft was also broken.

Mr. Tilton, gives an account the Northern papers, of a conversation he recently held with Mrs. Brown, the wife of Brown the insurrectionist. He says that she told him that Brown had meditated on bis plan, not for two years, but for twenty

She adds:—
"He had been waiting twenty years for some opportunity to free the slaves; we had all been waiting with him, the proper time when he should put his resolve into action, and when at last the enterprise of Harper's Ferry was planned, we all thought that the time had now come; Mr. Brown was sanguine of success; we all were equal ly confident; he had no idea, nor did any of the family, that the experiment would result in defeat; we all looked to it as fulfilling the hopes of many years."

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

We regrot (says the Shepherdstown Register,) to learn of the accidental abooting of Mr. Joseph M. Stonebraker, a Merchant at Unionville, in this county, which happened at his father's residence in Washington County, Md., on Tuesday last. It appears that he in company with Mr. Jacob Melvin, of this County, went to the Nursery of Mr. John Reichard, in Washington County, Md. for fruit trees, and on their roturn stopped at his father's to get some trees, and while digging up a tree his pical (one of Cally digging up a tree, his piated (one of Colt's patent,) fell from his pocket, the hammer atriking upon a rock, discharged the load, the ball entering his neek near the print of the left jaw, passed under the muscles cov-oring the carotel artery and lodged in the back part of the skull. The ball which was perfectly flattened from the force with which it was driven against the skull, was extracted by Dr. Smith of Boomsboro', Md. He is doing very well, and strong hopes are enter-

CLHMENCY TO THE HARPER'S FERRY FROM THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS OF NOV. 16

Statements baving appeared in several, journals to the effect that great indignation was felt at Charlestown (Va.) against all strangers, and that even the lives of the counsel of the prisoners were endangered, Mr. Sennott called at our office yesterday to say, in justice to the people of Charles-town, that he had been treated with much kindness, and to request our publication of the following card, which we insert with pleasure :

Some one, apparently moved by spite is circulating a report that they advised Capt. John Brown's counsel to leave the place. Now, if I had no gratitude for real during the late exciting trials, co conesty would impel me to contradict that report, because I know it is not true. facts are these: The people of Jafferson are very much excited, and for the best of ressons. Three large fires, the last one conrown, they think, would be "but bringing suming over twelve hundred bushels of wheat, had occurred up to last Saturday morning. Under these circumstances meeting was held and a very carefully-worded proclamation drawn up and published by Mr. Green, the Mayor, warning atrangers giving no satisfactory account of themselves to leave the place. As I had important and well-understood business in the place, and could have given a satisfactory account, even if I had been on a visit of mere curiosity, I felt sure it did not concern me, particularly as no steps had been strangers, however, who could have accountapplied to them, and very unadvisedly, as I think, addressed a Col Davis, himself a stranger in the place I believe, asking him what he thought of it. I happened to be it the room when he entered. I listened to quility of mind, and was preparing to leave the gentlemen to themselves, with the remark that it did not concern me at all know that he could answer for my personal civilly, however, that my personal safety was my personal business, not his, and that I should not leave until I was quite ready. The conversation dropped there, and I re-mained, and I could have remained until now, if I desired it. It should be borne in mind that Col. Davis did not volunteer his opinion, or intimate any thing until he was asked to do so, and then it was merely his opinion, privately expressed. How it got into the papers I do no. know, but I am con-

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14, 1859. Congress are beginning to arrive, and others, intending to winter in Washington, are bere, in order to make sure of the bes quariers in advance of later comers. All are politicians, of course, and the great po-litical them everywhere is the organisation of the next House of Representatives. The proposition is very fast finding favor, in conservative quarters, that a compromise be made between Democrate and other national men, by an union upon an old line Whig fer Speaker, the Hon. Mr. Roteler, of Virfer Speaker, the Hon. Mr. Boteler, et virginia. He is represented as a man eminently qualified for the post. His character affords a sufficient guaranty that he would be at all times impartial and just. If the Demodratis members from the South shall ancede to this arrangement, the Domocrate

COL. J. LUCIUS DAVIS.

This gentleman, Aid to the Governor, and the officer in command of the military sta-tioned in Charlestown, has by his efficient, prompt and energetic course, as an officer won the esteem and confidence of our whole won the esteem and confidence of our whole community, and the Governer could not have made a better selection, in our opinion, from the whole rank of the military. Some outside prints have supposed that Col. D. has perhaps been sometimes unnecessarily prompt and efficient in the call for aid, but they were not aware of the information upon which these calls have been based, and the reliability of the source from whence it eminated. Neither do they understand how necessary it is that under the circumstances Col. D. should keep his own counsels even if a wrong construction may, for the time being, be placed upon his promptness of action. We can assure those of our contemporaries who seem to think that not only this communication. who seem to think that not only this commu nity, but Col. D. has been unnecessarily alarmed, that information from most reliable ources going to establish the fact of an other foray into our midst is in the possession of Col. D. and that at no time has he acted in a hasty or inconsiderate manner. If he had done less than he has, or acted less promptly, he would be obnoxious to a charge of inefficiency, but as it is, he has done nothing but what has been warranted by circumtances. He is every inch a soldier, a man of extraordinary energy, a gentleman of high social and genial qualities, and the man for any emergency in which he may be placed. He has the confidence of the military and our citizens, and did necessity require, he would teach our enemies a lesson not to be forgotten .- Ind.

[We concur with our neighbor of the Inpendent in what he says of Col. Davis .-Col D. is efficient in every particular-and his experience in military affairs entitles him to high consideration.]

Sm: The proceedings of the authorities of Charlestown, in the case of my Artist, Mr. Jewett, have caused me much regret, for I'know their suspicions to be entirely unfounded.

Mr. Jewett was sent by me to make sketches only, and solely for my establishment, and at my expense, and he never contributed one line to the "N. Y. Tribune," or any other paper.

As the proprietor of "Frank Leslie's Paper," my course has been perfectly unprejudiced without abuse to the North or to the South. My interests are everywhere, all over the country, and I have are everywhere, all over the country, and I have ever persevered in that middle course which the

A company, numbering some sixty men under the above name, has been organized at Middleway, in this county. An election of officers was held on Monday, the 14th inst., and resulted as follows: Captain, John F. Smith;

t Lieutenant, WM. SAMUEL GRANTHAM do. NATHAN BARNS; Orderly Seargent, John F. Shaull. 2d do. J. L. Minomini; SAMUEL LEWIS; JOHN G. SHIBLEY; G. W. GRANTHAM.

This company has been organized for the present emergency, but there is a strong probability that it will be resolved into permanent Votunteer Company. We are personally acquainted with the officers, they are men of the right material, and we have no doubt that the "Auxilary Guard" will become a most efficient military organization. Charlestown, Jefferson County, Va. November 18, 1859.

At a regular meeting of the Common Cour cit of Havper's Ferry, neid November 10, 1859, in their council chamber, motion was made that the chair appoint a committee of three, consisting of Joseph E. Cingett, William Copeland and F. A. Roeder, to draft a premuble and resultions expressive of the sense of this Council upon the death of Foundain Bergham, our late associate and Mayor, when the following were reported by the committee, and after unanimous adoption, were ordered to be published in our county papers:

Whereas, It has pleased the Allwise God in his inscrutable purpose and Providence, to remove from our midst by death the respected Mayor of this town, the late FOUNTAIN BECKHAM!

Resolved, That we bow ourselves is profound reverence and humility belore lim who'r eigns over the children of men," while we deplore the loss of our esteemed and valued treath.

Resolved, That we bear our cheerful and willing testimony to the high toned worth of his cliticaship and the modeat but manifest sincerity of his friendship. Many acts of kindoess lie graven in the hearts of those who most unfelignedly—ishent his sad and sudden death.

Resolved, That whilst we would not intrude upon the sacredness of their sorrow who mourn the loss of a inter, prother and friend, yet we would desire hereby to express our heartfelt and fervent sympathy for the burcaved relatives, whether readjent in, our midst, in far off lands, or on the bosom of the ocean. We mingle our tears with the family at heme and abroad.

Resolved, That whilst we would discountenance undue vlosmes, in word or act, against those who do not hesitate to declare and procisim that he died by the treasonable and blood stanned hands of a lawiese, unfecting and cowardly hand of unprinci-plet and perverted miredevers. Shocked humanity cries aloud with horred and indignations at the out-rage. But Scripture says, "Yengeance is finine, and I will repay, saith the Lord." We have them to law, order and justice to measure to them their earthly doom, assured that though clouds are around Jehovah, yes Justice and Judgmeht are the habitation of his throne.

Resolved, That a capy of the resolutions be trans-mitted to the surviving members of the family, and that the members of the Council wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty, days.

THE EXPULSION OF MR. HOYT FROM

CHARLESTOWN. [To the Editor of The N. Y. Tribune.] In the Editor of The N. Y. Triune.)
Sin: In order that the conduct of the people and authorities of the Town of Charlestawn, Va., in recently expelling Mr. Jewett, of Frank Leslie's paper, and myself from that locality, may be perfectly exposed and understood. I deem it proper to make a brief statement of the facts in the case.

My return from Boston to that town was heralded by the press, and the object of my visit announced, days before I reached there.

My business was known to be legitimate— If went back to do what was possible to rescue and recover the scattered effects of Capt. Brown, in order that the avails of the same might be secured to his destitute and heart-stricken family. My business also related to the copies of the record in the other cases, intending to obtain and transmit them sea-sonably to counsel who were to argue the exceptions in the Court of Appeals. Be-cause I was regularly associated in the trial, and known to be actively engaged in the defense of Brown and Coppie; no man had the right to accuse me, upon bare suspicion, without a particle of evidence to confirm it, without a particle of evidence to confirm it, of being an agent of "Boston Abolitionists."

I could not fail to observe, immediately upon my return, that, where I had formerly been treated with studious civility, I had now to meet the inhospitable frown; and where beto meet the inhospitable frown; and where before I at least was permitted to pass without insult, I must expect offensive and opprobious epithets, and denunciations not the least vulgar. I cannot say I did not expect this, for, when first a sojourner in the town,

I had concluded it was no genuine, but a forced civility, which allowed the counsel of John Brown to perform their sad duties unmoleated. I saw a deep under-current of feeling smothered for the time, by a desire to be rated fair, all ready, at the slightest breath, to burst into consuming madness. breath, to burst into consum But so long as their victim lay in his priso cell, waiting his fast-approaching doon, and the decision of the higher Court, I felt cer-tain the "chivalry of the Old Dominion" would attempt no bodily violence to his coun-

I had expected the copies of the record would be ready for me to bear to Washington Saturday morning, but I failed to obtain them, and had concluded to wait a later them, and had concluded to wait a later train, when the singular "proclamation" of Mayor Green (who, as remembered; was Mr. Brown's counsel in the first instance (fell into my hands. My surprise was great when a gentleman intimated that my case was referred to in that document, and that my friend, Mr. Jewett, was also included. I sought Mr. Jewett, and found him por dering over the extraordinary production,-I informed him what I had heard; and after a debate as to whether two individuals whose business was so well known, and character were privileged, had any right to take this as a "notice to quit." Mr. J. sought Col. Davis, Chairman of the body constituted and authorized by this curious paper to act in the premises, and demanded to know if it had any reference to us. Col. Davis accompanied him to my presence, and in answer to a direct interrogatory, plainly said it did. He further informed us that, although aid-de-camp to Gov. Wise, and under instructions to preserve the peace, he had no force at his command upon which he could protect us from the mob, which would cerprotect us from the mob, which would certainly assemble the next day (Sunday). He was willing to lay down his own life in our defense, but it could be of no avail, and he conjured us, for our own sakes, and for the sake of the honor of Virginia, and in consideration of the trifling personal inconvenience such a sacrifice would be to him and those dependent upon him, to leave that afternoon.

Although I had seen considerable excite ment in the place during the first days of the trial and afterwards. I confess I never had seen anything like the wild foment in which the town was this afternoon thrown. Some spiteful enemy had set fire to a Mr. Tato's stables, and the ever-zealous fire-cating advent in the place, had striven to make ou and who had never ceased their causeless and ridiculous denunciations, engerly took hold on the occasion to spread the report that they were "Abolition emissaries" acting under my directions, who had set the torch to the wheat stacks and barns. What I feared most was an attack on the jail, in which the "military" would partici-pate. I have some good reasons for believ-ing that there was a band of organized desperadoes who, at one time, determined to was seasonably discovered, and prevented by an officer in command. Now, if a mob composed of a drunken and infuriate people should assemble to drive obnoxious people out of the town with the genteel incid "tar and feathers," and not over-fresh eggs, such a mob woud be more than likely to make an attempt on that little prison-house, and, by way of parenthesis, let me say, I think he gallows a pleasauter instrument of torture and death than the torments of a Virgini

Deeming it no valor but sheer foolhardiness to brave the populace, Mr. Jewett and I packed our bags and quitted the municipali-ty of Charlestown, the County of Jefferson, and the gallant old Commonwealth of Virginia. At this lime I do not know whether my associate, Mr. Sennott, survived the Sabhath which ensued upon our departure or not.— Being an avowed political friend of th Being an avowed political friend of the Being an avowed political friend of the Bouth, he was not so unpopular as the undersigned, who never knew how to "cotton." It is to be hoped that those who remain or go to serve John Brown in a legal capacity, may not meet the same sort of "hospitality" corteous" treatment which the "ch bestowed upon Yours truly, GEO. H. HOYT. National House, Washington, Nov. 16, 1859.

MILITARY COMPANIES. The late diabolical attempt of Brown and his confederates, at Harper's Ferry, has been productive of thus much advantage to the South, that it has shown the great utility of g the system of volunteer companies, and com-municated to that favorite institution an un-misuakable impetus. Besides these heretofore existing, quite a number, of new compa-nies throughout the State have been recently organized and equipped.

The Berkeley Border Guards of this place have about 120 members enrolled, and that number being far beyond what the law fixes, it is presumed another company will be formed here from the necessity of the case. At Mill Creek; in this county, a rifle company has been formed, of which Mr. Gilkerson is captain, and Mesars. Lemon and Hughes licutenants. Another company is being organized in Darkesville. We are sure there is abundant maturial for other companies in the county, especially at Hedgesville, Back Creek and Falling Waters; and Martinsburg and vicinity ought to be able to furnish a good company of cavalry.

The Mount Vernon Riffes is the name of a new company just organised and equipped in Winehester. At Berryville, Clarke county, a company has been gotten up. It numbers 64 members, ranging in age from 16 to 70 years. We also notice that new companies are forming in Hampshire, Morgan and Loudoun, and other counties of the State.

The officers of the Darkesville, Company was Winehead Cartesville.

This Machine is got up on an entirely new plan, and is considered by those who have seen it in use, to be the best that has ever been brought to the notice of the American public; in fact, the world may be challenged to produce its equal. Among the many advantages of this Machine over all others, may be mentioned the following: 1st, Its simplicity of construction, which makes it almost impossible to get out of order. 2nd, The case with which it is operated—a child len years old can keep it in motion. 3rd, Its speed which is unequaled, and astonishes alike the operator and the looker on. 4th It washes equally well the finest and lightest fabric, of the conserve and heaviest, anch as Quilis and Comforts. 5th, Unlike all other machines for the purpose, it washes without wearing in the least, or removing buttons; on the contrary, it is confidently believed that the clethes washed in this machine will last longer than if washed by hand

Sewing Machines.

TO those in want of a good Sewing Machine I we invite their inspection to spectmens of various patterns of the Finkle Machine now to be seen at our Store. As persons will doubtless examine before they buy, we deem it only necessary to say that this Machine makes a stitch alise on both sides and that it will sew from fine gauze (without drawing it) to twilled onnaburg and thick leather without altering the tension or even stopping it, we know of no other that will do the same. We guarantee it to do as beautiful work as any Machine made, is simple in construction and easily managed, has a wheel feed working much smoother than the jumping feed, it took the premium over all other MACHINE, including the celebrated Wheeler & Wilson's a the great exhibition of Sewing Machines at the Franklin Institute' in Philadelphia October 1558. We furnish them at the same price they are sold at in New York and those buying from us will save freight and risk from New York.

Genuine Copper Rod with silver points pericetly insulated with glass—
It is agreed by Philosophers that Copper has from eight to ten times the conducting power of fron, and does not rust or corrode. Iron rods, when conted with rust, cease to be a conductor. The relative conducting powers of different mettals is best shown by reference to the following table prepared with great care and fully endorsed by Protessors Maupin and Smith of the University of Viginia; J. Wrigt and J. W. Marvin, of Win chester, and Bushrod Taylor of Berryville, M. D.
Prof. of Chemistry in Winchester Medical College:

lege:

"If we take wires of the following metals, of equal thickness and length, and pass through them the same amounts of electricity, and tepretent the conducting power of silver, which is the bear metallic conductor known, by 100, we shall have the tollowing results:

Silver. - 100

Copper - 915,
Gold - 649,
Cadmium - 245,

Phatinum 79.

Thus we have the most reliable and highest au hority of the infredsic value and merit of the copper Rod and in our day every man no matter how inflammable possessions, can calmly sit down in the mids of the most violent thunder storms and feel perfectly sure that if he has taken the proper recautions againsi lightning, his effects are per 'ly and thoroughly secure against all barn We will construct the copper rod and put it upon uildings for thirty-five cents per foot with points insulators, &c., complete. Insurance con panies make a reasonal le allowance when the copper rod s put up to buildings,
