

Virginia Free Press.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

BY GALLAHER & CO.

NO. 39.

Clarke Coach Factory,
BERRVILLE, Clarke County,
Virginia.

Our subscribers, thankful to the public for the very liberal patronage they have received, will continue to receive their weekly paper at $1.00 per copy.

Coach Factory,

In Berryville, manufacturing and repairing

all sorts of Carriages.

By the purchase of the Steam Saw Mill, we have facilities for the manufacture of timber products.

SPOKES & FELLS

for our use, but also for Carriage Makers in Baltimore and Philadelphia. We can now manufacture any article in our factory.

We will supply the best Establishments of the kind in the three principal cities of substantial, cheaply and easily perfected articles to be used in the carriage business.

Owing to the constant changes and improvements going on, we have constant communicating with the best Establishments of the Eastern Cities, and are in a position to furnish, gratis to all who like to purchase Carriages.

DRAWINGS, executed in the best manner, on the latest styles and improvements.

PATENTS WHEEL

We have a large number of valuable Patents

that have been issued for the various articles in the carriage business.

The Patent Wheel is only half of the ordinary weight, while it has more strength, simplicity, durability and more than any that has ever before been invented. It will be exhibited in our factory in any convenient place.

The first Coach Makers in the United States have been using it and have no other for the last three years.

Wherever it has been introduced it has been a decided success.

It is needless to mention some of the first names in the United States engaged in this business, such as Clapp, Becker and others who have legally obtained the Patent. The patent will remain indefinitely.

N. B. We are all persons against infringement upon the Patent Wheel, secured in its entire

by the County of Richmond.

RICHMOND & STOLLER, Jr.

Oct. 13, 1860.

TO THE

Farmers of Virginia.

MR. JAMES HIGGINS, formerly the STATE

AGRICULTURAL CHEMIST, of MAR-

LAND, has recently established

HIGGINS' AGRICULTURAL PHARMACEUTIC OF LIMA-

NE, prepared from the best materials, and worthiness under his direction. Also,

Higgins' Par-Manipulated Goods,

composed of the best Farm and the best Manufactured Goods, and manipulated by experienced men.

The results of his work are well known.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office. This is really incorrect. During my term of office I never had an opportunity to offer him a salary.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

He has been offered a salary considerably

above the average of my office.

VIRGINIA FREE PRESS AND FARMERS' REPOSITORY.

Virginia Free Press.
BY GALLAHER & CO.
CHARLESTOWN,
THURSDAY MORNING,
REPT. MARCH 27, 1860.

OUR PLATFORM.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE
UNITED STATES.

The Enforcement of the Law's

FOR PRESIDENT,
JOHN BELL,

OF TENNESSEE;

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
EDWARD EVERETT,

OF MASSACHUSETTS.

BELLECTOR.

Delegates
1. H. CHANDLER, of Norfolk City.
2. THOMAS H. EPPES, of Newbury.
3. THOMAS BRUCE, of Baltimore.
4. JOHN T. THORNTON, of W. Edward.
5. JAMES D. MILLER, of Belletor.
6. MARMADUKE JOHNSON, Richmond.
7. LEMUEL S. BOWMAN, of Washington.
8. JOSEPH CHRISTIAN, of Middlebury.
9. JAMES W. COOPER, of Belletor.
10. ANDREW KENNEDY, of Jefferson.
11. FRANCIS T. ANDERSON, Rockbridge.
12. W. R. STAPLES, of Montgomery.
13. J. JACKSON, Jr., of Ward.
14. A. B. CALDWELL, of Ohio.

BIRDS OF EVERY FEATHER.

The Democrats have caught another rashless Whig bird, Mr. Willoughby Newton, who in 1844 gave his associates more than ordinary trouble by his celebrated letter, in which he declared that they had "got their wings to catch birds of every feather." He was turned out of Congress by the present Senator Hunter, who found out the strong side, and ever since that time Mr. Newton has been preening up extreme doctrinaries. Now he is on the Democratic tack, and it appears he will be winging and applauding his friends, but he will find no "catch birds of every feather." He was turned out of Congress by the present Senator Hunter, who found out the strong side, and ever since that time Mr. Newton has been preening up extreme doctrinaries. Now he is on the Democratic tack, and it appears he will be winging and applauding his friends, but he will find no "catch birds of every feather." He was turned out of Congress by the present Senator Hunter, who found out the strong side, and ever since that time Mr. Newton has been preening up extreme doctrinaries. Now he is on the Democratic tack, and it appears he will be winging and applauding his friends, but he will find no "catch birds of every feather."

At the meeting of the Administration Green's contradiction is kept in the background and so is Douglas's own denial, published during the session of Congress. Don't let it be forgotten that the Administration-Yankee-Breckinridges are obliged to refer to "Black Republican" testimony—

—As the power of the Administration—

—which was unquestionably the largest political gathering held in this County since the memorable campaigns of 1840 and '44, was called to order by Annawh. E. Kennedy, the Elector for this District, and the following gentlemen nominated as officers of the day:

DR. WM. F. ALEXANDER,
President.

ROBERT CROW,
John A. THOMPSON,
WILLIAM McCARTY,
HINMAN SUTTERSON.

Vice Presidents.

The President came forward in a brief speech welcomed the audience. His remarks were well timed and eloquent and were warmly applauded—especially when he addressed the ladies—Who were present in large numbers. God bless them! Their hearts are in our cause, and their prayers go to Heaven for our success, and the safety of our glorious Union.

The Hon. A. H. STUART, of Augusta, was then introduced to the people, who warmly greeted his appearance. He spoke for about two hours, giving a view of the present condition of parties, and earnestly entreating men of all parties to lay aside party prejudices, and party ties, and rally as a band of brothers in behalf of our common country. We cannot pretend to give a report of his speech, but content ourselves by saying that it was in Stuarts best style—eloquent and great.

At the conclusion of this speech, LAWSON BOTTA offered the following resolution, accompanying his motion by an eloquent, enthusiastic speech:

Resolved.—That, regarding social confederacy, we do hereby disown the administration of JOHN BELL & EDWARD EVERETT, and, in our Union and national councils and in our State, will endeavor to the common good of the people, for and without regard to geographical, social, and political, and, necessarily, endorse their cause.

If it was admitted that these doctrinaries were "not distasteful to the Convention," who can deny that it was made up principally of disunionists. In a little while these people will be ranked with the Hartford Convention Disunionists. Nobody will further with them.

THE UNION PLUMPTER.

It is stated in a Tennessee paper that Col. Wm. H. Folk, Douglas's elector, is ready to prove, by a telegraphic dispatch, that Breckinridge and Lane were nominated by the Richmond Secession Convention "one hour before they received the nomination at Baltimore" by the Seceders there. This clearly shows that there was an understanding first to disrupt the Democratic party—not to elect Lincoln—and thus have an excuse for breaking up the Union. What sort of "National Democracy" is it that now claims the suffrages of the South? The mere followers of Rhett, Yancey, Keist, Orr, Boyce, and others, all of whom favor disunion in a contingency which they are laboring hard to bring about. Amos Kendall, the old Jackson Democrat, is out in a letter which lays bare the designs of the disunionists. They are claiming a power (the says) of the highest federal character, beyond any ever recognized by the sound statesmen of this country.

FUGITIVE IN NEW YORK.

The Union mass meeting, held in the city of New York on Monday evening week, adopted an Electoral ticket which it is supposed will be acceptable to all the anti-slavery men of the State, and hopes are now entertained that the State will be carried by the friends of the Union. James T. Brady, on the Breckinridge ticket for Governor, is placed on the Union ticket as an aspirant for the State at large, and six electors are put on who are friendly to Breckinridge. If this fusion should be carried out in good faith, and with the energy which occasion demands, Lincoln cannot be President, though his friends boast that he will beat all combinations. They base their hopes on the labors of the Breckinridge party, who are creating division in the Democratic ranks every where, and are the weakest of all the com-parties.

THE TRUE INNITI.

In one of Mr. Bell's latest speeches, we have the following patriotic sentiment: In which all good men must concur:

"Let power to whatever bands it may, let us save the Union. I trust the day will come when the South will be compelled to call a council of its states, and then we will see if the South is well or ill. I would trust her ill, if she had not these solid grounds for title of their rights, but I would then make them as questionable issues in all respects, up to a right on abstract questions, but to always what is just and right upon all questions."

Clip from the New York Herald of Friday, Sept. 14th.

NEWS FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITOL.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13, 1860.

"Where are the Corvus and Patent offices? —Very great importance is made of these offices by the public writers, and in the delivery of the Corvus and Patent Office reports. Why this is very mysterious. As the work is being paid for on delivery, it is manifestly the interest of all parties to hurry it up. Manufacturers write daily to House officers, ordering goods which cannot be supplied."

THE INDIAN CHIEF.

This fine company, under command of Capt. J. W. Howan, appeared on Wednesday week in their new uniform—one of the handsomest of the day. The uniforms were from the fashionable establishment of Mr. James T. Cowley, of this town, who received the praise of all present for the neat and beautiful manner in which the uniforms were gotten up. The taste displayed in this instance by Mr. C. places him as one of the most accomplished men of his profession, and it affords us great pleasure in making this statement.

BLACK REPUBLICAN SENTIMENT.

The Breckinridges for a while made quite a stir about the "Corvus Report," until they found that it was largely made up of the minority report of Warren Winslow, Democratic, and that much of the damaging testimony against the administration was brought out in the cross-examination of witnesses by Winslow. They could not get over the fact that Wendell, the government plater, had spent thousands and tens of thousands of dollars in carrying the Pennsylvania election in 1850, and had been taxed largely to support certain news-papers in Philadelphia.

But as soon as a charge was made against Douglas of a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was quite good enough then, but they omitted to state that Greeley himself, who had been charged by Mr. Kellogg with harboring a disposition to sell himself to the Republicans, the whole of the Breckinridge supporters joined in the cry, and produced Corvus and other "Black Republicans," such as Kellogg, Trumbull, Blaine and others, to prove their assertions. This testimony was

